ROAD SIGN BOARDS.—There is a stringent law on this subject fixing the manner in which supervisors shall do this work and describing how those index boards shall be inscribed to impart necessary information for travelers on such highways. As is usual with the performance of those public duties, they are willfully neglected because the public do not make complaint to the proper source, the courts, where only they can secure redress. It may with truth be written that no defect on highways in the country and straits in cities is more calculated to elicit from strangers contemptuous criticisms on such localities as that of intelligible index boards pointing the way on township roads and giving the names of streets in boroughs and cities. To assure the possession of such conveniences where they are not furnished as the law directs, the public need only apply to the courts to have them promptly supplied.—Ez.

Pine Grove Mentions.

D. G. Meek and wife are recreating at Ocean Grove this week.

Dr. Milton Krebs, of Philipsburg, was in the throng on our streets on last Saturday.

Mrs. J. F. Meyers is improving but slowly from a bilious attack with which she was confined to her room for several weeks.

The primaries and County Convention are things of the past and one of our delegates returned donned in a late styled straw hat.

Mr. J. E. Way and wife, of Halfmoon, were among the throng of picnicers here on Saturday last and Sunday with our townsman Joseph Ward.

A lady's coat was found on the road leading from this place to Stormstown the owner can learn of its whereabouts by calling on Mrs. George Custerbarger.

The thirty-first anniversary of Co. E. 45 Regt. P. V. Vols. will be held in Capt. Stevens' grove, near Lovellville, Sept. 2nd, in the shape of a basket picnic, all old soldiers are cordially invited. A special effort will be made to have long survivors of the company present, to enjoy a day with its first captain. As brave an officer as ever drew a sword was Capt. Henry Stevens.

Fifty dollars was the amount realized at the refreshment stand last Saturday. It was a gala day in the grove near town. Three bands headed the procession and the woods echoed with good music furnished by the Weaver Orchestra and singing class while the Sheridan, Stormstown and Penna. Furnace bands bowed their best. Prof. George W. Weaver of Curwensville favored the gathering with a breezy little speech, in which he highly complimented the music and more especially the lady violinist. Then every body was turned loose to the woods and a good social time was enjoyed.

The reaper deck visited our community last week and seized victims old and young. Some time ago little George, a bright little fellow of ten summers, son of Michael Roades was suffering from rheumatism but nothing serious, veated itself in the progress of the disease, until a few days before his death, when it approached the region of his heart. His suffering ended on the 11th inst and on the 13th inst his body was laid to rest, viewed by his sorrowing parents and playmate, who assembled at his tomb, and shed a last tear over one they loved but had to part with just in the morning of life.

And now our big farmer friend Stine Walker is advocating a stone crusher and better roads. On Saturday while on the way to a picnic, accompanied by his little boys, and driving at his usual gait a front spindle broke, the wheel bounding against the fence, while he and the little fellows squabbled about among the stones for a smooth spot to light upon. Andy Lytle is making road speeches also for at the same time while driving along at a pretty rapid gait his wife was thrown out of the carriage, falling on her baby, which for a time was lifeless, but fortunately indeed, aside from some bruises and scratches the party was able to continue their way to the picnic where they received congratulations from every body upon their miraculous escape.

On the 12th inst, at Rock Spring, the venerable Daniel Frank died of cancer of the face and throat of which he suffered for several years and for the last year was unable to partake of any food but in liquid form. Mr. Frank was born near Aaronsburg, this County, June 1818. For the last fifty years has been one of our most respected citizens. In his day he was a noted nimrod and in his later years he delighted as much as ever in hunting and his hand was firm, his aim true in his best days. Early in his youth he consecrated himself with the Lutheran church, to which faith he adhered to the last. He was the father of two sons and three daughters two of whom have gone to Europe. His brothers Andrew and Jacob and sisters Mrs. Sarah Condo and Mrs. Lutz, with his wife, survive him. His remains were laid to rest in the Grangeville cemetery last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Ernest out officiating.
