The Great Northwest.

The States of Montana and Washington are very fully described in two folders issued by the Northern Pacific Railroad, entitled "Golden Montana" and "Fruitful Washington." The folders contain good county maps of the states named, and information in reference to climate, lands, resources, and other subjects of interest to capitalists, business men or settlers.

Holder of second class tickets to North Pacific Coast points, via Northern Pacific Railroad, are allowed the privilege of stopping over at Spokane, Washington, and points west thereof for the purpose of examining all sections of this magnificent state before locating.

Northern Pacific through express trains carry free colorist sleeping cars from St. Paul, and Pullman tourist sleepers from Chicago (via Wisconsin Central Line) to Montana and Pacific Coast points daily.

California tourists, and travelers to Montana and the North Pacific Coast, can purchase round trip excursion tickets at rates which amount to but little more than the one way fare. Choice of routes is allowed on these tickets, which are good for three or six months, according to destination, and permit of stop-overs.

The elegant equipment on the Northern Pacific Railroad; the dinner car service; the through first class sleeping cars from Chicago (via both Wisconsin Central Line and C. M. & St. P. Ry.) to Pacific Coast points, and the most magnificent scenery of seven states, are among the advantages and attractions offered to travelers by this line.

The "Wanderer" book issued by the Northern Pacific Railroad describes the country between the Great Lakes and Pacific Ocean, with maps and illustrations.

Feminine Book-Keeping.

The Little Women Must Well, But the Cash was Missing.

From the Chicago Tribune. She decided that the only way to run a house economically was to keep a set of books, so she made the necessary purchases, including a bottle of red ink, and started in.

It was a month later that her husband asked how she was getting along.

"Splendidly," she replied.

"The system is a success, then?"

"Yes, indeed. Why I'm $68 a head already."

"Sixty-eight dollars!" he exclaimed.

"Heavens! You'll be rich before long. Have you started a bank account?"

"No; not yet."

"What have you done with the money?"

"Oh, I haven't got the money, you know. That's only what the books show. But just think of being $68 ahead."

"Um, yes; but I don't exactly see—"

"Why, don't the books show it?"

"Of course; but the money! What has become of that?"

"I don't exactly know," she said doubtfully. "I've been thinking of that and I think we must have been robbed. That's the only way I can explain it. What do you think we had better do about it?"

He puffed his pipe in solemn silence for a moment and then suggested:

"We might stop keeping books. That's easier than complaining to the people."

Sauerkraut for Dyspepsia.

From the Soranzen Tribune.

The ridicule by the New York Advertiser of Dr. Heller, of Vienna, who prescribed sauerkraut for dyspepsia, is misplaced. Neither is its satire of that physician's alleged "important discovery" warranted. Physicians for very good reasons have often recommended their patients to eat sauerkraut and to drink the liquor squeezed from it for their ailments. The vegetable acid extracted by the salt with which the sauerkraut is preserved has frequently been used with benefit in cases of dyspepsia caused by a lack of acid in the gastric secretions. Dyspepsia is caused by the ineffectiveness of the dissolving by fluid in the stomach. The latter may contain too much acid or too much alkali. Usually it is the latter, and then sauerkraut will prove beneficial.

I cheer, I help, I strengthen, I aid, I gladden the heart of man and I, I set constipation's captive free, And all are better for taking me.

This spoke one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are pills that speak for themselves. Very small, very nice to take, produce no nausea or griping, yet are most effectual in all cases of constipation, bilious or sick headache, or deranged liver. Only 25 cents a vital at druggists. A perfect vest-pocket medicine.

Fifty-two times the shuttle has flown, in each flight weaving a week with a golden border of Sabbath. Three hundred and sixty-five times the clock has struck twelve for the noon, and only one less time twelve for the night. In that time, how many marriage garlands have been twisted, how many graves dug, how many sorrows suffered, how many fortunes won, how many souls lost, how many mortals saved!—Talmage.

"Mrs. Frank Leslie said she would not give up editorial direction for all the men in the world, and she likes the men too."

A Grateful Mother.

Her son's Loathsome Disease Removed.—Boy Only Twelve Years Old.—Chronic Catarrh—Great Discharge From Nose and Throat.—All's Well That Ends Well.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Dec. 4, 1891. The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: It is with great pleasure that I write of the benefit derived from your remedy, Peruna. My little boy, about twelve years old, has always been troubled with catarrh very bad several years, and I had great fears of his going into consumption. He had a bad cough that I could not check and his head was in a terrible condition. His head discharged so much for years that it was a charge on my mind to keep him supplied with handkerchiefs. I had to use every rag I could get at hand. It was astonishing how he could discharge so much from his nose. I commenced to give him Peruna about a month ago, and the discharge from his head is entirely stopped and also his cough. He does not have to use a handkerchief at all. The Peruna seems to act like magic in his case. I feel as if I can not find words to express my gratitude for the medicine; but I do regret that I never tried it before. I thought there was no cure for him, and had given up trying to have him cured; but when I saw the disease so thoroughly explained in the paper by Dr. Hartman I thought I would try his medicine. I never will be without Peruna in the house, and I will recommend it to all my friends.

Very sincerely yours, Mrs. A. E. ACKERMAN, E. Grand Ave., Chippewa Falls, Wis.

PERUNA AS A FAMILY MEDICINE.

Used according to the direction, Peruna will secure the family against catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia, pleurisy, bronchitis and consumption. It is a fact of ever-increasing astonishment that so many otherwise sensible and provident people will, for the neglect of so simple a precaution as to have a bottle of Peruna at hand, bring upon themselves the needless suffering and foolish expense that a professional man is forced to witness every day.

A cold in the head, which a single bottle of Peruna will cure, soon becomes a case of chronic catarrh, which will require many bottles to entirely cure. A sore throat, which one bottle of Peruna will cure, soon becomes chronic pharyngitis or enlarged tonsils, which will require many bottles. A slight cough, which, without a vestige of doubt, would soon disappear with the use of Peruna, becomes chronic bronchitis, which require a persistent use of Peruna for some time. Every practicing physician sees many cases of consumption each year due directly to a neglect of coughs, colds, etc., which, if Peruna had been kept in the house and used according to directions, would have been prevented.

In no other department of domestic arrangements is there such stupendous disregard of the welfare of the family as in guarding against the common ills of life by the use of effective and reliable remedies. If the following advice could reach every household in the land, and with such eloquence as to win obedience it would convey a blessing to each of a value that would be difficult to exaggerate. The advice is this: Get a bottle of Peruna, read the instructions on the bottle until they are thoroughly understood, do exactly as they direct, and no catarrh, cold, cough, sore throat, bronchitis, pleurisy, pneumonia, or any other climatic disease will disturb the peace of the household so long as this is continued. To have this remedy at hand before the attack comes, to be intelligent as to its use, is only the most common foresight used in all other departments of ordinary business.

Send to the Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio, for a free pamphlet on the treatment of Catarrh, La Grippe, Coughs, Colds, Consumption, and all other climatic diseases of winter.

The B. & O. South-western Limited.

On November 20th, the B. & O. R. R. placed in service on its South-western Limited Express train running to Cincinnati and St. Louis an entirely new equipment, built expressly for this train by the famous Pullman Company. The new cars embrace all the features that have rendered the Royal Blue Line trains so universally popular, and include the safety vestibule, steam heat, Pintsch gas light, and anti-telescopio device, and convenient toilet accessories for the use of women. The Royal Blue Line train leaves Philadelphia at 11.35 a. m., makes direct connection with the South-western Limited at Baltimore, where coach passengers change cars. The sleeping cars run through from New York and Philadelphia to Cincinnati and St. Louis without change, arriving at Cincinnati next morning at 7.45 and St. Louis next evening at 6.25.

Real merit is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is manifested every day in the remarkable cures this medicine accomplishes. Druggists say: "When we sell a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to a new customer we are sure to see him back in a few weeks afterwards,—proving that the good results from a trial bottle warrant continuing its use. This positive merit Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses by virtue of the peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process used in its preparation, and by it will convey a blessing to each of a value that would be difficult to exaggerate. Hood's Sarsaparilla is thus Peculiar to Itself and absolutely unequalled in its power as a blood purifier, and as a tonic for building up the weak and weary and giving nerve strength.

A Distinction With a Difference.

That the quietest and meekest looking witnesses can some times give a Roland for an Oliver many an examining counsel has found to his cost. A witness, an elderly Quaker gentleman, had a habit of making plentiful use of the word "also" in his replies. At length the young barrister in whose hands he was, apparently wishing to show his smartness to the jury, asked sneeringly whether "likewise" would not do as well.

"No," replied the Quaker, with prompt wit: "the difference is this: There are some lawyers with talents most brilliant. Now, thou art a lawyer young friend, 'also' but surely not 'likewise.'"—London Tid-Bits.

Chocolate cookies are thus made: Beat the whites of two eggs to a stiff froth, and stir gently into them the following ingredients, which have been mixed by sifting: Two ounces grated chocolate, four ounces powdered sugar, one ounce flour. Drop the mixture by the teaspoon on buttered pans or paper, and bake slowly for about twenty minutes in a rather cool oven. Sift with powdered sugar while warm.

ENOUGH TO MAKE HIM CROSS.—Spats (to his grocer)—You seem angry, Mr. Peck.

Peck—I am. The inspector of weights and measures has just been in.

"Ha, ha! He caught you giving fifteen ounces to the pound, did he?"

"No, I've been giving seventeen."

Medical.

DYSPEPSIA.

INTENSE SUFFERING FOR 8 YEARS—RESTORED TO PERFECT HEALTH.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart.

NAUSEA AND INDIGESTION I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, fits of melancholia and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA has been found of great benefit. It costs but little to try it, and it may do you a great deal of good. Be sure to get Hood's.
