

Columbus Day at Howard.

Perhaps on no former occasion have the pupils of the Howard schools enjoyed a day such as we had in our little town on Friday Oct. 21. All the pupils enrolled in the schools, many of the parents and citizens of the adjoining districts assembled to do honor to the discoverer of America. The G. A. R. and P. O. S. of A., to whom much credit is due for the success of the day and under whose direction the program was arranged, turned out in full uniform to participate in the parade.

E. W. Kline, principal of the schools after distributing flags, formed the pupils in line in front of the school house and from thence marched to the P. O. S. of A. room where the parade was ready to start. The procession was led by Nittany Hall Band followed by 13 of Mr. Kline's pupils carrying the flag presented to the schools and which was raised over the school house; along with these marched the color guards of the G. A. R. Then came 13 boys of the same school carrying banners representing the 13 original states; Then came the P. O. S. of A. followed by the school. The parade of nearly 400 every one carrying a flag or banner with some appropriate inscription looked grand, especially the school children.

After marching through the principal streets the procession filed into the school yard where a stand had been erected for the speakers. Opening prayer by Rev. N. B. Smith of the M. E. church; singing of America, by schools; address by Rev. N. B. Smith; raising of flag and music by bands; singing of Columbia by schools; address by H. W. Bender, of the Evangelical church; H. W. Quigley orator of the day for some unexplained reason failed to put in an appearance. Prof. Hamilton, of State College, being in the crowd was called upon by Mr. Kline for a speech, and responded with a very neat and appropriate talk. The speech of Rev. Smith was pronounced by all who heard it to be most excellent; that by Rev. Bender was also very good and wound up by three rousing cheers for the flag.

Much credit is due the principal of the schools, Mr. Kline, and the pupils for their help in making the day a success. Prof. Kline is a very patriotic and successful teacher and always has a ready hand for any celebration of our country's age and independence.

The P. O. S. of A. also return many thanks to Prof. Kline and students for their kindness.

A SPECTATOR.

An Interesting Communication on the Judgments.

Martha Station, Centre Co., Pa., Oct. 27, 1892.
 Mr. Editor.—By your permission I ask a small space in your columns. The articles in the last two issues of the Republican, "A Plea for a Pure Court," and "The Judge Question," seem to merit some rebuke because of the misleading tone in which they are written. First the election of June 1889, on the Amendment, was not on local option, but on Statutory Prohibition, and was meant for the entire State. And while all who desire the welfare of society would only be too glad to have a "pure court," yet how the election of Mr. Gray is to bring about such a result in the face of the present complexion of the court, is indeed a mystery. The situation would be exactly the same as at the present time, and has been for the last three years, with the increase of license.

And to charge prohibitionists (for that is what is intended in the last part of the second article) with the election of Mr. Faulkner, should be too good to be true, and should for any sane reason to either advance, or accept. One might as well charge a man with stealing his own property, simply because he was not awake when the thief came, to prevent him from taking it.

A corrupt fountain cannot purify itself, neither can an impure court. It will require outside force to do it, and prohibitionists until they have not only one judge, but three upon the bench; and their candidates never can, nor never will be elected so long as they cater to such foolish insinuations as are thrown out by the non-partisan, high-license-Republican correspondent who wrote those articles.

Justice For All.

In justice to a man whom it appears has been grossly maligned by certain individuals, we take pleasure in publishing the following receipt and which we hope will set at rest the wagging tongues of those who had no more to do than to impugn the motives of a friend.

Received of Zeb. Bathurst seven dollars and fifty cents, which is in full of all demands to date.
