THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Tony Farrell in "My Colleen," on Saturday night.

—Embossed gold wall paper, 12cts. and upwards, at Williams;

—Mr. Thos. Mitchell had the misfortune to fall from his bicycle and dislocate his knee cap.

—John Gares, son of our chief of police, has been held, in $500 bail, for his appearance, at the Clinton county court, for wife desertion.

—G. W. Musser and John Hamilton, of this county, have been appointed delegates to the Farmers' Congress which will convene at Sedalia, Mo.,

—Ex-Governor Curtin gives a very intelligent idea of the duties of the Senate, now in special session, in an interview in Tuesday's Philadelphia Times.

—Bellefonte's favorite Mr. Tony Farrell, supported by a strong company, will present his new play, "My Colleen," at the Opera House to-morrow, Saturday evening.

—Mr. William Speer, a very pleasant young gentleman from Chambersburg, visited his uncle, Mr. Wm. F. Speer, on West High street, during the fore part of the week.

—That genial, good fellow, Jas. C. Waddle, conductor on the B. E. V. freight, came in to give us a start-off for the week, and left a few words of good advice for us all.

—There will be a special meeting of Centre county Pomona Grange, No. 13, held in Logan Grange Hall, on Tuesday the 20th of October, at one o'clock. Special business only will be transacted.

—It is getting to be a weekly duty for us to record the run-away of J. A. Harper & Co's, delivery horse. He must be kept on "Spanish Fly" from the way he went up High street on Monday morning.

—The cold weather is doing better police duty in keeping the sidewalk of the Spring Creek bridge, clear of loafers in the evening, than the officers paid for attending to matters of that kind, have been in the habit of doing.

—The editor returns thanks to Mrs. Annie Johnson, of near Zion and Mr. Bowersox, of State College, for presents of some of the nicest apples we have seen this season. They were not many in number but wonderful in size.

—Miss Laura Wright has been promoted, from her position as teacher in the North ward school, to membership in the High School corps. The vacancy caused by her promotion has been filled by the selection of Miss Basie Dorworth.

—Farmers, look out for two rascals who will try to claim estrays that you may have penned up. Be sure they are the owners before you give up the property, as two fellows are going around claiming all estrays and then undertaking to sell them.

—It is currently reported that Miss Mary McBride will erect a three story business block on her lot, corner Bishop and Allegheny streets. If her plans materialize a handsome structure will be begun in the spring and what an improvement it will be to that corner.

—Mrs. Joseph Parsons, who has been confined to her bed nearly all summer, died on Wednesday morning. Consumption was the cause of her demise and she leaves a large family of small children and a husband to mourn the loss of a tender hearted mother and faithful wife. Interment will be made to-day.

—If the Ferguson township "reader of the WATCHMAN," who wrote us on last Monday, asking if a certain kind of goods could be purchased in Bellefonte, will look over our advertising columns, he will see exactly what Bellefonte merchants have for sale. If he don't find the article he wants advertised, it is scarcely worth his while to look for it here.

—Among those who graced our sanctuary during the early part of the week were: Mr. John Batterby, of Snow Shoe; John Jackson, of Buffalo Run; A. F. Markle, State College; Samuel Hoyt, Fleming; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fisher, of Snow Shoe and Mr. Jas. Dumbleton, daughter and son, of Phillipsburg. All were pleasant and agreeable people and we will be delighted to have them return at any time.

—On Monday last the Jewish people celebrated "Yom Kippur." It is the holiest day in the Hebrew calendar, and is devoted to fasting and prayer continuously for twenty-four hours. The fasting is a symbolical representation of resistance to temptation, to indicate that the sins which have been committed in the past can be prevented in the future, and the prayer is devoted to the Maker as a preparation for atonement of errors.

Odd Fellow's Big Celebration.

The Inauguration of the New Hall Brought Crowds of People, a Number of Bands and Many Visiting Lodges. Wednesday's Great Parade.

On Wednesday, October 14th, Centre Lodge, No. 153, I. O. O. F., of this place, dedicated its new hall in the Crider building. Bellefonte had on her holiday attire and thousands of people came to see the Odd Fellow's parade and attend the inaugural services. With the early trains the crowd began to grow and by noon, when all the visiting orders had arrived, our streets were resplendent with the gay paraphernalia of the different Lodges. Everything was bright. Flags and bunting floated on the gentle October breeze. Bands were continually on the parade and it made us long to be mingling with the gay throng.

The morning was mostly taken up in getting all quartered, but shortly after noon the parade began to form as follows:

First division, J. A. Fiedler, Assistant Marshal; formed on High street, with right resting on Diamond was made up of the Pleasant Gap Band; Canton Lock Haven, No. 20, commanded by Majot W. J. McClees; Grand Island Lodge, No. 320, Lock Haven; Milroy Lodge, No. 23; Millheim Lodge, No. 955; Howard Band; Lick Run Lodge, No. 311, Howard; Luman Lodge, No. 639, Unionville; Penns Valley Lodge, No. 276, Pine Grove Mills; Boalsburg Lodge, No. 894.

Second division, J. W. Conley, Assistant Marshal; formed with right resting on North Spring street and High street in the following order: Scotia Band; Canton Altoona, No. 24; Half Moon Lodge, No. 845, Stormstown; Juniata Lodge, No. 117, Huntingdon; Port Matilda Lodge, No. 733; Snow Shoe Lodge, No. 226.

Third division, H. K. Hoy, Assistant Marshal; formed with right resting on South Spring and High streets in the order as follows: Milesburg Band; Bald Eagle Lodge, No. 410, Milesburg; Karthaus Lodge, No. 925; Centre Hall Lodge, No. 895; Zion Band; Centre Lodge, No. 153, Bellefonte; Carriages with Odd Fellows; Carriages with Grand Officers.

The column moved promptly at 1.45 p. m., over the following route: from Diamond North on Allegheny street to Linn street; East on Linn to the residence of C. M. Bower, Esq., and counter-march to Spring street; thence by Spring to Bishop; Bishop to Ridge, and counter-march to Allegheny street; Allegheny to High; West on High to Thomas, and counter-march to Diamond and dismiss. All along the line the different Lodges elicited rounds of applause, especially the Altoona and Clearfield commanderies, for their fine marching and handsome appearance. When the end of the route was reached the parade was dismissed and the inaugural ceremonies commenced.

The new home of Centre Lodge takes up the entire third floor of the handsome Crider building, on the Diamond; and is a marvel of convenience and comfort. The rooms are all beautifully furnished and were the source of universal admiration. Everything was arranged to the pink of nicety and when the dedicatory services began the harmonious colorings and commodious surroundings added greatly to the impressiveness of the ceremony. Everything passed off without a hitch, and the success of the proceedings bespeaks much for those who had them in charge. In the evening a meeting was held in the Opera House and Mayor Reeder made an address of welcome, after which the address of Past Grand Sire, J. B. Nicholson, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, was heard. It was a very entertaining and eloquent talk and the large audience seemed highly delighted. In behalf of Centre Lodge D. F. Fortney, Esq., made the response to the address of welcome. The Bellefonte orchestra furnished excellent music for both meetings.

It was one of the biggest and most interesting days that Bellefonte has had for some time and the Odd Fellows, with their visiting brethren, are to be congratulated on the very favorable impression they made upon Bellefonte's citizens.

PRESIDENT DILL RELEASED ON BAIL.—The bank excitement throughout the Phillipsburg-Clearfield region has about abated and nothing more of importance will be known until after the hearing, which will be given Dill to-day, in Altoona. Last Friday the hearing, in Clearfield, took place in the parlor of the jail and was partly private, no one being present but those interested. The United States commissioner required bail in $40,000 for Dill's appearance before him at Altoona to-day. This bail was promptly furnished by Asbury W. Lee, James Mitchell, D. R. Fullerton and Alex. Patton. Dill was then taken before Judge Krebs on a writ of habeas corpus and released on $21,500 bail for his appearance at court.

—White back wall paper, from Gets to 10cts per bolt, at Williams;

—"My Colleen" at the Opera House to-morrow night. Good singing and dancing. Go see it.

—On Tuesday, Oct. 20th, Eitelbert Dudley Wardfield, L. L. D., will be inaugurated president of Lafayette College.

—Jacob Bartsches, of Green Barr, Lycoming county, was attacked by five wolves one evening last week. He had been out visiting a neighbor and when he was returning home the wolves got after him. One was clubbed to death and then the other four turned tail.

—Mr. Hoover, senior partner of the enterprising firm of Hoover & Emerick, the Benore merchants, brought an Apple into the WATCHMAN office, on Tuesday morning, which weighs 20 ounces and measures fourteen and one-half inches around. It is the largest one we have seen this season and grew on a tree belonging to Mr. Love.

—Mr. Bird, formerly a citizen of Bellefonte, made his appearance here yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, after an absence of thirteen years. And where do you think he has been? Not in Palestine, nor Constantinople, or the Sandwich Islands, nor San Francisco nor Portland, but over in the almighty and everlasting town of Aaronsburg, along with Jim. Coburn and other eminent and disgusted Republicans! Think of a Bird whose song has been sung for thirteen years away from his native nest and only 25 miles distant.

—We are pleased to learn that Frank Lukenbach has been tendered, and has accepted, the position of teller in the Meshannon bank, of Phillipsburg. For a long time he had been connected with the Wm. F. Reynolds & Co bank of this place, but in the spring he left that concern to take charge of the Brokerhoff Bros' books and has been identified with their wholesale grocery ever since. The bank could not have made a wiser choice than it did, and we feel confident that Frank will more than please his employers. He left Bellefonte on Wednesday and assumed the duties of his new position yesterday. Success to you, and may your record in Phillipsburg be as enviable as it has been here.

A HIGH NOON WEDDING.—There is always a minor strain of sadness in the ceremony that bids a winsome maiden lay aside her robes of chaste virginity to assume the responsibilities of wifehood. So often the bark launched under such auspicious Fates is wrecked on "Lifes tossing sea."

The most charming of our early fall weddings was that which took place at noon, of Wednesday, in St. John's Episcopal church, when Miss Mary Morris and Mr. H. S. Cooper were united in marriage according to the impressive ritual of that church; Mr. Benton, the newly elected rector officiating. Long before noon the many friends of Miss Morris and Mr. Cooper had filled every seat in the church, the beautiful interior of which was rendered "altogether lovely" by the wreathes of smilax and bouquets of exquisite roses. At half past eleven the sweet tones of the pipe organ, under the fingers of the skilful organist, Miss Bradley, began and the sweet music delighted the ears of the waiting people until twelve o'clock, when it changed to an accompaniment of the Bridal chorus, from "Lohengrin," as sung by the chorister boys, who proceeded the bridal party up the aisle. Following these came the ushers, Messrs. Swoope, of Bellefonte, Beaton, of Tyrone, Woolerton, of West Chester and Fredericks, of Williamsport, dressed in the regular three-buttoned cutaway coats, lavender trousers and carrying their gloves and hats in the left hand, all forming a fitting introduction for the bride who came last leaning on the arm of her father. Robbed in a gown of white corded silk, perfectly plain with a square train, her veil of tulle caught by a small spray of orange blossoms and bearing in her hand her prayer book bound in white enamel.

"Adorned,
She was indeed, and lovely, to attract
Thy love."

The party were met at the altar by the groom and best man, Mr. Joe Montgomery. During the ceremony the low strains of the organ added impressiveness to its solemnity and when the words had been spoken that joined the pair in holy wedlock, they burst forth in Mendelssohn's grand wedding march. A breakfast was served at the bride's home to the bridal party and a few intimate friends.

The groom formerly had charge of the electric light plant in our town, but is now a resident of Winston, North Carolina, to which place he started with his attractive bride on the afternoon train. Bellefonte has given to Mr. Cooper one of her fairest daughters and we can only hope with Dryden that

"Thou shalt secure her happy sex from harms,
And she thy cares will sweeten with her charms."

Y. M. C. A. RE-ORGANIZED.—The Y. M. C. Association of our town has been in a deplorable condition for several years and an undertaking, to infuse new life into the organization which has been about all summer, was wound up, by the Business Men's Carnival, a few weeks since. The association was encumbered with a $700 debt, which it seemed unable to liquidate, and its every movement was hampered by the claims of its creditors, until at last the Sheriff closed the rooms for a claim against the gymnasium. Popular subscription paid it, and the Hastings' lecture turned a snug sum into the treasury for further liquidation; while the carnival increased the pile by $430. This was all that was needed, the debts have all been paid—or will be within a few days—and once more the home of the christian young men, and their friends, is free. On Friday night, last, the members met to select officers for the ensuing year—surely it must have been a meeting of thanksgiving—and the following were chosen: President—J. W. Gephart, Esq., Vice President—A. Lukenbach, Treasurer—G. Wash. Reese, Secretary—Frank Bassett, Board of Directors—D. S. Keller, Albert Lucas, W. S. Zeller, Chas. F. Cook, Edwin F. Garman, J. C. Weaver, J. K. Barnhart and F. P. Green.

The following committees have been elected to carry on the Association work for the ensuing year:

Finance—Chas. F. Cook, chairman, D. S. Keller, D. M. Lieb, John Olewine, Darins Waite and James J. Gramley.

Membership—Dr. Chas. Rhone, chairman, Jas. C. Noll, Albert Schad, Edward Kane, Robert McKnight and Joseph D. Mitchell.

Devotional—Jas. B. Strohm, chairman, N. S. Bailey, Albert B. Lucas and Willis Sholl.

Reception—James L. Laurie, chairman, B. C. Achenbach, John S. Walker, James Rine and Edward F. Garman. Gymnasium—G. W. Rees' chairman, George T. Bush, Malcolm Laurie, Robert F. Hunter, Samuel Leving and H. C. Quigley.

Entertainment—G. R. Meek, chairman, Ed. K. Rhoads, Harry Keller, Jas. R. Hughes and Wm. S. Furst.

Ladies Auxiliary—Miss Mary Blanchard, chairman, Misses Katherine Harris, Mary S. Thomas, Lula Meek, Mary H. Linn, Florence Houck, Ida Gerberich, Bernice Moore, Caroline Orvis and Carrie Shirk.

Music—A. Lukenbach, chairman, Jacob Smith, Charles Cruse, Hardman P. Harris, J. A. Fiedler and P. D. Waddle.

Employment—F. Potts Green, chairman, H. C. Valentine, L. T. Munson and W. C. Crissman.

Prison Services—Edward McGinness, chairman, Calvin Ray, James Rine and James R. Hughes.

Out-of-Town Services—J. C. Weaver, James H. Potter, Francis Speer, R. R. Voris and S. Spigelmyer.

Mr. Will Chambers has charge of the rooms and once more they present a cheerful and attractive appearance to the passerby. The Gymnasium will be opened soon and the prospects of a winter's good work are excellent.

A NEW BANK FOR PHILLIPSBURG.—A movement is on foot among a number of our prominent people to establish a Citizens National Bank. It is designed that no one shall hold more than $1,000 worth of stock in the concern, and that it shall be distinctly a citizens banking institution. A canvass this morning, occupying not more than two hours' time, secured the promise of one-fourth of the amount of capital stock that will be required; and those having the project in charge are most sanguine of their ability to raise the balance with very little difficulty. As soon as this is done a meeting of the stockholders will be called, the necessary directors chosen and all the requirements of the national banking laws carried into effect.

If the premises of the suspended Phillipsburg banking company can be secured the new institution will likely occupy the same. No better rooms and no better site could be desired. If the arrangements in behalf of the new bank mature as rapidly as the promoters anticipate, it is expected that the new institution will be ready for business within sixty days.—Monday's Journal.

MAKING BELLEFONTE STREETS.—At the last meeting of the borough council a new street was opened, and by way of making it known as a Bellefonte thoroughfare it was named Wilson street; in honor, we understand, of the late Wm. P. Wilson. The custom of naming the streets after persons who have been the town's benefactors is indeed a commendable one, and one which we would be sorry to see fall into disuse, but we are unable to understand why our borough fathers have so long forgotten to perpetuate the name of the late Hon. D. G. Bush. 'Tis true that the most beautiful building in our town has been erected in his memory and, besides, many other stands as monuments of the work of this public spirited man, yet it is strange that the council has never honored a street with the name of that one who, in his time, did more for the well of Bellefonte than any man she has ever claimed as resident.

—Don't fail to see "My Colleen" to-morrow evening. A fine Irish comedy drama by a capable company.

—The finest and largest line of Foreign and Domestic woollens for suitings and overcoats ever shown by us. Full assortment of Ready Made clothing Hats, Caps, and Furnishing Goods. MONTGOMERY & Co. Tailors.

—W. P. Duncan, Esq., has been appointed assignee for the defunct Phillipsburg Banking Company. A bond of $600,000 will be required.

—19 new buggies, 5 second hand, and one 2nd hand spring wagon for sale at bottom prices by McQuiston & Co.

—Among our many callers on Wednesday was Mr. T. R. Bridges, of Lock Haven, who, with Mr. S. R. Buck, came in to brighten our sanctum for a few moments.

—If you want furniture cheap, E. Brown, Jr.'s is the place to get it.

—Sleepy old Clearfield is having her share of excitement now, and since she has been awakened up she has decided that her streets need paving. Contractors are now at work on the principle business thoroughfare.

—If you are in need of a buggy, go to McQuiston & Co. the only manufacturers in Bellefonte who ever served time at the business.

—It is the general belief that George Dixon, a man arrested in Toledo, Ohio, one day last week, is Henry Creswell the man who is wanted for helping William B. Hamilton to embezzle $60,000 from the Houtzdale bank several months ago.

—Fine gold wall paper, from Gets to 20cts at Williams;

—Brother Goodlander, of the Clearfield Republican, was in town on Wednesday and honored us with a call. He is a member of the fine looking Clearfield Lodge of I. O. O. F. which elicited so much applause in the parade.

—E. Brown, Jr., wants you to see his stock at his store on Bishop street.

—The death of Mrs. Susan Fogle, which occurred at the residence of her brother Mr. H. D. Yergler, on north Spring street, on Tuesday afternoon, removes from the community a much esteemed woman. At one time she was matron of the poor house, but ill health compelled her to give up her position, and since then she has lived with Mr. Yergler's family. Interment was made yesterday afternoon.

—We have the largest stock of home made buggies in the county and at the lowest figures for the grade of work. McQuiston & Co.

—We had the honor of a call from Editor Joe W. Furey, of the Lock Haven Democrat, on Wednesday. He came up to see that the Odd Fellows did every thing right, and shook hands with his hosts of friends in town. He doesn't look a day older than he did when he used to delight Centre county people with his bright sayings through the columns of the WATCHMAN, and he is as pleasant and versatile as ever.

—Novelties in furniture and wall paper are the order of the day at E. Brown, Jr.'s on Bishop street.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S FIGHT.—During the afternoon, on Wednesday, officers Gares and Haines arrested Jim Delige, a drunken negro, who was making things unpleasant for the crowds watching the I. O. O. F. parade, up town. Another fellow, named Grimes, interfered, and then Ollie Miller pulled him away. Delige was copped and the thing rested until about half past nine in the evening, when Frank Miller, one of the colored fellows who belongs to Delige's crowd, went into Garman's Hotel and tried to pick a fight out of Ollie Miller, because he had helped the policemen during the afternoon. Frank became so abusive and foul that Frank Williams, one of the employees of the Electric Light Co., knocked him down three or four times. The alarm of "fight" was soon spread and quicker than flash a whole army of negroes burst into the hotel, dragging Williams out and kicking him frightfully. Grimes was the leader of the gang and he was arrested and taken off to the lock-up, but the fight went on without him. The whole mob was on Williams. After he had been kicked insensible they ran and he was carried into the parlor of the hotel where his wounds were dressed.

It has since turned out that the whole thing was a cooked up job to whip Ollie Miller because he had interfered in the Delige arrest, and Frank Miller was to watch his chances to get up a fight and then the whole crowd was to be on hands for the melee. A wholesale arrest of the "ooms" was made yesterday morning and Post Master Fiedler bailed them all for court. Its getting near election—Don't you see? Williams the man who was so badly used up is about again, but pretty sore after going through such a mill. Another incident of the fight was that Joe Mahew came pretty near putting Jim Schofield's light out.

HANDSOME PROGRAMMES.—We have just received a full and beautiful line of dance cards, programmes, menus, etc., which we will be pleased to show you if you call. We invite the special attention of those desiring work of this sort to our exceptional facilities for turning out artistic work at astonishingly low prices.

—McQuiston & Co. is where you get just what you are told you are getting, so that is the place to get your buggies. No old buggies sold for new ones.

ITS GETTING TO BE THE RAGE.—Some time in June we recorded a romantic marriage, which was solemnized, on the top of the Tussey, or Seven, Mountains; two young Centre county couples being the contracting parties. Now it is a Huntingdon county youth and maid who, having become completely enamored of each other despite the protests of the parents, fled to the mountains and were married. The party stood on a deserted coal hearth and Rev. H. F. Long, of Marklesburg, tied the knot. Two youngsters, who were concealed in the bushes near by, gave the party a serenade.

—Wall paper in every shade and pattern at E. Brown, Jr.'s on Bishop street.

A DESPERATE ASSAULT.—Tuesday night, of last week, William Powley, conductor in charge of a freight train with cabin 90,487, was standing on top of a box car as the train was running a short distance west of Lewistown, when some unknown person, presumably a tramp, approached unobserved and dealt him a terrible blow that knocked him off the train. His assailant then dismounted and, running back, robbed the prostrate man of about $22. Although Powley escaped being run over, yet he was severely injured by the fall, and it was found necessary to remove him to his home in Harrisburg. The police have hopes of capturing his would-be murderer.

—Brown back wall paper, at 3cts and 4cts per bolt, at Williams;

WHY SHOULDN'T YOU?—If you need a Monument or a Tombstone buy it this fall at A. M. Motz's Marble Yard. It will pay you as he has a very large stock on hand that he will sell now much cheaper than next spring. Call and see for yourselves and you will not regret it. You will not need to buy unless you wish to. 39-3t
