Cost of Living in Mexico. It is very High, But Money is made Easily.

I asked a young American dentist in San Luis Potosi, a city of 100,000 people in the north central part of Mexico—a rich farming country—what it costs to live in Mexico.

The young dentist lives very nicely. Like all his kind in Mexico, he is making money and he is saving enough to make him rich within the next ten or fifteen years. Said he: "I keep a close account of my expenses and I figure it costs me just about $117 a month. My living costs me for table expenses $2 a day, or $50 a month. I pay $25 a month for my house and I have three servants, who average $4 a month apiece. Here every respectable fellow has to have a cook, man and a chambermaid. In addition to the wages of the servants I have to give them so much a day for food. Each of them expects six cents every morning for tortillas or corn-cakes which constitute the bread of the common people. Then every week I have to give six cents extra to them for soap. This is the custom and they want the money and not the soap. I once bought twenty-five pounds of soap and paid to do it out to them, but they wouldn't take it. Washing and ironing are never done in the house in Mexico. There are public washerwomen, who pound and rub the clothes to pieces after wetting them with cold water, which they get from public tanks or ditches. They wear out the clothes in one-third the time that they would be destroyed by Chinamen and I pay them $5 a month for doing it. My butter costs me seventy-five cents a pound, my milk seven cents a day, and I pay about six cents a day on the average for charcoal.

An ordinary hand-me-down suit costs from $20 to $30. Underclothing is very expensive. Calico costs 18 cents a yard. A very ordinary silk necktie sells for $2. Linen cuffs are 50 cents a pair and collars three for $1. My wife's dresses cost up, I can tell you, and a man has got to make a good lot of money in Mexico in order to live as well as he does at home.

"I suppose you make it," said he. "Yes, I do," was the reply, "and any American dentist who will come here and stay can do likewise. I made $5,000 the first year and I have done considerably better right along since that time. I can charge bigger prices I get from $100 to $150 for a full set of teeth on rubber. Whenever I administer I charge $10 to pull a tooth, and when a number are pulled I charge $10 for the first tooth and $5 for all succeeding ones. For jerking out a tooth without gas I charge $2. Fillings range from $5 upward, and gold fillings cost from $15 up to the hundreds, according to the size of the cavity and the size of the cavity and the size of the bank account of the man who has his teeth filled. I always get $500 for making a set of teeth on gold, and all other business is done in proportionate rates."

There are about 700 Americans living in Mexico City. Some of them are very wealthy. A few of them, and quite a number have rented establishments. Thomas Brauniff, who was born on Staten Island, is said to have an income of over $100,000 a year. He is President of the Mexican railway which runs to Vera Cruz, and he has a big plantation cotton factories, and is one of the leading owners of the bank of London and Mexico, which is the biggest bank in the country. He is building a house which will cost $100,000 on the Paseo, a fashionable drive in Mexico City. He is the richest American. He owns some old mines near Toluca, and he has one of the most comfortable homes in the capital. He tells me that living is high in Mexico and that his expenses there are about as big as they would be at Washington.

Military Training. It Has Physical Advantages That Are of the Greatest Benefit.

In casting about we find no better physical advantage to be gained than those derived from the military exercise which young men undergo in the military service. Camping out in summer in well selected camps gives them an outdoor life which is a much needed change from the indoor life led throughout the long winters, during which so much vitiated air is breathed in crowded places of business and ill-ventilated sleeping apartments. Marching is the most rational exercise for the legs; the manual of arms always inspires healthy chests and well developed arms, and moving at the double-quick improves the breathing power of the lungs. Unlike the athletics in college there is here no over training, which so injures the subjects by excess, and no breaking down after training has ceased. The marching and drilling under competent instructors improves the gait of the recruit and gives him a firmer, easier step and a more graceful carriage.

Military service has many advantages mentally. It cultivates intelligence among young men and does much toward improving the memory and curing absent-mindedness. The necessity of being alert, listening for each word of command and acting promptly upon it, quickens the wits and cultivates the habit of fixing the attention and concentrating the thoughts. Marching to the sound of music gives a young man a better idea of measure and rhythm and is calculated to make him more methodical in all things. His entering upon the duties of a soldier leads him to study military history, which embodies the chief history of nations. The hardest lesson to be learned in life is that of amenability to discipline. In a land like this, where there is very little restraint among young or old, where self-abnegation is but little heard of, and where the race of life is pretty much a "go as you please," there is scarcely any school in which subordination and obedience are taught except in the military service.

Hog cholera in Ontario, Can. Canada is begging for immigrants. Old Crisis is still doing business in Brazil.

Hungry Russian peasants are becoming brigands. Kansas has a school marm whose name is Gossip.

The water famine in New York is becoming alarming. Four business blocks burned at Buffalo, S. D. Loss $75,000.

The destruction of the Baltimore and Valparaiso is officially denied. Kansas City has a freight car famine and can't handle all the wheat.

San Diego, Cal., will ship 100 tons of honey to New York by steamer. Rain is pretty general through the West and the long drought is broken.

Versailles, Mo., claims a vein of coal 80 feet thick, the thickest vein on earth. Duluth firemen are fighting a blaze in an iron pile of coal on the docks.

Santa Barbara has a live pelican which measures eight feet from tip to tip. Both the Sommerfelds, the Berlin bankers who attempted suicide, are dead.

It costs $2 to talk three minutes over the telephone wires between London and Paris. President Diaz, of Mexico, has issued orders prohibiting summary punishment.

The United States training ship Mongongahela has arrived at Port Mahon, Spain. A Shelbyville, Ind., man is eating dog meat as a cure for consumption and likes it.

The president has appointed Peter Scandella United States consul at Ciudad, Bolivia. All the government navy yards are busy getting the boats in trim for Winter weather.

Nevada, Mo., has a citizen named De Spair, and with that name he got married recently. The remains of Helen Hunt Jackson, the famous poetess, have been removed from Cheyenne Mountain to Evergreen cemetery, Colorado Springs.

There are extraordinary cases of softening among the colored people of Chile nearly 500 persons, according to the last census, being returned as over 100 years of age. Two Irish families in County Cork tried to settle a long-standing dispute over the title to a piece of property. Five are dying and several more were seriously hurt.

The Burmese, Karens, Hengese and Ghans have no coined money, lead and silver in bullion being the ordinary tender in trade, weight and purity being the standard of value.

In the Yakima district, Wash., a woman has started the development of a mine. She has just bought a complete sawmill outfit for cutting timber necessary in the operations.

A Vermont farmer picks the apple seeds from his cider presses and sells them for use in the manufacture of prussic acid. He gets about one bushel of seeds from 140 bushels of apples.

The Carthaginians were the first to introduce a stamped leather currency. Leather coins with a silver nail driven through the center were issued in France by King John the Good in 1306.

A French beekeeper has experimented with his bees as carriers of despatches. One difficulty of the bee service is that the insects will not return over a distance of more than two or three miles.

Twelve thousand silk worms when newly hatched scarcely weigh one-quarter of an ounce, yet in the course of their life, which lasts only about 35 days, they will consume between 300 and 400 pounds of leaves.

When two young people are married in Sulphur Springs, Tex., most of the residents club together and buy for them useful presents, such as bedroom furniture, tableware, and kitchen utensils, the value ranging from $100 to $1,000.

It is reported that the plains of Tulare, Cal., are covered with bald-headed rabbits, parties having scalped the poor creatures in order to obtain the bounty and then turned them loose to replenish the earth that the scalp supply may not fail.

A Port Huron, Mich., diver will endeavor to recover the treasure that went down in the Pawabic, in Lake Huron, 25 years ago. Sixty feet is about as far down as a diver can work with safety, but this one will work in 106 feet of water.

During a single year 500,000,000 mail packages passed through the Chicago postoffices, in addition to 27,000 tons of mail matter transferred from one train to another. The inspector in charge has under his jurisdiction 10,000 postmasters and their employees.

One of the largest poultry farms in the vicinity of New York City is managed by two young women, who, only three years ago, were pupils in Dr. West's Seminary for young women, on the heights in Brooklyn. The farm is located near Baldwin, Long Island.

The Queen of Holland, who is only ten years of age, has a little farm near the royal palace on which everything has been planted and cultivated by herself. In a small drawing room she entertains her numerous dolls, and in a small kitchen she makes dainty tarts.

The water in the lakes and streams of western Connecticut is so low that many mills have stopped running and others have had to return to steam power. Cider mills, however, are in active operation, and if the threatened water famine comes the farmers will be the gainers.

One tanning extract mill at Callam Bay, Wash., supplies the sixty odd tanneries on the Pacific coast. The belt of hemlock there is the most compact in the country. In making the extract the hemlock bark is ground to a powder and soaked in hot water for a day. The liquid is afterward boiled in a vacuum pan.

How They Write.

Edith Thomas writes each of her dainty sonnets in a clear, beautiful hand in the middle of a sheet of heavy cream white paper. Andrew Lang's hand is just as pleasing as his verse—the hand of a gentleman and a scholar. Twenty years ago, R. H. Stoddard, the poet, wrote the prettiest and daintiest of hands, and even long days and nights of labor, though his hand-writing has grown more illegible with age and failing eyesight, have not robbed it of all charm. Sarah Orne Jewett, a most conscientious literary worker, who seldom uses the typewriter, writes her delightful stories of New England life in a clear, round hand upon light weight but strong paper of small size.

"Despise not the day of small things," as the tiny pill (taken from a vial Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets) said to the 300-pound man, suffering from indigestion. As a gentle, thorough laxative, these Pellets resemble Nature more closely in their action than anything before discovered. Business and professional men, whose habits are sedentary, need something of this kind to ward off sick headache, biliousness and dyspepsia, but which will not strain and rack the digestive organs and die the old-fashioned pills 25 cents per vial, at all druggists.

Saddlery.

SCHOFIELD'S NEW HARNESS HOUSE.

We extend a most cordial invitation to our patrons and the public, in general, to witness one of the ever put on the Bellefonte market, which will be made in the large room, formerly occupied by Harper Bros., on Spring Street. It has been added to my factory and will be used exclusively for the sale of harness, being the first exclusive showroom ever used in this town, as heretofore the custom has been to sell goods in the room in which they were made. This elegant room has been fitted and furnished with glass cases in which the harness can be nicely displayed and still kept away from heat and dust. The best material of long wear in leather. Our factory now occupies No. 100, 167 1/2 feet and the store 2000 added makes it the largest establishment of its kind outside of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. We are prepared to offer better bargains in the future than we have done in the past and we want everyone to see our goods and get prices for you do this, out of self defense you will buy. Our profits are not large, but by selling lots of goods we can afford to live in Bellefonte. We are not indulging in idle philanthropy. It is purely business. We are not making much, but trade is growing and that is what we are interested in now. Profits will take care of themselves. When other harness makers discharged their workmen during the winter they were all put to work in my factory, nevertheless the big (2) houses of this city and country would smile if we compared ourselves to them, but we do not mean to be so odious, except to venture the assertion that none of them can say, as we can say "NO ONE OWES US A CENT THAT WE CAN'T GET." This is the whole story.

The following are kept constantly on hand. 50 SETS OF LIGHT HARNESS, prices from $8.00 to $15.00 and upwards. LARGE SETS OF HEAVY HARNESS, from $25.00 and upwards. 600 HORSE COLLARS from $1.50 to $5.00 each. OVER $100 worth of HARNESS OILS and AXLE GREASE, $4.00 worth of Fly Nets sold cheap. $1.50 worth of Whips from 15c to $1.00 each. Horse Brushes, Curry Combs. Sponges, Chamois, and other goods. SADDLES, LADY SIDESADDLES. Harness Soap, Knee Dusters, at low prices. Saddlery-hardware always on hand for sale. Harness Leather as low as 25c per pound. We keep everything to be found in a FIRST CLASS HARNESS STORE—no changing over 20 years in the same room. No two shops in the same town to catch trade—NO SELLING OUT for the want of trade or prices. Four harness-makers at steady work this winter. This is our idea of protection to labor, when other harness makers discharged their hands, they soon found work with us.
