

BURGLARS IN CENTRAL CITY.—The mill of J. M. Wagner & Son was entered by placing a ladder to a window at the rear of the mill and forcing the window open and thereby gaining entrance to the office in front of the mill. The safe being always kept unlocked, the burglars had no trouble in seeking; but finding nothing; except the grain books from the front of it, in which the daily receipts of grain was kept. Fortunately the entry book was posted, except two receipts. The cash book beginning in 1888 and closed in 1891 had been balanced and carried forward into a new book Nov. 2 '91. The new book they did not have but tore the back from the old one. These books will be found hereafter at J. C. Wagner's home, the surviving partner of the firm, where any one wanting to examine them can do so without the use of a ladder.

From the evidence left behind the burglars, it is easily concluded that burglarly was not the purpose as the safe being open and the interior easily examined, and no money within it, they would at once have departed but several of the books were taken from the office, carried across the mill into another room and apparently examined and the lids torn from the ledger and 63 pages torn out of the front part of the grain book and either destroyed or taken with them. Mr. Wagner thinks it was a plot laid to injure him. It looks very much as though Mr. Wagner's theory is correct.

Among the many pleasant features of the State College commencement was the first reunion of the class of '89. It argues well for the implanted love of P. S. C. that out of a graduating class of fifteen members all of whom are widely scattered from their alma mater, eleven covers should be required for the first class banquet partaken of in three years.

One would be strongly inclined to call it with Theodore Child "Delicate Feasting," for on an exceedingly warm day eating seems to be a lost art, yet when the Fates are kind enough to allow a thoroughly wilted individual to be served with as dainty and elegant a banquet as we sat down to on last Wednesday afternoon in Ceder's cool and attractive restaurant, one could certainly be persuaded that we ought to live to eat after thoroughly enjoying the following:

Meat
Soup
Bouillon
Fish

Chicken Croquettes. French Peas.
Spring Lamb Mint Sauce. Turkey and Jelly.
New Potatoes. Baked Tomatoes.
Whipped Ice.

Shrimps in Mayonnaise. Potato Salad. Olives.
Sliced Tomatoes. Cucumbers.

Strawberries. Vanilla Cream in Morango
Pound Cake, Nut Cake, Chocolate Cake,
Macaroons, Kisses, Lady Fingers,
Cocoanut, Sand Tarts, Oranges,
Bananas, Nuts, Raisins.

Cheese, Wafers,
Coffees, Teas

A short time was devoted to a mutual interchange of experiences met with in the last three years. Mr. J. S. Weller responded to the toast The Law of Courtship, R. P. Swank, Single Blessedness, W. B. N. Hawk, Married Bliss, C. G. Roop, The Past, J. Foster, The Future, D. Hunter, Our Class J. P. Jackson, Soothing Syrup. Thus ended one of the pleasantest chapters in the history of the class of '89.

Church—Wright.

In the Presbyterian church at Milesburg, Centre Co., Pa., on Thursday, June 9th, last, by the Rev. George Elliott, of Bellefonte, the admired and accomplished Annie E. daughter of Rev. W. O. and Mrs. Isabella Wright of Milesburg, was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Dr. C. B. Church, of the same place. At 5:30 o'clock, the beautiful new church edifice with its charming selection of highly fragrant flowers, was filled to overflowing and promptly at the minute for the beginning of the ceremony Miss Mary Crawford of Arch Springs, touched the sweet chords of Mendelssohn's wedding march and the fair bridal party entered, and marched up the middle aisle, in robes of snow white purity that was in sweet harmony with the soul inspiring music. First came the ushers, Dorey Hunter of Bellefonte and Charley Clinging of Lewisburg, next were the bridesmaids Miss Ella Irwin of Jacksonville, and Miss Mary Wright the brides sister. The maid of honor was Miss Catherine Hahn of Houtzdale, followed by the bride resting on a mission of innocent and devoted love, to meet and receive her spouse which she did just as the groom and best man Dr. Gearhart neared the altar. The Rev. father gave his treasure over to him who is to love and protect her through life with cherishing and unflinching words I give her. The Rev. Elliott's words were extremely brief and repetitive. The happy twain at once repaired to the parsonage adjoining the church, to receive the congratulations of their friends and neighbors and an abundant feast of good things for the natural man, which the writer thereof enjoyed hugely though he neither ate nor supped. Most of the invited guests were relatives from a distance. The presents were beautiful, useful, and many, after partaking of the beautiful repast the bridal party took their leave for Eastern and Southern cities. Few weddings, I trust have been so modest and beautiful, hence I use the word unique, as the one just alluded to. I rue it is that pearls and rubies of great price and the glitter of the worlds most fascinating jewels were wisely abstained. But one of the most valuable treasures was a pure and holy heart, a young lady devoted to home pursuits, or household refinements, an ever ready hand to useful employments, a heart refined in Henry culture and without doubt will be devoted to the best interest of husband home, and neighbors as she always exercised in her parents' home. "Truly a help meet." The groom and skillful practitioner can safely be measured in the same tassel though hers should be heaped measure! May their lives be as happy, long and prosperous as the beginning portends June 21, 1892.

In Memorial.
Died in Central City, June 1st, 1892, Mary Isabella Orris wife of Samuel Orris. The deceased was born June 22nd, 1841, and was therefore, aged 51 years less 22 days. She left a husband and six children, one son and five daughters, a number of them young in years. She joined the M. E. church at the old Eagle Chapel in the Bald Eagle Valley, at the age of thirteen years, and became a faithful consistent member. She was married to Samuel Orris, January 1st, 1867. She became settled in her late residence soon after her marriage, and taught the infant class of the Milesburg M. E. Sabbath School seventeen years. She was diligent in church duties, and was in the prayer meeting when this last stroke came upon her, which was gradual in the form of paralysis. It was not caused by the alarm of fire, or from the suddenness of a shock of any kind, as has been stated. She was able to reach her home by the assistance of friends, but was obliged to sit down by the way side in getting there. She was conscious part of the time and recognized her friends. In answer to inquiries she signified her reply by a pressure of the hand, as she was at times directed to do. There belief, in the resurrection of Christ was strong and her faith unshaken. To an earnest inquiry, she responded faintly. "I can't tell you how much I love Jesus." She knew her father and friends and lingered one week before death came to her relief.

The deceased was the eldest daughter of Col. Philip W. Barnhart, and well known to the People of Bald Eagle Valley. She was a woman of kind heart and noble purposes, actuated always by the tenderest manifestations of kindred sympathy. But she has passed away, the warm heart which beat so strongly for others has ceased to pulsate, and she sleeps the sleep of death, ever young in the eagle shaped cemetery, in the valley of her nativity, and there it will repose beside the ashes of many of her ancient kindred whose bodies have long since moldered into dust. With the bereaved husband we sympathize, and for the family of motherless children our sensibilities are touched. The God who giveth hath taken away, and he who tempereth the winds to the shorn lamb, and sendeth not a sparrow fall, will regard them in mercy and protect them.

"SEVERE EYE TROUBLE."

I have been troubled with some Eye disease for some time. The pain was almost unbearable at times, and I couldn't think of reading or sewing at any time. I put myself under the care of Dr. Salm, who visits Butler every four weeks, and after only three months treatment, I consider myself entirely cured, and I can safely say that my eyes feel better and have better vision than at any time within the last twelve years.
Butler, Pa., W. Jefferson street.

CROSS EYE OPERATION.
I have been cross-eyed ever since infancy On August 27, 1890, I went to Dr. Salm, who visits Indiana every four weeks. He operated on my eyes with perfect success, without pain or loss of blood in about a minutes time.
Respectfully,
KALE KUNKLE,
Parkwood, Indiana county, Pa., Oct. 23, 1890

EAR TROUBLE AND CATARRH.
I have been troubled with catarrh and deafness, ringing in the ears, about six years. Tried two different doctors in Pittsburg, and ever so many patent medicines, without the least benefit. I have now been under Dr. Salm's treatment four months, and the improvement is remarkable, and I am certain that within a short time I'll be entirely cured. He is the Doctor to go to, to get cured.
W. R. MILLER,
Kelleys Station, Armstrong Co., Pa., Oct. 3, 1890

FISSURE, FISTULA AND ULCERATION OF RECTUM.
After first treatment in the most intense pain had vanished as if by magic. For nearly five years I have suffered most fearfully from fissure, fissure and ulceration of rectum. The pain produced by same was at times almost intolerable, and my doing any work was out of the question. After having had the first treatment from Dr. Salm, the relief was remarkable and the fearful pain of years' standing had vanished as if by magic, and now after a short course of treatment I consider myself entirely cured.
Gratefully,
JOHN HONNER,
Indiana, Pa., March 11, 1891.

GROWTH REMOVED FROM THE EYE BALL.
Dr. Salm has removed a hard, gristly growth from my left eye with perfect success and but little pain. The sight has also improved to a great extent.
Respectfully,
MRS. EMILIA ADAMS,
Wick, Butler county, Pa., January 22, 1891.

REMOVAL OF TUMOR FROM THE EYE BALL.
A few months ago Dr. Salm removed from my left eye-ball a tumor size of a small hazel nut with perfect success and no pain whatever, and was not kept in the house a single day on account of the operation.
Respectfully,
ALICE WORK,
Rochester Mills, Indiana Co., Pa., Jan. 14, 1891.

TUMOR REMOVED FROM THE EAR DRUM.
I have had a tumor growing in the ear almost attached to the drum. Dr. Salm removed the same four weeks ago without any pain, and as I can see now, with splendid results. He is a great physician.
PETER ANNAN,
Somerset, Pa., January 10, 1891.

PRIVATE DISEASES.
On account of having been Attending Physician at Hot Springs Dr. Salm has never failed to cure a case of Private Disease, peculiar to either sex, no matter of what nature or how long standing.

RUNNING OF THE EARS.
Our little son Brinton has for the last five years had running of both ears, and the same was so offensive that it was almost impossible to be near him; he became emaciated pale and puny, and was nearly always crying on account of the pain. We had him treated in Linesville, Clarion and Oil City by the best home physicians, but no cure resulted and we might just as well have thrown our money in the fire. Dr. Salm has been treating him for three months, and an entire and splendid cure has been made by him on Brinton.
Mrs. R. V. McNAUGHTEN,
Kingsville, Clarion Co., Pa., Jan. 27, 1891.

LUNG TROUBLE CURED.
In June of last year I put myself under treatment for a bad case of lung trouble. I was losing flesh rapidly and became weaker daily, so that my friends and myself became very much alarmed. Although treated by some of our very best home physicians, I began to sink more and more. At this date I consider myself entirely cured of all my previous trouble, have once more a good appetite and can eat and sleep with pleasure, and am indeed very much satisfied with the result. Dr. Salm has done all he promised.
S. E. RAHE,
Blanco, Armstrong Co., Pa., Feb. 2, 1891.

CATARACT SUCCESSFULLY REMOVED.
Having heard of successful cataract operations Dr. Salm has made, particularly of one case of an old lady in Columbus, I decided to have him operate on my right eye, in which I was blind for nine years. The operation was performed some time in July; the pain was not worth mentioning and no chloroform was given. As a result I can to-day see far and near, read and write again, and from having been in ill health and puny, I am also rapidly improving in strength. I will gladly answer any correspondence and personal inquiry, regarding this successful operation. I was 74 years of age when the operation was performed.
MARGARET KELLEY,
Ashley, Delaware Co., Pa., Feb. 2, 1891.
