

News Notes From Howard.

The Epworth League reports several new members lately.

Harry L. Freeman joined the Christian Endeavorers here two weeks ago.

Ira Packer, our harness maker, closed his shop for a few days this week.

Job W. Packer, father of Ira Packer, died not unexpectedly Monday morning.

Mr. Earl Way still lingers, at Howard, at his uncle's home, Dr. O. W. McEntire.

Democrats and Republicans here sympathize with Mr. Blaine in his deepening illness.

Christmas trade is not what it has previously been as evidenced by the small anticipations of storekeepers.

Large lots of turkeys and geese are semi-weekly shipped from this point, which again demonstrates that we are striving to keep up with the times.

We learn from Lian Fletcher that something new is under the sun. It is a boy this time, and from all accounts we know that mother and son are doing well.

Newton King, fell from a load of lumber in Nittany Valley last week, causing the breaking of an arm and severe injury to his leg and chest. We hope this is not the true story.

Our champion marksman and hunter, E. W. Kline, bagged another big turkey. This time being a hen weighing (live) 15 lbs. Who says school teachers are not in it now. Hurrah!

After a long wait, our citizens have at last cured another glimpse of our popular freighting W. P. Mitchell and his sister Mary. Will says that Philadelphia is a great town.

The crematory is well under way: Constable Neff is digging the well and has about 30 feet depth already with good prospects for water. The old part of the building is no more.

J. Howard Freeman, brother of Harry, is making quite a success in solo singing in various entertainments held in Philadelphia. He is spoken of as a possible elocutionist in the near future.

Mr. Benner W. Way and son, Earl, visited her sister, Mrs. O. W. McEntire, the past week. She departed for home Friday morning, leaving Earl to the tender mercies of the girls here. Brace up Earl.

In a conversation between some old veterans in the store recently, one asked the other as to what his thoughts were when he saw the flag waving in the field and the reply was "I thought the wind was blowing."

The turnpike, owned by Mr. Long here, is reported to have been abolished by the courts. The sum of $1,500, was awarded the defendant but it is thought that further litigation will be necessary before the desired end can be accomplished.

In the course of his last Sunday's sermon, Rev. Smith said it had been intimated that the Howard church did not receive its full share of preaching and that he proposed to read a statement showing that he had done his duty and more too. He did it and we now hope the falsifiers will shut up.

While packing his cellar windows with hay' C. C. Cook unintentionally picked up the stick which was being used to stir the wash fire and packed the hay with it, with the result of fire unnoticed till the smoke was seen issuing from the weatherboard. It was a close shave. Little Charlie Cooke was the cause of the fire, not his father.

It is rumored that January 1st will witness several changes in the management or police system of the Huntingdon Reformatory, among them being the resignation of Geo. A. Smith, the present Deputy Supt. We are sure that those boys who are serving paroles in Centre county will be sorry to see this change as he is the best man to be had for the position he occupies. It is understood that the Board of Managers refuse to accept the resignation.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The New Peterson for January is both handsome and attractive. The cover is extremely artistic, the paper and typography are excellent, the illustrations admirable, and the literary contents are worthy of the names of the contributors many of whom are among the best known writers of the day.

Some very attractive illustrated articles are announced to appear in the January number of Harper's Magazine. Among these Julian Ralph's account of "The Old Way to Dixie," Foulton Bigelow's narrative of Russian experiences in "Why we Left Russia," and Theodore Child's description of life and scenes in "Proletarian Paris," will enlist the attention of every intelligent reader. Other articles which will forcefully appeal to the tastes of a cultivated audience will be a paper of personal reminiscences of Tennyson, by Annie Fields, and a comprehensive article on pensions by Edward F. Waite. The number will also be particularly rich in fiction, including the opening chapters of two important serials, "The Refugees," by Constance Fenimore Woolson; a beautiful Oriental sketch by Henry Van Dyke, "The Story of the Other Wise Man," a characteristic story by Richard Harding Davis, "The Romance in the Life of Hefty Burke," a New England sketch, "The Rejected Manuscript," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward; and a laughable farce by W. D. Howells, entitled "The Unexpected Guest." The editorial departments will contain a variety of inviting features.

MINCE MEAT. We make our own Mince Meat and spare no trouble or expense in bringing it up to the very highest standard. We use a sufficient quantity of well cooked beef (which is the true foundation of all good Mince Meat). The fruit is all carefully cleaned and prepared, and every item of goods used in it is of the highest grade.

Our Mince Meat can be used by any family with entire confidence, that the goods are just what we recommend them to be. It is quite a good deal of labor to make even a small quantity of Mince Meat and that frequently prevents people from using the goods. But now you can get it any time in any quantity and at a moderate price just as good Mince Meat as you can make in your own house. But it is hard to give in cold type any satisfactory description of the goods we have, so we will close with a cordial invitation to all who read this to call and see what a fine stock of GOOD THINGS we have.
