The Girl Bachelor.

How She Secures the Luxury of an Independent Home.

Boston Letter to New Orleans Time Democrat. It is getting to be much the fashion for unmarried women now to have homes, rather than to live in hotels or boarding houses. Apartments of all kinds and at all prices are to be found, from the two rooms and bath to the homekeeping suite, but it develops the house feeling to have one's own suite, one's own furniture and arrangements. Nearly all the new apartment hotels provide small suites for one or two persons, where steam heat and hot water go with the rooms. The tenant pays for his own gas and provides for himself (or herself) furniture, service and food. The expense, of course, varies with the locality. For instance, in one of those hotels located on Copley square, the finest part of the city; a lady has a suite of two rooms and bath, with private hall and two very large closets for trunks, etc., of which the rent is five hundred a year.

Having her own books, pictures, bric-a-brac, bookcases, mirror and writing desk, she requires only furniture for the bed-room and a rug, sofa and chairs for the little salon. Window draperies and portieres were got up out of the pretty and inexpensive "serim" at 25 cents a yard—and the entire cost of furnishing was within $100. The hotel had a dining-room on the European plan, and she had also a gas stove, on which it was easy to make tea or coffee in the morning, and with cream, rolls and fruit the dainty breakfast is easily arranged. Her rooms are tasteful and charming, and the entire cost of living does not exceed $18 a week, while such a suite in a hotel on the American plan would not be less than $50 a week. It is little wonder that artists and writers are adopting this mode of life to a certain degree. Many devices can be made which conduce to good effects at small expense. For instance, in rugs, there are certain kinds of carpeting which can be selected and made into a rug with a border around it at the rate of $1 a square yard, which are infinitely prettier than a cheap rug, and infinitely cheaper in price than the really desirable and beautiful rugs.

The Great Northwest.

The States of Montana and Washington are very fully described in two folders issued by the Northern Pacific Railroad, entitled "Golden Montana" and "Fruitful Washington." The folders contain good county maps of the states named, and information in reference to climate, lands, resources, and other subjects of interest to capitalists, business men or settlers. Holders of second class tickets to North Pacific Coast points, via Northern Pacific Railroad, are allowed the privilege of stopping over at Spokane, Washington, and points west thereof, for the purpose of examining all sections of this magnificent state before locating. Northern Pacific through express trains carry free colonist sleeping cars from St. Paul, and Pullman tourist sleepers from Chicago (via Wisconsin Central Line) to Montana and Pacific Coast points daily. California tourists, and travelers to Montana and the North Pacific Coast, can purchase round trip excursion tickets at rates which amount to but little more than the one way fare. Choice of routes is allowed on these tickets, which are good for three or six months, according to destination, and permit of stop-overs. The elegant equipment on the Northern Pacific Railroad; the dinner car service; the through first class sleeping cars from Chicago (via both Wisconsin Central Line and C. M. & St. P. Ry.) to Pacific Coast points, and the magnificent scenery of seven states, are among the advantages and attractions offered to travelers by this line. The "Wonderland" book issued by the Northern Pacific Railroad describes the country between the Great Lakes and Pacific Ocean, with maps and illustrations. For any of the above publications, and rates, maps, time tables, write to any General or District Passenger Agent, or Chas. S. Fee, G. P. & T. A., N. P. R. R., St. Paul, Minn. 36 14 14

Death of Justice Bradley.

He Expired in Washington on Last Friday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Justice Bradley, of the United States supreme court, died at 6.15 o'clock this morning. Judge Bradley's death was not unexpected, as it has been known for some months past that the distinguished jurist was far from being well, an attack of the grip last spring having left him in a much debilitated condition, from which he seemed unable to rally during the summer months. His trouble began again in November, when he caught a slight cold, which, coupled with his enfeebled condition, made great inroads on his strength. It was only about a week ago, however, that his health became such as to seriously alarm his family and friends, though it was not expected that any fatal results would follow so soon as they did. Up to yesterday morning he had been perfectly conscious and his mind was clear and bright. The funeral arrangements, in accordance with Justice Bradley's wishes, will be quiet. Private services will be held at his late residence on Sunday afternoon, and the remains will be taken to Newark, N. J., where the interment will take place Monday afternoon. Joseph P. Bradley was nearly 79 years of age, having been born at Bene, New York, in 1813. His great-grandfather and grandfather served in the revolutionary war and war of 1812, respectively.

The Nation's Whisky Bill.

"Boy at the head of the class, what are we paying for liquor as a nation?" "$900,000,000 annually." "Step to the blackboard, try boy. First take a rule and measure this silver dollar. How thick is it?" "Nearly an eighth of an inch." "Well, sir, how many of them can you put in an inch?" "Between eight and nine." "Give the benefit of the doubt and call it nine. How many inches would it require to pile these $900,000,000 in?" "1000,000,000 inches." "How many feet would that be?" "83,333,333 feet." "How many rods is that?" "505,050 rods." "How many miles is that?" "1,578 miles." "1,578 miles of silver dollars, laid down, packed closely together, our national liquor bill would make. That is only one year's gross bill." Leader, if you need facts about this temperance question, mail that to a post ten men with scoop-shovels to throw away money as fast as we are wasting it for grog.—Selected.

Recipes.

- STEAMED OYSTERS.—Lay some oysters in the shell in a steamer, set over a pot of boiling water, until shells open. Serve at once with a little salt, pepper and butter.
OYSTERS ROASTED IN THE SHELL.—Wash the shells clean, and wipe dry. Put in baking pan, and set inside the stove twenty-five minutes. Serve on hot dishes, with butter, pepper and salt.
CURRED OYSTERS.—Put the liquor from a quart of oysters in a sauce pan, add half a teaspoon of butter, two tablespoonfuls of flour and one of curry powder, let boil add the oysters, and serve.
OYSTER PATES.—Stew some oysters in a little of their own liquor, add cream, butter, a little nutmeg, pepper and salt. Let cool. Have shells of puff paste, or little cases prepared, lay two or three oysters in each, and pour on the gravy.
PANNEED OYSTERS.—Put oysters in a colander to drain. Put on iron pan over the fire, let heat very hot, throw in the oyster, and shake and stir until they boil. Season with salt, pepper and butter. Dish up and serve immediately.
OYSTER PIE.—Line a deep pan with rich crust. Put in a quart of oysters, season with butter, salt, pepper and a little nutmeg. Add a well beaten egg, and half a pint of crushed cracker; pour in the oyster liquor, cover the top with crust and bake brown.
OYSTERS FLITTERS.—Chop three dozen oysters fine. Beat two eggs until light, add a cup of milk, two cupfuls of sifted flour with a little salt, beat until smooth, add a small spoonful of baking powder, and the oysters, stir, and drop by spoonful in the boiling lard. Brown on both sides.
OYSTER CHOWDER.—Take three very thin slices of salt pork, two small onions, three potatoes, and boil until nearly done. Soak three dozen crackers, put four dozen oysters in the saucepan with the pork, add a quart of milk, the crackers, a little salt and pepper, boil one minute.
OYSTERS STEW.—Put a quart of oysters in their own liquor in a saucepan, set on fire, let heat very hot, but not boil, take out the oysters, add half a pint of rich milk to the liquor, season with salt and pepper to taste, add a large tablespoonful of butter. When well heated pour over the oysters and serve.
OYSTER SERVED ON ICE.—Take a thick clear block of ice, weighing eight or ten pounds. With a red hot iron mark out a space leaving a wall of about ten inches. Melt out the centre from this. Empty out the water, and fill the space with oysters. Place on a flat dish garnish with sliced lemon and bunches of fresh parsley.
OYSTERS AND MACARONI.—Boil three ounces of macaroni, cut in pieces. Put a layer in the bottom of a baking dish then a layer of fresh raw oysters, sprinkle with salt, pepper and bits of butter, add another layer of macaroni, continue until the dish is full, sprinkle the top with grated cheese, lay over bits of butter, and bake until brown.
CREAMED OYSTERS.—Put three dozen oysters on to boil in their own liquor, as soon as they come to boil, drain. Put a pint of cream on to boil. Rub two ounces of butter and two tablespoonfuls of flour together, and add to the cream. Stir until it thickens, add the oysters, season with salt and pepper, stir and heat. Serve immediately.
FRICASSEE OF OYSTERS.—Boil a quart of oysters in their own liquor, drain. Put two ounces of butter in a frying pan, let melt, stir in flour to thicken, mix, stir until it boils, add the oysters, season with salt and cayenne pepper. Take from the fire, add the lightly beat yolks of three eggs with a tablespoonful of chopped parsley.
CREOLE DEVILED OYSTERS.—Put a layer of oysters in a shallow baking pan, spread with bread crumbs, bits of butter, mustard and vinegar, season with salt and pepper, put in the pan in alternate layers, put bread crumbs and butter on top, squeeze over a little lemon juice and bake. Yet they are often spoiled in cooking, and few cooks are familiar with the different modes of preparing them.
FRIED OYSTER.—Select fine large oysters. Drain and dry them. Dip in flour with salt. Season with salt and pepper. Dip first in grated bread crumbs then in beaten egg, let stand fifteen minutes, and roll in grated bread crumbs again, covering every part carefully. Fry in boiling grease. When brown taking up carefully, and drain on brown paper. Serve immediately.
SCALLOPED OYSTERS.—Put a layer of oysters in a baking dish, cover with a thick layer of bread crumbs (stale) spread over with bits of butter, season with pepper and salt, add another layer of oysters. Continue until the dish is full. Put bread crumbs on top. Pour over half a teaspoon each of oysters' liquor and rich milk. Bake in a quick oven for fifteen minutes, until brown. Serve immediately.

The B. & O. South-western Limited.

On November 20th, the B. & O. R. R. placed in service on its South-western Limited Express train running to Cincinnati and St. Louis an entirely new equipment, built expressly for this train by the famous Pullman Company. The new cars embrace all the features that have rendered the Royal Blue Line trains so universally popular, and include the safety vestibule, steam heat, Pintsch gas light, and anti-telescoping device, and convenient toilet accessories for men and women. The Royal Blue Line train leaving Philadelphia at 11.35 a. m. makes direct connection with the South-western Limited at Baltimore, where coach passengers change cars. The sleeping cars run through from New York and Philadelphia to Cincinnati and St. Louis without change, arriving at Cincinnati next morning at 7.45 and St. Louis next evening at 6.25.

FROM FORCE OF HABIT.—In the Sick Chamber: Sympathetic Visitor—Your husband seems much better. Anxious Wife—Yes; his chief trouble is insomnia, has been cured by a little device of mine. S. V.—What was it, dear? A. W.—I had a counterpart of our church pew made and brought in into the next room. And poor, dear John sleeps in it as peacefully and soundly as a child.

A STRONG HINT.—Old Boarder.—You don't spell soup with an "R," do you? Mrs. Shmidt.—Certainly not. Why? Old Boarder.—I thought not; I noticed there wasn't any oyster in it.

IMPORTANT!—If you cannot read this print distinctly by lamp or gaslight in the evening, at a distance of ten inches, your eyesight is failing, no matter what your age, and your eyes need help. Your sight can be improved and preserved if properly corrected. It is a wrong idea that spectacles should be dispensed with as long as possible. If they assist the vision, use them. There is no danger of seeing too well, so long as the print is not magnified; it should look natural size, but plain and distinct. Don't fail to call and have your eyes tested by King's New System, and fitted with Combination spectacles. They will correct and preserve the sight. For sale by F. C.
