A Bald Eagle Barn Raising.

Editors Democratic WATERMAN. Gentlemen—Permit me to report an occurrence, which for a day broke the monotony of our peaceful, quiet valley. It was our pleasure to attend the "barn raising" on the farm of our old friend and staunch Democrat, Samuel Gingershy, who for 40 years has lived on the same farm. The barn itself will be a handsome bank overshoot, 50x75 feet. J. S. Fredericks, of Unionville, contractor and builder, was certainly the happiest man of the day and should be as every joint, mortice and tendon went together as though shaped by hands divine, and as he marshaled the forces of neighbors and friends who numbered two hundred, he certainly proved to all that he was the right man in the right place. The work went on smoothly piece by piece being suited to the structure which set in 11-30 dinner was announced, when to our surprise our eyes fastened upon 4 long tables set in the old barn laden with delicacies which only the ladies of Bald Eagle Valley can prepare. To say all enjoyed the dinner is very mild. When we think of seeing the pie eating transfered from Stormtown headed by P. Burket and Geo. Lutzner. The lion of the hungry men was certainly S. Mites, of Port Matilda, closely followed by W. Cronister and A. Wood ring and we thought of the passage of Scrip ture where it says "the lion and lamb shall lie down together." We think the Scripture has been verified, but we pity the lamb.

Among others who worked hard (at the table) was Aaron Williams, Esq., S. R. Pringle and Rev. Young. Suffice to say all did justice to the excellent dinner when all went to work and at 5 p.m. the structure was completed. Supper was served in the same good manner. When the old time custom of elevating the contractor, head cook, etc., were gone through with, with much fun for all.

The evening was spent by the young people with music and singing, while the older friends and neighbors talked of former days and related the tricks of their youth. When all departed for their respective homes feeling happy over the day so pleasantly spent.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Bellefonte P. O. since, 20 1892. Dr. C. E. Cameron, Mrs. Jane Campbell, G. S. Clements, Amos A. Elliott, James Koch, L. R. Leach, E. M. Stark, Mrs. Rachel Stine. June 27.—Mrs. Nellie Dural, Edward Morgan, Alice Nailer, Miss A. J. Woodford, Johnny Meyers, John J. Meyers, William C. Meyers. When called for please say advertised.

J. A. FIEDLER, P. M.

Pine Grove Mentions. Sheriff Port is looking around for a house-keeper. Mrs. Wolf of Ouburn, is visiting her brother Justice J. H. Miller. Our jolly townsman W. E. Meek, is improving slowly, but we hope surely, from a complication of diseases caused by gripple. Mr. Alexander Tanyer, who some years ago took a really or somebody else's advice and went west, a few days ago returned, to his parental roof. Jacob Krumrine and Fritz Reed are boasting of additions to their families that will not need to be registered to vote until the 13th year of the 20th century.

On the 16th inst., Mr. W. Seigle was thrown from his horse back wards, the horse falling on him, causing internal injuries and a large scalp wound. For some days Dr. Woods, his medical attendant, had but little hopes of his recovery from concussion of the brain, but at this writing he is a little better.

On last Monday p.m. a heavy rain and electric storm, accompanied with hail, passed over this section. A valuable cow belonging to Joseph Gates was standing under a tree near town and was instantly killed by lightning. The fresh plowed fields and newly made roads are badly washed, so much so that the road supervisors will be compelled to levy an additional millage.

Tuesday of this week was appeal day for house. Commissioners Goodhart and Adams represented the board. Outside of some few minor errors but very few red ink figures were made. This is the first time in many years that the Commissioners were induced to come to our township and we were surprised to see so few taxpayers present.

Messrs. Keller and Brown have moved their saw mill into the mountain gap just south of our town where, for the next year, they will engage in cutting and sawing lumber. Having purchased all of the Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Company's timber lands from that point west to Grayville, which will require some six years sawing. This means bad roads and higher road tax and should mean a stone crusher.

Little George Beckley recently met with a narrow escape from death. His father had gone to the haymow, in the evening, to throw hay down and the little boy, in a playful mood crawled under the hay. When his father dropped the fork down on the hay before moving when he found the boy pinned to the floor one of the fork prongs glanced along the skull and through the skin on the back of the head causing but little injury to the child, but a number of frightened neighbors were soon on hand to sympathize with the almost crazed parents.

On the 10th inst., reaper death entered, the first time, into the home of the venerable Patterson Irvin and very suddenly bereft the family of a loving husband and indulgent father and the county a good citizen and the Presbyterian church one of its oldest members. Brain trouble caused his death, in his seventy-sixth year. An aged wife, two daughters, and five sons, with a large chain of relatives and friends, mourn the loss of one of the oldest land marks of the vicinity of Bellefonte, where he spent all of an honest and honest life. His pastor Rev. Ermentrout officiated and his remains were laid away in the Penna. Furnace cemetery on the 13th inst.

Last Sunday morning Children's Day was observed by the Lutherans. The exercises throughout were fine and impressive, with elegant music. Rev. C. T. Althoff had charge of the exercises which were witnessed by a crowded house. The entire front of the church was tastefully decorated with the choicest flowers centered by a large cross. In the evening our M. E. friends held their young people's exercises. Long before the hour of beginning the house was crowded and those who failed to go early had the pleasure of standing and that room was all taken very soon. The exercises were conducted very successfully by the pastor Mr. Glover. We were led to think they tried to outstrip Lutheran brethren in the morning. The church was tastefully decorated and the cross at the prop'r time was adorned with a crown in a graceful speech and gestures of a pretty little Miss, who is to be commended for the manner in which she did it. All of the scholars who took part in the day's exercises are to be highly commended and their performance will ever remain as a bright gem in their crowns.

Last Saturday morning an old Sol poured out his hot rays in splendor the bright sound was heard calling for a long looked for picnic. Very soon the road was lined with prancing steeds and carriages laden with young folks who were apparently well pleased with their selves. It was soon discovered that Shady-side Park was the objective point. And there shut out from the world, but not from Shingletown, they did have a royal good time. The happy faces we chanced to see, as they passed were: H. M. Krebs and Miss Theresa Aikens, Frank Bailey, Arvilla Bloom, Laura Musser, Ada Samsenman, John Bailey, Mary Ward, Clay Campbell, New Krebs, Elsie and Annie Fortney, Nannie and Mamie Campbell, George Gardner, J. B. and Musser Heberling, Edie and Sadie Markle, George and Cal. Bailey, Alka Musser, Hewitt Meyers, Minnie Bortoli, Bella Confer, C. M. and J. W. Fry, Mary Stamm, Estella Heberling, Mill Keller, Mary Bailey, M. G. McWilliams, Nannie Bailey, Laura Fry, Jane Krebs, James Ward, Edie Keller, Alvin Musser, Mary Gardner, George Weaver, Margie and Annie Kline, James Strusser and Baker Krebs, from this place, and a number from Shingletown swelled the crowd.

BALTZELLS.

Our Household Department, located in the basement, still leads any similar house in Altoona in the variety and low prices, and we intend to keep it right there. We do not say this in a spirit of boasting, but simply as an assertion of fact, for we do not forget, as some do, that no advertisement that promises more than it can do, and is misleading in statements, can be of value to the advertiser, but in the end quite the reverse. No one who has ever visited our basement can deny that our stock does not exceed anything ever shown in this city before for its wonderful variety and great beauty of many things, or the reasonableness of prices.
