—Miss Cora Watkins, second daughter of Mr. Charles Garrett, died at her parents' home on Pine street, Monday, and was buried yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. She was only 22 years old and had been ill for some time.

—Charles Hughes, Princeton '93, spent Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, at his home in this place. He had been over to Philadelphia where he wrestled at the A. A. U. games, in the Academy of Music and took the few days off for a visit home.

—J. M. Neubauer, the new proprietor of the Brockerhoff house who will take charge on April 1st, will rent that popular hostelry from cellar to garret. The contract of furnishings calls for walnut furniture and moquet carpets on the second floor with oak furniture and tapestries on the third.

A STRONG BOROUGH TICKET.—The adjourned convention of the conferees from the various wards in town met in the Register's office, on Monday evening, and selected a borough ticket for the Democracy to support. It is made up of the best material possible, the great cry for reform in many of the municipal offices having been an incentive to the nomination of men, whose names carry with them the assurance of a fulfillment of the people's wishes. It is usually a very hard task for the Democracy to place a strictly first-class ticket in the field, Bellefonte being recognized as a Republican borough until within the past few years our ticket has posed as a simple necessity. The candidates allowing their names to be used, with no hope of success, but for the mere purpose of filling up.

Things have changed very materially however, a Republican majority, ranging all the way from one hundred to two hundred and fifty votes, has dwindled to thirty or forty and the repeated election of a Democratic Burgess, tax collectors and poor overseers, with the consequent improvement on the conduct of those offices has led to the belief that a good Democrat now has almost equal chances of election with his Republican opponent. With this conviction firm in the mind of the Democracy it has nominated only such men as will merit the support of every voter in the town.

Republican domination has prevailed so long in our borough that it is time to try a change. Things can certainly get no worse than they are now and if past experience is to be the criterion the election of the full Democratic ticket means a much needed reform.

J. C. Meyer is the candidate for Burgess; J. Mitchell Cunningham, for Assistant Burgess; A. C. Mingle, for Treasurer; Hugh Taylor, for Tax Collector; James Alexander, for Auditor and Harry Sanders, for High Constable. Every one of whom are men who will make careful officials and are pledged to you to make the changes which you demand in the offices to which they aspire.

The borough council has never been Democratic. Make it such this Spring and note the result. Think of what John Keichline did as Tax Collector and as a Poor Overseer and fill these offices again with Democrats.

In the North ward Hammond Scheller, one of our town's foremost citizens and reputable merchants is a candidate for council. He is obligated to no individual or concern and should be elected. From the West ward the Democrats will try to send Dr. M. A. Kirk to council. He is another man who will have no interests whatever to serve other than the people's. He is making a success of his own business and will do the same for the town. Geo. T. Bush is the candidate from the South ward. He represents the largest estate in town and of necessity will work for the interests of the taxpayers because their interests are his also.

Every candidate on the Democratic ticket, whether for ward or borough office, is a good man and as such should have your support. The candidates are as follows:

Democratic. Burgess.....J. C. Meyer,.....Inspector.....J. K. McFarlane,.....Tax Collector.....S. D. Ray,.....Assistant Burgess.....A. C. Mingle,.....Treasurer.....Chas. F. Cook,.....Auditor.....Jas. I. McClure,.....High Constable.....H. B. Pontius,.....Harry Sanders,.....High Constable.....Calvin Piper.

Republican. Burgess.....H. P. Harris,.....Inspector.....J. K. McFarlane,.....Tax Collector.....S. D. Ray,.....Assistant Burgess.....A. C. Mingle,.....Treasurer.....Chas. F. Cook,.....Auditor.....Jas. I. McClure,.....High Constable.....H. B. Pontius,.....Harry Sanders,.....High Constable.....Calvin Piper.

North Ward: John Shugert, Judge of Election H. C. Weaver, J. I. Gardner, Inspector H. M. Bidwell, L. A. Shaeffer, Constable, Joshua Foulk, H. Seidler, School Director, W. B. Rankin, J. L. Dunlap, Councilman, J. C. Miller.

South Ward: A. Steinhilber, Judge of Election Simeon Haupt, Will Garman, Inspector, H. M. Bidwell, L. A. Shaeffer, Constable, Joshua Foulk, H. Seidler, School Director, W. B. Rankin, J. L. Dunlap, Councilman, J. C. Miller.

West Ward: William Parks, Judge of Election J. H. Rankin, Jonathan Miller, Inspector, S. B. Diehl, Joseph Garbrick, Constable, Wm. Gares, A. Lukenbach, School Director, David Cartley, M. A. Kirk, Councilman, C. T. Gerberich.

GEORGE CLEMENT BECKWITH.—Was born February 6th 1854, in Taylor township, where he lived as a peaceable and industrious citizen, until the time of his death, which occurred Feb. 2, 1893. In his death his family has lost a devoted husband and a kind father. His friends have lost a good neighbor and a loyal citizen. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his early departure. Having died in the bloom of manhood, being only 38 yrs, 11 months and 26 days old. How uncertain life is! Man at best hath but a short time to live in this world. "He cometh forth like a flower and is cut down; he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not." The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this the time of their sore affliction.

SENTENCED FOR LIBEL.—Wm. H. Musser, the Milesburg insurance agent, who was convicted of libel in our courts last week, was taken before Judge Furst for sentence on Friday afternoon. He was fined one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution.

The libel was an article which Musser wrote for the Bellefonte Republican charging L. C. Bullock with firing his own carriage works, in Milesburg, to get the insurance. Editor Tutin was dragged into the case at first, but nolle prosequi proceedings released him.

—Renova has a number of diphtheria cases.

—Austin Brothers & Porter's foundry, which burned at Tyrone several weeks ago, will not be rebuilt.

—An order for twenty new baggage and five postal cars has been received at the Altoona shops, and is being filled for the Pennsylvania rail-road.

—William Smith, a Wayne township Clinton county farmer, fell asleep the other evening and did not wake up for twenty-four hours. He was stricken with apoplexy.

—Alexander Adams, of Chester Hill, a suburb of Philipsburg, died from kidney disease last Thursday morning. Deceased was 69 years old and highly respected in the community in which he lived.

—John J. Ingalls, of Kansas, lectured in Clearfield on Monday night. Hon. Henry W. Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal will be out there on the 21st inst to deliver a lecture.

—Dr. Wm. B. Henderson has resigned the position of medical examiner for the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania rail-road lines to take the practice of his deceased father-in-law, the late Dr. Hobart Allport, of Philipsburg.

—J. Fearon Mann's two sons, Harris and Ralph, have both left Bellefonte to accept positions elsewhere. The former to the Beaver Falls axe works where he is an inspector, the latter to the Mann axe works in Lewis town.

—L. C. Green, the barber, has moved from the room on Race street, in the Bush house block, to the basement of the Sands' building on High street. He has quite a comfortable shop, in his new quarters, where he will be glad to greet all his old patrons.

—Mr. Charley Musser, of Fillmore, is spending a few days at the home of his brother, William, on Reynolds Ave. He is under a physician's care for a very sore hand. Some time ago he froze the back of his right hand and it is all broken out now in a very painful manner.

—Mrs. Benton will give another of her enjoyable musicales, on next Monday night, in Bush's Hall, for the benefit of the Episcopal organ fund. Mrs. Scarlett, of Danville, who made a most favorable impression on the Bellefonte public some years ago when she appeared in "Pinafore" and who has been heard here several times since, has kindly consented to sing and with the home musicians that are on the program the concert will be worth hearing.

—While driving down from the Friends' burial ground, on Wednesday afternoon, the lighted street in which were seated Henry P. Harris and his son James, turned round on the ice and got ahead of the team. Both the occupants tried to jump, but their feet being tangled in the robes they were thrown violently on the icy road. Jim was considerably bruised up, but his father, who held on to the team, escaped unhurt.

—It would probably be difficult to tell why Clearfield county was named "Clearfield." When it was organized, in 1804, out of parts of Lycoming and Northumberland counties, it was an almost unbroken forest, covered with one of the noblest stretches of pine woods to be found in the State. The cleared fields in it were few and far between. They were as scarce as the rooks at Mr. Copperfield's rookery. But in eighty-nine years the county has succeeded in adapting itself to its name. The magnificent pine trees have nearly all been cut down. Late Clearfield papers tell of four rafts of pine, some of the sticks 80 to 90 feet long, that are ready to be sent down the river as rafting material. The story raftsmen who used to find a spring job in piloting fine spars down the river to serve as masts for Baltimore clippers will soon find their occupation gone.—Phila. Record.

—On last Saturday morning John Dawson, who will be remembered by any one who has lived in Bellefonte within the last thirty years, died at his home in Mill Hall, and was brought to Bellefonte on Monday morning for burial. He had not been well for some time but his death was not apprehended until dropsy developed, a few weeks ago.

Mr. Dawson was 64 years old and had lived all his life in this community with the exception of the short time he had been in Mill Hall, where he was successfully carrying on a bakery. He was a kind, jovial man and for three years had been a consistent member of the Methodist church, in which the funeral services were held on Monday morning, on the arrival of the ten-twenty train. Notwithstanding the pouring rain the Logan Fire Company of which he was an old and active member, and a large number of people followed the remains from the church to the cemetery. His wife, who was Miss Sallie Eckly, a daughter two sons, and four brothers survive him.

'96 BANQUETED AT THE BUSH HOUSE. The afternoon train over the Bellefonte Central road brought a gay crowd of State College students to town yesterday, and the orange and purple worn by the Freshman class of that institution was the prevailing color on the streets for the rest of the afternoon. Class and college yells arrested the attention of pedestrians and the college boys had things mostly their own way. They were in town to get ready for the big banquet at the Bush House last night. Their afternoon and evening were spent in "doing" the town, but nearly all of them wound up at the opera house, where they had a merry time.

At half-past ten o'clock proprietor Daggett, of the Bush House, threw open the doors leading to the banquet hall and the first year men entered. Brandon's orchestra was playing when the boys appeared and the scene was one of beauty. The decorations were in orange and purple, the class colors and tropical plants lent their verdure to the charm of the vari-colored interior. Covers had been laid for forty-five and when the boys had taken the places, assigned them there was a lull in the music during which John L. Given, toast master, bade them be seated. The table was set to represent a cross, producing a very pretty effect and bringing the banqueters into a closer relation with each other. Beside each cover laid a handsomely embossed souvenir of the occasion.

The many courses of the menu were served with elegance, the inspiring strains of the orchestra producing an entrancing effect.

Cafe Demi Tasse
Cigars Cigarettes

When the cigars were lighted a rap from the toast master brought the revellers to order whereupon he called for toasts which were responded to as follows: Some of the men having acquitted themselves in an exceptional manner: "P. S. C.," A. C. Hoy; "Our Class," J. M. McKibben; "Our Professors," F. W. Jessod; "Machinery Hall," G. M. McKee; "The Ladies," L. P. Phelps; "Our Football Team," B. F. Fisher; "Our Past," W. A. Lyon; "Our Future," H. A. Kuhn.

After Mr. Kuhn had finished painting a glorious future for each one of those intelligent looking young men, and the last look was given the tables which had been things of such beauty and grace when they entered, they left the hall and bade the town good night. A special train was awaiting them at the station and with all on board it carried them back to their college. Dull students they are to-day no doubt, but the better off for the pleasant diversion.

The class committee Messrs. C. M. Thompson, G. K. McFarland and J. T. Motz handled the banquet in a highly satisfactory manner. The affair has seldom been surpassed in point of tasteful arrangement by anything that has yet taken place in Bellefonte. The menu was elaborate, the courses daintily served, the tables artistic in their effect and the whole reflected the greatest credit on Mr. Daggett and his efficient corps of attendants.

—The ice began breaking in the river at Lock Haven at ten o'clock Tuesday night and moved off without doing any damage. Traffic on the P & E. above Lock Haven has been suspended for several days because of flooded tracks.

—Howard Struble, a son of Isiah Struble of near Zion, was brought home from the Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Business College, in a very precarious condition on Tuesday morning. He is dangerously ill.

—Mr. Martin Walker, a respected resident of Stone Valley, Huntingdon county, and an uncle of Sheriff Miles Walker, of this place, died from an apoplectic stroke on Wednesday.

—Hezekiah Hammel, of Boalsburg, died in his 68th year, last Friday morning.

—Lock Haven councils legislated in favor of street railways on Monday night.

—Mrs. C. T. Alexander, who has been on the sick list for several days, is very much better.

—Huntingdon congregations have been voting on whether to allow the Sunday sale of newspapers or not. The result of their balloting will be sent to the Legislature.

—Next Tuesday evening the home talent opera company will sing the Pirates of Penzance in Garman's opera house. There are plenty of good seats left at Parrish's.

—A letter has been received from Mr. Joe W. Furey who is now at Clifton Springs N. Y. saying that he is very much pleased with his surroundings, and that the doctors give him some hope of his recovery.

—The first national bank of Clearfield paid a twenty-five per cent. dividend to creditors last week. This makes seventy-five cents on each dollar that they have received since preacher banker Dill caused the crash.

—A great curiosity was brought into existence at Graham station, on the Beech Creek rail-road last Saturday when a cow owned by a man named Lupton gave birth to twin calves one of which had two fully developed heads. The freak lived just an hour.

—Next Wednesday, February 15th, will be Ash Wednesday and will mark the beginning of the Lenten season, which extends to Easter Sunday, falling this year on April 2nd. The season is one during which members of the Episcopal and Catholic churches do penance and refrain from all kinds of amusement.

—We clip the following pointer from an exchange: What shall it profit the country editor if he shall gain the applause of the whole world and lose that dollar you owe him for subscription? For all is vanity save that dollar. Yes, verily, man shall not live by bread alone, but it is very essential that he have a little bread, and where-withal shall a young man buy bread if the dollar is withheld? Brethren, think on these things.

—An exchange tells of the following astronomical show which awaits our readers on the twentieth of this month. "A very interesting phenomenon occurs on Feb. 20, when the new moon comes directly between us and Jupiter, hiding or occulting the planet for about an hour. Unluckily this occurs in the day time in this locality, and the most we can see here will be a close approach of these, the two brightest objects in the heavens. They will present a beautiful spectacle side by side on the evening of the 20th.

—Of "Forgiveness" as presented by Frederick Bryton, the New York Herald said: "The audience never missed an opportunity to give vent to its appreciation of the many strong scenes with which the play abounds. Indeed, so great was the applause that the principals were compelled to come before the curtain at the end of each of the acts to bow their acknowledgments." Bryton will be at the Garman's opera house Monday evening February 20th.

—Frank Dinant and wife, of Ashcroft, Clearfield county, left for Paris last week. They went abroad to consult Dr. Pasteur, the noted French specialist on Hydrophobia. Last March Mr. Dinant undertook to separate two dogs that were fighting in his yard, when one of them bit him. He gave the wound very little attention until the swelling extended over his entire body and running sores broke out. The home physicians succeeded in relieving him at the time, but lately symptoms of the return of the trouble having developed Mr. Dinant decided to consult the recognized authority in such cases. He is a well-to-do miner whose thrift has made him quite independent.

A CHILD PERISHES IN THE FLAMES.—A little girl was burned to death in Faulkner's addition of Philipsburg on Tuesday evening. She was a daughter of a Mrs. Herron and met her death as follows: Mrs. Herron's husband was killed at Connelville last June and the widow has been living at Faulkner's with her four children, one of whom was born just a few days since. Tuesday evening she put two of the little ones to bed and was nursing the baby down stairs, whence she sent the oldest child, a boy of eight years, up stairs to get her a dress for the infant. It is supposed that the boy accidentally set fire to some clothing, for shortly after his return with the dress his mother was attracted by a crackling noise up stairs. Upon going to the stair case she saw that the whole second floor was in flames. An alarm was quickly given and neighbors made desperate efforts to save the children who were sleeping in the burning room. The little boy was gotten out but a little five year old girl could not be reached and she perished. The mother is in a critical condition.
