

reading. It has often been remarked during the years of severe suffering preceding her death, that it was a strange dispensation of Providence which selected for this severe ordeal, one so young, beautiful, gifted and noble, one looking forward to gracing ere long a home of her own, one with such high promise of usefulness, instead of one less charming and useful; but by those permitted to behold the patient endurance of days of agony, the thoughtfulness for others, the christian resignation, the cheerful trust in the will of the Father above, which increasingly marked her period of trial up to the very last, Divine purpose and a most precious usefulness will be clearly perceived. Such an influence cannot be in vain. God grant the same faith to us in time of need.

The deepest sympathy of the community remain with her loving parents, brother and sisters, who have for so long devoted their whole attention to her comfort and recovery, and who have so recently suffered the loss of a son and brother. One of the largest funeral trains the valley has known, followed her remains, on Monday last, to the Gray's M. E. Church, of which she was a member, and where the services were held, thence to the burial ground.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mr. D. B. Londer is convalescing slowly from a severe attack of Typhoid fever while our old agricultural friend, Wm B. McWilliams is prostrated with heart trouble.

Son-in-law, McCormick, of Downs, Kansas, with his wife suddenly dropped in on his way from the G. A. R. Encampment and were most happily greeted by Mr. and Mrs. William Sausseman, on Main street, where the veteran couple was met and found to be in good health for their age.

Mrs. J. Herbert Ward, of Shamokin, tarried several days at the hospitable home of Joseph Ward. One of the ever present charms about his home is their expressive of love for flowers. No visitor ever enters their home without feeling at once transported to the fragrance of alysium. Flowers of every variety beauty and perfume the house.

—During the past week many visiting strangers have tarried within our gates. A few of whom we had the pleasure of meeting and among them was George W. Eaton of Orangeville, Ill. George apparently was glad to see how'd do to his old time associates. From what we could learn he has accumulated some of the Sucker state's goods and converted it into a home which by his perseverance and industry has been paid for. He is and has been for some years the station agent at his town. A number of Centre county boys reside in that vicinity and are doing well. Work is plenty and wages good. Mr. Martin F. Burket, of Iowa, paid a brief visit to his mother-in-law Mrs. Hannah Glenn. Mr. B. is a man well kept although his full beard and locks are sprinkled with grey. He is a brother of that princely good fellow Port Burket, of Half Moon, whence he will leave for his western home.

Capt. A. A. Rhinhart, of Irving, Ill. Also stopped en route from Washington to greet some of the survivors of his Company, D. 148, Rgt. Pa. Vols. As the large portion of that company was enlisted from this place he had no trouble in very soon having a good time with the boys, "one of whom he can no longer be called if we are to judge from his silver locks. Next was Charley Ramsey, the last and probably the least, who held the very important position as adjutant of Col. Beaver's Regt. He was a native of Mifflin county, but enlisted with the boys from this place and after the war took Greeley's advice and went and did grow up with the country. He is a bank president, R. E. director and a large stockholder in several manufacturing establishments and this fall he is willing to represent his constituents in the Legislature of the Sucker state. A little episode, of his army life that is vividly recalled every time we see his is this: when Col. Beaver broke camp at Cokeysville, for Fredericksburg while marching through Baltimore the Adj't. was so delighted with the Monumental city that he lost his command and hurriedly marching and eager to find his Reg't. accosted a stranger and asked if a "big Regiment" passed with a Colonel looking like a girl. Upon receiving an affirmative answer he was soon found at his post where he served until the surrender at Appomattox.

Books, Magazine Etc.

The Art Interchange for October has so many attractive features that it is difficult to know what to select for mention. The most castic and clever feature, is the "Views by Her" column, in which the public is told some plain truths. The most beautiful one is a dainty and charming Venetian Scene in color, entitled, "A Venetian By-Way." A brilliant Study of Peaches, in color, and a sheet of Dresden Figures and Emblems, also in color, are most useful to Amateurs and Home Decorators. People of taste will be charmed with the beautiful engravings of some of Barbino's famous paintings, and those desirous of keeping themselves informed of art events will read with interest the Paris-London correspondence, Critical Comment on the illustrations in the popular magazines, also Art Gossip. An admirable article on Drawing, with careful illustrations of Pencils, telling pupils how and how not to draw, also contains much valuable advice. The Householder and Home Decorator will find in this issue beautiful models for the exterior of a low-cost house, with careful plans, and also schemes for decoration. To those who entertain either much or little, the "social life" department offers numberless useful suggestions.

Embroideries and China Painters, whether they pursue their favorite art for pleasure or profit, cannot afford to be without The Art Interchange. Novelties in Undecorated China are exhaustively treated—most useful information at this season of the year, when holiday gift sales are being prepared—and new ideas in Embroidery materials are also given. Numberless beautiful designs for all manner of art work complete a most entertaining and useful number of this old art paper.

Price of the October issue, together with three Art Supplements, in color, 35 cents. For sale by all newsdealers. Published by The Art Interchange, New York.

A Gauzy Reason.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal. Some people are asking why the Agricultural building at the World's Fair was chosen on which to place the scantily clothed Diana. Perhaps it is because the clothes have been taxed off the back of agriculture by the tariff.

Fauble's Clothing House.

To Our Many Patrons:

Owing to our former small quarters we were never able to show you as large a stock of clothing and furnishing goods to select from as your kind patronage merited. With our two new rooms in the Brockerhoff House block, occupying 2500 sq. feet of space, we are able and will show you such an assortment of goods as will do credit to a town twice the size of Bellefonte. Good, honest goods at fair and reasonable prices has been the key note of our success.

With the additional facilities now at our command. Light airy rooms, a large and well selected stock we are better prepared than ever to appreciate the liberal patronage which we have enjoyed at your hands and to requit it by giving you the largest value that your money can possibly obtain.

Give us a call and be convinced that we have the most complete clothing and furnishing goods store in Central Pennsylvania. Look at our prices. Examine our stock.

In Memoriam.

Many readers of the WATCHMAN, to whom he was personally known, will be grieved to hear of the death of George Witherite, which occurred Aug. 27th at his home in Snow Shoe, he was a strong, hearty, robust man and only complained a few minutes, when he fell from a chair dead. Doctors pronounced it heart disease. His sudden death was a great shock to the community. Born Feb. 22nd 1834. He was just in the prime of life. A life that had been passed mostly in Snow Shoe township where he was respected and esteemed by the entire community. He leaves a wife and seven children all of whom have reason for sorrow and are entitled to sincere sympathy, for he was a devoted husband and a kind father.

"May the Heavenly Father in His mercy allow the family ties to be established where sorrows of earth do not intrude; and where the church is triumphant over sin and death."

Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own;
And bids them leave a world of woe,
For an immortal crown?
Then let our sorrows cease to flow,
God has recalled his own,
But let our hearts in every woe,
Still say,—"Thy will be done." ***

Tribute of Respect.

WHEREAS It has please an all wise Providence to remove by death Mrs. Susan Hosterman, of Boalsburg, the mother of two of our members, therefore be it.

Resolved: That while we recognize in this dispensation the Hand of Him who doeth all things well, we sincerely mourn the loss of the useful members of our community.

Resolved: That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved family, especially with the ones who are members of our society, and pray that our Heavenly Father may give them strength to endure their loss.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and that they be published in the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN and in the Kegonsa Gazette.

for any case of Rheumatism it fails to cure, if taken according to directions.

Read following testimonial of an eminent Centre county physician.

GATZEMER, Centre County, Pa., Aug. 9, 1892.

To the N. F. German Rheumatic Cure Co., Tyrone, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—I had suffered with Rheumatism for many years, when, at the advanced age of seventy-seven years, your cure was recommended to me. I had tried upon myself everything known to me, (I am a doctor of fifty-one years experience) and had despaired of ever being cured. Your remedy was taken according to directions, and after using the second package, the disease left me entirely and no rheumatic pain or ache has troubled me since.

I can recommend it without hesitancy to all afflicted with the disease, and being familiar with the ingredients contained in the compound, can recommend them as being non-injurious to the constitution, and as being the most efficient blood remedy known.

Truly Yours,
DANIEL BATES, M. D.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS

SEVERE EYE TROUBLE.

I have been troubled with some Eye disease for some time. The pain was almost unbearable at times, and I could not think of reading or sewing at any time. I put myself under the care of Dr. Salm, who visits Butler every four weeks, and after only three months treatment, I consider myself entirely cured, and I can safely say that my eyes feel better and have better vision than at any time within the last twelve years. Mrs. P. GOLDEN, Butler, Pa., W. Jefferson street.

CROSS EYE OPERATION.

I have been cross-eyed ever since infancy. On August 27, 1890, I went to Dr. Salm, who visits Indiana every four weeks. He operated on my eyes with perfect success, without pain or loss of blood in about a minutes time. Respectfully, KALE KUNKLE, Parkwood, Indiana county, Pa., Oct. 23, 1890.

EAR TROUBLE AND CATARRH.

I have been troubled with catarrh and deafness, ringing in the ears, about six years. Tried two different doctors in Pittsburg and ever so many patent medicines, without the least benefit. I have now been under Dr. Salm's treatment four months, and the improvement is remarkable, and I am certain that within a short time I'll be entirely cured. H. W. KELLEY, Kelley Station, Armstrong Co., Pa. O. C. FISSURE, FISTULA AND ULCER OF RECTUM.

After first treatment in the most intense pain had vanished as if by magic. For nearly five years I have suffered most fearfully from fistula, fissure and ulceration of rectum. The pain produced by same was at times almost intolerable, and my doing any work was out of the question. After having had the first treatment from Dr. Salm, the relief was remarkable and the fearful pain of years' standing had vanished as if by magic, and now after a short course of treatment I consider myself entirely cured. Gratefully, JOHN HONKER, Indiana, Pa., March 11, 1891.

GROWTH REMOVED FROM THE EYE BALL.

Dr. Salm has removed a hard, gritty growth from my left eye with perfect success and but little pain. The sight has also improved to a great extent. Respectfully, Mrs. EMMA ADAMS, Wicon, Butler county, Pa., January 22, 1891.

REMOVAL OF TUMOR FROM THE EYE BALL.

A few months ago Dr. Salm removed from my left eye a tumor the size of a small hazel nut with perfect success and no pain whatever, and was not kept in the house a single day on account of the operation. ALICE WORK, Rochester Mills, Indiana Co., Pa., Jan. 14, 1891.

TUMOR REMOVED FROM THE EAR DRUM.

I have had a tumor growing in the ear almost attached to the drum. Dr. Salm removed the same four weeks ago without any pain, and as I can see now, with splendid results. He is a great physician. PETER ANKMAN, Somerset, Pa., January 16, 1891.

PRIVATE DISEASES.

On account of having been Attending Physician at Hot Springs Dr. Salm has never failed to cure a case of Private Disease peculiar to either sex, no matter of what nature or how long standing.

RUNNING OF THE EARS.

Our little son Britton has for the last five years had running of both ears, and the same was so offensive that it was almost impossible to be near him; he became emaciated, pale and puny, and was nearly always crying on account of the pain. We had him treated in Linesville, Clarion and Oil City by the best home physicians but no cure resulted and we might just as well have thrown our money in the fire. Dr. Salm has been treating him for three months, and an entire and splendid cure has been made by him on Britton. Mrs. R. V. MCNAUGHTEN, Kingsville, Clarion Co., Pa., Jan. 27, 1891.

LUNG TROUBLE CURED.

In June of last year I put myself under treatment for a bad case of lung trouble. I was losing flesh rapidly and became weaker daily, so that my friends and myself became very much alarmed. Although treated by some of our very best home physicians, I began to sink more and more. At this date I consider myself entirely cured of all my previous troubles, have once more a good appetite and can eat and sleep with pleasure, and am indeed very much satisfied with the result. Dr. Salm has done all he promised. S. E. RAINE, Blanco, Armstrong Co., Pa., Feb. 2, 1891.

CATARACT SUCCESSFULLY REMOVED.

Having heard of successful cataract operations Dr. Salm has made, particularly of one case of an old lady in Columbus, I decided to have him operate on my right eye, in which I was blind for nine years. The operation was performed some time in July; the pain was not worth mentioning and no chloroform was given. As a result I can see as far as near, read and write again, and from having been in ill health and puny, I am also rapidly improving in strength. I will gladly state any correspondence and personal inquiry, regarding this successful operation. I was years of age when the operation was performed. MARGARET KELLET, Ashley, Delaware Co., Ohio.
