

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Sufficient snow fell at Curwensville, on last Tuesday, to make hunting by tracks possible.

Mr. Robert Hoy, of near Lehigh, died at her home on Friday morning. Deceased was the wife of Benjamin Hoy and was about forty-two years of age.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Geo. H. Goddard, Fairview, Clinton county, and Hattie M. Van Gorden, Mt. Eagle.

BLEED TO DEATH FROM HIS GEMS.—The Greensburg Argus says: Within the past two weeks Latrobe physicians were called with a strange malady which baffled their skill and finally resulted in the death, last Thursday evening, of Logan, a twelve-year-old son of John Weppler, from hemorrhage of the lungs.

There is a very large crop of apples in Centre county. If the farmers or dealers of our county had made an effort in due time, the surplus could have been sold at fair prices in the western part of this State, or in Ohio.

One difficulty in the way has been to secure the barrels in which to ship the apples, Messrs. McCalmont & Co., have been making barrels for barreling line.

They have not the capacity to furnish all of the barrels required. Messrs. McCalmont & Co., inform us that barrels can be had in Pittsburgh, which will cost in carload lots of two hundred and seventy-five barrels, thirty-five cents per barrel delivered at any station in Centre county.

A TRIBUTE TO HALF MOON VALLEY: We clip the following from the Curwensville Review, and while we are pleased to know that the writer was so favorably impressed with what he saw in Centre county, we must nevertheless sympathize with the gentleman whom he threatens with another visit.

The editor and family rambled around in Half Moon Valley, Centre county, over Sunday last, stopping with Mr. Jack Thompson, at Stormstown, a little town nestled down in the centre of one of the richest valleys in that county.

The accusation of attempted bribery made by Mr. La Follette, former Republican member of Congress from Wisconsin, against Senator Sawyer, of this State, has a certain Pennsylvania interest growing out of related circumstances.

ZION CHURCH DEDICATED.—Sunday Nov. 1st the beautiful Reformed church, at Zion, was opened and dedicated with impressive services, conducted by Rev. Kridler Evans, of Pottstown, who more than thirty years ago kept watch over the flock at Zion, and the present pastor, Rev. Miles O. Noll, to whose energy and ability the congregation is largely indebted for the successful completion of the house of God.

Four thousand dollars was the first subscription; but as the members were to erect a building that would not only be creditably ornamental to their town, work was suspended until sufficient means could be collected to justify them in contracting for the present brick structure, which is of modern architecture with many gables covered with slate.

A Long Strike Ended. PITTSBURGH, November 3.—The long strike of coal miners of the Pittsburgh district for an advance of ten cents per ton is over and the 12,000 men, who have been idle for three months, will return to work at the operators' terms.

A Sensational Rumor. LONDON, November 3.—A private dispatch received from Valparaiso says that the American cruiser Baltimore is in serious danger. The dispatch states that there is reason to believe that the Chilean, believing war inevitable, will not allow the United States to select its own time to declare war, but will suddenly give Minister Egan his passports, and at once attack the Baltimore, so as to have the first blow at advantage.

Russia's Herring Torture. A Returned Siberian Prisoner Describes the Awful Cruelties Inflicted by Officials.

The half of the Siberian tortures remain unknown, simply because the few unfortunate deportees that return have not the courage to tell all that has happened to them. However, one more bold has arrived in London and gives a description how he was treated. The prisoner is shut up in a warm room, where his only food is salted herrings.

It is generally in the night that the interrogations are made, in a brilliantly lighted hall. The officers—or, rather, the executioners—are seated at a table, and have before them fruit, wine and the most refreshing drinks.

The Torture of Tantalus. The dreadful herring torture is so ancient every principle of civilization that one can scarcely think the thing possible in Europe, in the nineteenth century, under the government of an emperor who is called "a pacific, kind-hearted man!"

An Interesting Case. The accusation of attempted bribery made by Mr. La Follette, former Republican member of Congress from Wisconsin, against Senator Sawyer, of this State, has a certain Pennsylvania interest growing out of related circumstances.

GRAIN RECEIPTS AT DULUTH. DULUTH, Minn., November 2.—The grain receipts for this year, up to the end of October amount to 24,870,000 bushels, against 9,747,999 bushels for the corresponding time last year.

How Our Marines Were Treated in Chili.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary Tracy this afternoon received a dispatch from a Captain Schley, dated yesterday: "Pony Officer Johnson, in whose arms Rigger was killed, declares that the act was done by the police guard. Apprentice Williams reports that he was arrested by a mounted policeman, who placed caught nippers around his wrist and started his horse into a gallop, throwing him down. After that the policeman walked his horse. Commander McWilliams was arrested and taken to prison with caught nippers around his wrist and a lass around his neck. He was bit ten in the arm after his arrest."

"Cal Heaver Quigley, while trying to effect his escape from a mob, was struck with a sword by police officer. Apprentice Talbot was arrested, caught nippers were placed around his wrists, and on his way to the prison he was struck repeatedly by the police. Officer Hanson, dangerously wounded and one of my people trying to make him comfortable, was threatened with the butt-end of a musket and made to desert."

My men in prison were examined secretly, although I sent an officer to the court to request authority to allow his presence. The request was denied in account of the proceedings being secret. Two of our men were dangerously wounded and fifteen slightly injured. Surgeons believe the wounded are out of danger."

In Memoriam. Through Gods providence our family circle has been broken, by the death of a kind, devoted father, Mr. Valentine Reese, of Uniontown, who has passed away and gone into the world beyond, having attained the ripe age of 72 years 5 months and 24 days, born and raised in Bellefonte.

Famished Russian Peasants Unable to Crawl to the Distributing Points. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—A harrowing story comes from the Province of Samara. The peasants are so reduced by starvation and want that many of them are unable to go even to the Government distributing points for supplying food.

Mrs. Parnell Sinking. DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—In spite of the constant attendance of her physicians it is feared that Mrs. Parnell, the widow of Charles Stewart Parnell, may not survive the prostration and sickness caused by the shock she experienced at her husband's death.
