The Fishing Season

How to Plant Trout-When Fish May Legally

The Fish protective Association has issued the following valuable directions for handling and planting trout fry, with information also in regard to nets, set lines, fish weirs, fishing season, etc Trout fry should be planted in small spring runs tributary to the larger stream in which they will live, until large enough to run into the latter. If the water in the can is warmer than that in the run, the temperature should change of water. If trout fry are transported a long distance from the station before depositing a small piece of ice o ccasionally placed in the can will be useful, especially if the weather is warm. The cans will be prevented from excessive heating if partly covered with a light cloth.

If the fry shows signs of exhaustion, coming to the surface, the water should be frequently aerated. This is best done by dipping the water from the can and letting it fall into it from some height, so as to force air into the water. Not more than for cans of fry should be placed in a stream 8 to 10 miles in length, and these should be deposited in spring runs at nearly equi-distant intervals, as when too many trout are deposited in any stream the supply of fish food will soon be exhausted.

Fry should be deposited in the run when the journey's end is reached. They will not live over night without constant attention. Trout are sent from the hatcheries of the Pennsylvania fish commission when over 3 months old, and are amply able to look out for themselves if deposited in spring runs where large and vigorous fish cannot get at Fishing with nets and set lines is positively prohibited by the laws of the State. Penalty $100, with forfeiture of nets, boats, etc. Fish weirs and fish baskets are prohibited by the laws of the State. Penalty $50 for first offense and $100 for the second offense.

Trout fishing is allowed only between April 15 and July 15, except in Pike county, where the season is from May 1, to Aug. 1. Penalty $10 for each trout taken out of season.

Black bass fishing is allowed only between May 30 and January 1. Penalty points daily. $10 for each fish taken out of season. Rock bass same close season as black bass, Wall eyed pike(pike perch or can purchase round trip excursion tick-Susquehanna salmon) same close season without any warrant, any person violating any of the fish laws. One-half of stop-overs. penalty goes to the informer.

James Whitcomb Riley.

"James Whitcomb Riley is one of the two or three living American writers of to Pacific Coast points, and the most verse who really possess originality," says Walter Blackburn Harte in the April New England Magazine. "He draws on the experiences of his own life and the life of those among whom he has grown up, for most of his material. He turns to nature, and not to Austin Dobson or Andrew Lang or Frederick Locker for his inspiration.

Perhaps the great secret of his charm is that he is, as Sam Walter Foss, himself a poet, has aptly put it, 'a student of hearts, a savant of sentiment, and his books are living men.' He is not a great poet, but he strikes a responsive chord in the hearts of the simple; they read with delight and say, 'Here is one of ourselves,' and so James Whitcomb Riley, possessing this power of simplicity, is a true poet. He is the poet of hearts—the poet of the people; and, too he reveals in his work a real knowledge of and sympathy with nature. His poems of the woods and the fields are not those of a drawing room poet in the country for an excursion. They are those of a careful observer, of a true countryman, and a poet who feels the shadows and sounds of dawn, and noonday, sunset, and night. He is exceedingly felicitious in his phasing. His poems stick like a burr in the memory. One reads the works of greater poets and forgets their lines; but the simple, homely verses of James Whitcomb Riley come back to one again and again with the refreshing quiet of childhood memories and the patchy pictures of long, dreamy days in the woods and fields lived long ago, when one chafed at their silence, ignorant of the imprisoning noise of the city. It is not give en to every man to be at once popular and a poet. Riley is one of those rare singers of humble life who secure popularity without being compelled to forfeit their intellectual integrity by pan-dering to a public, which demands the surrender of the artist and the triumph of the buffoon, before acclaiming him. He lacks the broad outlook upon life, and the grass of its deeper problems which made Burns the greatest poet of humanity who ever lived; but smaller way James Whitcomb Riley is the Burns of contemporary American literature. He is a poet of the common people, and he uses the vernacular of the common people. The greatest art is in recalling childish impressions and presenting them with the freshness of the childish imagination; and this rare faculty is strongly developed in the author of 'Rhymes of Childhood,' 'Pipes O'Pan,' 'Old Fashioned Roses,' and 'Neighborly Poems.' This is genius.' -When you have over-exerted yourself by running, jumping or working, there is nothing that will relieve the soreness of your joints and muscles so quickly and effectually as Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain. Price 25 cents.

Ten Commandments.

1. Thou shalt have no other gods be-

2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

3. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

4. Remember the sabbath day, to be equalized by mingling in the can before empting, as the young fish are sometimes killed by a too sudden day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates ; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is and rested the seventh day wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

How Many Seeds to a Hill.

The other day a few successful farmers were discussing on the number of seeds required for a hill or row, when one remarked: "That depends entirely on where you buy your seeds. After many years' trial, I have come to the conclusion that Vick's seeds must be sown more carefully and not as thick as other seeds, because every one grows.'
This goes to show that it pays to buy seeds of a firm that you know can be trusted. As one such, we advise our readers to write to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for their Foral Guide 1892. It is a gem.

A WONDERFUL CHANGE ON TAKING HOOD'S SAR-

The suffering caused by indigestion and dyspepsia is indescribable. Thousands of peo-ple are living in misery with these disorders who might be cured by Hord's Sarsaparilla, if they would only give this medicine a fair trial. The following statement comes voluntarily from a lady who has probably suffered more from indigestion than any who read this article. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured her, and it is certainly reasonable to believe that it will do you good if you are troubled similarly. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. "I feel it an imperative duty to make known what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I have been troubled with Indigestion for many years, and have suffered much distress, flatu pence and sour stomach. At night I would

It was often necessary for some one to rub me to bring on reaction of the heart, after which I would, get on my feet and walk the floor, when belching would relieve me. I had these spells frequently. With these troubles I also had sciatic rheumatism by spells for at least 15 years mostly in winter. At times I could hardly move. Work became such a burden I begged to quit farming. But J commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has helped me wonderfully. I was very much reduced when I named, and information in reference to climate, lands, resources, and other subed that my folks say they think

> I AM GROWING YOUNG Instead of old. I am 52 years old, weigh more than I ever did, do all my own work, and can milk nine cows with more ease than I could milk one last winter. I can go to bed and sleep, which after what I have suffered, is a great blessing to me. I am also cured of rheumatism, as I have had no attack for a long time. This is what Hood's Sars parilla has done for me, and I am > GLAD TO SPEAK LOUD In its favor to all afflicted friends. If it were in my power I would sound the praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla over the entire universe. I thank God that mankind has ever brought into existence such a good medicine." Mrs. J. B. Longnecker, Union Deposit, Pa.
