Origin of "Uncle Sam."

Troy Times. At the beginning of this century the slaughtering of cattle and the packing of beef for the New York, Boston and Philadelphia market was pursued as a business by Ebenezer and Samuel Wilson, two brothers from Mason, N. H., who had settled at Troy in 1789. At their two large slaughter houses they frequently killed 1,000 head of cattle weekly for shipment to the three cities.

When the war of 1812-15 began their beef and pork were in great demand, and not a few army contractors gave them large orders for the delivery of these meats packed in barrels at certain places where the army of the North was encamped.

From time to time their contracts stipulated for the delivery of the provisions at the camp at Greenbush, where, among other recruits, were a number from Troy.

The soldiers from Troy, seeing the barrels of meat marked with the letters "U. S." by the government inspectors, denominated them as "Uncle Sam's," meaning that Samuel Wilson, whom they frequently called "Uncle Sam," was the person from whom the meat had been purchased.

The other soldiers, assuming that the term "Uncle Sam" was applied to the letters U. S. stamped on the barrels, began using the appellation "Uncle Sam" figuratively for the United States government.

From that time the designation "Uncle Sam" for the letters U. S. grew into popular acceptance and has ever since been as familiarly known as that of "John Bull" for the English nation.

The B. & O. South-western Limited.

On November 20th, the B. & O. R. R. placed in service on its South-western Limited Express train running to Cincinnati and St. Louis an entirely new equipment, built expressly for this train by the famous Pullman Company. The new cars embrace all the features that have rendered the Royal Blue Line trains so universally popular, and include the safety vestibule, steam heat, Pintsch gas light, and anti-telescoping device, and convenient toilet accessories for men and women. The Royal Blue Line train leaving Philadelphia at 11.35 a. m. makes direct connection with the South-western Limited at Baltimore, where coach passengers change cars. The sleeping cars run through from New York and Philadelphia to Cincinnati and St. Louis without change, arriving at Cincinnati next morning at 7.45 and St. Louis next evening at 6.25.

The Mistletoe of Pagan Origin.

The mistletoe is looked upon as the Christmas plant. A great many people believe that the distinction is owing to the fact that it blossoms in some countries at this time of the year. Such belief is founded on fiction. The mistletoe has been an emblem of Christianity almost since the time of Christ. It first came into use as such under the reign of Pope Gregory I, who sent some missionaries to Albion (now England) to spread Christianity among the Druids. Some years afterwards a pilgrimage Christianized Druid visited the Papal city bringing mistletoe branches and throwing them at the feet of Gregory as an evidence of their renunciation of Druidism. It will thus be seen that the mistletoe was first the emblem of Druid-paganism.

Said About Christmas.

A warm Christmas, a cold Easter. A light Christmas, a heavy sheaf. A green Christmas, a white Easter. A green Christmas makes a fat graveyard. A wind on Christmas day, trees will bring much fruit. At Christmas finds a bridge, he'll break it; if he finds none he'll make one. If ice will bear a man before Christmas, it will not bear a man afterward. The shepherd would rather see his wife enter the stable on Christmas day than the sun. If the sun shines through the apple-tree on Christmas day, there will be an abundant crop the following year.

An Old Joke in a New Guise.

Doegs-Did you see your girl? Doegs-Should say no! Thought you had arranged to elope? Thought so too. What's the matter? M-I her yesterday you know? Yes. Said she'd have a sign at her window. I went last night at 12 o'clock - Girl at window? No girl. See sign? Saw sign. What was it? Small melon. Watermelon? No, cantaloupe.

A Fight Between Giants.

Both desperate, both determine! The King of Medicines in contest with the King of Maladies! Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery against "Consumption!" It is not the struggle of a day, but the first blows are the fatal blows! In its early stages, Consumption (which is Lung scrofula) will yield to this great Remedy! This has been proven beyond a doubt by innumerable successes! Acting directly upon the blood, its scope includes all scrofulous affections, Liver and Lung diseases. As a blood purifier and vitalizer, it stands unequalled.

"I suppose you are getting up a surprise for Maud's Christmas, Chappie?"

"Yes, Maud will be a fully surprised. I'm not going to send her a thing."

The Great Northwest.

The States of Montana and Washington are very fully described in two folders issued by the Northern Pacific Railroad, entitled "Golden Montana" and "Fruitful Washington." The folders contain good county maps of the states named, and information in reference to climate, lands, resources, and other subjects of interest to capitalists, business men or settlers. Holders of second class tickets to North Pacific Coast points, via Northern Pacific Railroad, are allowed the privilege of stopping over at Spokane, Washington, and points west thereof, for the purpose of examining all sections of this magnificent state before locating. Northern Pacific through express trains carry free colonist sleeping cars from St. Paul, and Pullman tourist sleepers from Chicago (via Wisconsin Central Line) to Montana and Pacific Coast points daily.

California tourists, and travelers to Montana and the North Pacific Coast, can purchase round trip excursion tickets at rates which amount to but little more than the ordinary way fare. Choice of routes is allowed on these tickets, which are good for three or six months, according to destination, and permit of stopovers. The elegant equipment on the Northern Pacific Railroad; the dinner car service; the through first class sleeping cars from Chicago (via both Wisconsin Central Line and C. M. & St. P. Ry.) to Pacific Coast points, and the most magnificent scenery of seven states, are among the advantages and attractions offered to travelers by this line.

The "Wonderland" book issued by the Northern Pacific Railroad describes the country between the Great Lakes and Pacific Ocean, with maps and illustrations. For any of the above publications, and rates, maps, time tables, write to any General or District Passenger Agent, or Chas. S. Fee, G. P. & T. A., N. P. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

Christmas Slippers.

Devoted Wife-Have you any embroidered Christmas slippers? Dealer-Plenty of them. You wish hand-worked, I presume? "Yes, I want a pair that will look as though it took all summer to do them."

"Yes, Madam, we have that kind; they make a man almost weep when he thinks of the days and weeks and months of silent labor all for him!"

"Well, here is my husband's measure. Don't send any bill except for the soles. Charge him a few dollars extra for his next pair of boots."

-SAY, MISTER!-Is it possible you are suffering from catarrh, and have not used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy? All the terrible consequences of catarrh in the head may be averted if you will but make the effort! You know too well, its distressing symptoms! You possibly know, if neglected, it invariably goes from bad to worse, and is likely to run into consumption and end in the grave! Here is a way of escape: Its makers are willing to take all the risk, and make a standing offer of $500 for an incurable case of this loathsome and dangerous disease. You can get $500, or better-a cure!

"And what did you get in your stocking this morning, Johnny?" asked the district visitor. "Me fut," replied Johnny tersely and gloomily.
