The World of Women.

Although she trusts her heart to him, The maid is far from rash; The chances are extremely slim She'll trust him with her cash.

Of the 4,659 florist firms in our country, 312 are conducted by women. The employment of women in pharmacy is receiving general attention abroad.

Miss Marcia A. Douglass has a fine apiary at Shoreham, Vt. She makes a specialty of white clover honey, and ships it to order to any part of the country.

Little Queen Wilhelmina, of Holland, has an income of 600,000 guilders, or about $250,000. Her reign will begin August 13, 1898, when she will have attained the age of 18.

Dr. Kate Mitchell, the English temperance worker, who is now visiting America, says she thinks the time is not far distant when the women of England will be granted the right of suffrage.

One of the very best selling cream jugs is the tulip form. In the run of odd pieces and broken sets of china, sugar and sloop basin, ice tubs and spoon-holders of the same design, beautifully decorated, may be bought for a song.

Besides her own daughter Miss Winnie Davis, the widow of Jefferson Davis has also an adopted child, now sixteen years old. Her family name was Bessie Tiltman. The girl formerly lived at Beauvoir, Miss., but is now in a Northern school.

Ruth Cleveland was baptised at Lakewood, last week, by the Rev. Dr. William Merie Smith, of the Central Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Mrs. Cleveland is a member. Only the minister and wife and Mrs. Cleveland's aunt, Mrs. Waterall, with the servants of the household looking in at the doors, constituted the christening party in the parlor of the cottage at Lakewood when the parents brought the baby to the font, Mr. Cleveland holding little Ruth in his arms. She wore a dress of Valenciennes lace, presented for the occasion by Mrs. Chapin, and a necklace of amber beads, the gift of Mrs. Gilder.

A very pretty gown, which might be of wool, or silk or of cloth, but is in this case of plain gray silk crepon, with the inevitable bell skirt, is finished with a very full flounce of mousseline de soie. This flounce is set on with a heading and shaped to a point in front to lower points on each side and slopes back to a narrow fall in the back. This gown has a princess effect, but consists of a skirt and waist the latter in the form of a corselet which is fitted by means of a seam in front and at the back and has no darts, and is cut in deep scalloped both in the back and front. The corselet is edged with gold, which forms the only bright spot of color in the gown, for the flitch-like drapery of the waist and the full sleeves are of the mousseline, all in Quaker gray.

Everybody wore a long dress. By everybody I mean, of course, the fashionably-dressed, everybody. We are not considering anybody else. The skirts were long, longer and longest, to take the dust, or the depth of a quarter of a yard was the rule. I saw no one lift her dress skirt, and I wondered where all the patent skirt lifters were in use and not one in a store, and it occurred to me that the Street Cleaning Department must have bought them.

Forget Your Troubles in a Little Foolishness.

Why is a lover like a kernel of corn? Because he turns white when he pops.

A CAUTIOUS CHILD. "Do you love your teacher, Johnny?" "I don't. She's already got a feller six feet high." Indianapolis Journal.

Yabsley—"Does your wife ever choose your clothes for you?" Wickware—"No, she merely picks the pockets."

Brilliant and impulsive people have black eyes; or, if they don't have em, their apt to get 'em if they are too brilliant and too impulsive.

Dicer—"I want to ask you an astronomical question." Trivet—"Proceed." Dicer—"Is the dog star a sky-terrier?"

L—caught sliding down the banisters, Aunty—"Get off the banisters; you will make your clothes quite dirty." L—"Why don't you keep your house cleaner then?"

We were standing at a window, looking at the telegraph wires, when I said: "Is that God's clothes line?" He said: "No, you silly little thing. God does not wash."

"It is a pity," said an Irish laborer the other day, as he warmed his hands—"It is a pity that we can't have the cold weather in the summer, and the hot weather in the winter."

The sceptical Aunt—"What does he do, Dolly, for a living?" Dolly (greatly surprised)—"Why, Auntie, he does not have time to earn a living while we are engaged!"—Life.

Little girl, after listening to a conversation between two people: "I know what Mr. So-and-so meant by forefathers." "What?" "Why, Abram and his seed forever, of course."

Mama, recounting the adventures of the Prodigal Son. Mamma—"And so his father sent for a best coat, and told them to put it on him." Daisy—"But why didn't they put his shirt and trousers on first?"

Young Housewife—"I think we will have some eels for the first course, cook." Cook—"How much shall I get num?" Young Housewife—"Oh, about three yards will do, I should think."—Dixie's Magazine.

FREDDIE'S RIDDLE. "What does a volcano do with lava?" asked Freddy. "Give it up," replied his father. "That's right," said Freddie.—Harper's Young People.

HAD HIM SIZED UP. "Papa, why does the drum-major of a band wear that big thing on his head?" "Because the natural size of his head is not equal to the occasion, my son."—Baltimore American.

A man who wanted to be facetious with the milk man as he was measuring up his morning allowance said: "Do you charge extra for the water?" "No," replied the milkman; "the water is thrown in."

Willie (aged three, to Auntie, whose teeth had been fill with platinum: "God did not make you, Auntie." "Who did then, Willie?" "The carpenter, and he has forgotten to take the nails out of your teeth."

He—"I understood all along that the old gentleman was going to furnish the house." She—"So he will. Pa'll furnish the house, but you'll have to furnish the furniture."—Upholsterer.

HE WANTED TO GET SUNDAY. Mrs. Gazzam (as she came in from church)—"Sometimes it is very hard work to listen to Dr. Thirdy's sermons. Gazzam—That's the reason I don't go to church. I don't believe in working on Sunday."—Harper's Bazar.

NOT LOVE. "There isn't much love lost between Papa and me," said Tommy. "Why, what do you mean by saying such a thing?" cried his mamma. "We don't let it get lost," said Tommy. "We save up all there is to be had."—Harper's Young People.

An Irishman woke up one night to find a burglar in his room. The former asked the burglar what he was looking for, and received the answer: "Nothing."

"Faith!" said Pat, "and you'll find that in me whisky bottle." A CHRISTIAN SURE "They say that Deuter is an out and out infidel."

"Oh, I can't believe it." "Well, at least it is certain that he doesn't believe in a hell, and so, of course, he cannot be a Christian." "I'm sure he believes in a hell."

"What makes you so sure?" "Because I heard him tell his dresser to go there yesterday." "George—Mama, when can we have cherry pie for dinner?"

Mama—"Next Sunday if all's well." George—"Why do you say 'if all's well'?" Mama—"Oh, I only meant if I were alive to order it."

George—"If you were dead, Papa could." Katie (horrified)—"George, if Mama were dead we couldn't have cherry pie; we must have black currants."

GOOD AS A SELF-WINDER. Jeweler—Have you any self-winding watches? Jeweler—Self-winding? "Yes; something that will wind itself, you know. My wife has been pestering me for a new watch, but I know she'll never remember to wind it after the first night, and it will rust out just like the old one."

"I have nothing of that kind; but I have a patent phonographic watch that shouts 'Wind me' at the proper time every night." "That won't do. My wife'll just say: 'In a minute,' and then forget all about it. I'll tell you what we want. You fix it so that when it needs winding it will start up and whistle 'Comrades' until she attends to it."

The B. & O. South-western Limited.

On November 20th, the B. & O. R. R. placed in service on its South-western Limited Express train running to Cincinnati and St. Louis an entirely new equipment, built expressly for this train by the famous Pullman Company. The new cars embrace the features that have rendered the Royal Blue Line trains so universally popular, and include the safety vestibule, steam heat, Pintsch gas light, and anti-telescoping device, and convenient toilet accessories for men and women. The Royal Blue Line train leaving Philadelphia at 11:35 a. m. makes direct connection with the South-western Limited at Baltimore, where coach passengers change cars. The sleeping cars run through from New York and Philadelphia to Cincinnati and St. Louis without change, arriving at Cincinnati next morning at 7:45 and St. Louis next evening at 6:25.

Reform in Congress.

The Democrats will not endorse the Republican methods, the committee on rules will discharge its full duty honorably and well, and the era of economy and statesmanship in the lower branch of Congress will be ushered in in due time under the most favorable auspices. The majority will deal justly and fairly with the minority, and even Republicans will be forced to acknowledge the value of Democratic reform.

Medical.

DYSPEPSIA.

INTENSE SUFFERING FOR 8 YEARS—RESTORED TO PERFECT HEALTH. Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 102 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart."

NAUSEA AND INDIGESTION. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became nervous, sensitive and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to gain up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA has been found of great benefit. It costs but little to try, and it may do you a great deal of good. Be sure to get Hood's.
