

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mr. Henry McWilliams, another of our farmer boys, is now an employee of the Altoona shops.

The 1st of April was an unusually thronged day in this section. Every body was in a hurry trying to get himself moved or anxious to assist some one else.

Our genial postmaster is now issuing postal money orders, so there need be no more danger of loss. The government guarantees absolute safety for any amount up to $300.

Our new merchants, Krebs Bros, successors to J. D. Bloom & Co., are taking special pains in showing their stock of spring goods. We bespeak for them a fair share of public patronage.

Mrs Jonathan Musser and family left for their future home in Altoona, where owing to the recent death of her son Samuel's wife, she will take charge of the domestic duties of his household.

Mr. Fred Meyers, one of Benner township's first class farmers, is now located on the John F. Krebs, farm where we expect to note rapid strides in the agricultural experiments as Fred is said to be a hustler.

On Monday of this week Mr. Cooper Miller, who for the past three terms wielded the birch, took leave of his friends to pursue his studies in the State Normal, at Look Haven. Cooper is a close student and there is no reason why he shouldn't graduate from that institution with honors.

Last week a special examiner, from the Post Office department at Washington, took a look at our Post Office in an official way, finding everything in good style, beside finding the post master a genial, clever fellow. Just what was the object of his visit and the result is not yet known.

All week long the weather has been delightfully springy, with an occasional thunder shower after which it continues warm, in flat contradiction of the old prophecy that after thunder and lightning in spring we may expect cold weather. If old Sol keeps pouring his rays straight down a few more days our gardeners and agricultural friends will be getting the soil in shape for the raising of the ten or plant ready for Jack Frost in May.

The venerable C. H. Struble, accompanied by his wife and daughter Sallie, together with some stock and household goods, started for their far western home, in Kansas, last week. Mr. Struble was one of our old and energetic citizens. Although success failed to crown his efforts here we trust heaven will bestow his richest blessings on him and his family in their new home afar. May prosperity and longevity attend them so that they may be enabled to return to the home of their youth in the wish of the WATCHMAN.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

A new edition of Test of the D. Uppervilles, by Thomas Hardy, revised and expanded by the author, is announced by Harper & Brothers as nearly ready for publication.

"The Jonah of Lucky Valley," by Howard Seely, a tale of Western mining life, attractively illustrated, will be included in a collection of short stories to be published soon in "Harper's Franklin Square Library," and will give its title to the volume.

Harper & Brothers will soon publish The Kansas Conflict, by Charles Robinson, the famous war Governor of Kansas. Aside from its interest as an independent narrative, the work will be a valuable companion and supplement to Eli Thayer's The Kansas Crusade, published two or three years ago, and the two together will be the most important contribution yet made or likely to be made to the history of the memorable struggle between slavery and freedom in 1865-8.

The Art Interchange for April contains many suggestions and designs, both in color and in black and white, that are suitable for the decoration of Easter Eggs, Cards, etc. A very charming color supplement shows the head of a sweet little girl in a cowl; the Little Friar, as she is called, is destined to be a very popular young lady. A second color supplement shows Pansies, and a third is filled with charming arrangement of Butterflies. There are, besides, black and white supplements, filled with beautiful designs for China Painting and Embroidery. A particularly pretty pattern is the Italian Renaissance—embroidery design—which shows Cherubs Heads. A well-composed and decoratively-treated Easter design opens the Magazine proper, and there are illustrated articles on the Island of Marken; Fritz von Uhde, the celebrated German artist; and an entertaining account of the celebrated Julian Art School in Paris.

The Instruction Department has an admirable short lesson on Drawing; another, on putting on Gold in China Painting. Much space is also given to Embroidery, both in instruction and designs. Art-Workers in Oil, Water Color, and those of models for Decorative Work, will find much that is of interest to them in this most useful Magazine. The Home Decoration Department has several plans and sketches of attractive interiors; a clever little drawing of a pretty Portfolio; and another, a Doorway, decorated with embroidered hands.

This number of The Art Interchange is especially rich in practical matter, and can be commended to all Art-Workers. Price to the April issue, with Three Colored Supplements, 35 cents. For sale by all Newsdealers.

In Memoriam.

WHEREAS, On the 22nd day of March, A. Resolved, That we the members of Victor Grange, No. 159, P. of H., do hereby, extend to the bereaved friends, and relatives of our departed Brother, our sympathy, in this their hour of affliction, trusting, that they, with us, will humbly submit to the over-rulings of an all-wise God, knowing that He does all things well. BALTZELLS.—Monday and Tuesday of next week have been decided upon as the days of our Grand Millinery Opening. We confidently expect the verdict of our Fair Lady Critics on that occasion to be—"The handsomest Millinery display ever seen in this city." We know it will be the largest, the most unique, the most varied and complete, and when all that is true it is not likely that real Worth and Beauty would be neglected. Mr Bowden has spent many weeks in New York and Philadelphia in the leading Millinery Emporiums preparing for this display in which more than five hundred Hats and Bonnets are to be exhibited. In fact, he had unusual privileges accorded him, that of going through the work rooms of the first and largest establishments in the cities, usually closed to others in the business, and permitted to copy from their latest and choicest imported and original works. This added to his own direct Paris importations assures our stock to be the very creme de la creme of Home and Foreign Millinery, where nothing stale or lacking in style will be allowed to intrude. Very many exclusive shapes will be represented, and some that cannot be duplicated both in trimmed and untrimmed styles.
