Fine Grove Mentions.

J. C. Harper Esq., one of the legal lights of Bellefonte, was seen on our streets, last week saying how-do to his old time friends.
Mr. J. W. Kepler, associate editor of National Democrat, is brightening the sick chamber of his father whose condition is but little improved. That prince of good fellows Aaron C. Kepler, of Lancaster, is also with him and delights in reaching forth a helping hand in a way that shows there is a heart in it.
Mr. Samuel Bailey, one of the leading modcos, brought down two fine deer on the first day of the season. Sam is always ahead.
Next.
Mrs. Goheen, of Kansas, is the guest of Mrs. Michael Hess and is visiting Centre county friends.
Mrs. John B. Meek and daughter of Washington, C., and Mrs. Senator Meek and daughter spent last week pleasantly along the banks of the rippling waters of Fairbrook, sharing the hospitality of D. G. Meek and wife.
John P. Krebs well known to the WATCHMAN readers has been in delicate health from a complication of diseases, coupled with heart trouble is improving slowly and we hope surely.

Little Florence Kepler, daughter Jacob M. Kepler, had her arm broken recently by being killed by one of the family. Dr. Woods adjusted the break under which she bears up remarkably for one so young.

Mr. O. B. Krebs was the loser of a valuable cow, a few days ago, choking on a small apple. J. H. Lytle lost his cow in the same way. This is another warning against allowing cattle access to the orchard, as little or no benefit is in feeding on sour apples.

The long looked for, and much needed, rain came at last as very many of the early seeded grain fields were suffering on account of it.

H. M. Stover and family are now residents of Bellefonte, Blair county, where we hope the duets will roll in plentifully.

The death of the venerable John Kostaborder occurred at his home in this township, on the 2nd inst. at 2 o'clock, p. m. of paralysis. Aged 69 years, seven months, 28 days. About three years ago he had a partial attack, within the last year he had several more so that he became as helpless as a child, having no power of speech. He was born in Northampton county and 51 years ago came to this county. By his perseverance and industry he became the owner of a fine farm, which he leaves uncumbered to his wife, with one son, one sister, Mrs. Conrad Fry, three brothers George and Thomas Kostaborder, of this township, and Henry Kostaborder, of Wilson county, Kansas, mourn the death of a good man who had no enemies. Religiously he was a Lutheran; politically a Democrat. His remains were interred in the Galesburg cemetery followed by a large funeral cortege, on the 1st inst.

Our man of hammer and tongs, Eckley, is looking about for another piece of cloth of the same kind. Says its another Democrat, the seventh one.

J. B. Ard, Esq. bears his honors modestly and says with a broad smile, its boy, but says he wont brag—

The new house of J. I. Reed, down town, is ready for second coat of plastering and will be ready for occupancy in the spring.

That genial good fellow Jessie Piper is breaking ground for his new residence located on Main street. It is to be rushed through before flitting time as it is to be his last move, or at least for a while.

Our friends Huberling & Smith, the undertaker's and furniture firm, have dissolved partnership and we are pleased, however, to say to the public that the business will be continued at the old stand by Mr. J. R. Huberling who is well qualified and is deserving of patronage, with him the books are in his keeping.

"My mamma's got whiter teeth than your mamma," said Allie. "She ought have. She changes 'em often," retorted Maudie.

Rochester Clothing House.

The week of celebration is gone. The Firemen have had a rousing convention and the Grangers and their friends have doubtless had a great Picnic last week, but what is it in comparison with the one you are invited to up at the Rochester Clothing House, where you take your basket empty and bring it away full, while the contrary was the way at Grange Park. There are no "Piques" at the Rochester. Every exhibit is honest. The eagles on your dollars will scream for freedom when they see the counters. Come while the hour glass of bargains is still running.

Notice is hereby given, "That every person excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of the State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned office or otherwise, as a subordinate office or agent, who is or were employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State or of this State or of the United States, or of any incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or elector at an election of this Commonwealth; and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office then voted for."
