

To Wed Outside of Royalty.
The Prince of Wales' Daughter to Marry Lord Rosebery.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Rumors to the effect that the Earl of Rosebery, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, and the Princess Victoria, the eldest of the Prince of Wales' unmarried daughters, are betrothed have been discussed in the society papers for some time past. While discredited in well-informed circles no absolute denial has been obtained, and consequently added credence is given them.

The fact that Lord Rosebery attended the Prince of Wales' celebration of his fifty-first birthday at Sandringham, on Wednesday, has been constructed as a confirmatory indication.

If the Princess, whose name in full is Victoria Alexandra Olga Mary, marries Lord Rosebery, she will be the second daughter of the Prince to marry outside of royalty, her elder sister, Louise, being now the Duchess of Fife.

Princess Victoria is in her 25th year, having been born in Marlborough House London, July 16, 1893. In face and figure she resembles her mother. She is a young woman of varied accomplishments, not the least of which are the homelier ones of domestic life.

It is believed that the union of the daughter of the heir to the throne, with so pronounced and distinguished a Liberal would have a marked political effect.

Lord Rosebery, though long prominent in public life, is only 45 years old. His first wife, whom he married in 1875 was the only daughter and heiress of Baron Meyer Amschel De Rothschild. Her death in November, 1890, was widely lamented. By her Lord Rosebery had four children two girls and two boys.

To Continue the Homestead Strike.
PITTSBURG, November 15.—It has been 138 days since the sympathy strike inaugurated by members of the Amalgamated association at Lawrenceville and Beaver Falls Carnegie mills began. The Carnegie Steel company, limited, to-day started the last of its works at the Beaver Falls plants, claiming that so far as the Lawrenceville and Homestead works are concerned, the strike is over. It is not denied by any one that the company has unquestionably the better of the fight although it has been enormously expensive. There are numbers of the men in Lawrenceville and Homestead who are disheartened and at the same time there are as many more who are yet determined to fight it out, and who will fight for months if they are supported.

It is the question of finance with which the men have to deal and it is this which led to the nine hours conference yesterday of the advisory committee from Homestead, Lawrenceville and Beaver Falls with the officials of the Amalgamated association. The conference was not entirely satisfactory. The conference was not for the purpose of calling off the strike; there was no discussion of that, they said, for matters have gone so far. The problem now is to raise the money to continue the fight in the hope that something may turn up favorably in the end, for to-day were the difficulties adjusted, many strikers would not be taken back, their positions being filled.

Davenport Must Go.
Congressman Fitch Says His System Will Be Wiped Out.

NEW YORK, November 12.—Congressman Ashbel P. Fitch, the chairman of the Congressional investigating committee which has been scrutinizing Mr. Davenport's financial accounts and his methods, said to-day:

"There is a national impression that the investigation of the committee is complete and that the final report will be handed in on December 6, when Congress next meets in Washington. This is not so. A report will be given concerning Mr. Davenport's methods and his removal to obey the subpoena to appear before the committee. On the latter ground he can be punished either by imprisonment or by a fine for contempt. He can also be peremptorily dismissed from his office, which he got from the United States Circuit Court only on the condition of good conduct."

"As soon as Congress convenes again, with a fair Democratic majority, I myself will make a motion to have Mr. Davenport dismissed and the whole iniquitous system of Federal supervision of State elections wiped out forever. That will be the end of Davenport and of his methods, I hope."

Some Queer Bets in Boston.
A Young Man Jumps Into the Charles River and Swims Around.

BOSTON, November 12.—One of the most unique bets in the present campaign was settled at Waltham yesterday afternoon, when Harry Bicknell, a young man well known in that city, jumped fully dressed into the Charles river and swam around for a few minutes.

Last night Henry R. Austin, who weighs 280 pounds, enjoyed a wheelbarrow ride from Dedham Centre to Readville, nearly three miles. Robert S. Fulton, a Republican, furnished the music to propel the wheelbarrow. A drum corps and torch and transparency bearers accompanied the men.

Next Monday Charles Hawkins, of Dedham Centre, will walk backward to Norwood and return to pay an election bet. The distance is eight miles. John Shelton, of Belmont Hill, last night wheeled B. A. Randall all over the hill in a wheelbarrow. A drum corps, a number of torch-bearers and dozens of small boys helped out the performance. The route was about a mile.

A Mill to be Started.
SUNBURY, Pa., November 14.—Several Pittsburg manufacturers were in Sunbury to-day and negotiated the lease of the large nail mill at Georgetown, Pa., which has been idle for several years. The mill will be put in operation at once and employment given to about 600 men and boys.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Ferguson rolled up her old time Democratic majority. East precinct polled 232 out of the 244 registered voters.

We very much regret to note the death of Annie, wife of J. Mc. Thompson, at their home at State College, on the 5th inst.

H. F. Meyers of the extensive butcher firm of Meyers & Foster, of Alexandria, was seen on our streets among the Cleveland jollifiers day after election.

Mr. William Sausserman, one of the P. R. R. company's trusted employees, tarried several days in our town greeting his old associates and in attendance at his father's funeral.

Our Special friend, Levi Walker, is confined to the house from bruises sustained from a fall of a building, caused by the hoisting rope giving away. His most serious hurts are about the head and neck and one hand of which most of the skin is torn. Fortunately no bones are broken.

On the 10th inst., Mr. Oscar M. Loneberger, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Ella Strunk, of Centre Hall, had the marriage nuptials performed at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. C. T. Aikens, in our town. The bride, an amiable young lady, formerly of our town, received a cordial greeting wishing the newly married couple unbounded success all the way down through the streams of time.

On Oct. 26th, Dr. Hugh Alexander and Miss Kate Smith, equipped with the required credentials presented themselves before Dr. Laurie, in Bellefonte, who performed the marriage ceremony after which the newly married couple drove to Potters Mills, where the young Doctor has built up a lucrative medical practice. The bride is a daughter of H. R. Smith of our town.

The modocks came off their old hunting grounds, along Stone creek, with two fine deer Ex-Treasurer Goss and Isaac Martz made the lucky shots. Alex. Tanyer of the Buck tails bears the nimrod honors by bringing down a spike buck near the salt troughs on old Tussey, while the Sundays, Gamers and Kustaber gangs were more successful and brought in two fine does from the barrens.

Mr. Gearhart, one of Ross & Meyer's Lumber camp employees, met with quite a serious accident on Tuesday evening of this week. After supper while the camp men congregated in the lobby Mr. Gearhart after lighting his pipe held the match to a can of powder that hung suspended on the wall. It is needless to say what occurred. Mr. Gearhart's face was badly mutilated. Mr. Page who stood near was also stamped full of powder.

Last Sunday evening, the 13th inst., our community was startled by the news of the very sudden death of the venerable Wm. Sausserman who died at his home, on Main St. after a few hours illness with heat disease. The old patriarch had been in his usual health and had been about the stores gathering the election returns late on Saturday evening and but few of his nearest neighbors knew of his illness. He was in his 73rd year. Religiously a Lutheran, politically a Jeffersonian Democrat. As a citizen he was highly esteemed.

Mr. John Swartzell, of Millin county, was the guest of D. S. Erb last week, after an absence of thirty-eight years. Mr. Swartzell is remembered as one of the old time school teachers, away back in the fifties. For a number of terms he welded the birch "with a will" too in the old log school house on the hill known as the Hopewell school now Centre school. A few of the familiar names who were pupils of that district that the old gentleman was heartily glad to meet and grasp by the hand and remind them that it was he who laid the foundation of what-ever education they did acquire at the old log school house on the hill, are: the Meeks, Krebs, Erbs, Keplers, Balloes, Kustaborders, McWilliams, and others who still remember him from the sound thrashings they received at his hands. But all joined in wishing the old gentleman a long lease of life.

A Card of Thanks.
I desire, hereby, to publicly acknowledge my heartfelt thanks to my friends and neighbors, who so kindly and unselfishly aided me and administered to my every want during the sickness, death and funeral of my beloved daughter Annie.
JULIA L. BELL,
Fillmore, November 15th.

A Vote of Thanks.
Editor WATCHMAN.—Will you kindly give Camp 447, P. O. S. of A. a little space in your valuable paper for the publication of the following:

At a regular meeting of the camp a motion was made and carried, unanimously, that we tender a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. George Brandon, of the Brockerhoff house, for their tender and solicitous care of our brother, Calvin Horner, who was dangerously ill while in the employ of the hotel.

On November 3rd he had a tooth pulled, which resulted in a hemorrhage of the gums. Bleeding continued until the 9th when Dr. Hayes was called and successfully stopped it. From that moment the young man began to improve and is now up and around. The Camp is very thankful to all those who were kind to their afflicted member and appreciate it duly.
A MEMBER.

Lizzie Borden's Case.
To Go to the Grand Jury To-day—Miss Borden's Life in Jail.

TAUNTON, Mass., Nov. 13.—The Lizzie Borden case will be taken up by the grand jury to-morrow. Mr. McHenry, the Providence detective, will testify. It is understood that the hearing before the grand jury will occupy about three days. Marshal Hillard is almost daily in receipt of threatening letters. It is given out that it is impossible for the case to be reached by a jury much before February.

Miss Borden shows no anxiety respecting the coming grand jury hearing. She is outwardly cool and composed. During the day she takes exercise in the corridors of the women's apartment, and spends much of her time in the hospital room above, where Mrs. Wright has given her two windows full of flowers to look after. She is very fond of them, and in their care appears to forget that she is a prisoner.

Mingle's Shoe Store.

The steady increase in our trade is remarkable—We can account for it only in the goodness of our goods, and reasonable prices.

Our stock of winter boots is now full. In men's oil grain and kip—hand-made—we have the very best productions of reliable manufactures. Equal—if not superior—to best home-made goods.

We are sole agents for Alfred Dolge felt shoes and slippers. They are so well known that they need no special mention. Remember we have the sale of them and all others are imitations.

Do you want a school shoe for that boy that will wear him all winter, keep his feet dry and protect health? If so buy our "Steel Shod" line—they are neat, substantial and low in price.
Of course we lead in ladies' shoes—same as in all other lines—Hand and Goodyear welts at prices that will surprise you.
