Terms 2.00 A Year, in Advance

Bellefonte, Pa., Aug. 4, 1893.

F. GRAY MEEK, Editor

The Bardsley Pardon Promise.

The Philadelphia Press calls it "idiot-clap-trap" in the WATCHMAN to assert that "if the next Governor of Pennsylvania be a Republican he will pardon JOHN BARDSLEY," for the reason, as the Press puts it, that "the Governor of Pennsylvania has no power to pardon any one."

This is possibly as easy a way, as the Press can conceive of, to try to dispose of the fact that the pledges of the leaders of its party were given JOHN BARDSLEY that his pardon would be secured as soon as a Republican Governor was elected, in return for his silence, at the time of his trial as to who were the beneficiaries of the robberies inflicted upon Philadelphia and the State during his administration of the office of city Treasurer. But it won't succeed.

That these pledges were given the Press does not dispute, that they will be made good it does not deny. It only seeks to discredit the statement by asserting that the "Governor has no power to pardon any one." That the Governor of himself has not the power to grant pardons the WATCHMAN well knows, but it also knows that it is through him all pardons are issued and that the method of constructing the pardon board, is such that in case of Republican success, any pledge that he has made can be as readily carried out through its recommendation and his action, as though he was exclusive arbiter in the matter himself.

To the people of the State, and as a matter of justice, it matters nothing whether a pardon is granted through a Governor himself, or by the joint action of the chief executive and a board, part of which he appoints and part of which is elected at the same time, on the same ticket, and pledged just as he is. It is the fact that the ends of justice are to be thwarted; that the rascals who stood back of BARDSLEY and assisted him in robbing the city and State are to succeed in the payment of their promised bribe for his silence; that the Republican party, that benefited by the robbery, is to escape the exposure that otherwise would have been made, and that the power and authority of the commonwealth are to be used for these base ends, is what will create public interest and arouse public indignation.

The Press cry of "clap trap," may satisfy itself. It will not convince the people that the promise of a pardon for BARDSLEY, as a reward for the silence that saved QUAY and WANAMAKER, and the big Philadelphia contribution to the Republican presidential campaign fund, from exposure was not made; nor does it assure them that this promise will not be fulfilled in case of the election of a Republican Governor next fall.

The Democratic voters of the county should remember that to-morrow, Saturday, afternoon is the time fixed for them to express their preference as to the candidate they prefer voting for at the fall election. The ticket that will be placed in nomination on Tuesday next, will be virtually named at the primaries to-morrow. At these each voter has the right to express his preference, and he who fails to go out and vote will have no right to complain if some candidate other than the one he desires to see nominated should succeed. Let there be a full turnout on to the primaries; a general acquiescence in the will of the majority, and then a Democratic victory that will put all past victories far in the shade.

When the British Parliament is enveloped by the practices of Donnybrook Fair, the English members are not behind their Irish brethren in hitting any head that may appear in sight. This was shown in the row that recently came off in the House of Commons, when English Tories and Liberals struck out from the shoulder with equal vigor and vivacity. It used to be a favorite slur of the London papers to speak of the rowdy proceedings in the American Congress, their prejudice always exaggerating the altercations that sometimes occur in the latter assemblage, but it never happened that American congressmen rolled over the floor in a rough and tumble fight as was done by honorable (?) members of Parliament, in a recent squabble over the Home Rule bill. That was a scene exhibiting exclusively the high breeding of British legislators.

Read the WATCHMAN.

Not the Work of the Old Soldier.

The old Soldier who had the courage to stand at the front during the war, is not the one who is afraid now that his pension will be either reduced or discontinued. The chaps who are doing the kicking about a revision of the pension rolls, are the fellows who left the real soldiers to do the fighting, while they sought safety in the hospitals or at home. These, along with Republican politicians and pension agents, are the opponents of a pension system that will discriminate between the deserving soldier and the bounty jumper, the skulker and the pension shark. No real old soldier has, or need have, any fear of being left in the struggle for an honest and honorable pension roll. It is to give to each as he deserves, and the full measure of his deserts, that the effort is being made to revise the list of pensioners.

Contrary to the reasonable belief that the invention of labor saving machinery would make labor more plentiful, than it was when every farmer needed at least a dozen men to garner his crops, the experience of the season now drawing to a close has shown that farm help was never known to have been so scarce. Notwithstanding the fact that there are a large percentage of self-binding harvesters in this county farmers have been greatly handicapped for want of helpers.

The bankers and money brokers who started the calamity howl for the purpose of demoralizing silver, evidently "bit off more financial trouble than they can chew." They failed in their effort to create a business panic, but succeeded admirably in bringing about a banker's panic, and just now the results of their labor, like chickens, are coming home to roost.

What do Republican howlers about here say to the increase of JAMES DOLAN'S pension. The veterans are satisfied. It is the thieves who are doing the kicking.

The County Convention to be held in this place, on next Tuesday, will nominate a good ticket which every Democrat can support.

Every Democrat in Centre county should be a reader of the WATCHMAN. It is a truly reliable and always Democratic journal.

Doom to Peary's Trip.

The Falcon Nearly Swamped in a Severe Storm.—Donkeys Perished From Exposure.—Dogs Must Be Found to Replace the Burros or the Expedition Will Fail.—Non Searching for the Needed Animals—Lieutenant Peary Unable to Find Dogs at the Settlements He Visited.

HALIFAX, N. S. July 31.—Lieutenant Peary's expedition to the North Pole is evidently doomed to serious delay and perhaps utter failure, according to word from St. Johns, N. F. Notwithstanding that the Falcon is commanded by Henry H. Bartlett, one of the most experienced commanders on the coast, the party had a very severe passage on the voyage from Newfoundland to Labrador, the storms being so furious and severe that the vessel was in danger of going down. Their donkeys perished from exposure, and as Lieutenant Peary depended on them for much of the laborious work, their loss is keenly felt.

MUST FIND DOGS OR RETURN.

Lieutenant Peary was unable to buy dogs at the settlements he visited and was forced to go further in the endeavor to obtain them. It is necessary for the explorer to replace the donkeys with dogs suitable for the work in view, otherwise his movements in the frozen North will be seriously handicapped. The lieutenant hoped to be able to replace the lost animals, and was willing to pay a big price for substitutes, as failure to get them might mean the collapse of the expedition. Repair will be made to the Falcon while cruising in search of dogs, and if success crowns his efforts, Peary says he will at once set out for the desired goal.

Siam Accepts the Ultimatum.

A Big Indemnity Will Also Have to be Paid by the Siamese.—The Concession Made Removes the Probability of War.

BANGKOK, July 30.—The Siamese government has accepted the full terms of the French ultimatum. The substance of the ultimatum was as follows: First. A recognition of the rights of Annam and Cambodia on the left or eastern bank of the Mekong river, as far north as the twenty-third parallel of latitude. Second. The evacuation within a month of the forts held by the Siamese on the east bank of the river. Third. Full satisfaction for various Siamese aggressions against French ships and French sailors on the Menam river. Fourth. The punishment of the culprits and provision for the pecuniary indemnity of the victims. Fifth. An indemnity of 1,000,000 francs for various damages sustained by French subjects. Sixth. The immediate deposit of 3,000,000 francs to guarantee the payment of the fourth and fifth claims, or the assignment of the taxes in certain districts in lieu of the deposit of 3,000,000 francs. If you want printing of any description the WATCHMAN office is the place to have it done.

$10 the Round Trip to the Atlantic Coast via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On August 10th and 24th the last two of the popular summer series of seashore excursions will be run. A choice of four destinations is allowed—whether Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, or Sea Isle City. The rate of $10 from Pittsburgh and proportionately reduced rates from other places is a most extraordinary offer when the distance covered is considered. The tickets are good for return passage within twelve days, which gives ample time for a restful vacation by the sea.

The success of these remaining excursions is assured by the patronage accorded the preceding two of the same series. Great satisfaction has been expressed on all sides at the manner of service which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company handled these attractive trips, everything possible being done for the convenience of its patrons. The special train will leave Pittsburgh at 8:50 A. M., arriving in Philadelphia a little after 7 in the evening. The night may be spent in the Quaker City and any regular train taken the next day for the shore.

The rates apply on regular trains leaving Pittsburgh at 4:30, 7:00 and 8:10 P. M., or on special train leaving at 8:50 A. M. on the above mentioned date. The special train will be run on the following schedule, and the tickets will be sold at the rates quoted:—

Bering Sea Case Decision.

It Will Be Theoretically in Favor of America's Contention.

PARIS, July 31.—The decision in the Bering sea case will be theoretically in favor of America's contention that pelagic sealing should be restricted so as to prevent the extinction of the fur seal species. But the arbitrators will not give Americans the full property rights in the herd which are claimed. This forecast of the result is given by the New York World's correspondent, and is substantially indorsed by those American and Englishmen best qualified to know.

Such a decision would avoid the complete turning down of either party to the dispute, and in that respect would be agreeable to both sides. If the arbitrators decide to restrict pelagic sealing, the American counsel will feel that they have won their fight for great principles of humanity and morality.

The date for announcing the decision is only to be guessed. The question of damages is understood to be the one which is chiefly prolonging the labors of the arbitrators. Senator Morgan had announced his departure for Aug. 5, but has changed his date to Aug. 19, and says he is not sure he can get away then.

Recommendations of West Point Visitors.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The report of the board of visitors to the West Point Military academy makes the following recommendations among others: An increase of the number of cadets, elevation of the standard of admission, a fuller course in history and English, opportunity for professors and instructors to visit other institutions of learning, the establishment of full professorial rank in the department of ordnance and artillery, the procuring of a new heavy ordnance of the best types, the appointment of the director of the gymnasium to first lieutenantcy in the army and the appointment each year of two or more members of the previous board of visitors.

Multum in Parvo.

From the Columbia Independent. The farmer who receives 60 cents for his wheat can sit down in the evening and figure out how greatly he is benefited by the McKinley bill. The law of supplying and demand knocks the protectionist's theory into a cocked hat.

LOCALS.

—To-morrow evening the Zion band will hold a festival in Gantzel's grove, two miles west of Zion.

—Over three hundred people attended the Catholic picnic at the park, on Wednesday. All had a good time.

—Samuel Ilgen's steam saw mill, in Sugar Valley, with 500,000 ft. of sawed timber, was burned last Monday night.

—The Reformed church congregation, of this place, held a delightful sociable at the country home of Mr. H. K. Hoy, two miles south of town last night.

—A slight fire in the stable, on Bishop street, used by John Curry, burned one of his horses legs and tail last Saturday evening. It is supposed to have caught from a match lighted by the horse stepping on it.

—The Bellefonte band has again lapsed into a state of innocuous desuetude. Even Mr. Spangenberg did not have the requisite energy to hold it together. The instruments have all been turned over to President Scott Lose for safe keeping.

—Meyer's orchestra went to Centre Hall, on Tuesday night, and rendered a concert for the citizens of that place. The music is said to have been greatly appreciated and Centre Hall turned out en masse to hear our musicians.

Mr. Charley Brown, of West Logan street, is the champion gooseberry grower of this section.

Several days ago he brought into this office a branch of a two year old gooseberry bush that had twenty four berries on all of them remarkable for their flavor and size. Indeed several of them measure three and a half inches in circumference. Who can beat that?

Dr. A. W. Hafer seems always to have something on hand. When it isn't flowers it is fruit.

For several years he has been favoring this office with samples of the peaches he raises in his yard, on Reynolds avenue, and while we were kind of expecting one of his visits this year we had no idea he would be around so early in the season. On Wednesday morning he dropped in with some of the most luscious fruit it has been our pleasure to taste.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Issued during the past week—Taken from the docket

W. T. Steely, of Lewistown, and Sue D. Miller, of Spring Mills. James P. Miller, of Sober, Pa. and Elizabeth M. Vonada, of Madisonburg. Geo. R. Clark, Jr. and Alberta E. Jackson, both of Buffalo Run. Horwak Goodling, of Centre Hall and Maggie Spangler, of New Berlin. Roland J. Burchfield and Marian Rumberger, both of Philipsburg. Joseph Brown and Sarah E. Bean, both of Philipsburg.

Walker Items.

The Italian and Hungarian workmen have all left Hecla, and moved to Nittany Hall to resume their work on the railroad.

The farmers are appreciating the thought of having soon stored away their summer crops, but are grieved at the idea of sacrificing it for the meagre sum of from sixty to seventy cents a bushel.

Everybody seems to be elated over the fact that Nittany Valley will soon step to the front rank in the line of rail-road accommodations. It will, no doubt, revive many a dormant and sluggish enterprise, arouse the people from their lethargy, and instill into their minds and hearts energy and enthusiasm.

Walker Grange, No. 345, P. of H., is supplying a long needed want, in the shape of a hall at Hubersburg. This is sure proof that Walker grange is still in the land and among the living, and is making ample preparations for more and better work for the grange organization. The carpenter work is being accomplished by Messrs Twitmyer and Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, who long ago have proved themselves experts in the trade. It is also rumored, by good authority, that this grange will hold an ice cream festival, in their newly built hall, on Saturday, the 12th of August, afternoon and evening, to which the writer invites all to attend and make it a success.

News Notes from Howard.

At the party given at the residence of Fred Leathers, the following were present: Mrs. G. D. Johnson, Miss Ella David, Messrs Ambrose Holter and H. S. Freeman. It was an unexpected meeting of friends, and was turned into a party.

J. Diehl, the huckster, had a bad smashup last Tuesday, caused by a wheelbarrow passing by his colt, frightening him, whereupon the horse broke loose and ran away. The harness was badly damaged, and the rig somewhat disfigured. Nothing but Diehl was in the wagon, and he came out all right.

The base ball game between Howard and Look Haven Saturday, resulted in a defeat for the visiting team by a score of 13 to 6. It was the most peaceable game ever played here, and we take occasion to compliment the Look Haven team upon their gentlemanly behavior. The Howard team will visit the former some day this week.

About 11 o'clock p. m., Thursday night some mischievous person, or persons presumably set fire to the immense pile of brush below the furnace school-house. Several saw the blaze, and thinking it to be Clarence Cooke's mill, shouted fire which was quickly taken up by others and led Bert Poulsen to blow his famous mill whistle. This again startled the town, which remembering the afternoon occurrence, thought that fire had started again, and started to help fight the dreaded monster. Luckily this was but a hoax, and Mr. Poulsen is heartily thanked for his prompt action. If those who possibly set the fire had been known and seen, they might never have been heard of again. Every one is ready to respond to an emergency call but when fooled about two or three times, are ready to grab anything that comes handy and use it with effect.

As the gravel train passed through this borough last Thursday, the engine threw sparks from its stack, splitting fire over the fields in the vicinity of Poulsen's mill and Reber's house, setting them afire as well as portions of the surrounding farms. Pretty soon Anse Schenck and our genial ticket agent, Walter L. Cooke, ran over to see what was going on. Brother Schenck came back in a hurry, he called out fire, the department and, by way of courtesy, the whole town, by the vocal fire signal. Had not the thirty or forty men and boys promptly responded and watered the fire as well as beat it out with brush, Mr. Reber's barn would have been destroyed and that portion of the borough been in constant danger of catching; as it was about as hard a fire as is generally known to have occurred. Many thought the Poulsen's mill was on fire and hastened to the scene and offered help. That was a mistake, but they all turned in and put the fire out. Beyond burning the stubble, and parts of the fence no damage was done.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Mrs. Dr. Smith is off on a month's visit to her son George, at Harrisburg.

Early potatoes are not yielding as profitably as was expected, but are of good size.

The drought still continues and unless rain comes soon the corn crop will be a short one.

Rev. C. T. Aikens is arranging his ministerial duties for a Columbian Exposition trip. He expects to be absent four weeks.

N. T. Krebs and Howitt Meyers, of this place, are in attendance at Prof. Wolf's select school before taking up the torch for the winter term.

The exceedingly heated spell brought on a number of cases of corn among horses. Mr. D. G. Meek lost a very fine Hambletonian gelding last week by the disease.

Mr. William Kepler, one of Tomeska's athletes, is now taking a course of practical agricultural under the direction of his father, Capt. J. W. Kepler, who is personally superintending his large plantation with a view of making William a stock raiser.

Several days ago a horse belonging to Hon. J. T. McCormick, hitched to his buggy, he came frightened, while hitched to a post, and in his break-neck speed completely demolished the buggy while his honor leisurely followed in the wake to gather up the wreck.

Jacob Hendershot, who we noted in our last letters having had his leg amputated, died Wednesday from the effects. Aged 40 years. He leaves a wife and three small children. He was a member of P. O. S. of A., and was buried yesterday at 3 o'clock p. m., in the Penna. Union cemetery.

Better for the Farmer.

From the Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph. Altogether the coming year promises to be much better for the American farmer, and with returning confidence in financial circles there ought speedily to be a much better feeling in the grain markets.

Died.

CALDREN—July 27th, at Lemont, Harry, son of William and Agnes Caldren, aged 6 years, 7 months and 22 days.

Dear Harry, we are lonely Since thou art gone to rest, Our hearts are wrung with anguish And sorrow fills our breast.

Our home we thought so happy Is now a lonely place, It is there we miss our Harry, That dear sweet little face.

We did not ask for honor, We did not ask for wealth, We only asked that Harry Might be restored to health.

But that wish was denied us, And we are left to mourn; The little one we loved so well Is to a new life born.

Oh! our darling little boy, 'Tis hard to give thee up; 'Tis by the Father's gracious will That we drink the bitter cup.

Carrie Mulberger.
