WHERE THE DIFFERENCE IS.

The millionaire, old and picturesque, With the shrewd, sagacious head, At noonday sits at his office desk And munches a crust of bread.

The clerk a toby of old ale drinks, Eats chops with a joyous grin; And envies the rich man who, he thinks, Is feasting on terrapin.

And we think we see with a vision fair, Through these luncheons cold and hot, Why one man is always a millionaire And the other mergin received.

And the other one is not. -Colorado Sun.

How to See Chicago.

Interesting Information for the World's Fair "Visiting-How to Reach the Fair Grounds .-Hotel Accommodations and Expenses.-Places as a sightseer and was at the centennial. of Amusement.

What to do and which way to turn first on landing in Chicago will be the puzzler to the majority of visitors.

There are four ways of reaching the exposition grounds in Jackson Park from down town Chicago, The distance is seven miles from city hall, which is within a few squares of the depots of the leading railways. The elevated road gives the quickest transit, and its lines circumvent the park. The fare is five cents. The down town terminus is at Congress street, 12 to 15 minutes walk from city hall. Running time from Congress street to Jackson park, 36 minutes.

The Illinois Central railroad will carry passengers to the grounds for 25 cents for the round trip. The depot is on Michigan avenue.

The lake Michigan boats will carry passengers to the exposition pier for 25 cents the round trip. Their landing in Chicago is 10 minutes' walk from city hall, just adjoining the Illinois Central depot, The Cottage Grove cable cars run to the park. the Southern entrance to the park. Fare, 5 cents. They leave the heart of the city via Wabash avenue and turn on a loop through Lake and State streets.

Chicago is divided into three geographical divisions known in legal par-lance as the "West Side," "North Side" and "South Side." The South side with its Michigan, Calument and Prairie avenues given up to the homes of the millionaire element, harbors Chicago's aristocracy of wealth. The exposition is in the South side district ; so are the Auditorium, the court house, postoffice, the principal clubs and the Art institute. The great thoroughfares of the South side in the central section of the city are Wabash and Michigan avenues.

In fact to the general visitor 50 cents "gate money" is the only tax. If you carry a hand camera of any kind you are stopped at the gate and sent along to buy a tag permit, which costs you $2 a day. The moral to the amateur photographer is to take his camera with him on a very fine day, and then to "shoot" from morning till night. I understand there are to be facilities for changing photographic plates. The photographic restrictions have made more trouble at the fair than any others from which the fair managers undertook to swell their income.
