

News Notes From Howard.

Mrs. Geo. Johnston, of Mt. Eagle, is on the sick list.

At the John I. Packer sale very good prices were obtained.

Nine big teams passed through Howard en route to Tioga county lumber jobs lately.

Mrs. James Bland has been seriously ill for some time past, and it is an uncertain question if she can pull through.

Mrs. Hinton, died Monday, the 16th inst., presumably of dropsy. Another one of our good old souls goes to eternal rest.

Many candidates for constable have recently sprung up. Ambrose Holter among them having been prominently mentioned.

Mrs. Lizzie Mann recently gave an exceedingly pleasant party at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mann, on Walnut street.

Mr. James Bland is to be congratulated upon the success of his sons in business. Some of them mere boys, earn men's wages already.

Every body says that Frank Swartz is the finest clerk that R. P. Long ever had in his employ. We congratulate Frank upon his success.

Mrs. O. W. McEntire recently visited her family and relatives at Filmore, Pa., taking Josie and Earl with her, the latter probably as an escort.

The ice on the Bald Eagle is 14 inches thick making it splendid for putting up, but the most of our farmers, don't like it thicker than 7 or 8 inches.

Many of our ladies and gentlemen have enjoyed the excellent coasting afforded them 'loagside Tipton's barn much to the discomfort of passing teams.

The blacksmiths all say that customers wait 'til it snows and then bring in their sleighs to be fixed. Some one will miss a good ride by not fixing up in time.

Mrs. M. E. Freeman and daughters Helen and Cornelia, sent Harry, a son and brother, a very handsome New Year's present, in the shape of a solid silver scarf-pin.

Mr. Paul Swartz was home for a visit, the occasion being the serious illness of Mrs. Swartz. After the bad symptoms had passed off, he returned to his place of business.

Several new flags will appear on the different school houses on Washington's Birthday.

Already the P. O. S. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. have made arrangements for the purpose stated.

The band acting upon the hint given by the WATCHMAN, has been serenading us several times lately. Good for you boys. Keep up your splendid work and you will be the champions.

Bob Holter, left the employ of D. E. Holter and is now a passenger brakeman, at Buffalo, N. Y., on the P. & E. R. R. We miss Bob at the Epworth League as well as in the store and trust that this is not a final move.

Several signs, new and bright, have appeared upon the windows of our stores and are helping trade along wonderfully. Dr. McEntire has the greatest number, they being the hand work of his clerk, your correspondent.

Mrs. Haines and Candy, Mr. and Mrs. John Boone, and Messrs. Henry S. Freeman and Castleberry, assisted Mr. and Mrs. Bickle at the reception held by them on the eve of their arrival in Bellefonte from this Boro.

Your correspondent can state from experience, that Will, eldest son of Hon. John A. Woodward, is one of the best daymen in the country. Those who enjoy choice butter and cream will do well to sample his products.

Mr. McEntire, of Filmore, father of Dr. Dr. McEntire M. D., visited Howard on a pleasure visit. He reports himself as very well pleased with our growing town, and especially with its beautiful streets and the manner in which they are kept up.

One of the notable events of the season was a sociable, given to the members of the Christian Endeavor society by its principal leader, Mrs. Dr. Hensly, at her residence, Thursday evening, Jan. 5th. Several invited guests were absent, through inability to attend but sent in their regrets.

We are pleased to quote Mr. H. W. Bickle now with Hastings & Reeder, at Bellefonte, as being seen on our streets last week. He is well fitted in his new home, just below the cemetery in Bellefonte. Mrs. Bickle was dreaming of ghosts one night and nearly scared herself to death before she remembered where she was.

Miss Sallie Meek, teacher of the Filmore school, recalled one of her esteemed pupils master Earl Way by reason of his departure from here last week for home. If all of Miss Meek's scholars are as bright as Earl, it is certainly a great evidence of what a good teacher can do. All the girls were after him here, and we cannot imagine why he got homesick.

James Heverly is a good one to catch and let loose on again. He and E. W. Kline, our champion shot, were the happy recipients of a pair of them a short time ago, one of which was very lame, but the other one was extremely wild, in fact, so wild that Jamie forgot his girl and hugged the coon so hard that it got away from him. Alas, poor Jamie, your good old cat is gone.

The season of fantasy was celebrated in Howard, by Jas. Fletcher as clown, Walter Fletcher as Indian, C. Z. Long girl, Max Allison, fat boy, (on Burd Butler's horse), Merle Neff, girl, Clyde Lucas, girl, Harry Neff, white cap, and Chet Moore not in it. After dazing us, and greeting us with their blood-curdling yells, the troops started for Eagleville, terrorizing our neighboring city beyond comprehension. When seen near here, upon their return, they were in a bad snow storm.

Books, Magazines, Etc. The February number of the Century will be one of the most attractive that has ever been published, among its contents will be found the Rev. Henry van Dyke's "The Voice of Tennyson," which in the nature of a critical estimate of the influence upon life and letters, and incidentally relates the impression produced upon the hearer by Tennyson's reading of "Maud." The frontispiece portrait of the number is an engraving by T. Johnson of the portrait of Tennyson, which is considered by his family the best likeness of the laureate ever made. "Life in the Malay Peninsula," descriptive of the palace and the people of the Maharajah of Johore, whose home is on the mainland opposite the English city of Singapore. "Goliath," a dog story by Thomas Bailey Aldrich. And a timely open letter by Miss Fanny Morris Smith, entitled "How Pianists May be Different and yet Each be Great."

If you want printing of any description the WATCHMAN office is the place to have it done.

Obituary.

The following beautiful notice of the late Agnew Moore with whom many of our readers were well acquainted, we reprint from the Western Democrat, published at Missoula, Montana:

DIED.—In the city of Missoula, December 28, 1892, Agnew Moore, who was born in Centre county, Pa., January 16th, 1829.

On January 7, 1853, Mr. Moore was married to Mary Jane Purey, and to this union eleven children were born. The wife and seven of the children remain to mourn his loss. They were all here at the time of his death except Rachel, Howard and Tom, who are still in Centre county, Pa.

He came over the range afoot, down through the Helgate Canyon, weary, foot sore and dusty, tired, too tired perhaps to see the grandeur of the canyon, but not too tired for his heart to throb with renewed hope as the beauty of the valley of Missoula burst upon his sight. It had been a long and tedious journey, but he felt that it had not been in vain. With brave heart, high hopes and strong and willing hands he went to work. In time a house was built, and then came wife and children from the distant East and filled it up with life and happiness. The years went by and he saw his children grow to man and womanhood's estate, and each succeeding year but added to his cup of happiness, until the blessings filled it to the brim and run it over.

Fifteen years went round and then he left the busy life, the loved ones, friends and home and went back over the range. But he went not as he came. No trudging up the dusty canyon road, no climbing now the rugged mountain side and staining of the eyes to see the summit, for with one glad joyous bound he cleared earth's highest peaks, and sat, calm, over trials, over sorrows, over temptations, over the cares of this world and down to the everlasting glory of the heavenly valley. No dust of travel on the garments now. No weary feet to drag along, but fresh as when it started his spirit found its second journey's end over the range.

Agnew Moore left Centre county, Pa., in 1878 and came to Missoula. Sharing the hardships, toil and hopes of those brave hearts who laid the foundation of our beautiful city, he contributed in no small degree to the substantial growth that has marked our city's prosperity. He was a citizen whom we are glad to honor, whose loss we must all feel.

An alderman from the ward in which he lived, his sound judgment will be sadly missed in the council chamber of our city. He will be missed by his children, to whom he was a loving father, sharing ambitions and helping them to a fruition of their hopes. But most of all, he will be missed by the loving, faithful wife, who, for forty years had traveled by his side over the rough places and out from the shadows into the sunshine and happiness of these later years, always confident in his strength and judgment.

Out of all the wealth and grandeur of our language we take to-day four simple words, assuming, like himself, and into a memorial wreath we weave them; what higher tribute can we pay. He will be missed.

Of his life little need be said. Away above the average in intelligence, of magnificent physique, yet of so kind a heart that we can truly say:

"His life was gentle, and the elements So mixed in him, that Nature might stand up And say to all the world: 'This was a man!'"

Death is not a welcome guest, come when he will or how. But when the years have been many, and crowned with success and happiness as they were in his case. Death comes not as the grim and ruthless robber of our loved ones, but rather as "The Lord's hired servant, he stands silent at the door, ready to swing it open." Surrounded by his loved ones death came peacefully, and as the door swung back there was no terror there, but waited down upon the stillness came the strains of distant music and "Listening love could hear the rustle of a wing."

With tender care we lay away our dead and treasure in our memories 'till we keep our hearts warm through all the years.

In Memoriam.

The following is an extract from the Minutes of the Bald Eagle Grange, No. 151, P. O. of H., unanimously adopted at its last meeting, on the death of brother John Poorman.

WENZEL.—The messenger of Death has again invaded Bald Eagle Grange and taken therefrom brother John Poorman, who departed this life Nov. 23d, 1892. The Grange has been called to mourn the loss of an honored member. Brother Poorman was a charter member and one of the oldest members of the Grange, so he had almost attained his four score years. While in health he was always at his post. He was a great sufferer for over a year, but he never complained or forgot his Grange.

Resolved, that while we bow to the will of our Divine Master, who doeth all things according to his Divine will, we tender our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved and sorrowing children and friends.

Resolved, that we drape our Charter for ninety days, and that these resolutions be recorded in the minutes, a copy forwarded to the county papers and Farmers' Friend.

A Good Time at Julian.

On Friday evening Dec. 30th, the P. O. S. of A. of Julian and a host of their friends met in their new hall for the purpose of dedicating it, and having a general good time. Interesting addresses were made by Rev. J. C. Young, of the M. E. church, Representative Schofield, of Bellefonte, Messrs. Spotts, of Unionville, and Bullock, of Julian. Most excellent music was furnished by the choir consisting of the Misses Tallhelm, Harbridge, Bullock, Myers, Sanders, Yothers, Mrs. Jennie Stevens, and Messrs. Murphy, Flick, Dale and Swope. Prof. A. Judson Smith and sister of New Millport, Clearfield county, who were stopping with their friends the Rev. Tallhelm's family, favored the audience with several beautiful vocal duets, and Dr. Swope and Walter Tallhelm added much to the enjoyment of the evening with their selections on the organ and violin. During the evening, refreshments were sold for the purpose of raising a little money, and from the fact that $40 were cleared no praise need be sung of the oysters, chicken, waffles, coffee, etc. An account of the service would be incomplete without Mr. Matlock Fry's name. He is really one of the leading spirits of the order and deserves much credit for his management of the erection of the Hall and his interest in the success of the meeting which was not really the dedicatory services, since the district officers were unable to be present; but a pleasant fraternal gathering.

Wonderful. Tyrone, Pa. Sept. 29th, 1892.

The medicine you gave me for Bronchitis and Asthma helped me wonderfully. There are 5 or 6 patients here who know of my case, and want to consult you and want to know if you will stop over here, if not we will come to Bellefonte at your next visit.

Yours Respectfully, Mrs. JENNIE CARSON.

Thanks to the good Dr. I feel once more hale and hearty. Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 13th, 1892.

For more than 5 years I have had sore eyes and at the same time a miserable case of Dyspepsia. I felt bad all over, became thin and pale, lost all appetite and energy. But now after a few months treatment with Dr. Salm I have gained very much in flesh, have a good color, eat heartily; my eyes are as good as any ones, and Dyspepsia is all gone. In fact I consider myself entirely cured, and thanks to the good Dr. I feel once more hale and hearty.

Attested by Mrs. MULLIE KELLEY her mother Snow Shoe, Centre Co. Mrs. Sarah Kelley.

Successful double cross-eye operations. Indiana, Pa., Oct. 13th, 1892.

I have been cross-eyed, and that very bad for over 28 years. Dr. Salm operated on both eyes in less than two minutes, and in fact I consider the least pain, nor was I confined in my room for a moment. I can conscientiously say that my eyes are now perfectly straight, thanks to the Dr.

Respectfully, Mrs. CALLIE KINTNER.

SEVERE EYE TROUBLE.

I have been troubled with some Eye disease for some time. The pain was almost unbearable at times, and I couldn't get of reading or sewing at any time. I put myself under the care of Dr. Salm, who visits Butler every four weeks, and after only three months treatment, I consider myself entirely cured, and I can easily say that my eye feel better and have better vision than at any time within the last twelve years.

Mrs. F. G. ADAMS, Butler, Pa., W. Jefferson street.

EAR TROUBLE AND CATARRH.

I have been troubled with catarrh and deafness, ringing in the ears, about six years. Tried two different doctors in Pittsburgh and ever so many patent medicines, without the least benefit. I have now been under Dr. Salm's treatment four months, and the improvement is remarkable, and I am certain that within a short time I'll be entirely cured. He is the Doctor to go to, to get cured.

W. R. MILLER, Kelley Station, Armstrong Co., Pa., Oct. 3, 1892.

GROWTH REMOVED FROM THE EYE BALL.

Dr. Salm has removed a hard, gritty growth from my left eye with perfect success, and but little pain. The sight has also improved to a great extent.

Respectfully, Miss EMERIA ADAMS, Wick, Butler county, Pa., January 24, 1891.

REMOVAL OF TUMOR FROM THE EYE-BALL.

A few months ago Dr. Salm removed from my left eye-ball a tumor size of a small hazel nut with perfect success and no pain whatever, and was not kept in the house a single day on account of the operation.
