

A Revised Catechism of Workmen.

(Respectfully dedicated to Mr. Stevenson, of Pittsburgh, author of former "Catechism for Workmen" in 1888.)

McKinley bills for high tariff mills. Pinkerton pills for the workmen's ills. Q. What is tariff? A. A tax.

Q. What is high tariff? A. A special law to create millionaires out of the iron manufacturers.

Q. Why does McKinley desire to make millionaires? A. Because they contribute largely to the Republican party, favor a monarchical form of government, like to live in castles in Europe, build million dollar monuments (to be kept up at public expense) hire Pinkerton physicians, &c., &c., all of which takes a great amount of money.

Q. How are Pinkerton pills taken? A. They are never taken; always given.

Q. What is a Pinkerton physician? A. A practitioner of a new school of medicine, founded by Dr. Pinkerton, of Chicago.

Q. What is Dr. Pinkerton's form of treatment? A. By Pinkerton pills.

Q. What are Pinkerton pills? A. An ounce of lead in a brass capsule.

Q. What disease are Pinkerton pills especially designed for? A. The objections of the working man to having his wages reduced under an alleged protective tariff.

Q. Who are they given by, and how? A. Pinkerton pills are injected into a workman by a special physician, sent out from Chicago for that purpose; generally by means of a Winchester rifle, but any large gun will do; 44 calibres are considered the best size.

Q. Who are the Pittsburgh agents? A. The Carnegie Steel Company (Limited) at present.

Q. What is the high sheriff of Allegheny county? A. A nonentity.

Q. Who acted as the adviser of this nonentity in the present trouble? A. Chris Magee, who would a national chairman be.

Q. Who was his chief deputy? A. State Senator Bill Flinn.

Q. What is the antidote for Pinkerton pills which nearly always proves fatal? A. Vote the Democratic ticket, for a tariff for revenue only. All tariff over that is putting more power into the hands of the manufacturers to grind to death the working man.—By S. L. Bellman.

—Fine job work of ever description at the WATCHMAN OFFICE.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.
—Mr. Frank Wescott is again seen on our streets.

—W. E. Burchfield, of Philipsburg, spent Sunday in this place.

—Assistant postmaster Geo. W. Reese is taking a much deserved vacation.

—Clearfield county sent five convicts to the western penitentiary last week.

—The Bellefonte High school opened for the winter session, on Monday morning.

—Mifflinburg will celebrate its 100th anniversary with a grand pageant, on October 4th.

—The water is lower in the west branch of the Susquehanna than it has been since 1881.

—The College foot ball team will play the Altoona eleven a game, at Tyrone, to-morrow afternoon.

—The Hebrew New Year, Yom Kippoor, began on Wednesday evening at sun down. It was the first day of Jewish year 5653.

—Twenty-one foreigners were naturalized, at Hollidaysburg, on Monday. Blair county Republicans are evidently fixing up their fences.

—Two very interesting novelties in the line of advertisements are to be seen in Parrish's drug store windows. A horned toad is also attracting attention.

A JONAH SURE.—The first Chinaman, who voted in the State of Maine, was naturalized just in time to cast his ballot at the last election. It is needless for the WATCHMAN to tell you of the result.

—Mr. Frank Karstetter, a former Bellefonte boy, but now the successful proprietor of a Philipsburg plumbing establishment, spent most of last week at the Granger's picnic. His Sunday was spent with friends here.

—Mr. J. C. Barnhart, has taken the agency for the Keystone Suspension Fence, for Boggs township, which is said to be one of the best and cheapest fences ever erected. For description write him at Roland, Pa. 2t

Fauble's Clothing House.

TO OUR MANY PATRONS:

Owing to our former small quarters we were never able to show you as large a stock of clothing and furnishing goods to select from as your kind patronage merited. With our two new rooms in the Brockerhoff House block, occupying 2500 sq. feet of space, we are able and will show you such an assortment of goods as will do credit to a town twice the size of Bellefonte. Good, honest goods at fair and reasonable prices has been the key note of our success.

With the additional facilities now at our command. Light airy rooms, a large and well selected stock we are better prepared than ever to appreciate the liberal patronage which we have enjoyed at your hands and to requit it by giving you the largest value that your money can possibly obtain.

Give us a call and be convinced that we have the most complete clothing and furnishing goods store in Central Pennsylvania. Look at our prices. Examine our stock.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mrs. A. J. Tate, who last week was lying at death's door, prostrated with Typhoid fever, is recovering but slowly.

Mr. Henry McWilliams, formerly one of our farmer boys but now one of P. R. R. shop's trusted employees, at Altoona, took in Granger's picnic and tarried with his friends here a few days.

At a congregational meeting, recently held in the Presbyterian church, among other matters pertaining to the church interests, it was agreed to build a new parsonage on the old site; for which a committee was appointed to commence operations at once.

Dr. McCormick, of Nittany Valley, took leave of his patients a day or two to greet his old time friends hereabouts. While here he and blacksmith Eckley tried their steeds on the turf. No stakes were put up, but the Dr. thinks his steed a second Nancy Hanks.

Mrs. Lafayette Sholl, of Ill., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Remy, whom she is trying to induce to go west and partake of hospitable home. This pleasant lady will be remembered as Miss Luestia Garrett, of this place. Her husband, Lieutenant Lafayette Sholl, was killed in the war.

Mr. George Smith, of Harrisburg, accompanied by his wife, is taking his outing along the base of old Tussey mountain, with head quarters at his mother's, Mrs. Judge Smith. George reports a flourishing business at the Capitol in the confectionery and ice cream line, in which he is largely engaged and we hope successfully.

Mr. Arthur Bailey's many friends were surprised in the early part of last week, on seeing him quietly glide home with a bride at his side. She is one of the Smoky City's most accomplished young ladies. During their stay with the groom's parents, W. H. Bailey, near our town, the newly married couple received showers of congratulations for their new departure in which the WATCHMAN joined hands.
