MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAMME, -On next Tuesday the patriotic people of this broad land will be called upon to pay a tribute of love in commemoration of their heroic dead. Bellefonte will not be laggard in the performance of the duties she owes her illustrious sons who have gone to answer the last roll call.

Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., will have everything in charge and the ceremonies will be impressing in their simplicity and loyal in their love. A parade will be formed and proceed to all the cemeteries, where the grave of every veteran will receive its garland of flowers and be marked by the dear old flag for which the form, now peaceful in death, risked its life. Children remember to take all the flowers you can gather up to Gregg post rooms early on Tuesday morning. It is a heautiful

In passing over a breaker the back seat and Miss Nora his daughter was thrown backward on the ground, causing serious injuries to the young lady, who had three ribs broken beside other hurts. Dr. Glenn of State College was immediately summoned, and under his treatment the young lady is recovering as rapidly as can be expected. This is the second accident that has occurred under similar circumstances, and should be fair warning to those who have wagons to secure the seat-before using. Several weeks ago two ladies met the same fate at Gray-ville church and both were seriously hurt.
