

Pine Grove Mentions.

Capt. J. M. Kasper's health is rapidly improving. Mr. Joseph Ward and John Ripka and wife are sick of grip. The venerable William Sausserman and George Ard are ill. Mrs. Nancy Thomas is suffering, in her ripe old age, with bronchial trouble. Our young friend George Hoy is slowly recovering from Pleuro pneumonia. Mr. Walker, mother of Sheriff Walker, is slowly recovering from her recent illness. Mrs. H. M. Beck, of Altoona, is visiting her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keichline, who are both ailing. Mr. Charles Wright, one of our big farmers, lost two young horses last week from pneumonia, superinduced by influenza. A musical convention is dated for Fairbrook, M. E. Church, next week, where all lovers of music expect to have a good time. An appreciated holiday gift, was a very elegant sleigh role, to a most zealous and hard working pastor, Rev. C. T. Aikens. By a band of faithful co-workers in his Fine Hall congregation. Centre Grange, 252 P. of H., will hold a public meeting in Academy Hall on the evening of the 27th. To which every body is invited. A number of State Grange officers have consented to be present to discuss agricultural interests. Our ex-bachelor friend, Ed Moore, has with in the last few months, fallen an easy victim to the wiles of a splendid lady who is some eight years his junior. To her we extend our hand in sympathy and would whisper in her ear that this admittance "never argue a question with Ed." No woman has ever yet got the last word with him. With the last day of 1891 Edward and Miss Maggie Swartz received the credentials, requisite to make them man and wife, and immediately presented themselves before Dr. Laurie who performed the ceremony of holy wedlock. Mr. Moore is well known here and, under the parental tutelage of ex-Treasurer John B. Mitchell, is a most energetic and industrious man. His help mate will do her part in making his home one of happiness and peace. The newly married couple immediately entered upon their domestic duties at the old J. B. Mitchell residence, where they spent their honeymoon both victims of grip. On account of their illness the callthumpians have been sadly disappointed. Just as the funeral cortege of the late Samuel Mess emerged from the church, at 12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, the sad news of the death of Mr. Jonathan Musser, which had just occurred, was received. The announcement caused universal sorrow in the hearts of our people and hosts of friends in other parts of the county. The deceased was prostrated with a severe attack of pleurisy, a few days ago, and from the very first his recovery was entertained. Inexorable death, coming, all too soon, silently stole in upon him and called him from his family and friends. Then there fell upon the household a sudden gloom for one had died who, for long years, had been the joy of those around him. One who possessed a noble and generous spirit, and had a kindly feeling toward everybody. It can be truly said he had no enemies. In his demise the church has lost a faithful member and the community a most worthy citizen. He leaves behind a wife and eleven children, six sons and five daughters. All of whom are about grown up. In their sad bereavement they have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. The funeral will take place this Friday, the 15th inst., at the Pine Grove Cemetery, where his remains will be laid to rest until the coming of Him in whom he had his trust.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Samina Gross, whose death occurred on the 2nd inst., was a daughter of Mr. George Hoesel, formerly a resident of Union county, but for years has been a resident of this county. The deceased was married a little over a year ago, to J. Wesley Gross, who has been employed as a mine Superintendent in the coal regions, in the vicinity of Shamokin, Northumberland county, where they have resided since their marriage. On Christmas she is company with her husband, paid their first visit to their Centre county friends, since their removal to Shamokin. On the morning of the 28th, they departed for their home, stopping over at the home of the husband's parents, at Forest Hill, Union Co., to remain a few days. It was there that she was taken sick and died early in the afternoon. The deceased was left without a mother when quite young, after which she had made her home with her sisters until married. She confessed her faith in her Savior at an early age, and since that time has been a close adherent to all the duties pertaining to the leading of a devout Christian life. She was of an amiable disposition; pleasant in her manners, forgiving to a fault, beloved and respected by all who knew her. In her last moments she called her friends to her side and exclaimed, "All is well," and suddenly expired. Her remains were brought to Bellefonte, to the home of her sister, Mrs. Richard Lutz, from whence they were taken to Zion, where the funeral services were held in the Reformed church, conducted by Rev. Miles O. Nolly, pastor in charge, and interred in the cemetery, beside her mother who about six years ago preceded her to the pale realms of death.

School Report.

The following is the report of the Belle Hohl school, Taylor township, for the month ending Jan. 4th, 1892: Number of pupils enrolled, males 19, females 14, total 33. Those who did not miss a day were Perry, John and Daniel Sharer, Walter McMontag, Annie Nearhoof, Zillah and Annie Sharer, Hattie McMontag and Jessie Bionne. JUDIE L. ERHARD, teacher.

Reform in Congress.

The Democrats will not endorse the Republican methods, the committee on rules will discharge its full duty honorably and well, and the era of economy and statesmanship in the lower branch of Congress will be ushered in in due time under the most favorable auspices. The majority will deal justly and fairly with the minority, and even Republicans will be forced to acknowledge the value of Democratic reform.

RACKET STORE NEWS.

P. GRAY MEER, Esq. Dear Sir.—Please tell the readers of the "WATCHMAN" that during January they can find many special bargains at The Rocket. The heavy sale of December, left remnants in every department. Remnants in dry goods. Remnants in Notions. Remnants in everything and if low prices are any inducement it will pay them to look through— The moon effulgent in the sky Full many a full-gent doth espy. But says not a word, the shy old elf He knows what it is to be full himself The "Rocket" is full of genuine bargains now and the man in the moon and the rest of the people that he watches so carefully may just as well have their share of the Kuriosities.
