

A LITTLE BOY BURNED. — The Phillipsburg Ledger tells the following story of a sad accident which happened in that vicinity on Wednesday of last week:

"Mrs. John Gearhart, of Keystone Hill, went to a neighbor's for a bucket of water, leaving her little two-year-old son Eddie and the baby in the house alone. Eddie was a stirring, mischievous little fellow and for fear of danger, Mrs. Gearhart took the matches and hid them in the sink drawer, shutting the drawer on a piece of cloth tightly. She was not gone long, but when she came back she found Eddie lying on the floor burned to a crisp. His clothes were burned entirely off. He lived about an hour. He had managed to open the drawer and get the matches, and from the indications sat down on the floor and lighted them, probably dropping them in his lap when they burned his fingers. He was buried in Centre churchyard. Mr. John Gearhart, the little boy's father, is a son of Mr. George E. Gearhart, of Chester Hill.

LET BELLEFONTE HUSTLE FOR THE ASYLUM. — If the bill introduced by Representative Niles, in the lower house of the Legislature, appropriating $800,000 for the erection of another hospital for the insane, should become a law, extra efforts should be made to have it erected on the site near this place so strongly endorsed by the last commission which reviewed prospective sites for the one now building at Wernersville, Berks county. Through some chicanery the hospital at Wernersville was taken away from Bellefonte, when it was generally admitted this was the place for it and we believe that the Reading railroad is largely to blame for the change of location.

If a new hospital is built, and the crowded condition of the others imperatively demands that there be more room, the proper place to locate it is at Bellefonte. It is the centre of a large district wholly cut off from such a convenience. There are hospitals at Norristown, Harrisburg and at Danville, and the new one is being erected at Wernersville, Berks county. Crossing the Alleghenies we find a large asylum at Warren, and Erie has the soldiers' home. In the extreme west Pittsburg supplies the demand for hospital accommodations. There are other hospitals scattered throughout the state, so that it will be seen this section has been wholly ignored.

No more eligible location can be found for such an institution than Bellefonte. It is the centre of a large and increasing population, and therefore is entitled to an institution of this kind, when the state has a favor to dispense. She has been ignored for years in this respect. If the bill passes there should be such a concentration of individual effort on the part of the board of trade and the people, that no board of charities or other committees can afford to trifle with our claims. A united and determined stand will be found to be irresistible.

Our location is also peculiarly fitted for such an institution on account of the salubrity of its climate and purity of its waters. Our scenery is matchless in its beauty, and its crowning glories stand out in bold relief in the form of mountain peaks and rolling hills. No place, therefore, is better fitted for a new hospital than Bellefonte, and every man should prepare himself to do something towards securing it in the event of the bill becoming a law.

The following letters remain unacted for in the Bellefonte P. O. Jan. 24, 1893.

Geo. A. Albright, Beckford Knitting Machine Co., Mrs. N. E. Cromer, W. H. Husman, C. F. Huston, Edward Lucas, Margaret B. McDonald, Dalmy North, Mary Watson. When called for please say advertised.

Books, Magazines, Etc. — Among the illustrated articles in Harper's Magazine for February will be Abbey's illustrations of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night with comment by Andrew Lang, "New Orleans, our Southern Capital," by Julian Ralph with pictures by Smedley, "Bristol in the Time of Cabot," by John B. Shipley, with many interesting illustrations; personal reminiscences of Whittier, by Annie Fields, and of George William Curtis, by John W. Chadwick each accompanied by portraits; "The Refuges," by a Conan Doyle, illustrated by T. de Thulstrup; and illustrated stories by Maurice Kingsley and Ruth McEnery Stuart.

Does devotion to letters and learning unfit woman for domestic duties? This interesting question will be pleasantly and adequately discussed by Colonel T. W. Higginson in an article on "Literary Women as Housekeepers" in the next number of Harper's Bazar published January 28th.

—However much one may have differed politically from Mr. Blaine, he cannot fail to be interested in the striking personality of the man, a personality which possesses a phenomenal intensity and universal interest for the people at large, quite independent of any immediate connection with the questions of the day. The February Cosmopolitan presents a careful review of Mr. Blaine's characteristics as a man and statesman, prepared by T. C. Crawford, and illustrated by numerous sketches of his home, and famous cartoons appropos of striking phases of his political career. The second article in the series of the "Great Railway Systems of the United States" also appears in this number, the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe, with its more than ten thousand miles of track being treated. Few people not living on the line of this road have any conception of its marvelous importance. The making of best road sugar is one of the rapidly growing interests on the North American continent, but the first time in magazine literature it is here thoroughly explained in every process, helped out by photographs of the seed, the roots, the method of cultivation and the most improved machinery for conversion into sugar.

News Notes From Howard.

Frank Dietz, of Mt. Eagle, had a son on the sick list this week.

Cyrus Tice has been digging several wells around here lately.

Jacob Bickle is again located in the corner building, What next?

Philip Dietz, of Marsh Creek reports himself well pleased at home.

Harry Freeman will visit his home for a short vacation, next week.

Those who brought buggies out, put them back. Sleighing is good again.

Harry Allison came home from Mechanicsburg, to attend his father's funeral.

The butcher shop was closed this week because of the senior partners demise.

We would suggest to Cooke that he let the paroled boy tend to his own business.

Messrs. Poulsen & Co., have been compelled to close their works, the cause—no water.

Mrs. Paul Swartz, after a severe illness for some weeks past, is at last able to be about again.

Jean Strunk was fined $2.00 and Boyd Haines $1.00 for disturbing the Evangelical church.

The funeral procession, attending the Allison obsequies, was the largest one for some time past.

An obstruction in front of Shutt's mill caused an upset, Tuesday night that might have turned out more serious.

The nomination of candidates was postponed from Jan. 23rd, until next night. All interested should be on hand at 7 o'clock sharp.

Robt. Allison, of Pueblo Colo. sends word, that it will be impossible for him to attend his father's funeral on account of the snow drifted railroads.

Jenkins Bros. & Lingle, have been unable to start their plant on account of the severity of the weather, the ice being still 1 1/2 inches thick, and freezing up as fast as it is cut.

It is rumored, upon excellent authority, that the P. R. R. will double track the Bald Eagle Valley R. R. for three miles, by June 1893, in anticipation of the outcome of the Hubert's burg extension bridge built by private parties.

The Evangelical church under the preachings of Rev. Bender reported 14 converts, with 3 more ready and a possibility of 4 more. This church is flourishing and makes genuine success where ever it starts. Meetings every night at the church.

Henry Smith says that good lumber is about as scarce as deer now. He ought to know, he has hauled lumber for some time past. By the way, Henry can boast of doing about as busy hauling as has been done for a long while, but the team can't always put their shoulders to it. Why not put lighter loads on for a while?

The J. O. U. A. M. announce an oyster supper for Feb. 22d, Washington's Birthday, to be held in the school house, or some place to be announced later. We can assure everyone that it will be one of the events of the season and as its object is to place a flag on the Furness and other school houses, who care for a better inducement to patronage.

The Christian church under the leadership of J. L. Phoenix Esq., of Bradford county, commenced in converting these persons this week: —Misses Essie Hanna, Addie Hoyerly, Jennie Bechdel, Bessie Pletcher, and Messrs. O. N. Lucas, Harry Hoyerly, C. Z. Long, Walter Pletcher, John Hite Jr., A. Lucas, C. Lucas and G. E. Erie. Services in the Hall daily.

Squire W. D. Allison, our butcher, died very suddenly on Sunday a. m., Jan. 23d, 1893. He had just hitched up the horse and brought him around in front of his residence, and then went in to wait for his wife, sat down in a chair, and expired almost immediately, of heart disease. Though he had been complaining for the past week still no thought was expressed in regard to dying. He was tending to his regular duties up to a late hour Saturday night and seemed to be quite as hearty as ever. Dr. McEntire was summoned, but death occurred before the doctor arrived.

The Squire had a noble life, was dearly beloved by all who knew him, and a warm reproach. He was buried on Wednesday morning, Jan. 24th, 1893, in the Cedar Hill cemetery, beside his first wife. He leaves several children to mourn his loss. The funeral services were held at Thomas Allison's, and from there the cortege moved to the cemetery. Deceased was about sixty years of age.

A Letter From Kansas. — From a personal letter from Mr. J. C. Sample, formerly of Pine Grove Mills, this county, but for years a resident of Doan, Kansas, we take the following extracts, believing they will be read with interest, especially by the many friends and acquaintances of the writer:

"I oftentimes think of my good old friends of yore days, and long to shake them by the hand, and in the course of human events I hope I may have the pleasure of doing so. We get the WATCHMAN regularly every Monday morning, and it is read with pleasure; oftentimes brightening old recollections and keeping us posted in a general way with the doings in our old Centre. But I discover the longer one remains away the more estranged becomes the local matter of your paper. In looking through the "Pine Grove—that good old town—Items," where one would naturally suppose the population would not make many changes, I find in many instances where it refers to parties, as being citizens of the town who are entirely strange to me, and I also note, from time to time, that the old land marks are passing away, and the boys and girls have grown into manhood and womanhood. Summing all these items together, I suppose, were I to drop down into the place of my birth, the marked changes would astonish me.

We have been enjoying very prosperous times in the Sandstone State for the past two years; had had fine crops, and last year the prices were remarkably good. This season prices do not rate so high, and our cereals do not move so briskly as they did. But at all events trade in all branches has been very good until the first of the year. After the usual amount of Christmas greetings were exchanged, and the holiday festivities passed, business has become rather quiet, but under almost any circumstances one would naturally expect this. The people of Kansas, just at this time, have their thoughts centred on the actions of their law makers at the State capital. They are now showing to the world at large what kind of metal we are made of. Edw. Lipton, of Osborne, stopped in to see me on his way home from Topeka. He says "the legislators are doing nothing but eating sand, wiches and playing high five," well let this be as it may the Republicans are learning through sad experience that the G. O. P. does not rule with the same ease as in by gone years. I will not tire you longer with this scribble, mere than to say that my Democratic principals are firmer than ever and I think from now on, you will find Kansas either Democratic or doubtful in politics.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from us by death Past Grand Llewellyn Fulton, a most worthy and esteemed member of the Bald Eagle Lodge, No. 410, I. O. O. F., be it

Resolved, We beg to assure his bereaved wife and family, of our deepest sympathy, in their affliction, though feeling confident their loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved, In the death of our dear brother the lodge has lost an earnest worker, a faithful and efficient member, whose hand was always open to a brother, and while we bow in humble submission to this dispensation of Providence, we will always keep "Evergreen" in our memories his many and exalted virtues.

Resolved, That our charter be draped and members wear the badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, These resolutions be published in the county papers, a copy furnished the family of the deceased, and spread upon the minutes of our lodge.

SAD AWAITING.

GO. M. MARKS.

For the WATCHMAN.

Darling shall we together wander
In some lonely, silent grove;
Where the nightingale is singing,
There to tell our tales of love?

Or shall I forever wander,
Sadly weeping all alone;
Going I know not whither,
Awaiting my love to come?

Answer quickly, 'tis truly wrong,
To wear our precious lives away,
By waiting sadly waiting,
The coming of a happier day.

For the autumn winds are sighing,
Sadly moaning 'mong the trees,
Time with us is growing shorter;
Soon will have past with the gentle breeze.

A mound in the church yard will tell,
The sad story of one kind and true;
Whose grave is alone and uncared for,
Save by the sunshine and the dew.

Wonderful.
Dr. SAIM, Tyrone, Pa. Sept. 29th, 1892.

The medicine you gave me for Bronchitis and Asthma helped me wonderfully. There are 5 or 6 patients here who know of my case, and want to consult you and want to know if you will stop over here; if not we will come to Bellefonte at your next visit.

Yours Respectfully,
MRS. JENNIE GARBSON.

Thanks to the good Dr. I feel once more hale and hearty.

Bellefonte, Pa., Oct. 13th, 1892.
For more than 5 years I have had sore eyes and at the same time a miserable case of Dyspepsia. I felt bad all over, became thin and pale, lost all appetite and energy. But now after only a few months treatment with Dr. Saim I have gained very much in flesh, have a good color, eat heartily; my eyes are as good as any ones, and Dyspepsia is all gone. In fact I consider myself entirely cured, and thanks to the good Dr. I feel once more hale and hearty.

Successful double cross-eye operations.
Indiana, Pa., Oct. 12th, 1892.

I have been cross-eyed, that very bad for over 28 years. Dr. Saim operated on both eyes in less than two minutes time, and cured the least pain, nor was I confined a day in my room for a moment. I am conscientiously say that my eyes are now perfectly straight, thanks to the Dr.

Respectfully,
MRS. CALLIE KINTER.

SEVERE EYE TROUBLE.

I have been troubled with some eye disease for some time. The pain was almost unbearable at times, and I couldn't think of reading or sewing at any time. I put myself under the care of Dr. Saim, who visits Butler every four weeks, and after only three months treatment, I consider myself entirely cured, and can safely say that my eyes feel better and have better vision than at any time within the last twelve years.

Mrs. F. GOLDEN
Butler, Pa., W. Jefferson street.

EAR TROUBLE AND CATARRH.

I have been troubled with catarrh deafness, ringing in the ears, about six years. Tried two different doctors in Pittsburg, and ever so many patent medicines, without the least benefit. I have now been under Dr. Saim treatment four months, and the improvement is remarkable, and I am certain that within a short time I'll be entirely cured. He is the Doctor to go to, to get cured.

GROWTH REMOVED FROM THE EYE BALL.

Dr. Saim has removed a hard, gritty growth from my left eye with perfect success, and but little pain. The sight has also improved to a great extent.

Respectfully,
MRS. ELIZABETH ADAMS,
Wick, Butler county, Pa., January 24, 1891.

REMOVAL OF TUMOR FROM THE EYE BALL.

A few months ago Dr. Saim removed from my left eye ball a tumor size of a small hazel nut with perfect success and no pain whatever, and was kept in the house a single day on account of the operation.

ROCHESTER MILK, Indiana Co., Pa., Jan. 18th, 1891.
TUMOR REMOVED FROM THE EAR DRUM.

I have had a tumor growing in the ear almost attached to the drum. Dr. Saim removed the same four weeks ago without any pain, and as a result I can now hear a single ear. He is a great physician.

PETER SWANAN,
Somerset, Pa., January 16, 1891.

PRIVATE DISEASES.

On account of having been Attending a Physician at Hot Springs, Dr. Saim has never failed to cure a case of Private Disease peculiar to either sex, no matter of what nature or how long standing.

RUNNING OF THE EARS.

Our little son Brinton has for the last five years had running of both ears, and the same was so offensive that it was almost impossible to be near him; he became emaciated pale and puny, and was nearly always crying on account of the pain. We had him treated in Linesville, Clarion and Oil City by the best home physicians, but no cure resulted, and we might just as well have thrown our money in the fire. Dr. Saim has been treating him for three months, and an entire and splendid cure has been made by him on Brinton.

Mrs. R. V. McNAUGHER,
King'sville, Clarion Co., Pa., Jan. 27, 1891.

CATARACT SUCCESSFULLY REMOVED.

Having heard of successful cataract operations Dr. Saim has made, particularly of one case of an old lady in Columbus, I decided to have him operate on my right eye, in which I was blind for nine years. The operation was performed some time in July; the pain was not worth mentioning and no chloroform was given. As a result I can now see a single eye, read, and write again, and from having been in ill health and puny, I am also rapidly improving in strength. I will gladly know any correspondence and personal inquiry regarding this successful operation. I was years of age when the operation was performed.
