

Pine Grove Mentions.

The venerable Isaac Harper is seriously ill with disease incident to old age.

Mr. Peter Keichline, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his aged parents here.

Our enterprising agricultural friend, D. W. Miller, has been spending sleepless nights in sympathy with a felon on his finger.

Mr. Isaac Murryman is quite sick with erysipelas on his head and face. With which he has been confined to bed for some days.

Justice Archey, as a representative of Penna Valley Lodge L. O. O. F. is in attendance at the Grand Lodge in session, at Sunbury, this week.

Ex-Register J. A. McClain and Prothonotary L. A. Shaffer took dinner at the St. Elmo, a few days ago, both feeling confident of Democratic victory next November.

But for the timely arrival of passers by the home of W. J. Meyers would have been burned, with all its contents Tuesday night.

The blaze caught from a lot of papers too close to the pipe.

Our sprightly young ex-merchant, J. D. Bloom and family, last week took their departure for their far western home in Kansas.

Mrs. Bloom will spend some of the heated summer months with relatives in Wisconsin her birth place.

The memorial services will be held in the M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Rev. Glover will preach the sermon for the occasion. Every person is cordially invited to attend, especially old soldiers, whether members of the G. A. R. or not.

Rev. Mr. Jackson very ably filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday morning and evening in the absence of the regular pastor Geo. Elliott who, through the kindness of his people, is enabled to take a little jaunt and expects to be absent several weeks.

Comrades Charley Smith and Ed. Livingston, two hours, took in the rotation of the Regiment, which shared the hospitality of the Mountain City last week. The old fellows had a royal good time and the Mayor Col. Burchfield ordered their pocket books closed.

County Sup. Eiters, last Saturday, conducted the teachers examination at this place. A class consisting of sixteen applicants were punctually on hand. Both a. m. and p. m. sessions had a fair sprinkling of citizens present—a good many good marks were given and a few applicants rejected.

The Lutheran synodical organization committee consisting of Pres. Miss Dornblaser and Sect. Miss Hallman made eloquent addresses, here, showing the statistics of the Ladies Mission work. They very agreeably formed an organization at this place, with a large membership, working for the advancement of the Ladies Missionary Society.

The horse stolen at Waterstreet a few nights ago was traced through the mountains at Barre, thence over a trail road log that led to the farm buildings of Wm. B. McWilliams where the thief exchanged his saddle for a new set of harness and buggy. Soon after night fall he made the exchange and started for the public road when he was met by young McWilliams, returning from the post office. Not until the next morning did Mr. McWilliams miss either harness or buggy. Search was then made and it just occurred to young McWilliams that he had met a stranger the evening before. Upon following the track for less than one half mile the horse was found tied to the fence with the lost harness and buggy attached. The thief no doubt thought he was detected hence made good his escape to the mountains.

The following night ex-Sheriff Irvin's stable was minus a horse and his neighbor, Kiley Thompson, was short a set of harness and a buggy that have not yet been heard from.

About the same time the railroad office at Penna Furnace was burglarized but little booty was obtained. Andy Guist had most or all of their eatables sampled and besides a lot missing. Mr. Guist's residence is close to the foot of the mountain and no doubt an excellent place for such treks to take lunch at.

The last trace Sheriff Irvin had of his stolen horse was at Montandon where he and the officers were close on to the thief with chance of his capture.

In Memoriam.

On the 11th inst. Mrs. Elmira Wallace, wife of Mr. Frank Wallace, Jr. departed this life at her home in Central City, near Milesburg Pa. At the age of 25 years one month and 23 days leaving two little children her husband and many friends to mourn their loss. Her race was short, but she obtained the prize. Her disease was consumption, after lingering weeks and perceiving that the end was near she expressed her desire to bear witness to her faith and hope in Christ her Savior to "confess Him before Man" and unite with his church and people.

On the 10th of April last the writer visited her at her own request and spent more than an hour with her in the presence of her husband relatives and others in conference and prayer. Her apprehension of Christ and the way of salvation through faith in Him, were remarkably clear and vivid. But her deep conscientiousness and utter sense of unworthiness caused her to hesitate to profess herself a Christian, at last these scruples being removed she joyfully confessed her faith in Christ was baptized, and received as a member of the Milesburg Presbytemian Church then she gave expression to her joy and peace saying with a beaming face "Now I can rest" embracing her husband and kindred. The scene was touching in the extreme what a testimony to the truth the reality and the power of the religion of Christ! Even in the valley of the shadow of death it can give rest to the soul. Week before last she invited some friends to sing hymns with her and one "Waiting" seemed to give voice to her soul. She was patiently waiting till her Lord should come. On Sabbath, May 8th, she requested the writer to come and baptize her two dear little children. She desired to give them to Jesus before she should depart and then and there little Edwin Willit, and Bernice Inghida, were baptized. Now she had "done what she could" for Jesus she would like to live to have gone up to God's house to worship with his people but her Lord took her on the third day after up to that "house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." On Friday afternoon May 13th, her funeral service was held in the Milesburg Presbyterian church attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors, and her remains were laid to rest in the Bellefonte cemetery to await the coming of the Lord.

"Forever with the Lord!"

Amen I so let it be;

Life from the dead is in that word,

"Thou immortal!"

FINE SELECTED BLENDED TEAS.

It is a pretty well settled principal with all expert tea men that the highest perfection in tea cannot be attained from any one kind or variety of tea plant. But that the best value and choicest flavor can be obtained only by a skillful blending of carefully selected high grade goods of different varieties. When teas are perfectly blended the original flavor of each variety disappears in the blend, and from the combination we get something entirely new and much finer than any of the original flavors. We have a new blend of our own. In the preparation of which we have spent considerable time and labor and have also had the aid and counsel of several as good tea men as are to be found in the United States. It is with entire confidence that we offer the goods for sale and unhesitatingly claim them to be very superior both in value and flavor. If you want a cup of ROYAL TEA, try our new blended goods. We also carry a full line of Teas, Oolongs, Japan, Young Hyson, Imperials, Gunpowder, English Breakfast, also several grades of blended goods, and can suit the trade on anything in the tea line. You may not be exactly suited on the goods you are using, and we feel confident that you will be able to get from us just what you are wanting. We sell fine teas at very reasonable prices. Try them. We have a clean dry sugar 8lbs for 30cts. the cheapest sugar ever sold in Bellefonte. Respectfully,

A WORD ABOUT NATARRII.

It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established it eats into the very vitals and renders
