

Large Engine at World's Fair Tested.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The 2,000 horse power engine which will run the machinery in the World's fair buildings was tested last night for the first time. Not a flaw was found. Work at the grounds is progressing rapidly, though unfavorable weather prevails.

Earthquake at Lancaster.

LANCASTER, April 26.—This city was visited by a slight shock of earthquake this morning. The shock was accompanied by a sharp report like an explosion followed by a low rumbling sound.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

A RAG PEDDLER "HELD UP" ON THOMAS STREET.—At a late hour on Tuesday evening Louis More, an Austrian rag buyer who lives at Coleville, was attacked on Thomas street by two Slavs, who knocked him down and rifled his pockets. About seventeen dollars and a loaf of bread were taken from the unfortunate Austrian. After the highwaymen had run away More hunted up the police and made information against the Slavs, whom he thought he recognized. Officer Montgomery and Gares went out to the Hungarian shanty near Collins' furnace and arrested the robbers. They confessed having taken the bread but denied the theft of money. They claimed that they thought More had taken the bread from them.

TO-DAY AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.—Today, Friday April 28th, is Arbor day and should be properly observed by all those who did not observe the first one, two weeks ago. The Bellefonte High school will hold fitting exercises for the occasion and a '93 class tree will be planted. Other interesting exercises will be carried out, among them the oratorical contest by members of the A class for the Hasting's prize of $25. Everybody is invited to be present. The following is the list of speakers and their subjects: Rufus Stroh, "Purpose of Bunker Hill Monument;" Maurice Kelley, "Responsibilities of an American Citizen;" Frank Houck, "Character of Napoleon Bonaparte;" Lizzie Smith "Home Influence;" John Keichline "Speech of Regulus;" A. F. Blair, "Our Flag;" W. H. Runkle, "Our Honored Dead;" Isabella Taylor, "Before and After the Battle;" Clarence Hamilton, "Adams and Jefferson;" Paul Fortney, "The Illustrious Dead."

The orators at the tree planting will be John Harris and William Runkle. —Call and see E. Brown Jr's stock of furniture and wall paper.

MUSICAL AT THE DICKINSON SEMINARY.—Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport is abreast of the times and is making no little specialty of its musical course. Under the able direction of its president, Dr. E. J. Gray, the school has come to occupy a position of considerable prominence in the educational world. As every institution is known by the work it does, the following from the Gazette and Bulletin, of Williamsport, will give our readers an idea of what Dickinson Seminary is doing in one department at least.

"The recital by the music department of Dickinson Seminary was, without doubt, the music event of the season in this city. The chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity with an intelligent and appreciative audience, including many ladies and gentlemen who are prominent in music circles. It is not easy, perhaps not possible, for one not an expert or a specialist in music to properly characterize each performance. However, it is the judgment of a number of well known and recognized authorities, that every performance was extremely meritorious, reaching an unusually high degree of excellence.

It was Miss Stuart's first recital since she became director of the instrumental department of music, in the Seminary. To say that it was a splendid success of which so brilliant a pianist as she is may be justly proud, only expresses a general conviction. Her playing was exquisite, as it always is, only the occasion seemed to bring into unusual power, the qualities which easily give her a first place among the very best musicians. Miss Bates, her assistant, is also a pianist of more than ordinary ability. She received a well deserved encore and captivated the audience by the graceful ease with which she played.

Miss Anna Gibson, who is well known as a superior vocalist, was at her best, which is no faint praise. She more than sustained the excellent reputation she has made. Her voice seems to acquire compass and strength with remarkable sweetness of tone.

The string quartette, composed of Messrs. Baker, Fischer, Cramer, Austrian and Stark added much to the entertainment and won golden opinions from a delighted audience.

The music department of Dickinson Seminary merits the high position it has attained in this community. The new building which president Gray has projected will accommodate the increasing patronage and give opportunity for still better work. The enterprise is to be commended to the people of Williamsport and all wish the doctor early and abundant success."

Books, Magazines, Etc. The May Century will contain an article on "Relics of Artemus Ward" illustrated with a portrait of the great American humorist made at twenty years of age, and brought to light under peculiar circumstances. The photograph was taken in Toledo, Ohio, where he went from Tiffin, and where he began his newspaper work. There is only one copy in existence. The woman in whose house Artemus made his home received the picture from him when he went to Cleveland where his career really began. From an article in the Century describing his home and family, published several years ago, she ascertained that his mother was living, and sent the photograph to Mrs. Browne, who had never seen it. It shows the face of the gentle, whimsical country lad as it appeared at the period when he was passing from the crude apprenticeship of a wandering printer to an enduring place in American humorous literature.

Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT.—Edison's wonderful phonograph will be exhibited in Bush's Arcade, Tuesday evening, May 2nd, by Prof. Lyman H. Howe, of Wilkesbarre, Pa. Those who have never seen nor heard the phonograph should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear it. It is truly wonderful. It reproduces music in such a manner that all can hear it, and is capable of entertaining an audience of a thousand people.

Selections by the famous Gilmore band, the U. S. Marine band and other noted musical organizations are given in a manner which surprises those who hear it. There are no ear tubes used, but one large tube which throws the sound out into the hall so plainly that all can hear it as well as though those organizations were really present.

We consider this a first class entertainment and one that is amusing as well as instructive. The young men of the Y. M. C. A. have taken considerable pains to secure this evening's entertainment which every man, woman and child should hear, and they should be given a good house and when asked to purchase tickets, do so to help them out, whether you want to hear it or not. In Bush's Arcade, Tuesday evening, May 2nd. Admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents.

New spring wraps just opened. Blazers and jackets with or without capes from $3.00 up. Lyon & Co.

The offices of The National League for the protection of American Institutions, after May 1st, 1893, will be in the new Metropolitan Building. The following will be the Post Office address: "The Metropolitan," Madison Square, New York, N. Y.

Fine Grove Mentions. Frank Bowersox, one of our west precinct busy farmers, lost a valuable horse last week from distemper.

The continued wet weather has much delayed farm work, in consequence much spring plowing and seeding is yet to do.

Mrs. P. F. Bostor stopped house cleaning to take a week's outing in the Mountain city among relatives, of whom Mrs. Harriet Stover, a sister, has been quite ill for some weeks but is reported better.

Mr. George Tate, formerly of our town but now a fireman on the Pennsylvania main line with a hope of promotion to handle the throttle, spent a day here recently, which scarcely allowed him time to say "how do" to his old time associates.

Mr. Luther M. Smith, who for years has been engaged as a traveling salesman, was called home a few days ago to the bedside of his aged father H. R. Smith, who for some weeks has been suffering from a severe attack of paralysis, with but very slight hope of recovery.

Mr. Wm. Henry was awarded the mail contract from Penna Furnace to Boalsburg, via. Rock Spring, Fairbrook, Pine Grove and Shingletown. The proposed change of the mail schedule meets with much disfavor, as the present schedule suits the people generally.

Another victim of paralysis. On Monday the 24th, Miss Esther Eckle daughter of our townsman Geo. Eckle, was found upstairs where she had remained an unusual length of time, by her mother, who called her and on having no response went up and was shocked to find Esther in an unconscious condition, in which she has been up to this time, with but very slight signs of improvement.

A number of railroad men, carts and horses took lodging at the St. Elmo one night this week, causing much speculation among our "town dads" as to where the work was to begin on the long looked for railroad with the outside world. The site for a depot is being discussed by the curb stone committee while the upturners are discreet enough not to attempt to press their claims; but simply want to hold the post-offices where it is.

The reaper death has again entered our vicinity and laid its icy hand on Mr. James Deters, an employee of A. M. Brown's lumber camp, who boarded at the home of Mr. Edward Babl, where all that kind hands and medical skill could do, was done for him. For a time he was not at all dangerous but contrary to the orders of Dr. Woods, his attending physician, he went to the barn to see after the horses and the result was, congestion of the lungs which killed him in three days. That Jim was loved and honored by his co-workers was shown by the mark of respect shown when all the works were closed until after the burial, which took place on Sunday at the Grayville cemetery where his body was interred by the side of his wife who preceded him to the great beyond two years ago. Several children survive to mourn his death. He was 42 years 6 months and 27 days old.

Married Forty Years.

On last Friday, the twenty-first, the home of J. S. Frederick near Unionville was the scene of a most enjoyable wedding anniversary. For forty years the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick, who were kept busy the entire morning welcoming the guests that came from far and near to participate in the happy event, have traveled the path of life together and their home, that has ever been noted for its hospitality, is associated, in the writers' mind with many a good time and many, alas! with the dear ones who have long since crossed the border land. Five children have blessed their wedded life of whom three daughters and one son are living with five grand children and one great grand child.

Of the one hundred invitations sent out over sixty were accepted and when dinner was announced about twelve o'clock, the guests declared with one accord that it was good to be there—Everything delicious that the season afforded was served in the greatest abundance and as it is customary to judge your appreciation by your capacity on such an occasion, friend Jack certainly did honor to the spread. After dinner several appropriate addresses were made and prayer was offered by the Rev. George Warren, of Millsburg. The guests after spending a most enjoyable day returned to their homes wishing the bride and groom many happy returns of the day, and at the close of their earthly career, a wide entrance into that realm, that is without cloud, without night and without end.

Many valuable and useful presents were received, and the guests from a distance were Mrs. Isaac Shirk of Tyrone, Mrs. John Reeser and Mrs. Benj. Bodie of Fillmore, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Nora Becker of Harrisburg, Mrs. D. E. Woodring and Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington of Millsburg and Mrs. Della Bass of Bellefonte.

ONE OF THE GUESTS.

Following is a report of Fairview school, Boggs Twp., for the 5th month, ending March 10th, 1893.

A term of six months has been very pleasantly and profitably passed at this school. The teacher highly appreciates the kindness of the pupils also the willingness of the citizens to lend their kindly support to all progressive steps taken by the school.

M. V. THOMAS, Teacher.

The Work of a Good Teacher. Knoll's school, Curtin township, closed with an entertainment on Tuesday evening, April 11th. The opening piece was entitled "The Goddess of Liberty." There were ten characters represented as follows: Goddess of Liberty, Estella McCaskey; Agriculture, M. V. Thomas; Science, Julia B. Lucas; Painting, Margie David; Sculpture, Laura Oyle; Manufacture, Emma Yeager; Music, Annie Packer; Printing, May Allen; Mining, Cora David; Religion, Alice M. Heaton.

The Goddess of Liberty was seated on a white throne. The characters in their regular order paid homage to her, Religion claims last of all robes in white and knelt before the throne, the Goddess of Liberty vacating the throne placed Religion upon it. The piece was nicely presented. It was followed by instrumental music, by Miss Julia B. Lucas and Mr. T. I. Lucas, and a number of recitations and dialogues.

The building was crowded to its utmost capacity. The entertainment was a decided success. The citizens are highly pleased with the progress made by the school during the term and are eager to have the teacher, Miss Alice M. Heaton, take charge of the school next term.

ONE WHO WAS PRESENT.

Resolutions of Respect. At a meeting of Benner Grange April 8th the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, It has pleased the great master of the universe to call from our midst our esteemed brother John Fogleman.

Resolved, That in his death our grange has lost a true upright member and his family a beloved husband and father.

Resolved, That in his sudden call we recognize the will of our heavenly father who can see the end from the beginning and doeth all things well, and while we would bow in submission to his Divine will we would not forget to cherish the memory of our departed brother.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for sixty days and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and to the editors of two of the county papers.

When called for please say advertised. J. P. SEIBERT, Com. J. M. E. SEIBERT, L. W. FESSLER.

To Whom It May Concern.

This is to certify that the Home Comfort Steel Range was sold to my neighbors in Indiana when I lived there in 1887, and they were all very well pleased with it. Being anxious to know in regard to their durability, I wrote to a friend there on March 8th, 1893, and received a reply very flattering to the range. C. W. LOVELAND, Lamar, Clinton Co., Pa., March 29, 1893. 38-14

We purchased from Mr. S. McCort, agent for said company, one Home Comfort Range. It is superior over all other ranges for baking and stewing, and saves one half of the fuel used in the cast stove, and is exactly the same as sample shown us. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. SHAFER, 38-14 Zion, Pa., March 4, 1893.

Faubles.

JOIN THE CROWD. We are drawing customers every day by the tremendous power of Low Prices. We are satisfying customers every day with the Quality of the goods which we sell at low prices. There is nothing in a low price unless the quality is back of it. Remember that you must understand the quality of our goods before you can appreciate the prices. We want everybody to examine our new stock on its merits as a collection of strictly first class goods. You will find them honest, serviceable and reliable and with that knowledge in your mind we shall make you Low Prices that mean something.

The only low price that amounts to anything is a low price, quality considered. We give you all this, a good article worth all we ask for it. Some people make the mistake of buying cheap goods at cheap prices thinking they are getting a low price. This is a species of humbug that many persist in calling economy.

Nothing is low priced unless it is a good honest article. Cheap stuff is cheap stuff at any price. We sell good honest goods of all grades and nothing else. You want no thing else. We make you the lowest prices quality considered, and you should not consider any price without quality. Take your time, examine closely what you are buying, and if you are half a judge you will be sure to join the crowd and deal at FAUBLES.
