Bellefonte, Pa., July 14, 1893.

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY

—Mt. Eagle children are down with the measles.

—Old Mrs. Cunningham of east Bishop street is seriously ill.

—To-morrow will be the last day on which you can legally catch trout.

—Lock Haven will more than likely have to drink canal water again.

—Only 170 days of 1893 remain to be lived. We have used up 195 of the usual allotment already.

—Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Fulton are just now receiving the congratulations of their friends. Twins are the cause.

—The curb market is increasing in size every morning now, as farm and garden produce increase in abundance.

—Jos. Funk, of this place, has purchased the bakery of Thos. Haupt, in Phillipsburg, and will take charge of it at once.

—The Fourth of July was the biggest day Centre Hall ever had and from all accounts visitors to that place were royally treated.

—The Republican has figured out that 17 per cent of the population of this county has been married since the requirement of licenses began.

—The Bellefonte cow must go. We can't have her on the street after August 1st. We fear some council men will go too next January.

—The Methodists picnicked at Hunters Park yesterday. Several hundred young people went up and the old folks were there to take care of them.

—At a recent meeting of the American Ax and Edge Tool Co., held at Newport, Kentucky, J. Fearon Mann, of this place, was elected a director.

—A charter has been issued to the Bellefonte Board of Trade and the new organization is now ready for work. As to whether it will do anything or not there is another question.

—On Wednesday evening, July 5th, the severest hail storm ever known visited the vicinity of Phillipsburg. Windows were broken, vegetables beaten down and fruit trees considerably injured.

—Readers of the WATCHMAN who contemplate a visit to Atlantic City, will find several very pleasant rooms that can be rented either by the day or week by applying at Mr. S. H. Williams' Bellefonte Cottage, 172 Tennessee Ave.

—It was reported on the streets, on Monday evening, that Daniel Garman had died suddenly at his home on the corner of Spring and High streets. Mr. Garman had been dangerously ill with cramp, but we are pleased to say is about well now.

—On the night of the July 4th some miscreant cut the guy ropes of the derrick being used on the new C. R. R. of P. on the James Curtin farm below town, and also on the one at the Nigh bank crossing. A liberal reward is offered for his apprehension.

—At a regular meeting of Council held on Monday evening, July 1st, a vote of 5 to 1 decided that the cows can no longer run at large on Bellefonte streets. After August 1st every one will either have to provide pasture or keep their cows in the stable.

—A team of colored ball players from Phillipsburg came over to this place on last Wednesday and were beaten by the score of 13 to 8 by the Bellefonte Black Diamonds. The Diamonds evened up an old score by giving them only $1.50 guarantee money.

—The furniture ware rooms and factory owned by Cameron Boak, at Hughesville, were totally destroyed by fire on the morning of July 4th, entailing a loss of $30,000 on which there is an insurance of $15,000. Mr. Boak will be remembered as a former Centre county merchant, he having been in Snow Shoe in business for a long time.

—The Bellefonte River League team made its first trip last week, playing two games at Renova on the Fourth. Renova won both; an exhibition game in the morning, by the score of 13 to 5 and the championship game in the afternoon, score 8 to 1. At Williamsport, on Wednesday, Bellefonte defeated the Demores to the tune of 8 to 7 and the next day was beaten by Tyrone, 9 to 4.

—The Bellefonte Furnace company's big plant at this place will be banked to-day or to-morrow and no iron will be made until the market gets better. The stock of coke is being used up and just as soon as it is done the works will stop until the stock of iron now on hand is sold and there is prospect for a better market. The quarries and mines will continue running full time indefinitely. It is probable that the shut down will last thirty days.

THE SAD END OF WILLIAM J. COX'S LIFE

—On the morning of July Fourth William J. Cox left his family in this place to spend the day patriotically in Centre Hall. Upon arriving at his destination he registered at the hotel and upon request was assigned room No. 11 by land-lord David Barges. He staid about the hotel during the entire day and it was noticeable that he seemed melancholy. During the fore part of the afternoon some one in an adjoining room heard laborious breathing coming from No. 11 and investigation disclosed the fact that there was something seriously wrong with its occupant, who was lying on the bed in a heavy stupor. Doctors Jacobs and McGeehan were speedily called and at once discovered that the man was under the influence of a powerful opiate. Everything possible was done to revive him, but death came shortly after eight o'clock and claimed the life which he had apparently valued so little.

Justice of the Peace Jas. C. Boal, acting as coroner, empaneled a jury which sat on the body and rendered the following verdict:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA. CENTRE CO. An inquisition indented and taken at Centre Hall in the County of Centre on the fourth day of July A. D. 1893 before me J. C. Boal Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, upon the view of the body of Wm. Cox, then and there lying dead, upon the oaths of John Spangler, J. W. Wolf, Howard Roman, W. J. Carlin, Cyrus Brungart, J. W. Heaney, wood and lawful men of the county aforesaid, who being duly sworn to inquire, on the part of the Commonwealth, when, where, how and after what manner the said Wm. Cox came to his death, do say that he died July 4th, 1893, from unknown causes, supposed to be from a mixture of opium, with suicidal intent, according to the evidence.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 4th day of July A. D. 1893.

JAMES C. BOAL, acting as Coroner.
JOHN SPANGLER,
J. WOLF,
HOWARD ROMAN,
W. J. CARLIN,
CYRUS BRUNGART,
J. W. HEANEY.

According to the testimony brought out at the inquest it was evident that the deceased had gone to Centre Hall with the intent of never returning alive and more is the sorrow at his sad end when it is known that a loving wife and three as bright little children as any parent has ever been blessed with are left widowed and orphaned.

William J. Cox was the oldest son of the late Augustus Cox, of this place, and by profession was a carpenter. He had had steady employment at the Bellefonte Furnace Co's works where his services were highly valued, as he was an exceptional workman. Deceased was 35 years old and was buried from his late home on last Thursday.

A BELLEFONTER DROWNED.—Daniel Gallagher, a well known character in this community, met his death in a mysterious way on the afternoon of July Fourth. He was a passenger on the morning train for Lock Haven and about two o'clock the same afternoon his body was found in Bald Eagle Creek, under the Flemington bridge, just on this side the latter city. Whether he had been drowned or not is a question which will never be answered for, as far as is known, no one saw him go into the stream or no cause can be ascribed for his being found there. The coroner of Clinton county empaneled a jury and rendered a verdict of death from heart disease while wading across Bald Eagle Creek at Flemington bridge.

The body was found in fifteen inches of water and as there were no marks of violence on it the general supposition is that the unfortunate man, being refused permission to walk over the bridge, started through the water when death overtook him.

He has several brothers in this place where his body was brought on Wednesday morning, and the interment was made on Thursday from St. John's Catholic Church.

A GALA DAY COMING FOR THE LOCALS.—The picnic which the Logan Steam Fire Engine Co., held at Hunter's Park last season proved such a grand success that the firemen have decided that they will continue the delightful summer excursions and number their annual picnicks along with their grand New Year's balls which have long been a factor in mid-winter social festivities. Accordingly on Thursday, the 20th inst., the firemen with their sweet hearts, wives, children and friends will spend the day at the Park.

Amusements of every kind will be in order, among them dancing, base ball, boating, a band concert and numerous other methods of innocent enjoyment. Everyone is invited to take the day off and spend it at the Park.

Trains will leave Bellefonte for the Park at 6:30, 9:10, 10:30, 11:50 a. m.; 1:50, 4:40 and 7 p. m. Return from Park to Bellefonte at 8:48 a. m.; 1:20, 8:33, 6:27 and 11:00 p. m.

LAWN FESTIVAL.—A lawn festival will be held Saturday evening of this week, July 15, at the residence of Rev. G. E. Zohner, Willow-bank street. Proceeds for the benefit of the Evangelical church.

—Phillipsburg has a man who is so narrow minded that he doesn't cast a shadow when he takes off his hat. So the Journal says.

—The Lock Haven paper mills are closed for repairs.

—Renova citizens have met and organized to fight the epidemic of Typhoid fever now raging in that place. Over two hundred are ill with the disease.

—Do you want a first class magazine and a first class newspaper? you can get both for less than the price of the magazine. See adv. of Cosmopolitan and WATCHMAN combined.

—A cross cow tossed the 18 months old daughter of a man named Gettig, on Second street, in Phillipsburg, on Saturday evening. The infant was thrown high in the air and alighted on the cow's back. No serious injury resulted.

—These constant reports which appear in the city dailies of escaped animals from the Main circus wreck which are turning up in all quarters are exceedingly tiresome. The latest is about a Kangaroo, an animal which Mr. Main never had in his menagerie.

—Nine Lock Haven bicyclists started to make a one hundred mile ride from Lock Haven on the Fourth and of all the starters only one pulled through over the route to Tyrone and return the same day. All of the riders but one met with some mishap or got tired out.

—It is a rare coincidence that both candidates for president judge of Clearfield county are Centre county boys. Hon. D. L. Krebs, the Democratic nominee was born on a farm in Ferguson township, and Cyrus Gordon Esq., the Republican aspirant, was born near Hecla.

—Out of eighty-nine county or local agricultural societies in the State all but eight hold regular fairs for the exhibition of live stock and farm produce. $55,500 are annually paid out in premiums and it requires $150,000 to run all the fairs one year. The grounds and appurtenances, owned by the societies, aggregate to $675,000 in value.

—The next annual convention of the P. O. S. of A. of Blair, Centre, Clearfield, Cameron, Clinton, Elk, Lycoming and Jefferson counties will be held in Phillipsburg. At the last meeting, in Renova, T. W. Nichols, of Renova, was elected President; J. N. Farnsworth, of Lock Haven, Secretary and Geo. H. Harman, of Bellefonte, Treasurer.

—That the Epworth League Society in Jersey Shore is in a flourishing condition is best evidenced by the great success which attends all of its undertakings. On last Thursday evening the young Leaguers held a social in the church in that place which was a most delightful affair indeed. Everything passed off with a success that was charming.

—In the wreck which occurred near Osceola, on the Clearfield and Tyrone railroad last Friday, W. I. Fleming, of this place, was forced to save himself by diving head first through the car window. Aside from running his nose into a pile of coal and telescoping himself almost as bad as the car was, he suffered no serious injury. The wreck was caused by a freight train's running into Day express.

—While picking cherries at Mr. Tressler's, just a short distance from her own home, on last Monday evening, Miss Minnie Reeser, who lives near Hunter's Park, fell eighteen feet from a tree, alighting on the back of her neck and shoulders. She has been in a precarious condition ever since. Dr. Dart was called, but found no bones broken, though the young woman was seriously injured. It is thought she will recover.

—Says a shrewd writer in an exchange: This is the season of the year when some misguided advertisers cut down their space because business is dull. If advertisements are business bringers and they must be or merchants would not pay for them, the dull season is a good time to double the space. It would be a poor locomotive engineer who let the steam pressure run down on up grades. Shrewd merchants are coming to see this, and when the people seem reluctant to buy simply give them a double dose of urging.

—The death of Mrs. Mary Williams occurred from apoplexy at her home in Boalsburg on the morning of the 4th inst. She had gotten up rather early and gone over to help Mrs. Hamill Boal do some house work and was just about to begin milking when her cries attracted Mr. Boal to the stable where he found her lying on a pile of hay complaining of a terrible pain in the head. The stricken woman lingered a few hours and died.

Deceased was 45 years of age, having been born in Haines township this county in 1845. Six children are left orphans by the untimely death of a devoted mother. During life Mrs. Williams was a consistent member of the Lutheran church.

CENTRE HALL CELEBRATED ROYALLY

—The only town in the county that had a celebration worthy the name on the Fourth was Centre Hall and the good people of that town and the valley in which it is located turned out galore to flly celebrate our day of independence. The town was gayly attired in bunting and flags, great arches spanned the street at a number of places and every thing took on a holiday appearance. Centre Hall had invited people from every-where and when the trains began to arrive it seemed that the invitation had been accepted.

At eleven o'clock the parade moved from the station, chief marshal Wm. B. Mingle escorting the line as follows: The Bellefonte Wheelmen's Club, forty members; the Bellefonte band; Co. B, 5th Reg. N. G. P., Millheim band, Logan Steam Fire Engine Co., of Bellefonte, Pleasant Gap band, Bellefonte Castle Knights of the Golden Eagle, a float on which there was a young lady representing every State in the Union, Young America on foot, and grotesque fantasies brought up the rear. The parade was a very creditable one and was an honor to the town in which it was held.

During the afternoon a picnic, baseball game, sports, a band concert and speeches by Ex-Governor Curtin, Gen. Hastings, Hon. S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven, and Col. Jack Spangler proved interesting features.

On the whole the day was well arranged and proved a decided surprise to most of the visitors. It simply goes to show what can be made of such an occasion by people who have the necessary energy to get it up. Centre Hall did herself proud and her people are happy accordingly.

TRIPPLE—KERSTETTER.—The wedding of Miss Ollie Tripple to Mr. George Kerstetter was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Tripple, on north Spring street, on Thursday evening. The ceremony was pronounced in the parlor of the Tripple home where a few intimate friends of the young people had gathered to witness it, Rev. Wm. Laurie, D. D., officiating. Miss Jennie Slot, of this place, was maid of honor and Mr. Frank Mahar, of Lewisburg, was best man.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. William Tripple and is a young woman with a large circle of friends who will be pleased to learn of her happy marriage. She is thoroughly qualified to make her husband a valued and treasured companion through life. Mr. Kerstetter is a Lewisburg man and is well known for his integrity and unassuming character. For years he has been employed on the L. & T. railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Kerstetter will go to house keeping in Lewisburg.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE COMET?—A comet is now visible in the heavens with the naked eye in the early evening. It is a few degrees west of the polar star. It will be readily found by tracing a line through the star forming the corner of the bowl of the great dipper nearest the handle down through the star at the opposite corner. Continue this line nearly double the distance between them downward and two stars just in the corner of the Ursa Major will be met. Just below this about three degrees and a little to the west the comet was seen, but it will be found somewhat nearer the two third magnitude stars noted this evening. The tail points almost directly upward, though it does lean a little toward the east.—Ez.

—The marriage of Miss Gertrude Spigelmeyer, of North Penn street, to John E. D. Huffman, of Williamsport, was solemnized in the Presbyterian church at this place on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. A large assemblage of friends was present to witness the nuptials. The bride is the oldest daughter of G. R. Spigelmeyer one of the proprietors of "The Racket" and is a most estimable young woman. Mr. Huffman is a well known young contractor in the lumber city. They will be at home at 228 W. 3rd street, Williamsport, after August 1st.

—The Juniata Valley Camp meeting will open at Newton Hamilton, on Tuesday August 8th, and continue for ten days. The new hotel recently erected, will accommodate those who prefer that mode of rooming, to occupying a tent, at from 70 cents to $1.25 per day. In table board $1 per day will be charged. Already tents are being engaged and those of our readers who expect to attend and desire favorable locations would do well to secure their tents or rooms at once.

—At a regular meeting of the Bellefonte school board on Tuesday night all the old teachers were re-elected and S. Lewis Ammerman, of Danville, a graduate of Lafayette College was tendered the position of Ass't. Prin. of the High school. The Board decided to grade teacher's salaries according to the quality of work they do. Free text books will be provided and the $500 appropriation from the State which cannot be had until 1894 will be taken from the tax levy and made up later.

—Lock Haven is threatened with another water famine.

—For well made clothing go to Faibles.

—We have arranged to secure the Cosmopolitan magazine, one of the cleanest cut, best monthly publications in the world—a magazine the peer of any $4.00 monthly—and which has heretofore sold at $3.00 per year, in connection with the WATCHMAN, both for one year at $3.25. The man or woman, boy or girl who misses this chance, misses the best thing ever offered.

—The finest line of young mens suits, blue serge chevot, black serge chevot, double breasted or single, $8.00, $10.00, $12.00. The finest line of boys chevot suits in brown, blue black and mixed $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00 and $10.00. Lyon & Co.

—H. N. Jones, of Milesburg, was in town on July 3rd, getting ready to have a big time the next day.

—Misses Gertrude Kinkhead and Grace Faulkner, of Phillipsburg, are visiting friends at State College.

—Miss Berencie Bickford, of Lock Haven, is spending a few days at the home of S. D. Ray on Curtin street.

—Claude Cook Esq., of Girard, Kansas, is spending a few days with his brothers, Charles and Andrew, in this place.

—Miss Elsie Weaver is entertaining three charming Clearfield girls. They are the Misses Bridge, Bigler and Snyder.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Phillipsburg, are visiting Mrs. D's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eisenhuth, in Millheim.

—Mrs. James B. Lane, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Thomas, on Curtin street.

—C. P. Hewes Esq and wife have returned from the Fair. During their absence they visited Mrs. Hewes' parents in Erie.

—Barber Wm. Plack has left the employ of W. C. Storm and gone to Phillipsburg where he has secured a more lucrative position.

—W. H. Mann Esq and wife, of Reedsville Mifflin county who spent the fore part of last week in this place left for home on Wednesday last.

—Among the World's Fair visitors who returned home on Saturday were Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Miss Blanche Hayes and Judge and Mrs. A. O. Furst.

—Mr. Pat. M'Affrey, a long time friend of the WATCHMAN, and one of Lock Haven's most substantial Democrats, visited relatives in Bellefonte Thursday last.

—Mail carrier Thos. M. Bonner, with his wife and daughter and Mrs. Amanda Stull, left himself away to Atlantic City yesterday to have a good time for a week.

—W. A. Tobias, the new Post master at Millheim, passed through Bellefonte on Wednesday evening on a flying trip to Tyrone. He returned early Thursday morning.

—Mrs. Wm. Dix, of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. T. Munson, on Allegheny street. Mrs. Dix is one of those charming souls who never seem to get a moment older.

—Ex-county Commissioner John C. Henderson, who has been dangerously ill at his home, in Julian, for some months, was in town on Saturday greeting his friends as of yore.

—Will Bartley, a member of the class of '91 at State College, who has been teaching in a Southern College, is spending his summer vacation at the home of his parents on Willowbank street.

—The family of Jas. A. McLean, who is in business in Spangler, is spending the summer out of town and their Curtin street home is being occupied by W. J. Nicolls and family of Philadelphia.

—Mr. John P. Harris and family are entertaining Mr. Harris' sister, Mrs. W. P. Elliott, of Knoxville, Tenn., whose visits to Bellefonte are always looked forward to with so much interest by those who have the honor of her acquaintance.

—Among the former Centre countians who came home to spend the Fourth of July was H. H. Meyer, a young Milesburg man, who is now holding the responsible position of operator and agent of the P. & N. W. R. Co., at Lloydsville, Pa. He is a young gentleman who is bound to succeed.

—We have just received a card, announcing the removal of the law firm of Fisher and Frow to the Fulton building, 87 Nassau and 130 Fulton streets New York. The senior member of the firm is William Penn Fisher of the class of '87 at State College, who is a son of the well known nurseryman of the Bald Eagle Valley.

—Jacob Baum, of Evansville, Ind., who has been spending two weeks with his parents in this place left on Wednesday afternoon to resume his business on the road. He is traveling for an Evansville house. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Reisman, of the same city, who are visiting Mrs. E's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Baum, will return home on next Tuesday.

—Misses Anna and Grace MacBride, who had spent part of their vacation from Wilson College with their friend Alice Dorworth in this place, departed on Monday morning to join their Aunt in Franklin for a tour to the White City. The girls still love Bellefonte as their old home and hope to get back here to live some day.

—Ed. Schaffer, of Hyndman, Bedford county, spent Sunday with his many friends here. He is now treasurer and manager of one of the largest clothing concerns in the Broad Top region and by his conscientious work is making an enviable reputation for himself. At one time he was a clerk in Joseph's store from which place he went to "the Racket" in this place.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—The Fayette county grand jury, says the Greensburg Tribune, makes a suggestion that local institutes be held throughout the county to discuss the subject of road improvement.

This is a suggestion that might be accepted with profit elsewhere than in Fayette county. Two years will elapse before the state legislature again convenes, and in that time a wonderful amount of work could be done. If the friends of road improvement would go to work systematically to interest and educate the masses on the road question, these two years intervening between now and the assembling of the legislature should enable them to create such a sentiment in favor of good roads that would demand action by that body.

—Call and see E. Brown Jr's stock of furniture and wall paper.
