THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Spring openings and Easter bonnets will soon be quite proposals.

—Attorney A. A. Dale is a possible Republican candidate for Legislative honors.

—The Phillipsburg Presbyterian church is soon to be enlarged and remodelled.

—The family of H. D. Landis contemplate moving to Philadelphia early in the spring.

—A large cortege followed the remains of Robt Bartley and Austin Lambert to their graves, on Tuesday.

—A young Mr. George Johnson is receiving, with his proud parents at their cosy home No. 23 North Spring street.

—It is rumored that the receiver of the defunct Phillipsburg Banking company will declare another dividend about June 1st.

—Jas. McClain will soon move his Nail Works store to Spangler, a new coal town, near Hastings, which has been named after the general Jack.

—Will Harter, the ex-Deputy Recorder under Jno. F. Harter, was graduated from the American College of Dental Surgery, at Chicago, on Wednesday.

—The public schools throughout the state will hold exercises in commemoration of the late Dr. Wickersham, on the 25th of this month. It will be called "Wickersham" day.

—Harry Bush, who left Bellefonte two years ago, for Seattle, Wash., is on his way home. He is visiting relatives in Kansas City, Mo., and is expected to arrive here most any time.

—Mr. J. W. Runkle, one of Centre Hall's most progressive citizens, who has been down with pneumonia, for ten weeks past, is out again and was able to transact business in Bellefonte on Monday.

—Jas. Noll, the young attorney, has located in the rooms, on High street recently vacated by the Bellefonte Fuel & Supply Company. The WATCHMAN hopes that success may attend his efforts.

—The Garman House bar patrons are now served over a handsome new cherry bar. It is a very artistic piece of furniture and reflects much credit upon the energetic management of that popular hostelry.

—Frank Peabody Atherton, son of Pres. Geo. W. Atherton LL.D., of State College, has opened a studio for the direction of music in Phillipsburg. They are to be congratulated on having secured such a competent instructor.

—It will be just three years to-morrow since young Cleary was imprisoned for the murder of policeman Paul, at Renova. During that time he has had three trials and his attorneys are now awaiting a decision by the Supreme court which they expect will grant him a fourth.

—Charles Lutz and family are preparing to start west. On March 1st he made sale of all his farm stock and household goods and is now waiting until Mrs. Lutz entirely recovers from a severe attack of grip before beginning the journey.

—Mr. A. L. Peters, of Unionville will read his copy of the WATCHMAN, in Brookville hereafter. He has taken a contract to keep a large saw mill in repair near that place, and the fact that he has agreed to do so, is a sure guarantee that it will be done.

—Persons, living along the line of the Buffalo Run railroad, who desire to attend the large sale of farm stock at the residence of J. Wesley Decker, on the Thompson stock farm, can do so by going on the train, as it will stop on the farm on both trips.

—We regret to learn that Mr. Geo. Rumberger, who lately moved from Unionville to Phillipsburg, met with a painful accident the other day, in which the bones of his right wrist were broken and the ligaments badly strained. He is about as usual but will carry, his arm in a sling for some time.

—George Potter and family were arrivals, from Fort Wayne, Indiana, on Wednesday morning. They are visiting at the home of James Potter on Spring street. George is master mechanic in the large car works at Fort Wayne and his wonderful success is an excellent illustration of what a pushing young man can do.

—In our last week's issue we stated that the remains of the late Dr. E. W. Hale had already left France for this country. It was a mistake for only the nurse and Mr. J. S. Mull, of Phillipsburg, who had gone over just before the doctor's death, returned. Mrs. Hale, Ella and Mrs. Mull will return with the body some time next month.

THE DEATH ROLL FOR THE WEEK:

On Sunday afternoon we received the sad intelligence that Robert Bartly, the youngest son of David Bartly, had died at his home in this place. His many friends were grieved to hear of his untimely demise, but "God's ways are not our ways" and his sorrow stricken parents can look to Him who doeth all things well for the comfort and consolation they so much need in this their time of sadness. Robert had nearly attained his 17th year, having been born in April, 1875. A tall, handsome, stalwart lad he might well have been the fulfillment of any parents' hopes. About two weeks ago he was taken with something like typhoid fever which afterwards developed symptoms of cerebro spinal meningitis and he laid in an unconscious condition for several days previous to his death. He had joined the Methodist church during the recent revival and it is said yielded much influence over a number of Bellefonte's boys who are just at that uncertain stage when one misstep may ruin them forever. Oh! may Robert's example and death in Christ be a beautiful lesson to those of his young friends who loved and respected him.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday.

At 5 o'clock, on Sunday evening, the spirit of Austin Lambert took its flight to the pale realms of death. Deceased was 63 years of age and his death was the result of an attack of grip contracted, when the epidemic first became prevalent, two years ago. He was born in Burlington, N. J., but has long been one of Bellefonte's most skilled carpenters. He served three years honorable service during the civil war and now has answered the final summons of his Maker. Six children, three sons and three daughters, survive him. Funeral services were held from his late residence, at No. 246 South Spring street, on Tuesday morning.

John W. Bullock, who was born at Zion, this county, in 1850, died at his home, in Tyrone, on Sunday. Deceased had many friends and relatives in this county.

Charles H., the infant son of Alie and Susan Swyers, died at the home of his parents, in Milesburg, on Tuesday, March 1st. He was just 1 yr. 4 months and 16 days old.

Mrs. David Corman, of Pine Creek, died on Saturday last, and leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her loss. Death was the result of consumption from which she has suffered for several years.

Miss Annie Wertz, the 15 year old daughter of Philip Wertz, of Honesville, died on Monday. She contracted a cold last spring which terminated in her death from that dread disease consumption. Funeral services will be held this, Friday, morning.

Wednesday morning the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Schreckengast, the wife of Adam Schreckengast, died at her home in Millheim. Several weeks ago she took the grip, but had apparently sufficiently recovered to be about again when she suffered a relapse from which her death, from typhoid pneumonia, resulted. A husband and four children survive her.

The announcement of the death of John F. Krebs, which occurred at his home, in Ferguson township, on Wednesday night, was not unexpected by anyone in this community, for he had been suffering for months with some disease of the stomach, and he himself realized that the end was near. Mr. Krebs who was the oldest son of Squire Krebs and a brother of Judge Krebs of Clearfield, was born and raised on the farm where he died and although not an old man in number of years was one of the old reliable men of Ferguson township. His wife, who was Miss Annie Musser, and five of his ten children survive him. John will be greatly missed for he was a kind, good neighbor, and an honest, useful citizen. Early in life he embraced the christian religion and has been a consistent member of the Lutheran church for years. He will be buried at Pine Grove to-morrow, Saturday, afternoon.

The trustees of the Zion Normal and Classical Institute have secured the services of Prof. W. E. Bushong, of Virginia, late of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster to teach their school during the coming summer. Prof. B. is an experienced teacher and fine scholar and we congratulate the officers and patrons of above institution in securing him to conduct it. We understand there will be special normal drill every Saturday, free of charge, to all who desire to teach.

Mrs. C. T. Alexander, who has had charge of the Beta Theta Pi house, at State College, has rented one of Mr. Zeller's new houses, on Howard street, and will come back to Bellefonte to live the first of next month.

Ed. Richards was home for a few days during the early part of the week. He returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday.

—Scientists say that intellectual people require nine hours sleep each day. Fools and women don't need quite so much.

—Emil Joseph and family are moving, from their Curtin street residence, to the Reynolds house, at the corner of High and Spring streets.

—A Phillipsburg man is going to put a circus on the road this spring. He won't experience much trouble in getting freaks for his menagerie out that way.

—Mr. S. M. Buck, of Bellefonte, accompanied by his wife and son Willie, spent Sunday in Lock Haven, as the guests of W. H. Borrows and family.—Express.

—Ex-representative Himelrich of Lewisburg, one of the few Democrats who has been able to carry the benighted county of Union, had business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

—Bellefonte's base ball team, for the season of 1892, will be organized some time during the latter part of this month. Excellent material is available and the managers hope to put a winning team in the field.

—John Campbell, the deserter from the U. S. A., at David's Island N. Y., who was caught in Phillipsburg last week was taken back, to undergo trial by court martial, on Tuesday morning. From the time of his apprehension, on last Wednesday evening, until Tuesday morning, he was confined in the stuffy little lock-up which the borough affords. Such inhuman treatment savors more of barbarity than of justice.

—Hoover, Hughes & Co., the contractors and builders of Phillipsburg, came within $26 of being the lowest bidders for the erection of the Pennsylvania State building at the World's Fair. Their estimate was $76,726.00, as against that of a Philadelphia firm which was for $76,700.00. As all the bids were above the amount appropriated for that purpose the architect has been instructed to change some of the interior so that new bids can be made to come within the $75,000 appropriation. It would be a good advertisement for the Centre county concern if it should be awarded the contract.

—On Monday morning Bellefonte's new officers were sworn in and a new council organized. Wm. T. Hillbish, member from the West ward, was elected President and all of the old borough incumbents retained. A number of exonerations from taxes were requested and granted, but most of the time was taken up by the new members in getting themselves in accord with the routine of the old fellows. The Treasurer made his report to the new body and showed them a great field for reformation. The tax collector, S. D. Ray, was called upon for a statement, but having none prepared a committee of two was appointed to go over his accounts and find out the total of outstanding taxes.

—A quiet though pretty little wedding ceremony was solemnized yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. John Shank, of No. 214 South Allegheny street, which united in marriage his daughter, Mrs. Lucie Patterson, and George B. Brandon, the popular proprietor of the Brokerhoff house. Only the immediate relatives were present to witness the celebration of the nuptials and Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church officiated. They departed on the 9:32 mail for Jersey City and other eastern points. The warmest congratulations of their many friends, and of the WATCHMAN, attend them on the Honeymoon and it is our sincere wish that their life may be but a continuation of this happy tour.

—Owing to the drought and the ravages of the grass-hoppers, during the season of 1891, in the western States, where the clover seed crop is most productive; it was greatly damaged and a short crop the result. The agricultural papers published these facts at the time; nevertheless, little attention was paid to the report by the dealers and others most interested in the crop. It has recently been developed that the stocks of clover seed now on hand throughout the United States are not equal to the usual demand to supply the trade for spring sowing this year. When this fact became known at the clover seed centres a few weeks ago, the market became immediately excited and prices advanced from 6 and 7 cents per pound to 12 1/2 to 14 cents per pound, according to the quality of the seed. The market is still excited and the farmers who have to buy are very much astonished that they have delayed purchasing their spring stock, too long, until prices are almost beyond their reach. The market is still excited and the outlook indicates higher prices.

THE MID-WINTER SPORTS AT STATE COLLEGE:

—On Saturday evening the Mid-Winter sports, of the Pennsylvania State College were held in the armory, at that place, and a fair crowd assembled to watch the athletes compete for the different prizes offered by the athletic association. The big drill hall and gymnasium was roped off for the various events and it took just twenty two turns of the track to make a mile.

Mr. Thompson acted as master and when the first event was called Atherton '92, Belt '94 and Connelly Prep. appeared for the Running High Jump and the tall senior easily took the bar at 4-11 1/2 after both his competitors had failed. The 30 yards Dash was won by Mattern '94 in four seconds. Thompson, Prep. took the standing High Jump at 4 feet 4 1/2 inches. The Quarter Mile Run was won by Hugh Beaver, in 1 minute 15.3-10 seconds, after Mackey, Prep., who was 10 yards in the lead had dropped out on account of a misunderstanding as to the number of laps completed. Cartwright '95 succeeded in putting the 12 lb shot almost seven feet farther than his nearest rival, Hildebrand. The Rope climbing event was next called and was won by Thompson, Prep., in 12 seconds. The Half Mile Run was captured by Scott '95, who broke the tape just six inches ahead of Peffer, the fleet little Freshman. 9ft 5 1/2 inches got the first prize in the standing Broad Jump, for F. Mattern '94 though he only jumped 1/4 of an inch farther than Connelly Prep. The 5 Pin Race afforded plenty of amusement for the spectators and was won by Atherton '92. Brown '92, the lanky New Zealander, walked right away from Bush '92 in the Mile Walk and won easily by a lap. Time 8-20. The three Legged race was a novel thing indeed and everyone roared while the contestants hopped, skipped and jumped about the track. Dowler '94 won the Half Mile walk without exerting much of an effort and then came the putting of the 16lb shot. Cartwright '95 was an easy winner and his record of last year was broken by a foot or more. He is sure of a position at the Intercollegiate sports. The last event, a Mile Run, was won by Dunsmore '95, in 6 min. 8 1/2 seconds.

From every point of view the meeting was a success. Financially, in point of competitors, and in attendance. Every thing went off with a snap and ease that excited the interest of all. No little pleasure was added to the enjoyment of the evening by the presence of the State College band. Between events, and during such as its music would not disturb, it rendered some very good selections and proved one of the entertaining features of the evening.

We were much surprised at the marked improvement shown over last year's work and the unmistakable evidence of trainer Hoskins, from the A. C. S. N., presence were to be seen in the carefulness and precision with which the men handled themselves.

The College hopes to make a very creditable showing at the Inter Collegiate sports which will take place on the U of P. grounds, in Philadelphia, on Decoration day.

A LAD KICKED TO DEATH.—The following sad account, from the Huntingdon News of an accident which befell a little Huntingdon county boy, whose father carelessly left him lead fracticous coils to water, may set some Centre county parents to thinking how they daily jeopardize the lives of their little ones, by letting them play about young horses and colts.

"John Vernon Wilson, son of Robert C. Wilson of Jackson township, met with an accident on Tuesday, 23d ult, which resulted fatally a few days later. He was helping his father attend the stock at the barn, and had led out a 3-year-old horse to water, and was returning the animal to the barn when it broke away from him, in the struggle striking him on the right side of the head with one of its feet, crushing his skull. The accident was unseemly, but being absent longer than necessary his father came out of the barn to look for him, and found him lying on the ground near-by, bleeding and unconscious. He was taken to the house and assistance summoned, but all efforts to restore consciousness were of no avail. The lad lingered until Friday, when death ensued. He was aged 12 years, 4 months and 23 days, and in his sad and early death his parents and friends have had a sore affliction.

HASTINGS IN PITTSBURG:—General Hastings will lecture on the Johnstown Flood, in the old City Hall, Pittsburg, on Friday evening, March 18th, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Alliance. Those who were connected with the early relief of Johnstown will occupy seats upon the platform, and it is expected that quite a number of Johnstown's prominent men will be present. Mr. James B. Scott will preside.

—Advertise in the WATCHMAN if you would have appreciable results therefrom. Get your job printing, binding, ruling and engraving done here if you would have satisfactory work.

—Geo. Taylor, of Fillmore, will take a trip to Illinois next week.

—The heavy snow broke down the roof of Rev. Finkbinder's barn, at Millheim, last week.

—Dubois, Pa., had a $100,000 fire on last Thursday night. The opera house and fine store of Jno. E. Dubois were the buildings destroyed.

—Tyrone seems to be having great trouble with her public schools. The sooner her citizens come to properly appreciate the efforts of teachers the better it will be for scholar and parent. Of course all instructors should be above reproach.

—Mr. Henry Vitalina, so well and favorably known to many of our citizens and who has lately been a resident of Los Angeles, California, spent a few days last week visiting old friends hereabouts preparatory to a trip to Genoa Italy, his ancestral home. Mr. Vitalina carries with him through his voyage the well wishes of our people generally, and the hopes that his visit may be a pleasant one, and his return safe and speedy.

—A Tyrone "special" to the Phila., Record says that people of that hustling rail-road town are anxious to have a new county formed with Tyrone as the seat of government. Such a move coming right on the heels of the recent political flight up that way looks rather suspicious. We don't care how soon it is made, but we're sure they can't have any of Centre to form it with. Our people are too well satisfied with the good democratic rule they are enjoying.

A NEW CAMP OF P. O. S. OF A. TO BE ORGANIZED:—Next Thursday evening, March 17th, a new camp of the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America will be established in this place. It will be entirely independent of the Camp at the Valentine Works and a large number of signers have been secured to the petition for a charter. The District president has invited the lodges from neighboring counties to be present at the reception ceremonies and a large crowd is expected to be here on that date.

EVANGELICAL APPOINTMENTS FOR THIS COUNTY:—Below we give the appointments made at the Evangelical conference, held in Williamsport, on Monday: J. Hartzler, Presiding Elder, Centre, C. F. Finkbinder; Spring Mills, J. H. Hentz; Brush Valley, S. A. A. Goble; Sugar Valley, J. J. Lohr and H. W. Bender; Nittany Valley, P. F. Jarrett; Centre Hall, S. E. Davis; Bellefonte, E. W. Koontz; Member New Berlin quarterly conference, Prof. A. E. Goble; Member of Nittany Valley quarterly conference, H. B. Barsh-minger.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY AT JULIAN.—The village of Julian, this county, was started, on Monday night, when two sharp reports of a pistol resounded through the keen night air. A crowd quickly gathered in front of Henderson's store where Elmer Henderson, the young son of ex-Commissioner John C. Henderson, was holding a still smoking revolver. A large crowd had surrounded him to learn the meaning of his wild frenzy when a WATCHMAN reporter pushed his way through the crowd and learned the following: Henderson and a young fellow named Morgan Richards, a son of Reuben Richards, were talking in the Henderson store when Richards gave vent to some very unseemly remarks about a young lady to whom Henderson has been paying attention for some time. The young man naturally resented the insult and told Richards if he didn't retract he would shoot him. This threat irritated the latter and he dared Henderson to go out of the store, whereupon he started out, Henderson following him. When they reached the store porch Richards took to his heels for all he was worth and then Henderson, pulling out his revolver, fired two shots—as he says up in the air, simply to scare the fleeing blackguard.

A warrant was issued for his arrest and on Tuesday evening Capt. Montgomery went up and took Henderson into custody. He was taken before Squire Campbell and held in $500 bonds for his appearance at court. Bail was promptly furnished by his father.

Richard's version of the fair avaries somewhat from that of his would be slayer and is practically as follows: After he, Richards, had refused to retract he left the store and went up town. Immediately upon his departure Henderson began to swear that he would "blow his brains out." A young brother of Richards, hearing this threat ran and told his brother not to return by the store, so they both started home by way of the railroad track. When nearing the store they noticed young Henderson walking excitedly up and down the boardwalk as if looking for some one, and when he spied them he ran out and again demanded retraction. Richards became frightened and started to run, when Henderson fired upon him. Neither of the two shots took effect however.

—Prof. Wm T. Myer's new orchestra met for its first practice, on Tuesday evening. It starts with nine pieces, but three more will be added by the next meeting.

—Confirmation services were held in St. John's Episcopal church, on Monday evening, and eight applicants presented themselves for confirmation. Bishop N. S. Rulison preached the confirmatory sermon and the services were both beautiful and impressive.
