Bellefonte, Pa., February 19, 1892.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Jerome Harper is visiting friends in the Quaker city.

—Miss Flora Lane, of Centre Hall, is visiting Tyrone friends.

—Mr. George T. Bush is in Columbus, Ohio, attending a wheelman's meet.

Miss Birdie Noll and Miss Jennie Brown visited friends in Boalsburg last Sunday.

Miss Martha Keller will entertain her friends, this evening, with a progressive euchre party.

—Mayor Griest, of Fleming, came down to show himself off to Bellefonte friends yesterday.

—Ex-sheriff Walker and Joseph Beazer are visiting with each other in smiles. Both are boys.

—Miss Katherine Remer, of Williamsport, is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. H. Remer, on Thomas street.

—Mrs. Dr. Thompson, of Martha Furnace, is visiting at the home of Cyrus Gordon Esq., in Clearfield.

—Rev. Geo. Elliott and family will take possession of Dr. Van Tries' house, on Spring street, the first of April.

—Just ten more days and we will say good-bye to a February, the like of which, will not occur again for four years.

—If your sale bills are printed at the WATCHMAN office you will get a free advertisement in our directory and notes for your sale also.

—The WATCHMAN is under obligations to John I. Rankin, Deputy Sixth Auditor of the Treasury, for a copy of the Congressional record.

—The Woolley temperance meetings were very well attended this week. Mr. Woolley, the lecturer, succeeded in pleasing everyone.

—The members of the Lutheran church held a pleasant and profitable sociable at the residence of Mr. F. B. Stover, on High Street, last evening.

—J. H. Spotts, a prominent young farmer of Union township, was in town on Wednesday. He said the election up their way passed off very quietly.

—Mr. Rash Williams and family are back from Fremont, Nebraska, where they have lived for a number of years. We understand that they will remain permanently in Bellefonte.

—The slippery streets, on Monday and Tuesday, were the cause of two horses breaking their legs. One belonging to dairyman Jas. Curtin; the other to Morris Cowdick. Both were valuable animals.

—Rev. Chas. Schnure, whose home was in Laurelton, died of typhoid fever, in Philadelphia, last week and was brought home for burial. Deceased was a Lutheran minister well known in this county.

—The Clearfield county commissioners have offered a reward of $150 for the capture of Steve Kordiak, who shot and killed John Brown, at Aimesville, a couple weeks ago. There has been no clue to Kordiak's whereabouts as yet and the chances for capturing the fugitive are not very bright.

—The new shelving and filing racks have been placed in the vault, in the Prothonotary's office, and present a very handsome appearance. They afford about twice the amount of receptacles for papers and documents and fit so nicely to the walls of the vault that it seems like a very spacious room instead of the stuffy, crowded little place it used to be.

—Carol Monroe, the only son of Rev. Dr. D. S. Monroe, formerly pastor of the M. E. church at this place and now located at Altoona, died on Friday evening last in the Harrisburg Asylum. He will be remembered by nearly every resident of our town all of whom have shared the sorrow of his parents at the affliction left on him by a severe attack of fever. He was in his 28th year.

—Wm. Reasner, the watchman at the P. R. R. passenger station in this place, has collected and counted up 25,000 old postage stamps which he intends sending to friends in Lock Haven. They will be sold at the rate of $10 per million and the proceeds devoted to paying a church debt. William thinks the Lord will surely remember a congregation which will resort to such slow means of paying a debt.

—The late train, on Monday evening, brought Rudolph Schach home from the Johns Hopkins University hospital, in Baltimore, where he has been a patient for about a year. Rudolph entered the institution with the hope of being cured of hip disease and underwent several difficult surgical operations. We are pleased to state that a partial cure has been effected and he returns to his friends in a very much improved condition.

—Mrs. William Musser will start for Philadelphia tomorrow with her daughter Mary, who is to enter the University Hospital in hopes that a change of treatment will benefit the patient little sufferer. Mary will be remembered, was putting out a fire that some children had been playing with near her home, when her clothes took fire and, before her mother could reach her, was burned, up her back, in a blister from her knees to the base of her brain. Reaction did not set in for several days and the burned surface was so great that her life was despaired of for weeks. However eighteen months have passed since the accident and Mary is yet cheerful. During most of that time she has been in the one position for she cannot be turned on her back, which will not even bear the weight of the covers of her bed. Skin grafting has been tried several times with success; but the strain has been so great that lately every thing that love or skill could suggest were of no avail. This little girl, who is only ten years old, will take with her the good wishes of many friends, who hope that she may soon recover from her long illness that she has borne so patiently and cheerfully.

—Mr. W. C. Kepingler, who died at his store on Sunday night, was a comparative stranger to Bellefonte people although he has owned and conducted one of our principal drug stores for six years. A quiet, diffident man he seldom appeared in public, and when he did it was nearly always in the interest of some charity, for he had an exquisite tenor voice that was ever a pleasure to a music loving audience to listen to. Some time ago he visited his old home in Shepherdsdown, W. Va., and while there had a severe spell of typhoid fever from which he never fully recovered. Six weeks ago he returned to Bellefonte; but has only been able to work a few days in that time. He appeared no worse than usual 'til Sunday evening when he had a sinking spell from which he never regained consciousness. Mr. Kepingler was about 35 years old and was considered one of our best druggists. He leaves a father and two sisters in Shepherdsdown where his body was taken for interment.

—Mrs. James McMullin, of Milesburg, made a mistake the other day that came very near ending her life. Some months ago Dr. Church gave her a tonic that contained some strychnia with strict injunctions to take but a teaspoonful twice a day. Mrs. McMullin who is just home from one of the Philadelphia hospitals, where they did not give her any encouragement about her health, felt so miserable Monday that it mattered little to her what the consequence would be and took several large doses of the tonic. At once her mother noticed that something was the matter and called in Drs. Church and Hoy, who found her unconscious and suffering from strychnia poisoning, and undoubtedly it was only their prompt application of extreme remedies that saved her life.

—On last Thursday evening the four year old daughter of Michael Myers, of North Philipsburg, was burned so badly that death resulted the following afternoon. While the mother was out of the house a younger child began poking the fire and when the poker became red hot she touched it, playfully, to her sister's clothes. Immediately the little girl was enveloped in flames and ran screaming from the house. A neighbor, seeing her danger, throw a bucketful of water on her but it was too late. In a semi-conscious condition she was carried into the house and all possible efforts rendered to save her life, but in vain.

FARMING IN EUROPE.—On Thursday evening, February 26th, Hon. Jas. Schofield will delight the citizens of Nitany Valley to one of his entertaining lectures on his travels, while abroad during the past summer. Farming in Europe will be his theme for this lecture and he will conduct his audience through the intricacies of foreign agriculture with the pleasantness of a ride in an Irish jaunting car. The lecture will be delivered in the Zion Grange hall, and an admission of 25 cents will be charged, for the benefit of the Grange. Turn out and hear the discourse.

BRICA-BRAC RECEPTION.—Next Tuesday evening, February 23rd, the Y. M. C. A. will hold a brica-brac reception to which every one is invited. All who are interested in seeing this home for the young men of our town, made pleasant and attractive are cordially asked to take some article of adornment for the rooms. Any little knick-knack which will help relieve the bareness of the place will be very acceptable indeed and highly appreciated. If you have nothing to take, turn out anyway and lend your presence to the success of the event.

PRIVATE SALE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS.—Mrs. Adolph Loeb offers, at private sale, at their residence on the corner of Bishop and Spring streets, all of their household goods, until the 25 inst. Mrs. Loeb can be found at the house from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. each day.

The Spring Election

Below we give the results of the spring election, as shown by the returns filed on Wednesday in the Prothonotary's office. Outside of Bellefonte we simply give the names of those chosen for the offices named. There is but little political significance in the results in any township or district. In several instances the Democrats have made clear successes, and a number of townships that have not often enjoyed the credit of having Democratic officials were furnished with them on Tuesday last.

—The new post office at Chester Hill, a Philipsburg suburb, has been named Wigton, in honor of R. B. Wigton one of the prominent coal operators of that region.

—A house at Romola, owned by ex-Sheriff Cooke and occupied by a Mr. Mann, was totally destroyed by fire, on Tuesday night. The flames were the result of a defective flue.

—We are under obligations to Mr. P. M. Weber, for a copy of the Reformatory Record a very creditable publication, issued by the Huntingdon Reformatory.

—W. F. Reber and family have moved to Harrisburg where they will reside for some time, Emil Joseph and family will occupy the house, at the corner of High and Spring streets, vacated by Mr. Reber.

—During the opening hymn, in the Evangelical church at Logantown, Clinton county, Rev. John Heller, of local preacher, inclined his head and never raised it again. Heart disease was the cause of his death. Aged 87.

—Mr. Samuel Krater, a former resident of this county and then a resident of Nebraska, but who for some time past has been residing near Coburn, left on Tuesday evening last for Los Vagos valley, New Mexico, where he purposes making his future home.

—J. M. Kepler accompanied by his cousin, A. C. Kepler, of Lancaster, Pa., arrived home Tuesday from Centre county, where he has been sick for the past six months. He is now much better and we think will be but a short time until he has fully recovered his health.—Forest National Democrat.

—Council met on Monday night and transacted the little business brought to their notice in a jiffy. W. L. Mallin, district Supt. of the Bell Telephone company, asked for an ordinance granting privilege to his company to erect poles in the streets. Ordinance was passed. Committee reports were heard and accepted and a number of minor bills acted upon after which council adjourned.

—William Crawford is certainly a fortunate individual. Last week he purchased a plug of tobacco at C. C. Shuey's and while taking a chew off of it his teeth struck the little tin tag which drew a good pen knife and a few days afterwards when trying another plug he was fortunate enough to strike the tag which drew him a watch. Billy is quite happy over his streak of luck.

—On last Thursday the proposed extension of the Bellefonte Central was located from Struble's station to State College and we have learned that just as soon as the ground gets in condition work will be begun on the grading. When completed two trains, daily, will run between State College and Bellefonte, and twenty four hour excursion tickets will be sold all along the line. From the college the round trip fare will be 60 cents.

—The next attraction will come to the opera house on the 29th, and remain for two nights and a matinee. It will be Professor Bristol's Equine Paradox, or show of thirty educated horses. Prof. Bristol's animals are the best trained ones in the world and are drawing cards in every large city in America and Europe. Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 29th and March 1st are the dates. Don't forget for it is probable that you will not have another chance like this for some time.

—Last Saturday afternoon some wood-choppers on the mountain, noticed a great volume of smoke and then a shower of sparks coming from a chimney in Mr. Lot Kimport's house in College township. They were too far away to give the alarm and by the time the family discovered the fire, the entire roof was ablaze. Mr. Kimport was away and three children were sick in the house at the time. Very little was saved and the house was only partially insured making the loss at this time very heavy.

—The Reading Railroad has succeeded in swallowing up nearly all the smaller lines in this state and New Jersey and now a pool, between the Reading and the B and O is proposed, to form a formidable rival to the Penns.
