THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Erb's circus begins its season, in Phillipsburg, to-day.

—Everything that is stylish in millinery can be found at Mrs. Gilmore's.

—George T. Bush returned from his southern trip, on Tuesday morning.

—L. T. Munson spent several days in Phillipsburg during the fore part of the week.

—Ex-Rep. J. H. Holt, of Moshannon, dropped in to see us on Wednesday.

—Leonard Rhone Esq., of Centre Hall and Squire Reifnyder, of Millheim, are on the sick list.

—The Dickinson College base ball club will play at the College this afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Admission 35cts.

—Mrs. W. L. Speer is enjoying the delightful sea breezes at Atlantic City, the guest of her niece Mrs. C. L. Valentine.

—Miss Blanche Hayes left, Tuesday morning, for Philadelphia, where she will stay several weeks visiting and sight seeing.

—Prof. J. H. Waters, of the University of Missouri, has accepted the chair of Agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College.

—Centre Hall is to have a stove factory. Bellefontes should have a half dozen of them judging from the number of bad boys we have.

—It is highly probable that Kellar, the most eminent magician in the world, will give a matinee in this place, on Saturday, May 21st.

—Rev. George M. Glenn, Mrs. Glenn and their son Randolph, of South Williamsport, are visiting friends and relatives in Half Moon.

—Miss Laura Hafer returned from Philadelphia, on Wednesday morning. She has been attending a college of dental surgery and is home on her Spring vacation.

—Mr. A. H. Rhone, an old friend and patron of the WATCHMAN, has pulled up stakes at Gallitzin, with the intention of becoming a citizen of Cumberland, Maryland.

—Miss Mary Ishler, a daughter of Emanuel Ishler, of Altoona, and a niece of Sheriff Ishler, of this place, was married to Mr. Frank Mogle, on last Thursday afternoon.

—That Nittany Valley railroad craze is on again. It seems that when the engineers, who are supposed to be running up and down Sugar Valley almost continuously, find nothing else to do they come over and arouse the Nittanyites.

—The firm of Bunnell & Aikens, piano dealers of this place, has been dissolved by mutual consent of the partners. Mr. Bunnell will open up a music store, in Phillipsburg, while J. A. Aikens will continue at the old stand, in this place.

—Joseph Acton, a well known miner, residing at Phillipsburg, was crushed to death by a fall of coal, in Derby mine, on Friday afternoon. He was working with his two sons at the time, when the premature fall crushed his skull into an unrecognizable mass.

—Just after the WATCHMAN had gotten off the press, on last Friday morning, we learned of the fire which completely destroyed the residence of Alexander McDowell, near Snow Shoe. The origin of the fire is unknown and the loss was about $2000 fully insured.

—Mrs. P. to Judge F.—"Judge can I say something."

Judge F. to Mrs. P.—"No, I'll see you later."

If his Honor really intends doing such a thing we might have another desertion case to try at the August term.

—Council has appointed another committee to assess damages for the lengthening of Curtin, Larab, Linn, Howard, High, Bishop and Beaver streets out to the eastern borough line. A committee to do the same work was appointed some time ago, but could not agree upon the valuation.

—Monday morning Mr. W. O. Malin came down town so happy that everybody knew something unusual had happened. Here's to the new son, that weighed eleven pounds and that is, the only boy in the present generation of the Malin family. May he live to be a joy to his mother and an honor to his father.

—Among the Bellefonters who attended the Owen-Bullock wedding, at Mechanicsburg, on Wednesday evening, were: Mrs. Gen. Hastings and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Woodcock, H. P. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. J. M. Montgomery.

THE WEEK IN COURT.—On Monday morning the regular April term of court convened and began the trial of a long list of cases many which should never have been brought in. It is really too bad that the Justices, throughout the county, do not exercise better judgment in the trial of the petty little cases, brought before them, instead of bringing them here for the county to bear the costs. If the court would put the costs on the Justices, instead of on the county, there would be less expense attached to the holding of our Quarter Sessions and a more friendly feeling in every community. As it is now; every garden fence squabble is carried to the Squire and he has not the tact to adjust matters, but gives the parties law. After they have once begun suit they cannot withdraw, and in many instances life time feuds are germinated from a little tongue fight which would have been forgotten in a day had the avoracious Justice but calmed the aggrieved in their hour of passion.

Judges Furst, Riley and Rhoades were on the bench when Crier Galbraith announced the opening of Court. Most of the morning session was taken up by the constables' reports and petitions of various kinds. The Grand Jury got down to work at the start with A. T. James, of Phillipsburg, as foreman, and the regular work then began as follows:

Com. vs. Staton Milton, f. and b. Defendant pleaded guilty and received the usual sentence.

Com. vs. Edward Decker, of College Twp., charged with making an assault with a butcher knife, upon his wife. Guilty, with three months in jail, $25.00 fine and costs of prosecution.

Com. vs. Ed. Barar and Benny Wyland, two Milesburg boys, aged 14 and 15 years respectively, charged with an assault upon a little girl. Guilty and sentenced to four months in jail.

Com. vs. H. S. Johnson, charged with procuring a suit of clothes from C. B. Shaffer & Sons, the State College tailors under false pretense.—We gave a full history of the case some weeks ago—Verdict: "not guilty" and costs divided between prosecutors and defendant.

Com. vs. Isaac Tressler, charged with assault and battery upon his neighbor William Colpetzer, whom he struck during an altercation about the planting of some trees. Defendant found guilty and sentenced to pay $5.00 and costs.

Com. vs. Pat. and Hugh Ward, charged with cutting timber on land belonging to the Lehigh Valley coal company. Defendants proved an alibi and county to pay costs.

Com. vs. William Colpetzer, charged with adultery. Case brought by Isaac Tressler, who evidently wanted to get even with Colpetzer for having him arrested. It appears that Colpetzer was married to Fannie Wilson, nearly twenty years ago, and one child blessed their union, but Fannie was too giddy for William and she left him. After eight years had elapsed he took unto himself another helpmate, in the person of a Miss Tressler, a sister of the prosecutor, and several children have come to them. Now Isaac Tressler is charging his brother-in-law with adultery and as he had no divorce from the first woman and no marriage certificate to the second he has been found guilty of the charge. Sentence was suspended and defendant gave bonds in the sum of $500.00 for his appearance at the August court. The Court advised him to institute proceedings for a divorce, at once.

Com. vs. Henry Williams, charged with vagrancy, by A. J. Thompson. Bill ignored and county to pay costs.

Com. vs. Samuel Harpster, charged with cutting timber on lands of G. E. Rider. Guilty and motion for a new trial made.

Com. vs. John Rishel Jr. charged with horse stealing, by Foster Fannon. Bill ignored and county to pay costs.

Com. vs. Elmer Henderson, assault and battery; 2nd, feloniously shooting with intent, etc.; 3rd, wantonly discharging a revolver.—This case was brought by young Richards who threatened to whip Henderson because he made some unsavory remarks about the girl he was going with, and a full account of the shooting appeared in the WATCHMAN at the time True bill, but continued to next term.

Com. vs. Jno. Young, charged with larceny by Rev. Jackson, of Julian. As the boy was only 9 years old he was discharged.

Com. vs. Samuel and Jesse Long charged by the Bethesda Evangelical Association, with failure to pay $100, the consideration the association was to receive if a camp meeting was held in Long's woods and the owner's given all the stand privileges. A verdict for $103.45 was returned for Bethesda church.

Com. vs. W. H. Peters, charged with desertion, proved to be one of the spiciest little cases that has been tried for some time. It afforded lots of amusement for the court and audience. Peters was required to pay $5.00 per week maintenance, and the rent of the house in which his wife lives. And was required to give bonds that maintenance would be paid monthly.

A number of petitions were presented and court adjourned to re-convene on Monday next.

Mr. James, the Phillipsburger, who was foreman of the Grand Jury, certainly left a most favorable impression of his ability in the capacity to which he was appointed and in appreciation of the manner in which he kept the work going a silver handled, silk umbrella was presented him. It was the first thing of the kind that has ever been done in the history of our court.

The following is the report of the Grand Jury which performed its duties the past week. It will be seen that that body, found the county property in fair condition, the offices in good order and intelligently run; the new improvements lately made by the Democratic Commissioners, excellent and highly satisfactory, and everything in good shape, but still needing additional changes, repairs, etc.:

To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Session, of the Peace of the county of Centre, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring for the county of Centre, in all matters relating the same do respectfully report.

1st.—We have acted upon all the bills of indictment offered by your District Attorney.

2nd.—We inspected the jail and dwelling and recommend some repairs in and about the same; the steps and windows are very much out of order, the range in the kitchen should have a new top and grate. Several rooms need papering, the cells in the jail need white-washing and better ventilation and one board partition needs casing with sheet iron, several locks on important doors should be replaced with new ones, the sewers should be taken into consideration, the pump is out of order, the jail walls should be plastered on the inside and last but not least we recommend that a neat and newly furnished Sheriff's office be placed in or near the Court House which would please many who away have business with that official and avoid the climbing of the hill.

3rd.—The improved water closets we found in a satisfactory condition.

4th.—We found Treasurer Gramley's office in good shape and plenty of cash—and as we passed into the Commissioners' office we were more than pleased looking into the Rochester filing system, which saves much labor and is security for important and valuable documents, and would recommend some substantial covering for the floor.

5th.—The District Attorney's office needs new office furniture as the present outfit does not compare with the good appearance and dignity of the gentleman who administers that office.

6th.—The Prothonotary's office is in good order and now with improvements to the vault should meet with the entire satisfaction of all tax payers of the county for the proper care and feeling of all valuable records.

7th.—The Recorder's office is in proper condition and we only recommend a new covering for the floor.

8th.—The stairs and hall leading to the Court Room needs some cleaning and repairs.

9th.—We hardly know what to suggest in regard to the front yard, but think it should be put in a more presentable shape for property so open to public view and not forgetting curb stones for the protection of the walk.

10th.—We reported favorably for new bridges at Troy Crossing, Rush township, Centre county, Pa., and report in a manner for new iron bridges in College township, Pa.

11th.—We respectfully tender thanks to the Honorable Judges, District Attorney and all county officials for attention and favors received by

A. T. JAMES, Foreman.

Belleville April 27, 1892.

—Mrs. Judge Christian, of Richmond, Virginia, is visiting friends in Centre Co., on her way home from a six months trip through the West.

—Clinton county fish wardens are busy arresting illegal fishermen and if their example is only followed by our own officers the fish in our streams will perhaps be protected.

—Miss Anna Shaw, the State Organizer of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, spent several days, the fore part of the week with Mrs. John P. Harris. Sunday she addressed the vesper services of the Christian Endeavor Society and the Epworth League, and on Monday evening conducted a meeting in the Temperance rooms, in the interests of the Ys.

—The last chance for Cleary, now under sentence of death at Lock Haven was given him before the board of pardons on Tuesday last. What the result of the hearing will be is not yet known but the general feeling throughout this section, is shown in the hope that the death sentence will be changed to a term of imprisonment.

—Miss Eva Gray and Mr. Frank Clemons were married, Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Buffalo Run, by the Rev. Mr. Warton. The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. Wesley Gray, is a bright and accomplished young lady eminently fitted to be the companion and helpmate of a young man as worthy as Mr. Clemons has proven himself to be. The wedding was a very quiet affair; only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives being present. Mr. Guyer Matterer was best man and Miss Lever, of Stormstown, was maid of honor. After an extended visit to the eastern cities, the happy couple will go to housekeeping at Southa, where the groom is general superintendent for Carnegie Bros.

If HE VISITS YOU, BE READY.—An exchange gives the following account of a fraud which we thought necessary to warn you of.

A fraud is traveling through the country under the names of James B. Aoward, Walter A. Scott, Arthur B. Wilson, and other aliases, swindling Odd Fellows Lodges and members. About a month ago he was in this town, and while here broke into the room of Junata Lodge, No. 117, I. O. O. F., by cutting around the lock, broke open a desk and affixed the seal of the Lodge to a number of visiting cards which he is said to have stolen from some other Lodge. The burglary was not discovered by the members until the next night of meeting, nor was it known that he had done anything until word came from the secretary of Marine Lodge, No. 62, of Luray, Va., stating that he had loaned Walter A. Scott, who represented he was a member of Junata Lodge, the amount of $15.73 to pay his expenses home. He asked for a refunding order. The matter was referred to Grand Secretary James B. Nicholson, of Philadelphia, who at once sent a circular to the Odd Fellows Lodges in the State warning them of the impostor.

The swindler is about 5 feet, 6 inches tall, medium height, dark complexion, dark hair and mustache. He professes to be a steel engraver, and is represented to be pleasant and intelligent in conversation. His residence is not known.

The scamp is still on his travels. After leaving Luray, Va., he went to Wilmington, Del., where he tried to impose on a Lodge; next he went to Patterson, N. J., April 1st, where he got into the Lodge when in session, said he was in distress, fooled them out of $5 on the card and retired with an overcoat in the ante-room, belonging to one of the members; April 3d he was at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he fleeced the Lodge out of $15; and the last heard of him he was in Great Falls, New Hampshire, April 5, where he got $15 more under the name of Arthur B. Wilson.

On Thursday the postmaster here received a letter from F. L. Chapman, at Shelburne Falls, Mass., making inquiry as to the name of the Lodge, showing that the fraud has been there also.

He has been operating the same game in Ohio, where he is said to have stolen traveling cards from a lodge room in that state, and had them sealed with the seal of Allen Lodge, No. 223, of Lima, Ohio. He is in possession of the annual traveling password of the order, and is well prepared to swindle unsuspecting Lodges.

The scamp is playing his game adroitly, and is making good time skipping around the country with his ill-gotten money. Lodges and members of the order, should be on the alert to catch him, and bring him to justice.

—Mens black and brown chevot suits $3.50, 6.00, 6.50, 7.00, 8.00 10.00 upward. Lyon & Co.

BELLEFONTE SHAKEN UP.—On Wednesday morning, at 8.30, a most terrific explosion occurred at the quarries operated by McCalmont & Co., just a short distance below town, and as our buildings shook and trembled many residents ran out into their yards thinking that an earthquake was come.

Down about the quarries everything was excitement. Men were running to and fro vainly trying to find some trace of the dynamite warning house, while others were so excited that they did not know what they were doing. The cause of the explosion no one could tell. It was evident that the warning house had been "in it" however for no trace of it has yet been found. It was a little 8x8 building in which the dynamite was placed to warm it up preparatory to using. A stove was always kept going in the place and the dynamite sticks were laid along on shelves. At the time the explosion took place there were about forty pounds of dynamite, and ten of Judson powder, in the place and Theo. McNichols, the boss quarryman, says everything was right when he left it just a short time before.

The report was heard for miles and the shock was felt throughout the entire community. Windows were shattered, cisterns cracked and plastering broken. While down near the quarry, men were thrown violently to the ground. Wild ideas of California earthquakes and Parisian bomb throwers flooded through our mind as we heard the report and the only reason why we didn't count our beads and throw our wealth into the creek was because we didn't have any.

THE LATEST SWINDLE.—The latest swindle is carried on by means of a double fountain pen, one end of which is filled with good substantial ink, the other with ink that fades away in a day or two. The sharper writes the agreement, contract, or whatever way he may have chosen with ink that will not last. In a few days he has a slip of paper with nothing but a signature over which he can write a note and easily turn it into cash. Look out for the fountain pen swindler, for he is dangerous.—Ez.

—Young Mens black and brown chevot suits 5.00, 6.00, 6.50, 7.00, 8.00, 9.00 and 10.00. Lyon & Co.

—Representative Walter Franklin, of Lancaster, was in town, on Wednesday, endeavoring to sell our commissioners booths to be used at the election next fall.

—Bedford cords 30 to 75 cents. Lyon & Co.

—On Sunday morning a little boy baby was born at the home of W. L. Malin, on east Howard street. Mr. Malin has two daughters and is naturally very much elated over the advent of a son into the household.

—Boys suit $1.20 1.50 1.75 2.00 and upward Lyon & Co.

—Chas. Nau has received license for his Tyrone hotel and expects to have his bar running in a few days. If Charley becomes as much of an expert in mixology as he is on the piano, Tyrone people will certainly get good drinks.

—Boys knee pants from 25 cents to $1. Lyon & Co.

—From the noise emanating from the vicinity of the lime kilns, on Wednesday morning, we are led to suppose that Robert McCalmont will be springing a rain making machine on unsuspecting Bellefonters ere long.

—Mens black dress suits $8.00, 8.50 9.00, 10.00, 12.00 and 15.00. Lyon & Co.

—Jacob Heller, of Sandy Ridge, was a grand juror at Court this week and called to see us, on Wednesday. He reports things very dry out around his place and for fear that they will not brighten up soon he has taken a large contract to manufacture red brick, in Phillipsburg, this summer.

—The best styles of mens dress pants $2.50, 3.00, 3.50, 4.00 and 5.00. Lyon & Co.

The entertainment given by the students of the Academy in the opera house, last night, was well attended and quite a success. A fair sized house seemed highly delighted.

—Mrs. Gilmore's fine line of laces, ruchings and millinery is attracting crowds to her store.

OUR NEW PARK.—Last fall the WATCHMAN told its readers that a movement was on foot which, when consummated, would give this county one of the finest recreation parks in the State. We are pleased to say now that the ground has been secured and in the course of a few weeks will be thoroughly equipped for outing parties.

The new park is located on the line of the Bellefonte Central railroad, at Hunter's station, and embraces a beautiful grove rising, in a gentle slope, from the railroad to a cleared plateau where the athletic grounds will be laid out. Gigantic pines and oaks are dominant and the ground is covered with a velvety sward, though at places great boulders and roots crop out to lend a romantic appearance to the place. A spring will be the feeder of a miniature lake, over which several rustic bridges will be swung and pavilions, toilet houses and everything for convenience will be erected.

On the athletic field the Bellefonte team will play its games, to which excursion trains will be run from the union depot. A round trip ticket including admission to the games will be sold. One of the valuable points of the field lies in the fact that it will be a neutral ground for College championship games. Next week we will give a more extended account of it.

OWEN—BULLOCK.—On Wednesday evening, at half-past eight o'clock, Rev. J. A. Woodcock pronounced the ceremony which united in marriage Mr. John Montgomery Bullock, of this place, and Miss Mary Maude Owen, of Mechanicsburg. The nuptials were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, where a large number of friends had assembled. The ceremony was pronounced in the spacious parlors of the Owen's home, which were beautifully decorated with tropical plants and cut flowers. Joe L. Montgomery, a cousin of the groom, acted as best man and Miss Helen Hastings, only daughter of Gen. D. H. Hastings, was maid of honor. Hardman P. Harris, of this place, and several gentlemen whose names we have been unable to learn were the ushers.

The groom is one of Bellefonte's most honorable and industrious young men. Having been connected with the firm of Montgomery & Co., men's furnisiers, from boyhood, he has displayed a steadiness and interest in his work which cannot but attest his merit and future success. His bride is a young woman of rare accomplishments and is the only daughter of Charles N. Owen, one of the leading merchants of Mechanicsburg.

They are now enjoying their honeymoon, but will be at home, Thursdays, after May 12th, at No. 24 N. Allegheny street.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONVENTION.—

On Friday afternoon the temperance element of the county met to give "King Alcohol" his annual trembling fit. How well they succeeded will not be seen for some time to come, and notwithstanding the fact that they have partially lost their grip on Judge Furst the convention seemed hopeful and bright.

Rev. Zeigler, county chairman, called the meeting to order and Dr. Isaac Guss, of Phillipsburg, was made permanent chairman. After Rev. Craig, of Julian, had invoked the blessings of God on the work Rev. Zeigler read the opening address, in which he showed the temperance work to be in a most flourishing condition in the county. His talk was based upon personal observations made while canvassing for the new temperance paper, the Centre County Shield and was exceedingly encouraging to the workers in the cause.

Their county ticket was made as follows: Associate Judge, William Thompson, of College township; Representatives, W. J. Dale, of near Bellefonte; C. C. Hess, of Rush township; Prothonotary, Walter Scott, of Phillipsburg.—No nomination was made for District attorney; Dr. Guss and Rev. Zeigler were re-elected to positions on the State Central committee; and Christian Buck, of Unionville; Dr. W. S. Biglow, of Phillipsburg; William Thompson, of College township; Dr. George Swartz, of Bellefonte were chosen delegates to the State Convention with William Fisher, of Unionville; W. T. Bair, of Phillipsburg; Wm. Bell, of State College, and Samuel Shaffer of Bellefonte as alternates.

H. D. Patton, state chairman, addressed a general meeting afterwards and Miss Lilly Runals, a New York prima donna, sang some clever selections. A general meeting was held in the evening when a large crowd assembled, in the Court House, to hear the speakers.

—Ladies blazers in tans and other light shades $3.00 $3.50 and upward. Lyon & Co.

—The residents of west Willowbank street were greatly excited, on Saturday afternoon, when a team of horses, which had been tied in front of Mitchell Lieb's house, took fright and ran away. They dashed wildly down the street and broke through the fence, into the Gentzel property, entirely demolishing it and the harness, though the horses and wagon escaped with very little injury.
