

A Statement.

For the Democratic Watchman.

DEAR SIR: There have been several notices given in the county papers of the opening of the new Presbyterian church, of Milesburg which it is not necessary to repeat—only—for the sake of our generous friends, we desire to particularize more fully.

The congregation on the day of the opening was a very fair one. The collection for the benefit of the church building was $32.00. The audience room seats 300. The Acoustics is almost perfect. We have almost perfect ventilation, without raising or lowering a window. There are nine beautiful windows of Cathedral colored glass, all gifts of friends and members of the church. One in memory of J. Alexander, the founder of the old church, the gift of one of our Sabbath school classes. One in memory of Mrs. A. M. Tipton, by her sons James and Edward and her daughter Mrs. M. Meen and Mrs. F. Curtin. One in memory of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas by their son Elder W. B. Thomas, their daughter Mrs. E. Noll and niece Mrs. Pierce. One in memory of Mrs. M. P. Noll, by her son Emanuel. One the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner, whose daughter is a member of the church. One presented to W. O. Wright, by Miss Mary Develing, a young lady of Bellefonte. Two windows in the pulpit recess by Mr. B. Holmes and Mr. G. Noll, the last an elder of the church, and one, the large window facing on the Main street. 10 square feet, is the gift of the Geo. L. Potter Post No. 23 G. A. R. of this place, which alone cost nearly $140.00. Mr. Morris, of Tyrone, gave us all the line from his kilns near Bellefonte, Mr. Munson, of the Bellefonte Nail Works, gave us all the nails. Messrs. Kreamer and Green, of Milesburg, all the land. All these gratis.

The Second Presbyterian church of Altoona donated all the pews. One hundred and three churches and persons have donated for the church building proper $27.50, and our Board of church erection gave us $300.00 in all thus far $327.50, which with the donated windows makes $1625.00. Since our opening Mr. J. F. Weaver, of Clearfield, sent us $25.00, and the Rev. R. A. McKinley, of Clearfield, sent us $23.00, and the Rev. F. T. Wheeler, of the church of Ironia and Coalport. We have some, comparatively small debts, and we have to finish the tower, which is only up to the square, and we respectfully ask the churches of our Presbytery—which have not yet contributed—to help us to finish the building for dedication. The church is insured for $3000.00, and the Parsonage for $2000.00. See what the Lord hath wrought! Of the above amount the Presbyterian church of Bellefonte has given us, April 13, '91, $7.50, and January 16, '92, $7.00, and many individuals of Bellefonte have generously given us materials and sums of money to all of whom we would express our gratitude and sincere thanks.

Cordially yours,
W. O. WRIGHT.

Milesburg, Pa., Jan. 23, '92.

She Climbed the Golden Stairs.

In memory of Viola Wigham daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wigham grand daughter of Mr. A. Myerley died at Huntingdon, February 1st of membranous croup.

Dear Alle you have gone,
In the home there is a vacant chair
And the letter to grandma never finished,
Is sadness you can never repair.
You have left this world of trouble
For a brighter world above
To dwell with him that gave you,
Fare well dear Alle! Fare well!
Your smile has gone from home dear Alle
We never can see it any more,
But we hope some day to meet you
On that bright celestial shore;
Then fare well dear Alle! Farewell!
We have put away your playthings,
That you played with in childhood,
You will need them on earth no never
You have climbed the golden stairs
Then fare well dear Alle! Farewell!
M. F. W.

In Memoriam.

WHEREAS it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst, by death, our worthy and respected brother, Rob. J. Smith, in his 58th year and who has been a faithful laborer since March 17, 1835 up to the time of his death, which occurred on the 2nd of February 6, A. D. 1892. And whereas at the regular meeting held in the Grange Hall, February 6, 1892 in the death of our worthy brother, the church has lost an active and conscientious member and the community a good citizen and the Grange an earnest and consistent patron. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in his bereaved family and friends we extend our heart-felt sympathy in this their great affliction.

Resolved, That our cherishes be changed in mourning for a period of thirty days and that these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the Grange and a copy be furnished the bereaved.

M. L. RISHEL,
W. F. REARICK,
CATHARINE A. RISHEL.

The Death of Two Children.

Died near Sandy Ridge, Feb. 3, 1892, of Diphtheria, P. G. Meek, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Apoll, aged 4 years and 3 months. The remains were taken to Mount Pleasant cemetery and there laid to rest.
A seat in the family board left vacant,
A little chair left idle stand,
The spirit of a little one
Gone home to a happier land.
Feb. 4, 1892, of diphtheria, Cora the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Van Pool, aged 2 years, 11 months and 20 days, the remains were interred in Mt. Pleasant cemetery in B. E. Valley. Thus death has robbed the bereaved family of another darling. "God giveth and God taketh away blessed be the name of the Lord."
—The following letters remained uncalled for at the Bellefonte Post Office Feb. 8, 1892.
Mrs. Ida Crocker, Mr. E. Housard, A. L. Hoyle, John A. Jamison, William Joseret, Minnie Laurie.
When called for please say advertised.

In Honor of Tilden.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 9.—The banquet tendered by the Greystone club this evening in honor of Samuel J. Tilden's birthday was a grand affair. At the head of the table sat the president of the Greystone club, with Governor Boies and ex-Governor Crittenden in the place of honor upon either hand. The event of the evening was the reply to the "Democracy in 1892," by Horace Boies, governor of Iowa. When Governor Boies arose to speak he was greeted with deafening cheers and it was some time before he could proceed. He declared himself for a tariff for revenue only, and that there was no power on earth that could abolish the war tariff tax except "the democracy of 1892."

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mrs. D. S. Erb is improving, but slowly, from a threatened attack of pneumonia.
Mrs. John Campbell, of Wooster, Ohio, has for the past week been visiting her parents H. C. McCracken.
G. Y. Meek, of Tyrone spent several days this week superintending next season's work on his broad acres near Fairbrook.
Mr. J. F. Krebs, wheat different times during the winter has been ill from complication of diseases, is now improving and hopes by spring time to be well again.
A series of interesting meetings, for the past two weeks have been held in the Presbyterian church by Rev. Geo. Elliott. Rev. Hochkwal of Kishocquillas has rendered very able assistance.
A public lecture will be given in the M. E. church, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst. The object is to give some general information on a question not generally well understood by the masses in behalf of odd fellowship every one's cordially invited to attend.

We sadly learn from private source of the accidental death of Mr. Howard Yarnell, of Barree works, and formerly of this place. While crossing a bridge after night on a mis-step he fell into the river and when he was found the vital spark had fled.
On Wednesday one of our substantial farmers, Alex Harpster donned in his best duds over to Buffalo Run where his visits have been of late quite frequent and it is needless to tell the result. He and Maggie Thompson continued their journey to Bellefonte where the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Elliott, at his residence, on Linn street.

Next Thursday the spring elections will take place and on account of the complicated character of the new election law which will be in operation at next general election, in addition to the whole township ticket, the Democracy wants to be on the alert and select the best men for the various township offices which are of more vital importance to the taxpayers than a state or national election "get out the vote."

Last Saturday afternoon's mail brought the sad message of the death of Jonathan Stover! who died suddenly and unexpectedly at his first home, Altoona, at 10 o'clock Friday night, of grip. The funeral services were held in the second Lutheran church on Monday P. M. after which his remains were interred in the Oak Ridge cemetery. None among our older citizens, were better known nor more highly respected than Mr. Stover having spent sixty years of his life in our midst. For the last four years he was one of the most faithful and trusted employees of the Altoona shops.

On the same date the death of Wm McBeth of this township of disease brought on by old age died at his residence near Pine Hall. The old patriarch was a perfect type of the old resident and was never spoken of except in terms of highest respect and good will. He was born in Haines township in 1805 and at an early day moved to the farm where he resided without interruption for more than forty years. He was the oldest member of the Pine Hall Reformed Congregation to pass away. His remains were interred, on Monday, in the Pine Hall cemetery.

MATCHED AND MATED.—On Wednesday of this week the mansion home of D. M. Nidigh Esq. near Pine Hall, was well filled to witness the marriage of their daughter Minnie, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, to Mr. George Baldwin, of Penna State College, who now smiles all over his face whatever way you look at him and well he can at capturing such a prize. After the usual greetings and well wishes as a sumptuous dinner was partaken, of when the newly married couple took a round about way and did successfully evade the band of calistompians and fantasists that had organized to escort them to the train. Their honeymoon trip was east and on their return will go to house-keeping at the College where the groom is engaged as Head Gardener. Rev. A. A. Black officiated while the groom's brother and Miss Lizzie Tyson acted in the capacity of best man and maid.

The most charming and brilliant of our mid-winter weddings was that which took place at the residence of the bride's father Mr. W. B. McWilliams, at 7 o'clock on the 3rd inst, when the winsome Bell laid aside her virginity to become the wife of the gallant young man. The bride and groom were met by their attendants Mr. Arthur Gohsen and Miss Mary Coplin Geo. McWilliams and Miss Nora Woomer, Frank Clemson and Miss Eva Gray, Rev. Armandtrout officiating. The sweet tones of the piano by the artistic touch of Miss Gray rendered the duileid music thadlightened the waiting guests when suddenly it changed to the Bridal Chorus as the party appeared. The ceremony over, the congratulations were gone through with and the many valuable and useful presents examined. One of the most elegant and delicious suppers was served. The newly married couple spent a week at the National Capital and on their return on Thursday of this week were given a reception at the home of J. J. Gohsen, the groom's father, at Rock Springs. They will assume their domestic duties at Baileyville where the groom will engage in the mercantile business. Here is our ~~27~~

The Silver Question.

How Leonard Rhone the Granger Leader Speaks for his Organization in Pennsylvania.

A telegram from Washington under date of Feb. 9th, states that at the hearing before the house committee on coinage, weights and measures to-day, Leonard Rhone, of Pennsylvania, representing the legislative committee of the national grange, said that the American farmer was asking that silver be restored to the position it had occupied prior to 1873. An increased volume of money, he said, meant an enhancement of prices. The farmers had no silver or stocks to sell, but he did have farm products, which were affected not only by our policy, but by the policy of other countries. When the American farmer went with his wheat into the pool market, he obtained possibly $1.10 a bushel for it, while the India and Russian farmer realized $1.30 in silver for his wheat, thus placing the American farmer in a disadvantageous position in the foreign markets. He read the resolution of the National grange in favor of free coinage. The farmer, he added, was at the mercy of the money lender, and he wanted Congress to protect the legal tender qualifications of the money issued by the general government, so that he could not be compelled to make his payments in one form of money alone.

Banner Lye.

EVERY FAMILY.
Wastes or gives away during the year more or less kitchen grease, each pound of which can in a few minutes be converted into two pounds of the PUREST SOAP, far better than can be found on sale. The only expense for making ten pounds of grease oil, is the trifling cost of one can of BANNER LYE to be found at nearly every grocery store.
Dissolve the contents of one can of Banner Lye in three and one-half pints of cold water and pour it slowly into five and one-half pounds of lukewarm grease, stirring from the start, until it thickens into a mushy condition; then pour into any kind of mold to harden a child can make it, and full directions are to be found back of each label.

A can of BANNER LYE will do the work of twenty-one pounds of washing soda, and besides its value for scrubbing purposes, the cleaning and disinfecting of Stoves, Closets and Waste Pipes, destroying the Filth and Disease arising therefrom, makes its systematic use one of the greatest boons the house-keeper has fallen heir to.

BALTZELLS.

CARPETS date from a very remote period of antiquity and were originally employed by Oriental Nations for reclining or kneeling upon. As time passed, their uses became more extended as well as the variety of styles and the countries using them until at last from being applied to Religious and Court ceremonials, to the decorating of Fair Ladies' Bowers and for Knights and Troubadores, to rest upon, they are found in every spot upon the Globe, among civilized and half civilized people, and the humblest cot is not considered habitable without these warm, beautifying possessions. And so, from the tedious needle-work styles of Idia and Persia and the Hand looms of later days has come the grand manufactures where by machines the magnificent Wiltons, Brussels, Tapestries and humbler grades down to the simple Yarn Carpets, are turned out in incredible quantities and at prices that place them within the reach of the most unpretending.

Of the many creations, fair samples of them all will be found in our Carpet Department. To start the season we have received a few pieces of Axminster, of Royal beauty and the first ever shown in the city. The usual price for this King of Carpets in all large cities is $2.50 a yard, but we have decided upon $1.60. In richest shades of Cream White, Old Rose, Wood Browns, Gray, etc.

The World for 1892.
"The most energetic, resolute and relentless journal in America when it sets out to accomplish any great object; I can testify to its ready humanity, comprehension and persistence."
GAIL HAMILTON.

We can tell our Republican readers a secret and our Democratic friends a piece of good news:
The World intends to win and elect another Democratic President this year, as it elected Grover Cleveland in 1888.
Whether the Democratic candidate shall be Grover Cleveland, representing the cause of Tariff reform, or any one of a number of other Democratic leaders who can be elected, representing all the elements of opposition to Republicanism, the World will be foremost in its support. The next President must be a Democrat.
But while doing this the World will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print. The World never colors news: it photographs events.
The World is now printing an average of over 350,000 copies daily. It has made a net average gain of 50,000 a day during the past year. It will circulate next year, on the basis of this increase only, at least 120,000,000 copies of the ablest, strongest and best Democratic newspaper ever printed.
The World is recognized as distinctively the Newspaper of the People. It believes that to be the highest journalism which is dedicated to the public service.
The World puts heart and conscience into its work as well as brains. It is the handmaid of Justice, the unraveled mysteries, the detector and the terror of Crime, the friend of the friendless, the help of the poor, the strength of the weak. Realizing that its power comes from the People, it gives back to them freely whatever service its influence and its resources enable it to render.
With a perfect equipment, a thorough organization, capable direction and a deep determination to move on and up to higher ideals and greater achievements, the World wishes its multitude of readers a Happy New Year, and confidently bids them to expect from it during 1892 even more wonderful things than it has already accomplished. 37-5-4f.
