Bicycle.

NOW FOR A FIRST-CLASS BICYCLE

James R. Hughes has the agency for the Victor, Crendia and Nonpartiel bicycles for another year, and is now ready to sell to any who wish to secure a good wheel at the most reasonable terms. The Victors need no eulogy. They make the pace to-day, and everybody knows it. The Victor wheels for '93 are beauties and no one should buy until seeing them. The Crendia is an excellent wheel, at the popular price of $115. The Nonpartiel is the boys' and girls' wheel at $75.

These wheels are much lighter than last year's—the sprockets, cranks and pure rubber mud guards instantly detachable. Extra inner tube furnished with each wheel, free of charge. Second-hand wheels—good as new—at bargain. Catalogues sent to any address on application. J. R. HUGHES, Agent, Bellefonte, Pa. 38-124f

RHEUMATISM MET AND CONQUERED

N. F. GERMAN RHEUMATISM CURE.

NO CURE, NO PAY!

MONEY CHEERFULLY REFUNDED

For any case of Rheumatism it fails to cure, if taken according to directions. Read following testimonial of an eminent Centre county physician: GATSBURG, Centre County, Pa., Aug. 9, 1892 To the N. F. German Rheumatism Cure Co., Tyrone, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—I had suffered with Rheumatism for many years, when, at the advanced age of seventy-seven years, your cure was recommended to me. I had tried upon myself everything known to me, (I am a doctor of fifty years experience) and had dispensed of every being cured. Your remedy was taken according to directions, and after using the second package, the disease left me entirely and no rheumatic pain or ache has troubled me since.

I can recommend it without hesitancy to all afflicted with the disease, and being familiar with the ingredients contained in the compound, can recommend them as being non-injurious to the constitution, and as being the most efficient blood remedy known.

Truly Yours, DANIEL BATES, M. D. For sale by ALL DRUGGISTS. All orders accompanied by the cash, sent direct to the manufacturers, will receive prompt attention by mail without extra charge. PRICE - - - - $1.50

For Cholera Morbus. A good prescription for cholera morbus is a tumblerful of water to which has been added a teaspoonful of raw caraway and a teaspoonful or two of common table salt. These are stirred well together and as much is drunk as can be taken without nausea. This has been tried many times in cases of summer diarrhoea and cholera morbus with invariable and prompt success.

Charles Van Mausebach, of Zirconville, tried to end his life by hanging himself in the cell of his prison, where he had been placed for a previous attempt of the same nature. Poverty and a sick wife were the reason for the deed.

Electrical Engineering as a Profession.

One of the most eminent and practical working electricians of the country, in a recent article, urges young men to keep out of electrical engineering unless they are willing to work hard and have an instinctive banking for this line of work. If they think they fulfill these conditions, they should by all means secure a practical education in some good scientific school, and then bend all their energies in one particular direction. Electrical engineering has become specialized, like all other lines of engineering, and there is opportunity for so much work and investigation in any one special line that few men can master more than one. It is particularly noticeable in this connection that the World's Columbian Exposition has had its regular force of electricians and electrical engineers, yet in laying out the lighting and other large engineering schemes has employed specialists as consulting engineers, and by doing so has prevented several glaring failures, particularly in lighting effects. The demand for such specialists is limited, but the supply is never too great, and is not keeping up in quality with the increased demand.

But in urging upon young men to make themselves competent specialists, the writer in question did not refer alone to such lofty positions as are only within the intellectual scope of a chosen few, but more particularly to lesser yet in their way equally important lines of work. These are not many engineers in the country that thoroughly understand all the fine and necessary points required in planning and equipping an electric station of medium or large capacity. Nor is there anywhere near supply enough of men who are competent to take charge of a plant, put it to good running condition, keep it in such order that consumers of light or current can feel as sure of their supply as they are of the coming of each day, and at the same time have in mind the fact that while he is maintaining the highest efficiency in the plant, he is remembering that the stockholders are looking to him to operate the plant with a high degree of economy. In this particular line of work, there are probably better openings for intelligent, well-trained young men than in any other line. Whatever the work may be—and it is equally true of all lines in engineering—the successful men are, as a rule, those who fully master one branch of their chosen profession.—Scientific American.

Twenty National Banks.

A statement by Comptroller Eekles shows that since Jan. 1 up to June 1 twenty national banks, with a capital of $6,250,000, have failed, against seven national banks with a capital of $425,000 for the corresponding period of 1892.

The banks and their capital that have failed this year are as follows: Capital National bank, Lincoln, Neb., $300,000; Bankers and Merchants National bank, Dallas, Tex., $500,000; First National bank, Little Rock, Ark., $500,000; Commercial National bank, Nashville, Tenn., $500,000; Alabama National bank, Mobile, Ala., $500,000; First National bank, Pensacola, Fla., $500,000; Second National bank, Columbus, Tenn., $100,000; Columbian National bank, Chicago, $1,000,000; Elmira National bank, Elmira, N. Y., $200,000; Chemical National bank, Chicago, $1,000,000; Capital National bank, Indianapolis, $300,000; First National bank, Cedar Falls, Ia., $50,000; First National bank, Brunswick, Ga., $200,000; Oglethorpe National bank, Brunswick, $150,000; First National bank, Evansville, Ind., $100,000; National Bank of Deposit, New York, $300,000; National Bank of North Dakota, Fargo, N. D., $25,000; Dakota bank, N. D., $50,000; Gulf National bank, Tampa, Fla., $50,000; First National bank, Brady, Tex., $50,000.

Stout City's Bursting Boom.

Estimated That at Least $20,000,000 Ave. Involved—Gigantic Speculation That Failed to Realize

Attorney Samuel H. Drew, of New York city, has just returned from Sioux City, Ia. He estimates that $50,000,000 is involved in the recent financial crash there. The trouble seems to have been that the financial operators known as the "Big Four," who started in to boom the town ten years ago attained such success that they believed another decade would make it a second Chicago. So they formed companies and floated enterprises that were miles too big for Sioux City.

The corporation flooded the country with circulars offering notes, stocks and bonds, all guaranteed by the "Big Four," and many Eastern banks and capitalists yielded to the temptation of securing a little larger rate of interest than could be had in their own cities.

On the main street of Sioux City there are at least 50 handsome office buildings of brick and stone, six and seven stories high, erected at an average cost of $200,000. This represents an investment of $10,000,000 by Eastern capitalists and the return will be next to nothing for some time to come.

Not to Be Forgotten.

As I sat talking with the editor and proprietor of the weekly paper the office "devil," who was a boy about fifteen years of age, came in tremblingly said: "Mr. French wasn't I to stay for three years and learn my trade?" "Why, certainly." "But the foreman has discharged me!" "He has! Why, what is that for?" "Because I took home the office towel and had!" "What! James, did you dare to meddle with that towel?" "Why, sir, it needed washing, and I took it."

"James, did you take that towel home and have your mother wash it?" "Yes, sir!" "Didn't you know that it hadn't been washed since the Eagle was established fourteen years ago?" "Yes, sir!" "And yet you took it home and had it boiled and sudsed and rinsed and ironed and brought it back here fresh and clean?" "Yes, sir!" "That will do, James! If you had pined our first page, ruined our hand press or used our subscription book for a diary, we could overlook the matter, but in this case—never! The foreman is right—you must go!"—M. French.

A Pretty Roma see.

Although many flowers owe their names to famous people, there is only one instance known when a man and a flower received a title at the same moment. When Niel, a brave French general, was returning from the scene of his victories in the war between France and Austria, he received from a peasant, who wished to honor the hero, a basket of beautiful, pale yellow roses. One of the stems, which happened to have roots clinging to it, the general took to a florist in Paris, in whose care it remained until it became a thriving bush covered with blossoms. Niel then took the plant as a gift to Empress Eugenie. She expressed a great admiration for the exquisite flowers, and, on learning the rose was nameless, said significantly: "Then I will name it. It shall be the Mareschal Niel," and at the same moment she bestowed upon the astonished general the jeweled baton that betokened his promotion to the high office of marshal of France.

50,000 Pennies for the Bell.

When all is ready for the casting of the new Liberty bell at Troy, on June 8, Mrs. Cleveland will touch a button at Washington, which will be connected by wire with the spout at the foundry furnace, and start the metal in the mould. The bell will be composed of 78 per cent. of Lake Superior copper and 22 per cent. of East India block tin. Besides this it will contain hundreds of interesting relics of Colonial, Revolutionary and modern times, contributed by persons interested. These relics will form about 500 pounds of the 63 tons of metal entering into the bell, and the contributors number over 250,000 persons. The school children of Brooklyn are now collecting 75,000 pennies, which will form part of the bell.

—Toast very thin slices of stale bread and line the bottom and sides of a china dish with them, after buttering generously. Trim the bread to fit the dish neatly. Fill the space with straw-berries packed and heaped as full as the dish will hold; sit plenty of sugar all through and over them, and set the dish in a moderate oven for about half an hour. It will be found that the berries shrink a great deal, so they must be plentiful. Serve very cold with rich, thick cream. This is one of the most delicious desserts imaginable, notwithstanding that there are people who consider it almost a crime to cook strawberries in any way.

—The "White City," as the World's Fair grounds and buildings are termed, has the equipment of a modern municipality. It has a combined water capacity of 51,000,000 gallons a day, and will soon have 100,000,000. It has 25 miles of water mains and 291 hydrants. A hundred more will be provided. There are three steam fire engines, four chemical engines, a ladder truck, water tower, 40 hose carts, 26,750 feet of hose, 1,050 hand fire extinguishers, 2,500 fire pails, a steam fire boat, 65 firemen, 150 alarm boxes, 150 patrol telephones, 500 gauges, complete electric light and sewerage system, etc.

—Speaking of hot water, it is wonderful how many good purposes it serves. A compress of linen wrung out of hot salt and water and applied to the chest, covered entirely and closely with flannel to prevent the taking of cold, will ease pain and do away with the irritation which culminates in frequent coughing. Hot water at the back of the neck and behind the ears will cure that nervous weariness and hysteria which overcome one after a hard day's work. Hot water taken internally before a meal is an aid to digestion.

—I have been a sufferer from catarrh for years. Having tried a number of remedies advertised as "sure cures" without obtaining any relief, I had nearly never to take any other patent medicines, when a friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm. I did so with great reluctance, but can now testify that after using it for six weeks I believe myself cured. It is a most agreeable remedy—an invaluable Balm.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Avenue Brooklyn.

—Strawberry sherbet needs two quarts of berries, mash thoroughly; cover with two pounds of sugar; let stand over an hour, then press the juice all out; and as much cold water as there is juice, and freeze until slightly hard. Beat the whites of four eggs to stiff froth, stir into the half-frozen mixture, and freeze until hard.

"Bill" said the Kansas editor to the new reporter, "write up that suicide in style. How will you open the account of it?"

"Why, I'll say, 'This usually quiet village was thrown into a fever of excitement yesterday.'"

"You will, eh? You'd better go, young man. I don't want a reporter who speaks of a city where the real estate transfers in a week amount to $500 as a usually quiet village."

—Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this Remedy before leaving home. For sale by F. Potts Green.

Medical.

IN THE SPRING

Many people are troubled with dizziness, dullness, unpleasant taste in the morning, and that "tired feeling." Pimples, boils and other manifestations of impure blood also appear, annoying and depressing. To all such sufferers we earnestly urge a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla. No preparation ever received such unanimous praise for its success as a Spring Medicine. It cures scrofula, salt rheum and every other evidence of impure blood. It overcomes that "tired feeling" and all other debility.

A MISERABLE MAN.

HEALTH BROKEN DOWN—NERVES SHATTERED

"I gladly write this statement of my experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had been ailing about two years with a nervous attack and was generally broken down. I was so bad that at times I would fall over with a touch of vertigo; in fact I was not able to go any distance from the house. I certainly was a miserable man. Failing to get help from physicians in Harrisburg and York, I got very much disheartened. But one day I read in a paper about Hood's Sarsaparilla and I ought to try it. The day I commenced on bottle No. 2, I began to feel better, so I kept on, and I am glad to say I feel like a new man. I am working again, and
