

to give her a kindly greeting which she so modestly acknowledged with her best bow by her side. The Penna State College band and drum corps furnished the music for the evening and well did they infuse the night air with choice and excellent selections.

On Monday of this week Jacob Hendershot, an employe at the Toe Hill ore mines met with a sad accident by having his leg crushed below the knee while in the act of dumping a loaded car on the plain into the washer, when the brake that controlled the car gave way with the above result. Drs. Dale, of Lemont and Houser, of Penna Furnace, amputated the leg at the thigh the following day.

A case that will interest owners of land and meadows is about being instituted. The particulars of the case are not yet prepared to give but the sum and substance is about this: P. F. Bortoff, of this township, joins pasture lands with Wm. Thomas, of Harris township. Mr. Bortoff's part of the line fence was good while the part belonging to and formerly kept in repair by Mr. Thomas was in very poor repair. Mr. Bortoff had turned his young cattle in his field but two days and on the third or fourth day learned that four head of his cattle with the same number of Mr. John Wilmos cattle were being driven by Mr. Thomas to his stable. Mr. Bortoff immediately got out a warrant for larceny and in company with the proper officer went to the barn of Mr. Thomas and demanded the stolen cattle. Mr. Thomas at first refusing to give them up without damages being paid, this Mr. Bortoff refused to do. The amount demanded was fifty dollars. The matter was finally adjusted by Mr. Bortoff agreeing to pay the costs which he did and took the cattle. Now Mr. Thomas has instituted proceedings to recover the fifty dollars damages claimed. Mr. Bortoff alleges that his cattle could not possibly have been trespassing but a very short time and that the damage was done by cattle belonging to some one else and that Mr. Thomas did not find his cattle in his field but drove them out of Mr. Bortoff's field on the supposition that they had been in. At all events the case will be watched with interest to its conclusion by owners of line fences when the meadows in the herd law will be ventilated and thoroughly understood without feigning attorneys at any turn.

County Treasurer.

Howard P. A. July 20th, 1893.
TO THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

We take pleasure, as citizens of Howard Boro, and vicinity, in bringing to public notice the claims of one of our representative Democrats as a candidate for the nomination for County Treasurer on the Democratic ticket.

For almost thirty years many of us have labored earnestly in this portion of the county for the success of our party, without a request for recognition in any of the county offices. In all that time but one or two in Howard township, and none in Howard boro, have been called to serve our people at the county seat. In casting about for a fit representative of industry, integrity and sterling Democracy of our community we have kept steadily in view the critical judgment of the people, and the duties of the office to be filled.

We cheerfully concede that live, energetic, scrupulously honest and obliging persons are most entitled to confidence and advancement in the line of public service; and we hereby certify that in H. A. Moore these qualities are happily blended. His faithful observance of public as well as private obligations; his earnest but conservative Democracy; his genial and obliging disposition; and his general business training and efficiency, commend him to your confidence.

We are for him, and would like you to cooperate with us to secure his nomination—because of his superior qualifications, because of the claims of our locality, and finally because his official career, we are confident, would bring to us and our party substantial advantage and lasting credit.

Very Truly Yours,
BARBER WEBER, J. A. WOODWARD,
K. G. SHUTT, MICHAEL CONNER,
A. W. GARDNER, PETER ROBB SR.
