RHEUMATISM MET AND CONQUERED

I BY THE I

N. F. GERMAN RHEUMATIC CURE.

NO CURE,

GENTLEMEN:—I had suffered with Rheumatism for many years, when, at the advanced age of seventy-seven years, your cure was recommended to me. I had tried upon myself everything known to me, (I am a doctor of fifty-one years experience) and had dispaired of ever being cured. Your remedy was taken according to directions, and after using the second package the disease left me entirely and no rheumatic pain or ache has troubled me since.

me since.

I can recommend it without hesitancy to all afflicted with the disease, and being familiar with the ingredients contained in the compound, can recommend them as being non-injurious to the constitution, and as being the most efficient blood remedy known.

Truly Yours. DANIEL BATES, M. D.

-More than one child has been driven into downright falsehood by the folly of parents or teachers. A child sensitive to physical pain breaks a dish, say, by accident, and is cruelly beaten, although if the parent had been the offender it would have been passed off with a laugh. The next time that child meets with a similar misfortune, unless there be a witness, it will deny its guilt. It will not do this because of a natural disposition to falsehood, but because it shrinks from physical pain, because it is horribly afraid. But a habit once formed grows, and the child which began to tell falsehoods out of fear will soon become utterly untrustworthy unless it be taken in hand by some wise man or woman who understands child nature and is thus able to win its confidence. Parents would do well to put themselves in the place of the child and should reappear with a scraping knife and their earthenware pots, and they scrape off the exuded juice and collect it in their causes. A child who fears its parents is apt to develop an evil character.
