

Many Methodist Ministers Meet

The Opening Session of the Central Pennsylvania Conference—A Large Attendance and Good Reports.

YORK, March 6.—The Central Pennsylvania conference assembled for its twenty-fourth annual session in the Beaver Street Methodist Episcopal church in this city at 9 o'clock this morning with Bishop E. G. Andrews, D. D., in the chair. Bishop Thomas Bowman also occupied a seat on the platform. Hymn 798, "Blest be the Tie That Binds," etc., was sung when Bishop Andrews read Scripture lessons from John vi: 30-40, Hebrews ix: Romans xii and first epistle general of John. Hymn 393, "Just as I Am Without One Plea," was sung, after which the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered by Bishop Bowman, assisted by Revs. B. B. Hamilton, D. D., M. K. Foster, H. C. Har- doe, D. S. Monroe, D. D., B. C. Con- ner and J. Max Lantz.

David S. Monroe called the roll and 180 ministers answered to their names. On motion David S. Monroe was elected secretary, who chose as his assistants Revs. W. W. Evans, T. S. Wilcox, W. A. Carver and Jos. Anderson. Revs. Hantzler, Brenneman and Hicks were elected statistical secretaries. Rev. M. P. Crosswhite was elected conference treasurer, who chose as his assistants Revs. John Horning, M. C. Piper and Owen Hicks.

Committees were then appointed. A committee, consisting of one member from each district, was appointed on the Epworth League, as follows: Altoona, J. W. Ely; Danville, S. Boon; Harrisburg, W. A. Carver; Juniata, J. A. Mattern; Williamsport, N. H. Schenk.

The bishop announced that $9,055 was apportioned to this conference for distribution. Bishop Andrews then introduced to the conference Bishop Bowman, Dr. S. A. Keen and S. Hunt. Greetings from Rev. I. H. Torrence, who was unable to be present, were read.

Dr. Hunt was given the privilege of addressing the conference and said, among other things, that the church had fallen behind in the amount apportioned for Episcopal support—$20,000. He urged also an increase in the contributions to the missionary cause. Of the profits of the Book Concern $120,000 have been distributed. The sales the past year amounted to $1,000,000 and the profits are about twelve per cent. Of these profits the Central Pennsylvania conference will receive $2,000. He said the Central Pennsylvania conference paid to the Book Concern more than any other conference in the United States.

Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Bowman. The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society was held at 2 o'clock and addresses delivered by Mrs. Keen, of Philadelphia, and Miss Spencer, a returned missionary. The Freedmen's Aid anniversary was held at 7:30 when Revs. William Moses and G. W. Gray, D. D., made addresses.

What It All Was About. Young Jim Blaine Wanted to Get Rid of Marie. Not so he Could Marry a Washington Heiress. An Evening Sun, Washington special says: Those who read Secretary Blaine's vigorous defense of his son will be interested in the report which comes up from Washington that the young man is ambitious of marrying again. The object of his attentions is one of the Misses Patton, wealthy orphans, who are well known both in Washington and New York.

WHO THE GIRL IS. The Patton girls, as they are commonly known, are very rich. Their father was a California miner who left his widow a fortune. Nature had given her an emphatic brogue, and her origin was lowly. But she had ambition for her daughters and for herself; so she took her brood to France and began with them an educational course, in which she was the most earnest pupil. She did not improve the brogue, but she gained a great deal of useful elementary knowledge at the convent, so that, when she left it, she was not ashamed to go into the fashionable world.

She made her home in Washington, where she built a beautiful house on Massachusetts avenue. She had a good business head, and she did not squander any of her husband's fortune. Instead she increased it materially, so that when she died three or four years ago she left fortunes to all of her daughters. One of them during her lifetime married John M. Glover, at that time a representative in Congress from a St. Louis district. The wedding was a very gorgeous affair.

Not long after it Mrs. Patton furnished her son-in-law money with which to make the race for governor of Missouri, but though he spent with lavish hand, he never was heard of in the nominating convention. His chief opponent was David R. Francis, the present governor of the State.

After Mrs. Patton's death there was a dispute among the heirs over the money which had been advanced to Glover. VERY STYLISH GIRLS. The Patton girls drive a stylish car about Washington, dress handsomely and attract a great deal of attention. Their lowly lineage no bar to their admittance to good society. Washington society is not particular about family. Some of the most exclusive people were keeping hotels or selling groceries in the last generation. A Blaine alliance with the Patton family would not create much surprise.

Springer Out of Danger.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Representative Springer is now considered practically out of danger. A final consultation of three attending physicians was held this evening.

More Conscience Money.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The postmaster general today received a letter, post marked New York, March 4, 1892, containing halves of twenty bank notes cut cross wise aggregating $1,500. The letter accompanying the bill was as follows: "Dear Sir:—Enclosed please find half bills which will match those this day sent to the secretary of the treasury. This payment is interest on moneys restored to the government heretofore and of which I defrauded it years ago. (Signed) 'CONSCIENCE.'"

Would Gulp the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—The bill providing for additional appropriations for the World's Fair will be introduced in the House to-morrow by Representative Darborough, the chairman of the Committee on the World's Columbian Commission. In addition to the amount asked for to complete the buildings and grounds, the bill inserts clauses for $500,000 with which to make a government exhibit; $200,000 to pay for foreign commissioners; $25,000 to pay duty on foreign exhibits; $125,000 for salaries due officials; and $100,000 for incidental expenses.

Red Nosed Mike's Accomplish Captured.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 7.—District Attorney Garman, of this county received a telegram from the authorities in Italy stating that Bovivono and Yilala who with "Red Nosed Mike," in October 1889, killed Paymaster McClure and Flanagan would be tried for murder on the 29th of this month. The two former escaped from the detectives here and on their arrival in Italy were arrested. As they were not citizens of the United States at the time of the murder the Italian government claims them as its subjects and will now try them in that country. The extreme penalty in Italy for murder is imprisonment for life.

Bishop Horstmann Goes to Cleveland.

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—Rev. Ignatius Horstmann, the newly consecrated bishop of Cleveland, arrived here from Philadelphia at noon, on his way to his new sea. He was accompanied by about fifty priests from the east and was met at the station by a delegation and escorted to St. Paul's cathedral, where he officiated at a solemn service held in the cathedral. At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon he left for Cleveland. In an interview this morning Bishop Horstmann said: "I am very solicitous to begin my labors in Cleveland as soon as possible. I feel that I can love and assist all of my parishioners already. Bishop declined to discuss the new cardinalship for America, pleading ignorance.

Shot Her Betrayer.

CHESTER, Pa., March 7.—A sensational shooting occurred at Ridley Park, Miss Annie Ward, a handsome young woman, who until a week ago was a maid at the residence of Captain E. C. Meriman, laid in wait at Ridley Park station, and as Michael Gallagher, coachman for H. F. Kenney, was about to step on board a train, fired four shots at him. Two of the shots took effect. Gallagher fell and was picked up by the train hands and taken to the University hospital. He is thought to be seriously if not fatally hurt. Annie claims that Gallagher betrayed her. Annie was arrested. Though the bullet has not yet been extracted from the body of Gallagher, he is said to have every prospect of an early recovery and has arrived at the point of refusing to talk about his relations with the young woman who sought his life in return for his betrayal of her. She is still under the care of Sheriff Howard, in Media Jail, and following the advice of her former employer, Captain E. C. Meriman, she is obstinately "keeping her mouth shut." She shows no signs of remorse for the deed which came so near resulting in murder.

Harrison Takes a Hand.

Sir George Baden Powell, in an interview at New York, Says There is not the Slightest Speck of War Visible. WASHINGTON, March 7.—The President has taken the Boring Sea question in hand, and this morning, in the enforced absence of Mr. Blaine on account of sickness, had an extended interview with the Hon. John W. Foster, who has these matters in charge in the State Department.

Lord Salisbury's refusal to renew the modus vivendi leaves the question in dispute where they were prior to June 1890. At that time Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister to Washington, stated the proposition of England. New York, March 7.—Sir George Baden-Powell, of England, member of the Boring Sea Commission, was seen this morning at the Windsor Hotel. In an interview he said he could not see the faintest speck of war on the international horizon. The Commission in Washington was of a secret nature, and could not be discussed. Certainly Lord Salisbury refuses to renew the modus vivendi of last year, because the same conditions do not exist. The modus vivendi in this case is a mere phrase, and means nothing. It is totally out of place in this instance, and is used to make a point. I do not mind saying that the work is progressing favorably.

The commissioner emphasized the fact that the published reports of what had been done in the seaal question were totally at variance with truth, and calculated to mislead the public. He said that the ministry had practically approved the plan to submit the question to arbitration. In England the best feeling prevails for our American cousins, and any complications, I am sure, would be deplored. Sir George spoke of visiting the sea islands, and did not think the suits were diminishing in numbers as fast as many alleged.

Pine Grove Mentions.

No license for our town. And now, by appointment, it is constable Port.

Robert Meek, of Altoona, spent several days, recently, greeting his former friends at his old home near this place.

Sleighting for the past week has been elegant and many were the social sleighting parties sharing the hospitalities of our people.

Messrs. Roper and Akeley, two of Alexandria's prominent citizens, were the guests of W. J. Meyers where they were royally entertained in the early part of this week.

Mr. G. W. Weaver, who resigned his position as molasses slugger, is now in possession of a Commercial College Diploma and is meeting out justice, with the yard stick, to his many customers.

Among the numerous sales advertised for this month are W. J. Statum's on next Monday, and A. J. Tate's, on Tuesday. When a very excellent lot of short horn cattle and large horses, good farm implements will be offered and must be sold.

A. J. Tate, of the Gettysburg Seminary, is sojourning with his parents here preparatory to their moving to College township. Mr. T. is one of our successful farmers and solid citizen, and while we regret his moving, we commend him to the care and keeping of the College township democracy.

Our sprightly and energetic young friend, J. B. Heberling, had himself away down to Sunbury this week to explain to Prof. Hohen-schulck, of the Egyptian chemical company, what he knows about embalming. In as much as J. Benton has had ample experience in that direction, there should not be a shadow of a doubt as to his passing a successful examination and receive a quilted certificate, to which he is justly entitled.

Last Thursday, the 3rd inst., the home of John H. Nideigh was thronged to witness the marriage of his oldest daughter Annie C. to Daniel Garner. At two o'clock, p. m., everything was in readiness, and the guests in waiting and Rev. A. A. Black in position, when the bride party entered, with the bride's brother Orders and Miss Annie Behers and Wm. Lytle and Miss Emma Bortoff as bridesmaids and ushers. The ceremony over that made them man and wife and the many happy congratulations extended; There was one of the best of wedding dinners served when everybody was anxious, owing to the lateness of the hour, to do justice to themselves as well as the bride and groom who took their departure next morning amid a shower of old shoes, beans etc., for an extended wedding trip away out in Westmoreland county. The WATCHMAN extends its best wishes.

Employed a Leper as Cook.

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—Major Veale, the health officer of this city, this morning informed the health officer that the leper, Charles Wing, who is now in the Municipal hospital, has been employed as a cook at the Peabody hotel, this city, in which there were 125 guests. Major Veale says that several witnesses have testified that Wing's feet and legs at times have been so sore that he has been compelled to sit upon the table while mixing the flour. They also state that he did not receive any pay for the work he did. Dr. Paine, the proprietor of the hotel, gave him free treatment instead. Major Veale says that he would recommend that the Peabody hotel be closed, the furniture disinfected and the house fumigated and Dr. Paine be arrested for maintaining a nuisance prejudicial to the public health. Major Veale also recommends that a frame house be built upon the grounds of the Municipal hospital where the three lepers now confined therein may be sent until they are otherwise disposed of.

Arrested at Last.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Nelson F. Evans, who was one of the directors of the looted Spring Garden National bank of this city, was arrested to-day on a warrant sworn out by the government expert who has been examining the books of the bank, charging him with the embezzlement of $60,000. Mr. Evans was given a hearing before the United States commissioner and was held in $15,000 bail for a further hearing, Wednesday. Bail was furnished and Mr. Evans was released. This arrest has been expected for sometime. Examination of the books at the time the bank closed its doors shows that Director Evans had overdrawn his account and borrowed large sums on worthless securities. In addition he was implicated in extensive check kiting schemes. Mr. Evans was the head of a dry goods firm which failed recently with heavy liabilities and lighted assets.

THE WORLD FOR 1892.

"The most energetic, resolute and relentless journal in America, when it sets out to accomplish any great object, I can testify to its ready humanity, comprehension and persistence." GAIL HAMILTON. We can tell our Republican readers a secret and our Democratic friends a piece of good news: The World intends to and will elect another Democratic President this year, as it elected Grover Cleveland in 1888. Whether the Democratic candidate shall be Grover Cleveland, representing the cause of tariff reform, or any one of a number of other Democratic leaders who can be elected, representing all the elements of opposition to Republicanism, the World will be foremost in his support. The next President must be a Democrat. But while doing this the World will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print. The World never prints news; it photographs news. The World is now printing an average of over 330,000 copies a day. It has made a net average gain of 60,000 a day during the past year. It will circulate next year, on the basis of this increase, at least 420,000 copies of the ablest, strongest and best Democratic newspaper ever printed. The World is recognized as distinctively the Newspaper of the People. It believes that to be the highest journalism which is dedicated to the public service. The World puts heart and conscience into its work as well as brains. It is the handmaid of Justice, the unraveler of mysteries, the detector and the terror of crime, the friend of the friendless, the help of the poor, the strength of the weak. Realizing that its power comes from the People, it gives back to them freely whatever service its influence and its resources enable it to render. With a perfect equipment, a thorough organization, capable direction and a deep determination to move on and up to higher ideals and greater achievements, the World wishes its multitude of readers a Happy New Year, and confidently bids them to expect from it during 1892 even more wonderful things than it has already accomplished. 37-5-4t

But while doing this the World will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print. The World never prints news; it photographs news. The World is now printing an average of over 330,000 copies a day. It has made a net average gain of 60,000 a day during the past year. It will circulate next year, on the basis of this increase, at least 420,000 copies of the ablest, strongest and best Democratic newspaper ever printed. The World is recognized as distinctively the Newspaper of the People. It believes that to be the highest journalism which is dedicated to the public service. The World puts heart and conscience into its work as well as brains. It is the handmaid of Justice, the unraveler of mysteries, the detector and the terror of crime, the friend of the friendless, the help of the poor, the strength of the weak. Realizing that its power comes from the People, it gives back to them freely whatever service its influence and its resources enable it to render. With a perfect equipment, a thorough organization, capable direction and a deep determination to move on and up to higher ideals and greater achievements, the World wishes its multitude of readers a Happy New Year, and confidently bids them to expect from it during 1892 even more wonderful things than it has already accomplished. 37-5-4t

THE WORLD FOR 1892.

"The most energetic, resolute and relentless journal in America, when it sets out to accomplish any great object, I can testify to its ready humanity, comprehension and persistence." GAIL HAMILTON. We can tell our Republican readers a secret and our Democratic friends a piece of good news: The World intends to and will elect another Democratic President this year, as it elected Grover Cleveland in 1888. Whether the Democratic candidate shall be Grover Cleveland, representing the cause of tariff reform, or any one of a number of other Democratic leaders who can be elected, representing all the elements of opposition to Republicanism, the World will be foremost in his support. The next President must be a Democrat. But while doing this the World will give to its Republican readers, as it did in the recent campaign, a fuller and better report of Republican meetings and speeches in the Presidential canvass than the organs of their own party print.
