NOW FOR A FIRST-CLASS BICYCLE

James R. Hughes has the agency for the Victor, Credenda and Nonpartiel bicycles for another year, and is now ready to sell to any who wish to secure a good wheel and at the most reasonable terms.

The Victor needs no eulogy. They make the pace to-day, and every body knows it. The Victor wheels for '93 are beauties and no one should buy until seeing them. The Credenda is an excellent wheel at the popular price of $115. The Nonpartiel is the boys and girls wheel at $60.

These wheels are much lighter than last year—his sprockets, cranks and pure rubber mud guards instantly detachable. Extra inner tube furnished with each wheel, free of charge. Second hand wheels—good as new—at bargain. Catalogues sent to any address on application.

N. F. GERMAN RHEUMATIC CURE.

NO CURE, NO PAY!

for any case of Rheumatism it fails to cure, if taken according to directions.
Best following testimonial of an eminent Centre county physician.

GATESBURG, Centre County, Pa., Aug. 9, 1892
To the N. F. German Rheumatic Cure Co.,
Tyone, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—I had suffered with Rheumatism for many years, when, at the advanced age of seventy-seven years, your cure was recommended to me. I had tried upon myself everything known to me, (I am a doctor of fifty-nine years experience) and had despaired of ever being cured. Your remedy was taken according to directions, and after using the second package, the disease left me entirely and no rheumatic pain or ache has troubled me since.

I can recommend it without hesitation to all afflicted with the disease, and being familiar with the ingredients contained in the compound, can recommend them as being non-injurious to the constitution, and as being the most efficient blood remedy known.

Truly Yours,
DANIEL BATES, M. D.

The Japanese Artist.

How He Works With His Rather Primitive Materials.

The inevitable handkerchief in which he carries all his worldly artistic goods themselves are ranged upon the floor. There is first a small roll made of fine bamboo which serves as porte-crayon, in which are brushes of various sizes; then the Chinese ink dish; three or four small bowls in which the colors are mixed, one for each color; two or three small parcels containing fresh supplies of paint; two large bowls of water, a plate, and a piece of paper laid out upon the floor. In the parcels are some small sticks of brown and indigo; a piece of crimson cloth or felt about a quarter of an inch thick, a lump of gamboge, and a quantity of small white pellets.

These colors, with the Chinese ink, made up the palette; a little brown and blue already being ground into two of the small bowls, and the red dye had been extracted from the felt and was in a third. A quantity of Chinese ink was then rubbed on the slate slab. The white, however, is only mixed just before being used, and considerable skill is necessary both in mixing and in the use of it. The pellets are first crushed and ground very fine with a glass pestle, and then mixed with melted gelatine, the whole, with a little water, being afterward ground and rubbed into a thick paste till all traces of grit have disappeared. The pigment thus prepared is quite useless when once it has become dry and hard; it has therefore to be mixed afresh for every picture; and to the care with which it is prepared are due both its brilliancy and its permanence in the picture.

This durability is essential, as the pictures are kept rolled, and it is only after very many years of rolling and unrolling that the white begins to show signs of perishing or peeling. The power of manipulating white, not in simply body color only, but in thin washes, is, I think I am right in saying, an inheritance from the Chinese. Those who are familiar with the oldest Buddhist pictures will be familiar with the filmy veil which often falls from the head of the divinity, and is produced by the thinnest possible wash of white laid on over all the other colors without blur or running of any kind.

Woman Suffrage in Colorado.

A Constitutional Amendment to be Submitted to the Voters.

Woman's suffrage is winning new victories every year, and, while its benefits are not apparent, the cause seems to have won the approval of some distinguished journals.

"Both houses of Colorado's legislature," says the New York Herald, "have voted in favor of a constitutional amendment extending suffrage to women. Governor White has signed the bill, and the supporters of the bill are confident that next election they will get an overwhelming majority of votes.

Western men have chivalrous views on the suffrage question, and acknowledged the right of women to all the privileges that men enjoy."

"As education received the impetus in the west that gave momentum to public opinion in breaking down conservative barriers and opening the doors of the greatest educational institutions in the east to women, so it is to be given to western women to demonstrate that women do desire and can will exercise the right of franchise. Once the American woman fully decides and makes her decision known that she will elect the rulers of the commonwealth, she will have the right, as she has all other privileges within the power of the American man to bestow."

Baron Hirsch's Benefactions.

It is true that General Beaugard left $1,000,000 apiece to his two children, the conclusion is reasonable that when he twirled the wheel of fortune for the Louisiana Lottery company he did not do it solely for love of watching the turns of luck. There were sure winnings in the lottery for him and he did not disdain to carry home and salt them down. Therein he differed from Baron de Hirsch, who, as most people know, finds one use of his vast income in demonstrating that that rottable lottery, the turf is worth cultivating purely itself and aside from all the chances of possible gain.

Hirsch has given to hospitals, homes and benevolent associations, principally in London, without regard to their creeds or nationalities, all the money won by him upon the turf during 1891 and 1892. In 1891 the winnings amounted to £7,000 and in 1892 £25,000. The amounts received from him by various institutions vary from £4,000 to £200. Several of them received £2,000, the largest beneficiary of all being the London hospital. There are some 40 institutions on his race money list.—Harper's Weekly.

A POPULAR REMEDY.—The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cents bottles for sale by F. Potts Green.

A CURE FOR CONSTIPATION AND HEADACHE.—Dr. Silas Lenoir, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion. It does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c a package enough for five weeks.

Medical.

IN THE SPRING

Many people are troubled with dizziness, dullness, unpleasant taste in the morning, and that "tired feeling." Pimples, boils and other manifestations of impure blood also appear, annoying and depressing.

To all such sufferers we earnestly urge a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla. No preparation ever received such unanimous praise for its success as a Spring Medicine. It cures scrofula, salt rheum and every other evidence of impure blood. It overcomes that "tired feeling" and all other ills.

A MISERABLE MAN.

HEALTH BROKEN DOWN—NERVES SHATTERED.

"I gladly write this statement of my experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had been ailing about two years with a nervous attack and was generally broken down. I was so bad that at times I would fall over with a touch of vertigo; in fact I was not able to go any distance from the house. I certainly was a miserable man. Failing to get help from physicians in Harrisburg and York, I got very much disheartened. But one day I read in a paper about Hood's Sarsaparilla and I ought to try it. The day I commenced on bottle No. 2, I began to feel better, so I kept on, and I am glad to say I feel like a new man. I am working again, and can be on the go all day long, and do not have any of my old spells. So I suffer no more, I have a perfect cure, and I find there is nothing like Hood's Sarsaparilla for me." Chas. M. Laner, 650 West Market Street, York, Pa.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA CURES
