PORT MATILDA.

Our farmers are very busy putting in their oats and preparing their corn ground.

Cromwell Jones is teaching the young ideas of this place how to shoot, and has eighteen twenty pupils under his charge. We wish a success.

We have not heard directly from our delegate from this vicinity, now encamped at g Mills, but feel sure they will keep the credit of old Matilda.

Lecture given by Miss Shaw was well liked and appreciated. She is a very nice and is working for a good cause.

pleased to report that some of our are convalescing.

at the person who gave the editor "Column" the information about s of our town was "way off his correspondent is pretty well this place, and can't find more persons. Probably he meant an boast of twelve or fifteen not ashamed of any of our will not be called "old maid" we so few of that stripe.

Once upon a time, so the story goes, some boys got tired of walking to and from their place of business, so they threw together their fortunes and procured a riding machine. "Ah! ha!" said they, as they gazed upon the poor innocent looking wheel; now we'll take a short spin and astonish the natives." So one of the "astonishers" seized it with a grip of iron, and mounted it, at least he says so, but the others say it mounted him, so we will not attempt to settle this dispute. It was tried with equally good success by all, but with much perseverance and many bumps, they at last got so "kerflip" that they can ride so far as ten feet at one time. Of course this didn't happen in our town? nevertheless if you want to see some fun watch our operators. U No Who.

BUFFALO RUN.

Rev. Jacob Moore is feeling very indignant over the article headed "Take Care of the Baby," and published in the GAZETTE, and copied by another paper. Mr. Moore says a man should learn to talk United States before he relates incidents to the editor. Charlie, he is onto you.

Wonder who last week's correspondent was. His letter was somewhat meagre, but very good considering.

Johnnie, you must not ask so many pointed questions about certain individuals, as little fellows are to be seen, not heard.

Amunda, what makes him address his letters "in haste"? Can't he get communications often enough?

Miss Cora McCormick, of Pine Hall, spent last Sabbath with her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Behrer.

S. E. Baisor has gone to Dent's Run, where he will be employed in the lumber woods.

Rev. R. H. Stine, of New Bloomfield, Perry county, has been visiting relatives and old acquaintances at this place. He also filled the pulpit in Gray's church on last Sunday morning. Mr. Stine formerly was a citizen of this place.

Mrs. David Miess has been passing through a season of sickness recently, but the writer hopes to hear of her speedy recovery. Dr. Irwin, of Julian, is the attending physician. The doctor is a young man, and is meeting with extraordinary success in his brief practice. You Know Who.
