The Speeches of our Leaders.

Cleveland and Stevenson Capture All Hearts With their Sterling Speeches at Madison Square Garden, New York, When They Were Notified of Their Nomination. 30000 People

MR. CLEVELAND'S SPEECH.

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN The message you deliver from the national Democracy arouses within me emotions which would be nigh overwhelming if I did not recognize here assembled the representatives of a great party who must share with me the responsibility your mission invites. I find much relief in the reflection that I have been selected merely for the principles and purposes to which my party is pledged, and for the enforcement and supremacy of which all who have any right to claim Democratic fellowship must constantly and persistently labor. Our party responsibility is indeed great. We assume a momentous obligation to our countrymen when, in return for their trust and confidence, we promise them a rectification of their wrongs and a better realization of the advantages which are due to them under our free and beneficent institutions. But if our responsibility is great our party is strong. It is strong in its sympathy with the needs of the people, in its existence upon the exercise of governmental powers strictly within the constitutional permission the people have granted and in its willingness to risk its life and hope upon the people's integrity and patriotism.

NEVER A BETTER INCENTIVE THAN Now

Never has a greater party, intent upon the promotion of right and justice, had better incentive for effort than is now presented to us. Turning our eyes to the plain people of the land we see them burdened as consumers with a for the courteous terms in which you tariff system that unjustly and relent- have advised me of the results of the lessly demands from them in the purchase of the necessaries and comforts of life an amount scarcely met by the wages of hard and steady toil, while the exactions thus wrung from them build the nomination so generously tendered. up and increase the fortunes of those for whose benefit this injustice is perpetuated. We see the farmers listening to a delusive story that fills his mind with visions of advantage while his pocket is robbed by the stealthy hand of high protection. Our workingmen are still told the tale oft repeated in spite of its demonstrated falsity, that the existing protective tariff is a boon to them and that under its beneficent operation their wages must increase, while as they listen, scenes are enacted in the very abiding place of high protection that mock the hopes of toil and attest the tender mercy the workingman re-ceives from those made selfish and sordid by unjust governmental favoritism. OPPOSED TO THE PROTECTION THEORY.

the theory upon which seek to justify and uphold existing tariff laws. We need not base our attack upon questions of constitutional permission or legislative power. We denounce this theory upon the highest possible grounds, when we contend that, in present conditions, its operation is unjust, and that laws enacted in accordance with it are inequitable and unfair. Ours is not a destructive party. We are not at enmity with the rights of any of our citizens. All are our countrymen. We are not recklessly heedless of any American interests, nor will we abandon our regard for them; but invoking the love of fairness of justice which belongs to true Americanism, and upon which our constitution rests, we insist that no plan of tariff legisla-tion shall be tolerated which has for its object and purpose a forced contribution from the earnings and incomes of the masses of our citizens, to swell directly the accumulations of a favored few, nor will we permit a pretended solicitude for American labor or any other specious pretext of benevolent care for others, to blind the eyes of the people to the selfish schemes of those who seek through the aid of unequal tariff laws to gain unearned and unreasonable advantage at the expense of their fellows.

DENUNCIATION OF THE FORCE BILL. We have also assumed in our covenant with those whose support we invite the duty of opposing to the death another avowed scheme of our adversaries, under which the guise of protecting the suffrage covers, but does not conceal, a design whereby to perpetuate the power of a party afraid to trust its continuance to the untrammeled and intelligent votes of the people. are pledged to resist the legislation intended to complete the scheme. because we have not forgotten the saturnalia of theft and brutal control which followed another tederal regulation of the state suffrage because we know that the managers of a party which did not scruple to rob the people of a president would not hesitate to use the machinery created by such legislation to revive corrupt instrumentalities for partisan purposes; because an at-tempt to enforce such legislation would rekindle animosities where peace and happiness should prevail; because such an attempt would replace prosperous activity with discouragement and dread throughout a large section of our country, and would menace, everywhere in the land, the rights reserved to the states and to the people which underlie the safeguards of American liberty.

WILL RESPOND TO POPULAR WANTS. I shall not attempt to specify at this time the other objects and aims of Democratic endeavor which add an inspiration to our mission. True to its history within our membership we commend continued, unswering allegiance to the party whose principles, in all times past cent bottles for sale by F. P. Green, have proven sufficient for them, and Druggist. whose aggregated wisdom of patriotism, trusted. In return for the partisanship which befits the occasion, let me say to you as equal partner in the camtheir experience teaches, can always be paign upon which we to-day enter, that the personal fortunes of those to whom you have entrusted your banners are only important as they are related to the party which they lead.

NOT A PERSONAL MATTER.

I cannot therefore, forbear reminding you and all those attached to the Democratic party or supporting the principles which we profess, that defeat in the pending campaign followed by the consummation of the legislative schemes our opponents contemplate, and accompanied by such other incidents of their success as might more firmly fix their power would present a most discouraging outlook for future Democratic suthe objects we have at heart. Moreover, every sincere Democrat must believe nor's report, the "Bichloride cure" was that the interests of his country are deeply involved in the victory of ourdeeply involved in the victory of ourparty in the struggle that awaits us. This patriotic solicitude exalts the hope of partisanship and should intensify our determination to win success. Tihs suc-Democracy, rely upon the thoughtfulness and patriotism of our fellow countrymen. It only remains for me to say to you in advance of a more formal response to your message, that I obey the commmand of my party and confidently anticipate that an intelligent and earnest presentation of our cause will insure a popular endorsement of the action of the body you represent.

MR. STEVENSON'S SPEECH. MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMITTEE: I cannot too earnestly express my appreciation of the honor confered upon me by the great delegated assembly which you officially represent.

To have been selected by the national Democratic convention as its candidate for high office is a distinction of which any citizen might well be proud. I would do violence to my own feelings, sir, should I fail to express my gratitude deliberations of the convention. Distrusting my capacity fully to meet with the expectations of those who have hon-ored me by their confidence, I accept Should the action of the Chicago convention receive the approval of the people I shall, to the best of my humble ability, discharge with fidelity the duties of the important trust confided to me LATE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION. Reference has been made in terms of commendation to the late Democratic administration. Identified in some measure in an important branch of the public service with that administration I am gratified to know that it has in so marked a degree received the endorsement of the Democratic party in its national conven-Mr. Chairman, of the grave responsibilicents per box. For sale by C. M. ty which attaches to the great office for Parrish. which I have been named. I may be pardoned for quoting in this connection the words of the honored patriot, Thomas A. Hendricks. when officially inform ed that he had been designated by his party for the vice presidency in 1884, he said THE WORDS OF HENDRICKS. "I know that sometimes it is understood that this particular office does not involve much responsibility, and as a general rule that is so. But sometimes it comes to represent very great responsibilities, and it may be so in the near future. The two parties in the senate being so nearly evenly divided, the vice president may have to decide upon questions of law by the exercise of the casting yote. The responsibility would then become very great. It would not then be the responsibility of representing a district or a state. It would be the responsibility of representing the whole country and that vote when thus cast should be in obedience to the just expectations and requirements of the people of the United States. Should it please my countrymen to call me to this office, the high apprecia tion to its dignity and its responsibilities as expressed in the utterances and illustrated in the public life of the eminent statesman whom I have mentioned will be a light to my own pathway.

NO APPEAL TO PASSIONS. In the contest which we now enter we make no appeal to passions, but to the sober judgment of the people. We be-lieve that the welfare of the toiling millions of our countrymen is bound up in the success of the Democratic party. Recent occurrences in a neighboring state have sadly emphasized the fact that a high protective tariff affords no protection and tends in no way to better the condition of those who earn their bread by daily toil. Believing in the right of every voter to cast his ballot unawed by power, the Democratic party will steadily oppose all legislation which threatens to imperil that right by the interposition of federal bayonets at the polls. In a more formal manner hereafter, Mr. Chairman, I will indicate by letter my acceptance of the nomination tendered me by the national Democratic convention and will give expression to my views touching the important ques-tions enunciated in the platform.
