For some reason or other, the chairman failed to call a meeting to ratify, and the suggestion, run into millions. made by the resolution, dropped without further recognition. In the proceedings of the convention of the 8th inst. a resolution of similar import was passed, except that the last one does not provide for any ratification, the resolution itself being recognized by those securing its adoption, as a rule of the party.

When the former resolution was passed, the WATCHMAN gave its views very explicitly upon the subject of lengthening the campaign in this county. It was opposed to it then ; it can see no reason now why it should propose to encourage Repeublican hopes, by dirision among themselves be done. Heretofore when rules governing the action of the party and its convention were to be made, they were suggested by one convention and then a massmeeting, or convention, called expressly to consider the necessity of their adoption, was convened to reject or ratify as the party at large directed. Every Democrat in the county was given an opportunity to express his views as to the change suggested ; every voter who desired, had a voice in the matter and as Pennsylvania Day at the Fair

With desperation the women clung to the framework, keeping as far out as possible, while the smoke and flames burst through the windows around them. Although badly burned they retained their position until the arrival of a hook and ladder company. A ladder was raised and they were rescued. A man, whose identity is unknown, next reached the window. The flames were already scorching his almost nude body, and he jumped to the stone payement. He was picked up in an unconscious condition. It was at this juncture the firemen arrived, ladders were raised and the work of rescuing the imperilled inmates systematically begun. For some, hemmed in by flames, over powered by smoke and with all egress shut off, the rescue was too late, however. The fire is said to have started from an overturned stair lamp.

In all five people were killed and three others were so badly injured that they can scarcely recover. At the Cook county and Mercy hospitals others are moaning with pain in the wards, so badly injured as to be unable to tell their names.

-A little racket occurred at the Park, on Friday, when by a mere at 8.50 a. m., arriving in Philadelphia chance a party of young people from the a little after 7 in the evening. The vicinity of Howard hannened there with vicinity of Howard happened there with a picnic on the same day that the members of the United Brethren church of this place were there. Of course the young folks intended dancing in the pavilion, and as they were entirely distinct from the church party had a right to do so unless the latter had the grounds leased. The United Brethrens objected to the terpsichorian amusement and a wrangle ensued which only stopped short of a fight, when the big park policeman appeared. ----William Crawford dropped in to see us on Saturday afternoon to tell us that he has secured work constructing a lime kiln which is being built at Mill Hall. He left on Monday to begin work. William had been employed at the Morris' Buffalo Run quarries until Friday, when he was discharged for negligence in allowing the fire that burned the sheds, up there on last Thursday, to gain such head way before discovering it. Though he was held responsible for the conflagration he thinks it was through no fault of his that the fire occurred and to his mind it was purely accidental. He seemed very sorry that the trouble had occurred. PATRICK DOOLEY DEAD.-Aged Patrick Dooley, who has been figuring in one of the most complicated cases that has ever been tried by our courts, passed into the great beyond on last Friday afternoon. For a number of years this old resident had been declining and his death was the dissolution consequent upon a busy life of seventy-nine years. Though not in the best of health his death was somewhat sudden. Nothing new was noticed in his condition until the afternoon just before his death when he complained of the heat. Deceased was one of the best known Irish-men in town and by his thrifty habits had accumulated considerable property. He owned several houses on east High street and was a man well to do and respected by everyone. Three children survive him. Matthew, Francis and Maggie. Interment was made on Sunday afternoon.

a result whatever rules were adopted were accepted, and honored, because the wishes of the party at large was recognized and respected in their adoption.

The attempt to make a resolution of a convention a rule for the party, changes all this. It recognizes the power of a few men chosen for an entirely different purpose, to alter or abolish any or all of the party rules at any time their whims may dictate, or purposes require. If the last convention can, by resolution, change the time of holding future conventions without submitting that action to the Democrats of the county for ratification or rejection, the next one that meets can, in a similar manner, change any other rule, and the consequent result must be that we have practically no rules at all, each convention having within itself the power to make such rules as will suit the wishes or aims of its members.

To admit that the convention of '93 can change the rule fixing the time of meetings for future conventions, is to admit that the convention of '94 can change the one requiring delegates to carry out their instructions, or the one giving each township representation according to its Democratic vote. Surely there is no Democrat who after reasoning this matter over will insist that the party should be put at such financial cloud that gives hopes for loose ends, as this position would place it, and yet without submitting this last future. resolution to the Democratic voters of the county in mass-meeting assembled, to accept or reject as they deem proper, is to make a precedent for every convention that meets to juggle with the rules just as the prejudices, whime, or purposes of its members dictate.

In the interest of the future harmony and welfare of the party, we appeal to the chairman of the county committee to follow the precedents that have long been established and recognized in the adoption of rules for the party, in order that future disputes and perhaps

Won't Work on Farms.

Harvests May Rot, Though the Country Is Overun by the Unemployed.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 14 .- (Special.) Farmers in the Northwest are actively engaged in harvesting. They are find ng a great deal of difficulty in securing sufficient help to gather the grain. The country in this section is overrun with tramps and unemployed people. and it was expected that the unemploy ed would accept the positions with the farmers, but they refuse to do so, saying the wages are too low. Fears are entertained that unless the harvest excursions change the situation, the farmers will be unable to take care of their crops properly. A special from Hallock, Minn. outlines the situation: The acreage of grain in this country is larger than ever before and the crops are fine, but unless the farmers obtain more help a great deal will be lost. Big wages are offered, but one-tenth the number of workingmen necessary to harvest the crops are to be found.

Four Notable Bills Introduced.

WASHINGTON, August 14. - Four held 30 guests when the fire broke out notable bills were introduced in the senate to-day as follows :

Mr. Hill, of New York, offered a very brief bill repealing federal election laws; the repeal, however, not to effect any proceedings or prosecution now pending under said act. Senator Butler introduced a bill repealing the state bank tax. Mr. Peffer, of Kansas, introduced a bill providing further issue of $300, 000,000 of fiat money, exchangeable for government bonds at par. Senator Chandler reintroduced his tional regulations concerning immigration to the United States.

Minister Blount Returns.

He Maintains Reticence Regarding Affairs in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 15.--James H. Blount, who was appointed Commis-sioner to investigate Hawaiian affairs, and who subsequently received the appointment of United States Minister to Hawaii, returned from Honolulu this morning on the steamer Gælic, after a announcement of his departure was made public only the day before he sailed, although the government had been previously notified. All parties appear unite in commendation of Mr. Blount's performance of his work of in-quiry and of the eminently judical temper in which he appears to have prosecuted it. Mr. Blount maintained his reticence as to the conclusions at which he had arrived respecting Hawaiian affairs to the very last, but the belief was prevalent in Honolulu that a protectorate and not annexation is the thing to be established by a treaty with the United States. A Fatal Hotel Fire.

Several Persons Perish in a Flimsy Chicago Structure-Penned in Like Rats in a Trap.-Escapes all Cut Off Before the Guests Were Warned-A Mother and Daughter, Badly Burned. Rescued from a Window By Firemen-One Man Jumps to Death.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15-A hotel fire, resulting in the death of a number of the guests, occurred this morning. The fire was in the Senate Hotel, a three story structure on Madison street, near Filth Avenue. One man jumped from a window in the top story and was killed. About half a dozen others were suffocated or burned to death. Loss on the building and contents is practically total, but as the structure was old and the furnishings cheap, the amount will not exceed a few thousand dollars. A restaurant occupied the ground floorand the Senate Hotel the two up per ones. It contained 36 rooms and shortly after 6 a.m. The rooms were separated by flismy wooden partitions and proved first-class fod for fire. The blaze started in the office on the second floor and spread rapidly through that and the upper rooms. Before the guests could be warned the flames had cut off the escape of a number of them from the stairs and they were caught like rats in a trap.

Half Rates and Fast Trains to Chicago Fair via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The popular excursions to Chicago which are being run by the Pennsylvania Railroad seem to furnish exactly what the the people want. The first two trains were well patronized, and as the vacation is now well advanced the remaining excursions will undoubtsojourn there of over four months. The edly attract a much larger number of passengers.

A decided improvement in the train schedule, which accelerates it so as to deliver the passengers in Chicago at an early hour the following afternoon, places the special train almost on an equality in the matter of speed with the best express trains.

The special trains are composed of the standard coaches for which the Pennsylvania Railroad is famous. Only one night is passed on the road, and the arrival in Chicago is so timed as to give abundant opportunity for engaging quarters before nightfall.

The dates of the next excursions are August 23d, September 4th, 10th, 18th, 25th. The special train will leave Washington 10.15 a. m., Baltimore 11.20 a. m., stopping at York, Harrisburg, Lewistown Junction, and Tyrone, arriving in Chicago early the next afternoon. The excursion rate, good only on the special train and valid for return within ten days, is $17 from Washington and Baltimore, and proportionately low from other stations. This arrangement also applies to all principal stations on the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, and Northern Central Railway between Baltimore and Elmira, Philadelphia and Erie Railroad between Williamsport and Renovo, and principal stations on main line and branches between Harrrisburg and Pittsburg. No one should fail to visit the Fair
