Farm Notes.

if a succession of crops is desired. The dwarf varieties require no sticks or supports.

A Pekin duck lays from 120 to 150 eggs in a year, and it is not hard to make a pair of young Pekins weigh 10 pounds when 10 weeks old. They are a profitable fowl.

Dust is death to lice and the fowls should have free access to it. Sifted coal ashes are good for this purpose, but wood ashes bleach the legs of the yellow-legged breeds.

Butter underworked will be striped. overworked it has the appearance of lard; if done either way there is a loss

If lime is broadcasted liberally over the poultry yards, or grounds occupied by poultry, it will serve as an excellent preventive of roup and gapes, and when dusted freely in the poultry house at least once a week, it will drive lice away.

When garden plants appear weak, and do not thrive, water them with a solution made by dissolving an ounce of nitrate of soda (saltpeter) in a gallon of water. They will at once begin to grow and become of a deeper tinge

One of the most important matters in the summer is that of providing plenty of fresh water for the stock. It from pools that stand in the fields, as the water must be pure if the milk is to be free from odors and impurities.

Comparing bran with peas it is estis mated by experts that one pound of pea meal is equal to three pounds of bran, and that a crop of 25 bushels of peas, or 1500 pounds, per acre, could be secured, which is equivalent in its feeding value to 4500 pounds of bran.

Pea meal is an important article in Canada for milch cows, and it is also excellent for growing stock. Experiments in growing peas for cattle food in this section have been few, but it is claimed that where dairy farming is a specialty peas may be made one of the crops with profit.

A loss of 5 cents a pound on the product of one cow, estimated at 200 pounds of butter a year, would be $10. On much of the low-grade butter the loss is even more than this. With a small outlay and a little more knowl edge of the business such leaks would be reduced to the minimum.

Old meadows often get turf bound, or what is worse, grow mossy from inactive circulation of air. A good, the rough harrowing may destroy across the rough harrowing ma thorough harrowing may destroy some grow better, so that the grass will be thicker than on meadows not so treated. The quality of the grass will also be improved.

Clover roots go down into the subsoil to a great depth, appropriating substances as food which are thus brought to the surface and stored in the roots and body of the plant. When a clover sod is plowed under this plant food is thus deposited in the soil for the use of a succeeding crop, while a large portion of the substances entering into the clover is also drawn from the air. Clover thus gains both by its roots and by its leaves, and always leaves the soil richer.

Wherever fungus attacks plants, Bordeaux mixture will stop it, and it and die, do what you may to keep it alive. If young trees are bought for such places, plant them in some rich location where they will have all the groung to themselves, and transplant next fall or spring.

Those who are intending to spray their orchards to prevent the apple leaf scab, which is thought by some to be the same that causes the black or brown scab upon the fruit will do well to remember that it often attacks both leaf and blossom while yet in the bud, and as many of these fungus spores live over winter, it may be well to spray even before the leaves expand. When this is done they come out free from the scab and have a fair start at last. It can be done some day when waiting for the ground to get dry and warm enough to put in the seed.

One of the most important essentials and only of manures or tertilizers is their solubility. The plants which compose the crops that grow on the soil consist large ly of water, and they secure their food by taking it with the moisture existing in the soil- The manure that is haulto the fields and broadcasted cannot assist in the growth of plants until it becomes so completely decomposed as to dissolve in water. A portion will be soluble immediately, but that remaining will only be slowly converted into plant food, according to the chemical action induced by the moisture, air, and warmth secured by cultivation and

SUFFERED TERRIBLY. DOCTORS AND MEDICINES USELESS. CURED IN FOUR WEEKS BY CUTICURA.

Wherever fungus attacks plants, Bordeaux mixture will stop it, and it will prevent it, if applied early enough. Paris green and London purple are remedies for destructive insects, winged or in their immature state, which feed on foliage, on the currant bush; the hellebore is a sure destroyer of the worm that feeds on the foliage. As a rule, these insects appear long, before the fruit ripens. and what poisons are there, are washed off long before the fruit ripens.

The idea that by any care in management young peach trees can be planted in squares between the centre of rows of fully-grown apple trees, and made to grow, is a grave mistake. No matter if you "intend to dig out the apple trees next winter." The tree will not grow any better for that this year. Probably by next August it will dry up and die, do what you may to keep it alive. If young trees are bought to

SCHOFIELD'S NEW HARNESS HOUSE.

We extend a most cordial invitation to our patrons and the public, in general, to witness one of the ever put on the Bellefonte market, which will be made in the large room, formerly occupied by Harper Bros., on Spring street. It has been added to my factory and will be used exclusively for the sale of harness, being the first exclusive sales room ever used in this town, as heretofore the custom has been to sell goods in the room in which they were made. This elegant room has been refitted and furnished with glass cases in which the harness can be nicely displayed and still kept away from heat and dust, the enemies of long wear in leginer. Our factory now occupies a room 16x74 feet and the store 20x60 added makes it the largest establishment of its kind outside of Philiadelphia and Pittsburg.

GRANDEST DISPLAY OF

We are prepared to offer better bargains in of Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

We are prepared to offer better bargains in the future than we have done in the past and we want everyone to see our goods and get prices for when you do this, out of self defense you will buy. Our profits are not large, but by selling lots of goods we can afford to live in Bellefonte. We are not indulging in idle philanthropy. It is purely business. We are not making much, but trade is growing and that is what we are interested in now. Profits will take care of themselves.

When other houses discharged their workmen during the winter they were all put to work in my factory, nevertheless the big (?) houses of this city and county would smile if we compared ourselves to them, but we do not mean to be so odious, except to venture the assection that none of them can say, as we can say "NO ONE OWES US A CENT THAT WE CAN'T GET." This is the whole story.

CAN'T GET." This is the whole story.

The following are kept constantly on hand.
50 SETS OF LIGHT HARNESS, prices from $8.00 to $15.00 and upwards, LARGE STOCK OF HEAVY HARNESS per set$25.00 and upwards, 500 HORSE COLLARS from $1.50 to $5.00 each, over $100.00 worth of HARNESS OILS and AXLE GREASE,
$400 worth of Fly Nets sold cheap $150 worth of whips from 15c to $3.00 each, Horse Brushes, Cury Combs Sponges, Chamois, RIDING SADDLES, LADY SIDE SADDLES Harness Soap, Knee Dusters, at low prices, Saddlery-hardware always on hand for sale, Harness Leather as low as 25c per pound. We keep everything to be found in a FIRST CLASS HARNESS STORE—no changing, over 20 years in the same room. No two shops in the same town to catch trade—NO SELLING OUT for the want of trade or prices Four harness—makers at steady work this winter, This is our idea of protection to labor, when other houses discharged their hands, they soon found work with us.
