B. Snyder, of Eagleville; Edwin P. Harder, of Catawissa; and C. W. Burkett, of Remington.

The Freshman and Sophomore rhetorical prizes to the students in the two classes named who excel in rhetoricals during the year were given to T. A. Hemphill, of Allegheny and C. W. Burkett, of Remington.

While announcing the prizes President Atherton took occasion to call attention to the establishment of the new Department in Mining Engineering which will be ready to accommodate students when College re-opens in Sep tember. Another pleasant announce. ment he had to make, was the endowment of an annual $50 scholarship in memory of Harry Strouse the bright young son of Mr. Joseph Strouse of Pine Hall, who died on Jan. 4th last, the day he was to have entered college. The scholarship was endowed by his oldest brother, Frank of the class of '87, who is now holding a responsible position iu Baltimore, Md. To make it all the more helpful to some poor boy who wants to make his way through college a senatorial scholarship has been added to it. The class of '93 numbers twenty one

For more than six years, I have had a most terrible case of asthma, and it was seldom in-deed when I could rest for a night, on account of coughing, closeness in chest and panting for breath with huge drops of cold perspiration breaking out all over me. I was indeed tired of life, I had tried all the best physicians in the neighborhood and nearly all patent medi-cines I heard of but grew worse rapidly. Af-ter I had given up all hopes of ever deriving benefit to my terrible malady. I was obliged to go to Dr. Salm and I thankfully bless the aday I went to him, he has done me more good in the short time he has treated me, than al outers in six years.
