

George Seid, a seventeen year old Lock Haven boy who worked in the Keystone Bottling Works, in Williamsport, had his head smashed into jelly, on Monday, by falling with a broken elevator from the third floor of the building.

Quite a lively run-a-way occurred on Allegheny street, on Wednesday. While watering a team of horses at the fountain, Lewis Kohlbecker, a son of Alois Kohlbecker of Milesburg, discovered that one of his horses had rubbed the bridle off. The animal started to run immediately while the boy hung desperately to the lines. The run-aways struck another team in front of the Exchange and the two teams started off down Allegheny street. They were headed into Cherry alley and stopped before much damage was done.

HOW YOUR DOGS WILL BE TAXED.—The act of assembly approved May 25, 1893, changes the law relating to the taxation of dogs. Under the new act the return is made by the assessor of the number of male and female dogs in the several districts. The commissioners are required to fix the tax, levy or lay a tax of not more than two dollars on each male, and not more than four dollars on each female, unless the female is spayed, in which case the tax is the same as the male. The school boards are hereby notified that the dog tax will be fixed by the commissioners and placed on the same duplicate with the county and state taxes. The collectors, however, will be instructed to collect the tax already levied by the school board.—Ee.

FOSTER-SNYDER.—A beautiful full dress wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian church, at Beech Creek, last evening in which two well known young people of this county participated. It was the marriage of R. McKay Foster, of State College, to Miss Mary Snyder, of Eagleville. Promptly at 7 o'clock the organ began Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party entered looking radiant in beauty. When the altar was reached Rev. Pomey pronounced the simple but impressive ceremony of the church and then the bridal chorus from Lohengrin pealed forth and the party departed for the home of the bride's parents, in Eagleville, where a brilliant reception was held.

The bridesmaids were Miss Snyder, sister of the bride, Miss Quigley, of Eagleville, Miss Foster, of State College, Miss Smith, of New York city, and the Misses Merry, of Beech Creek. The ushers were John and George Snyder, brothers of the bride, Arthur G. McKee and Charles H. Foster, of State College, William Snyder, New York city, and Walter Butts, Bellefonte. John Halfpenny, of Philadelphia, was best man.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Thomas Snyder, a civil engineer on the B. C. R. R. and is a young, handsome and accomplished woman. Her husband is the junior partner of the large Philadelphia grocery firm of Smith, Foster & Co., and is a young man of whom this county has had every reason to feel proud. He owns considerable property at State College, where his latest purchase was a well located lot on which he will build himself a handsome home. "Bob", as he is known wherever he travels is one of the most genial, whole souled men it is possible to meet. To the grocery trade in this State he is known as a hard working, energetic young man whose own labor has brought him the honorable position he enjoys.

The young couple left on the night express for a tour east.

CUT THE CANADA THISTLE.—The increasing prevalence of Canada thistle in this county should be a matter to alarm the residents of the country districts, especially when it is so well known that there is a very exact law against allowing them to grow on any property. Aside from the mandates of the law to which people lay themselves open there is another reason why everyone should be careful to exterminate a stalk of Canada thistle where ever it may appear. The weed spreads with wonderful rapidity and when once set in a plot of ground the most difficult work is required to get it out. Where it gets a start nothing else will grow and the seeding of it is remarkable.

For the benefit of our readers and that none of them may get themselves into trouble with the thistle we append the full context of the law bearing on it. Read it carefully and as good citizens obey and enforce it.

1. It shall be the duty of every person or persons, and of every corporation holding land or lands in any county or counties of this commonwealth, either by lease or otherwise, on which any Canada thistles or weeds commonly known as Canada thistles may be growing, to cut the same as to prevent such thistles or weeds from going to seed and the seed of the same from ripening, and every person or persons, or corporation as aforesaid, who shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay a fine of fifteen dollars to the treasurer of the school district in which such land may be situated, to be recovered the same as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable.

2. If any person or persons, or corporations, so holding lands aforesaid, on which any Canada thistles, or the weeds commonly known as such, shall be growing, and likely to ripen seed thereon, shall neglect or refuse to cut and destroy the same as to prevent the seed therefrom from ripening, it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons, who may consider themselves aggrieved or about to be injured by such neglect or refusal, to inform by written notice any constable or supervisor of the said Canada thistles or weeds may be growing, whose duty, it shall then be to give five days' notice in writing to such person or persons, or corporation, to cut and destroy such thistles or weeds, and on their neglect or refusal to cut and destroy the same at the end of five days, it shall be the duty of the officer giving such notice to enter upon such premises, with such other person or persons as he may employ, and cut down and destroy such Canada thistles, and the said officers or other persons so employed shall be entitled to recover from such person or persons or corporation owning or holding land as aforesaid, compensation at the rate of $2.50 per day, and the officer serving such notice shall likewise be entitled to a fee of 50 cents, together with six cents mileage for each mile, circular, necessarily travelled, to be recovered as debts of like amount before any justice or court in said counties.

3. It shall be the duty of the public roads or highways in every township or district as aforesaid, to cut and destroy in the same manner all such Canada thistles or weeds on or along such roads, and in case of unseated or mountain lands, whenever it shall come to the knowledge of either the supervisor or constable of the existence of any such Canada thistles or weeds thereon, it shall be his duty to notify the owner, or owners, or agents of said lands in writing, giving ten days notice to cut and destroy the same as aforesaid, and upon failure to comply at the end of ten days such officer, or any person or persons employed by him, shall proceed in the manner herein before provided, with like fees and compensation, and if any such constable or supervisor shall neglect or refuse to perform his duties as prescribed by this act, he shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, the same to be sued for and recovered as aforesaid, by the party or parties aggrieved or about to be injured by such neglect or refusal.

Wedding Bells.

The cheerful home of Mr. G. S. Campbell, at Punxsutawney, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, on Wednesday, July 20th. The contracting parties were Miss Olie Campbell, and Mr. James K. Barnhart, of Bellefonte. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Conner, of the First Baptist church, at high noon, in the presence of one hundred and forty guests, several of whom were from Brookville, Indiana and Bellefonte.

The bride and groom were preceded by Miss Eva Dinsmore, daughter of Cashier Dinsmore, and Dr. Wm. Campbell, brother of the bride. Elegant refreshments were served on lawns, and both dining rooms and lawn was a scene of gayety and mirth, while partaking of the toothsome viands.

The presents were numerous and valuable, as well as useful. The happy couple left on the 3.15 train for a trip up the Hutson, and other places of interest. Their departure was attended by the usual showers of rice, from the crowd of well wishers who accompanied them to the train. The young couple will reside in Bellefonte, where Mr. Barnhart is in business, being a bookkeeper in the First National Bank, and will make their home on Thomas street, where a nice residence of their own awaits their occupancy.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Union services will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday, at 3 p. m., by Rev. Illingsworth, of State College.

We are pleased to note the improvement of several of Samuel S. A. Dunlap little folks who have been ill with fever.

J. M. Evert's and family have resumed their domestic duties after their two weeks tenting on the banks of the blue Juniata.

The drought still continues, farmers are at a stand still while the corn and potato crop is beyond redemption, unless rain comes soon.

Merchant O. B. Krebs and wife are looking around about their shelves for a piece of the same kind of cloth. Oscar says with a frown "It ain't a boy."

Col. Fortney, of Bellefonte, tarried over Sunday with his big brother Jim, who is one of our big farmers, and will make a very strong Treasurer candidate next time.

The shrill whistle of the steam thresher is again heard, in every direction, at work hulling out the golden grain that proves to be yielding above the average both in quantity and quality.

Mr. Wm. H. Hammer and family, of Altoona, are now snugly located at the old Hammer home, on Main street, with a view of caring for the wants of his aged and widowed father in his declining years.

The letting of the new school building in the Krumrine district, took place last Saturday a week ago Milton Keller being the lowest bidder was awarded the contract, at seven hundred and thirty dollars. The old building was sold for twenty dollars.

S. H. Irvin, the man of hammer and tongs, with his family, recently passed through town, handling the ribbons on a spanking team of bays, on their way to the Kishor couillias valley for a week's outing on the old and favorite camping grounds of the red skins.

The mid-summer seldable held on Saturday evening, by the direction of the ladies of the Presbyterian Sunday school, was indeed a gay and festive occasion. Every body appeared to be attired in their best, especially the ladies who try on such occasions to make themselves just as agreeable as possible. The event was a grand success in every detail, the receipts were $80 and will be used to replenish the treasury of the building committee of the new parsonage.

J. Shannon McCormick, one of the old Democratic wheel horses, rounded up his 75th birthday last Saturday a week with attendance at the primary where he is always found a hustler. May he live to be a centurion.

Rev. David Barron, D. D., of Hollidaysburg was the guest of his old time friend, J. B. Mitchell, over Sunday. Filling Rev. Elliott's pulpit morning and evening to a full house. Many strangers were within the gates, who tarried from the 69th Union Sunday school anniversary which was to say the least, a most pleasant event, at which many old acquaintances met and rehearsed old time reminiscences of which a fuller detail will be given in our next.

Another old land mark is gone to his reward in his eternal home. The venerable Wilson Leech breathed his last at the home of his son, John, on Saturday, the 12th inst. from disease incident to old age of which he was a victim for several years. He bore most patiently his sufferings. For some weeks he was confined to bed though rational to the last, he passed away surrounded by his family who had been summoned to his side, consisting of Mrs. Burchfield, Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. Calvert, all of Altoona, with seventeen grand children moon with a legion of friends and neighbors, the loss a useful citizen. He was born in 1820 in the vicinity where he lived and raised his family. His wife preceded him to the grave 17 years ago as did three of his children. His remains were interred in the branch cemetery, followed by a large concourse of people on the afternoon of the 15th: Undertaker Weber having charge of the burial.

Rev. James Haney, of the Presbyterian church of which the deceased was a life long member, had charge of religious services to lay away from all earthly view this old patriarch.

Last week while our farmer friend Mac-Rossman was leisurely reclining in the barn his little boy shoved a grain of corn into his father's ear. For a time Mac was mad enough to shipwreck the whole barn. Dr. Wood's was called and after some days and several attempts relieved him of his sufferings by taking it out by pieces but leaving a deaf ear.
