THE OLD FIVE DOLLAR BILL.

They're talkin' 'bout the tariff bill-the silver bill an' all:

They wrangle through the summer an' they quarrel till the fall:
But of all the bills from Billville, the one we're wantin' still
Is the bill that buys the boardin'—the old five dollar bill.

You may rumple it, an' crumple it, an' twist an' turn it round, An' stuff it in your pocket, where it seems to weigh a pound;
Or hide it in your woolen sock, or in your boots—but still, There's never no discountin' of the old five dollar bill!

It's greasy as a kitchen, from goin' round so much,
But a feller ain't partickler when it's ticklin'
of his touch!
An' the biggest bill from Billville—an' the one Is the rumpled up, an' crumpled up, old-time five dollar bill! -Billville Banner.

The senate's session to-day was opened with prayer by the senate's new chaplain, Mr. Milburn. All the committee clerkships underwent political change during the extra session in March, and most of the appointees under the prior secretary and sergeant at arms have only had their official decapitation postponed, not averted.
