Another Good Old Man Gone.

Hugh Sharpe, of Milesburg, born Feb. 5th, 1817, and died Dec, 15th, 1891, aged 74 years, 10 months and 10 days.

"Uncle Hughey," as we familiarly called him, has gone to rest from his labors, we trust, yes we know that he has gone to share the joys and happiness of the just made perfect. As he was a faithful, consistent member of the M. E. church for more than fourty years, we are assured that God has called him from labor to reward, and although he has gone, we think we can almost hear the soul cheering "Amens" as he sent them up from the old church in Milesburg.

Though sad we mark the closing eyes, Of those we loved in days gone by, Yet sweet in death their latest song-We'll meet again 'Twill not be long.

A Sad Bereavement.

Again God has laid a heavy hand of affliction on a home in our village of Snow Shoe, and all the children have been taken by death within a few days. The family thus bereft is that of Mr. George Uzzle. On Tuesday the fifth inst., the disease, which has been so prevalent in our midst for some months past, entered the home where every precaution had been taken to prevent its coming, but precautions were useless, as also was the medical aid, and on Sunday the 10th the youngest child Anna May, aged twenty months and twenty-eight days succumbed to the attack of diphtheria. Her sister, one of the prettiest little girls in all the community, was suffering somewhat from the same ailment, at the time of the little one's death, this however seemed to so affect her delicate constitution that the malady made hasty and fatal inroads on her system, and on the 15th at half past nine in the morning, aged six years, one month and four days, Berenice Louis suffered the separation of the spirit from her beautiful body, which on Saturday last was laid beside her little sister's in Askey's cemetery.

Tribute of Respect.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God to re lieve from a life of pain and suffering, our comrade, Augustus H. Cox, late a member of Co., E. 45th, Pa., Vol. therefore be it Resolved, That while we bow to the will of

Him "who doeth all things" we will cherish memory of our comrade, cast the mantle of charity over the frailities to which all flesh is heir, and treasure only his good qualities .-Resolved, That in his death his family losses a kind and loving husband and father, his friends a good neighbor and his county a faithful soldier in her hour of trouble. Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased our sincere sympathy in this bitter hour of trial and humbly bow to the Healer of all sorrow. Resolved, That the Post Room be draped in mourning in honor of our deceased comrade for a period of thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Post and published in the county papers and that a copy be furnished to the family of the deceased.

Answered Their Last Roll Call.

Post 261, Dept. of Pa., G. A. R., of Milesburg has been singularly fortunate in the past few the last days of 1891, and when the year 1892 was but few days old, there came the summons which all must obey, to two of our number-With sorrow and sadness the Post, in a body' followed all that was mortal of John Barges to his final resting place, in Curtins cemetery. At the open grave, nnder charge of Commander J. A. Green, the last sad rites of the order were performed. After the interment the comrades marched away, leaving him "alone in his glory," knowing full well a good and true defender of the Republic had been laid to rest. His tent the mound of earth that will soon grow green and above it will hang the arching sky for all ages to come. He enlisted in Co. D, 45th P. V., Aug. 15, 1861, and was mustered out by reason of expiration of term of service Oct. 20, 1864. He was about 60 years of age, unmarried, but leaves an aged mother and four brothers.

Then, toc, on the 14th day of January, 1892, another of our comrades answered the roll call for the last time and joined the great silent majority-John Kays, ormerly a member of Co. A, 22nd P. V. C., was taken. The comrades of the Post, in a body, followed his remains on January 16, '92, to the new cemetery, near Milesburg, and in the soldiers' lot in that eemetery they gathered and under command performed the last rites, then marched away to the sound of the fife and drum, leaving our comrade to rest peacefully in his silent grave.

Comrade Kays was about 62 years of agehe left no nearer relatives in this section of the country than cousins; his wife died some years ago.

We publish this slight tribute of respect to our departed comrades, recognizing God's plan and while we sorrow we do not murmur, resolving to prepare for our own summons, as it may come to us just as suddenly as it came to those about whom we are writing. We therefore quote the text. "be ye also ready." The comrades were good, faithful members of the order as far as the writer's aware. Comrade Kays never missed a meeting of the Post or failed to turn out on any occasion since his connection with it.

Comrade Barges, owing to ill health and being three miles away, could not be in attendance as much as he desired. We extend our sympathy to the families of the deceased com rades. May they look to a higher power for aid in their bereavement.

We will publish the memorial in the county papers and send copies to the families of tree deceased comrades.
