Farm Notes.

The fodder that has stood out in the field all the winter will not possess much feeding value now.

Sow pany seed in boxes, and get the plants set out in the open ground as early as possible. Make the soil very rich if you desire large flowers.

One-eighth of an acre, used as a plot to make tests and experiments, will be sufficient to enable the farmer to learn how to better manage his whole farm.

Two of the most prosperous sections of New Jersey contain farms mostly of 5 and 10 acres, the produce being fruit. They realize more profit than do some farmers with ten times as much land that is devoted to general farming.

The supposition that exposure of the young stock will "harden" them may be true in some respects; but there is always a corresponding loss in some other direction. Young stock, well cared for, will give the best results in the end.

One of the implements that should be completely overhauled and put in the best order is the seed drill. The slightest disarrangement of its working apparatus may cause a loss of seed, while many places in the rows may not be seeded at all.

The hot bed should be ready now. It should contain enough fresh manure to ferment and create heat. Unless complete protection from frost can be secured the plants will not make sufficient growth to be of advantage compared with later crops.

Germany is becoming one of our best customers for grain. Within two years the exportations of grain to Germany have increased to 12 times the amount usually shipped, and one-third of all the grain imported by Germany comes from the United States.

The pig that is farrowed in the spring should be large enough for slaughter in the fall. Small sizes are preferred. The day has passed for raising pigs for lard only. The clover patch is now considered as important as the corn crib in the feeding of pigs.

Pampered animals are suitable for breeding purposes. It is well to keep an animal in good condition, but fat is detrimental to breeding stock if the best results are expected. Many cows and sows remain barren as long as they are in a very fat condition.

Hauling wood is sometimes made the winter work, as but little time for that duty can be given in the summer, but the condition of the roads will regulate the cost of the hauling. The taxes are small compared to the wear and tear of wagons and horses on bad roads at this season.

When a farmer wishes more land he should try the experiment of aiming to double the product of his farm, without extending its area. When he has worked in that direction for a few seasons he will then be more inclined to get rid of some of his land instead of desiring more. A 10 acre farm is a large one if it is properly cultivated to its highest limit of production.

The amount of water that passes into the manure heap which is exposed to the rains and the amount of matter that is carried away by being dissolved out during the winter and early spring is very great. Hundreds of loads of manure are hauled to the fields that is not worth the labor of hauling, simply because it is not properly cared for.

Cucumbers, melons and lima beans may be planted in paper boxes, and when the weather becomes warm the boxes may be put into the ground. The paper should be of light quality, and it will soon soften in the ground, permitting the roots of the plants to push through. It is an excellent method of securing early plants that are not easily transplanted in any other way.

There are many corners and nooks on the farm where grape vines might be placed instead of allowing a crop of weeds to hold possession and send out seeds to stock the farm as fast as the soil is cultivated. A single grape vine will sometimes supply a whole family with grapes, and there are dozens of places on every farm where grape vines could be placed without sacrifice of valuable space.

It is at this season that the plow, harrow, cultivator and small tools will require being in order. For every bolt or place will be sufficient to render some tools useless; but the fact is that rust and decay, from exposure during the winter, will have been the cause. Look over the tools, and use the grindstone, sandpaper and plenty of oil in getting them in order.

In some sections the farmer will incur debt in the winter because there is no source of revenue at that season. This does not apply so much to the dairyman as to the fruit grower. The poultry business should come in well to fill up the gap in winter. It will enable a great many to be employed who would otherwise be idle, and eggs are always sold for cash, thus giving returns.

If the cattle sent to market by the farmers in this section were of the best quality for beef the increased prices would be very remunerative. Those who procure steers, and fatten them, do not omit the food, while the best of care is bestowed, but that point which is lacking is the breed, the ability to make the most beef at the least cost. Scrubs cannot convert their food into a marketable product except at greater cost than for the beef breeds.

It does not pay to keep an animal a day longer than when it becomes ready for the market. Trying to add an extra pound or two on a very fat animal may cost much more than the value of the extra gain. The loss from retaining fat animals longer than is necessary often more than balances the profit, and some farmers find that they have derived no benefit from fattening their stock simply because they supported the animals longer than should have been the case.

Free Trip to Chicago.

Separate World's Fair and use the letters to spell as many words as you can by using the letters as many times as you wish, either backwards or forwards, but not use the same letter in making any one word more times than it appears in "World's Fair."

It is said seventy-five small English words can be spelled correctly from the ten letters contained in "World's Fair." Example:—Wad, waf, waf, waf, etc. If you are good at word-making you can secure a free trip to the World's Fair and return, as The Scott Seed Company will pay all expenses, including R. R. fare, hotel bills, admission to the Columbian Exposition, and $50.00 for incidental expenses, to the first person able to make seventy words from the letters contained in "World's Fair," as above. They will also give a free trip to the World's Fair and return with $25.00 for incidental expenses, to the first person sending sixty words as above. They will also give a free trip to the World's Fair and return (without cash for incidental expenses) to the first person sending fifty five words.

To the first person sending fifty words will be given $50.00 in cash towards paying expenses to the World's Fair; to the first sending forty words will be given $25.00 in cash towards paying expenses to the World's Fair, to each of the first five persons sending thirty-five words will be given $10.00 in cash, and to each of the first ten sending thirty words will be given $5.00 in cash.

Only one prize will be awarded to the same person. Write your name on list of words (numbered) and enclose the same postpaid with fifteen U. S. two-cent stamps for a large package of our Choice English Cottage Garden Flower Seeds.

This combination includes the latest and most popular English flowers of endless varieties (same as will be contained in the elaborate exhibit of English flowers at the World's Fair.)

This "World's Fair" Contest will be carefully and conscientiously conducted solely for the purpose of introducing our business in the U. S. You will see the most greatest value in flower seeds ever offered, and if you are able to make a good list of words and answer promptly you will have a first class opportunity to secure a free trip from your home to Chicago and return.

We are spending a large amount of money to start our trade in the U. S. and want your trial order. You will be more than gratified with the result. Send to-day, and address The Scott Seed Company, Toronto, Canada.

The Unprecedented Lemon Cure.

We are fresh from a conference with my inner consciousness on the subject of lemons. In the days of antiquity, say a year ago, the subject of lemons was not especially complicated, but that was when everybody had a pet infallible remedy for every evil under the sun and the lemon was only one of the thousand and one things to be recommended. But this winter, if you want to remove stains from your linen or the redness from your nose, the remedy is lemons. If you complain of a tickling in your throat or obstinate dirt under your finger nails, the remedy is lemons. It doesn't matter in the least that doctors disagree, the family sages have united upon lemons, and lemons it is, for internal remedy and external beautification. The cut-glass bottles or my lady's toilet tarts are all filled with a pale yellowish fluid, and a peep into the dainty porcelain boxes shows only bits of lemon instead of sundry scented creams. The family medicine chest is growing cobwebbed and dusty, while the bottles inside clink in empty, melancholy cadence, and the immediate cause thereof is found in the grocer's bill, which shows two dozen lemons a week.

If anybody could give us any information about this unprecedented lemon boom we should feel very much relieved. The newspapers may be answerable for it to a certain extent, of course, but to the untutored feminine mind it suggested all sorts of gigantic financial schemes, a corner in lemons for instance, or something else equally inexplicable and, therefore, highly terrifying, and before we became wedded to the use of lemons for the toilet and the health let somebody explain why we are all lemon mad, if anybody can explain it.

A Sojourn in the South and a Pilgrimage to the Far West via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On March 28th the last personally-conducted tour to Florida will leave New York and Philadelphia. Tourists have the option of returning on our regular train prior to May 31, 1893. $50 from New York, $45 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other points cover, in addition to round-trip transportation, all necessary expenses en route going.

On March 29 the last California tour leaves the East for the most wonderful and delightful trip it is possible to make in this country.

A Tourist Agent and Chaperon accompany each party and everything possible is done for the comfort and entertainment of the tourists. All information regarding rates, routes, &c., may be obtained on application to the Tourist Agent Pennsylvania Railroad Company, 233 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, 849 Broadway, New York, 860 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, or Ticket Agents of the company.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

No Prospect for English Money.

New York, March 14.—The Post's London special says: "The Reading receivers' report is much better than expected here, but there is no prospect of the company raising money here. There is a disposition everywhere to leave Americans severely alone."

The trouble with most cough medicines is that they spoil the appetite, weaken digestion and create piles. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it gives immediate relief, assists rather than impairs the assimilative process.

Temporary Clerks Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Secretary Carlisle to-day dismissed ten temporary clerks employed in the second auditor's office. The reduction of the force was rendered necessary by the exhaustion of the appropriation.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.

When Doctors All Agree.

It is a fact well established, that February and March are the most trying months to aged or feeble persons. Pneumonia, influenza and kindred chest affections, are most liable to set in their deadly work. There is but one thing to do, build up and fortify the system with a pure stimulant. Medical men all over the country agree that Klein's "Silver Age" at $1.50 per quart, and "Daquesne" at $1.25 per quart, stand without a peer. If you want fine six year old Guckenheimer, Finch, Gibson, Overholt, or Bear Creek, you can have them at $1.00 per quart or six quarts for $5.00. CRUSTED SKIN DISEASE
SUFFERED 9 YEARS. SCALP COVERED WITH A THICK CRUST. USED HUNDREDS OF MEDICINES.
IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND COMPLETE CURE IN A FEW WEEKS BY CUTICURA REMEDIES.

When I was a boy of about twelve years of age, living in Europe, I had a very bad skin disease for years which doctors called Eczema. My scalp was covered with a thick crust. I think there is nothing made that can help me. I have been in this country nine years and suffering all the time. I have used hundreds of medicines. I read one day in the paper about the Cuticura Remedies, so I thought I would try them. Sure enough, after using them only once I felt much better. I thank God that in a few weeks I was perfectly cured after nine years' suffering. I recommend your Cuticura Remedies as the best in the world. All those who suffer with skin diseases should use them. I will tell everybody how I was cured. FRED SCHEIBEL, 107 Ludlow St., New York City.

I used your Cuticura Remedies for Salt Rheum, on my face and arm, and in three weeks I was entirely cured. As a blood purifier, I think there is nothing made that can equal your Cuticura Remedies. I cannot say too much in praise of your Cuticura Remedies. D. C. HAMMOND, Huntington, L. I., N. Y.

Saddlery.

SCHOFIELD'S NEW HARNESS HOUSE.

We extend a most cordial invitation to our patrons and the public, in general, to witness one of the ever put on the Bellefonte market, which will be made in the large room, formerly occupied by Harper Bros., on Spring street. It has been added to my factory and will be used exclusively for the sale of harness, being the first exclusive salesroom ever used in this town, as heretofore the custom has been to sell goods in the room in which they were made. This elegant room has been refitted and furnished with glass cases in which the harness can be nicely displayed and still kept away from heat and dust, the enemies of long wear in leather. Our factory now occupies a room 16x74 feet and the store 2x20 added makes it the largest establishment of its kind outside of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

GRANDEST DISPLAY OF

We are prepared to offer better bargains in the future than we have done in the past and we want everyone to see our goods and get prices for when you do this, out of self defense you will buy. Our profits are not large, but by selling lots of goods we can afford to live in Bellefonte. We are not indulging in idle philanthropy. It is purely business. We are not making much, but trade is growing and that is what we are interested in now. Profits will take care of themselves.

When other houses discharged their workmen during the winter they were all put to work in my factory, nevertheless the big (9) houses of this city and county would smile if we compared ourselves to them, but we do not mean to be so odious, except to venture the suggestion that none of them can say as we can say "NO ONE OWES US A CENT THAT WE CAN'T GET." This is the whole story.

The following are kept constantly on hand. 50 SETS OF LIGHT HARNESS, prices from $8.00 to $15.00 and upwards. LARGE STOCK OF HEAVY HARNESS, prices from $25.00 and upwards. HORSE COLLARS from $1.50 to $5.00 each, over $1000 worth of HARNESS OILS and AXLE GREASE.

$400 worth of Fly Nets sold cheap $150 worth of whips from 50c to $1.00 each.

Horse Brushes, Curry Combs, Sponges, Chamoles, RIFLING SADDLES, LADY SIDESADDLES, Harness Soap, Knee Dusters, at low prices. Saddlery always on hand for sale. Harness Leather as low as 25c per pound. We keep everything to be found in a FIRST CLASS HARNESS STORE—no change-fund, over 20 years in the same room. No shoe shops in the same town to catch trade—NO SELLING OUT for want of trade or prices. Four harness-makers at steady work this winter. This is our idea of protection to labor, when other houses discharged their hands, they soon found work with us.
