

Mrs. Owen Hancock, a well known Phillipsburg lady, died at her home in that place on Sunday. Cancer of the liver was the cause.

Herbert Smythe, a great grandson of Judge Smythe and a grandson of David Smythe of Jacksonville, is another Centre county boy whose talents are being recognized by the outside people. He is now managing the Bureau of the United Press Association at the World's Fair.

The Democratic county Convention, of Clinton county, on Tuesday afternoon nominated the following county officers: Sheriff, D. I. McNaull; Prothonotary, J. K. Heckman; County Treasurer, J. A. Wensel; Commissioners, John S. Bailey and James P. Roach; Auditors, M. A. Rishel and S. E. Walker; Coroner, Dr. J. H. McGinness. W. H. Mayer was elected county chairman. Delegates to the State Convention are A. Mayer, Logantown; J. E. Martin, Lock Haven; J. W. Smith, Renovo.

BELLEFONTE'S WATER PRACTICALLY PURE.—One great store of wealth which our town has always boasted is the beautiful spring from which we draw our water supply. Never varying an inch in the driest or rainiest season it has always supplied the town with cool and wholesome water for drinking, domestic and manufacturing purposes. From time to time it has been customary to have analyses made of it in order to ascertain whether any foreign matter has worked its way into the spring to contaminate and render the water unhealthful.

The result of the latest analysis was presented to council, on Monday evening, by Dr. G. G. Pond, head of the Department of Chemistry at the Pennsylvania State College. His examination of it found the water as pure and healthful as it is possible for it to be.

KILLED ON THE RAIL-ROAD.—The Phillipsburg Journal publishes the following account of the accidental death of Lewis Saylor, a freight brakeman, which occurred near that place on Tuesday morning.

"He had gone out in the morning to take the place of Frank Titus, who awoke him at 4 o'clock. It is said that he was on a car about four cars behind the engine, and having on a pair of new shoes, it is thought he slipped, falling under the train, which passed over him, as he was afterwards found by his fellow brakeman lying on the track dead. Both arms and his back were broken and his body was badly mangled and bruised. His body was brought to this city and taken to Haworth Bros. undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for burial.

The deceased was a young man about nineteen years of age, and came here from Mifflin, Pa., where his parents reside. He was a single man and boarded with Mrs. Hayes, on Spruce street."

DEATH OF A WOMAN OF REVOLUTIONARY ANCESTRY.—Hon. John Blair Linn, the historian of this place, has written the following interesting sketch of the life and ancestry of Miss Eliza DeHaas, who died on Sunday morning last.

Miss Eliza DeHaas died at the residence of the Misses Benner, on High street, Bellefonte, on Sunday morning, August 20, 1893, aged eighty-seven years. She has resided with the Benner family in the capacity of a servant for over sixty years. Her sister Harriet preceded her to the grave, four years ago.

Their grandfather, Gen. John Philip DeHaas, was a Major in Lt. Col. Francis Battalion under Col. Bonquet in 1764, in the French and Indian war. For his services he became entitled to a large tract of land in Buffalo Valley, Union county, and a tract of land containing eight hundred and nine acres on Bald Eagle creek, a half mile below the mouth of Beech Creek. He also purchased of his brother officers several tracts: Captain William Piper allotment, at the mouth of Beech Creek, 533 acres, which DeHaas called "Henrietta," after his daughter; the Captain Conrad Bucher tract, which includes the mouth of Beech Creek, 570 acres; the Lieutenant James Foster, tract, and two tracts west of Captain Bucher.

Major DeHaas became colonel in the revolution and commanded the first Penna. Battalion in Canada in 1776, and was promoted Brigadier General, in 1777; as he was very old he served but a short time; settled in Philadelphia and died there June 3, 1786, possessed of large estates.

John Philip DeHaas, Jr., (father of Eliza) was appointed an ensign by Gen. Gates, August 6, 1776 in Col. DeHaas' regiment, but was a boy at school and did not join the regiment. He was promoted Second Lieut. of 2nd Penna. regiment of the line.

John Philip, Jr., married Ann Shippen, of Philadelphia, a near relative of Mrs. Benedict Arnold, and removed with his family to Bald Eagle Creek, in 1806. They came with coach and horses, their daughter Eliza, who is just deceased, being then but three months old. Varying fortune reduced the family in circumstances, and the two daughters mentioned, found a home in the family of J. Matlock Benner, in Bellefonte, where in their declining years they were tenderly cared for by the Misses Benner.

List. DeHaas' family consisted of John P. DeHaas, Eleanor, married to Thomas Stevenson, William, Harriett, Edward, recently deceased in Curtin township, Ann, married to Joshua Roan, and Eliza, all now deceased.

Pine Grove Mentions.

The musical picnic in our town, Saturday, bids fair to be a large gathering. The Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Co., at Toe Hill, this county, has suspended operations.

W. E. Meek, W. J. Meyers and R. B. Fry, of our town, have engaged tents at the Williams Grove camp.

From present indications the veteran's picnic at Hunter's park will be well represented by a large delegation from this section, headed by the Pine Grove cornet band.

Dr. Houser and Mr. D. Woods extracted the grain of corn from Dr. Bossman's ear, that for some days caused him much pain and uneasiness, but has now regained its former acuteness.

The Republican primaries last Saturday evening were unusually well attended. The hustlers from away back were out, and the Reed, Lytle and Wagner wire workers carried off the credentials.

Miss Grace Dunlap, daughter of our townsman, S. A. Dunlap, is seriously ill with Typhoid fever. In our last we noted her improvement, but, sorry to say, there has been a change for the worse.

That prices of good fellows, J. B. Ard, is devoting his leisure moments to slinging "Lullaby baby, boy" to little Joseph the first. Both mother and babe are getting along nicely, and J. B. bears the honors of papa Ard modestly.

George Graham Esq., one of Phillipsburg's pleasant gentlemen and clean shavers, is instead of taking his summer outing at the sea-shore having a rollicking good time at the hospitable home of W. A. Tanyer and family.

Mr. Luther Smith, one of Pottsville's progressive merchants, is spending a few days with his invalid father here. Mr. S. politically is a Democrat and when the spirit moves him he's apt to make his influence effective in behalf of his party.

The cucumber, which is indeed a poor crop, is getting its usual share of blame for the cause of all cholera and pains that the human family is heir to, at this season of the year. Like all other green edibles it should be properly seasoned before eating and then there is no danger.

Our nimble friends have supplied themselves with a brand new wall tent to shelter themselves from cold and wet weather. Besides they have replenished their ammunition to the tune of fifty dollars. The first of the squirrel season will be spent along and on Warrior's ridge. Send in your orders.

Mr. D. G. Meek has partially recovered from the effects of a dose of medicine which he took without the aid of a lamp. He intended taking peppermint, but after taking it found, from the crampy nature of the effects, upon examination that he had taken no vomica. His wife promptly administered an antidote, but for which he would not be among the Columbian sight-seers this week, accompanied by his wife and Mr. G. W. Weaver.

As we announced in our last, Rev. Ellingsworth of State College, filled Rev. Elliot's pulpit last Sunday, p. m. and a large and interested audience was held spell-bound as he threw back the shutters and turned on the light to show his hearers, St. Paul putting on his robes of white for his ascension as he exclaimed, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Dwelling principally on the kind of heroism seen in St. Paul's time. The Rev. is a most eloquent pulpit orator, and will in the not distant future rank among the D. D.'s in the M. E. Conference.

Last Sunday, the 20th inst, the sad messenger of death entered the home of Francis Arcey and suddenly tore away their only darling little boy, Harry, of two summers. It is indeed a sad affliction for fond parents to endure, but then the happy thought comes to them that he has gone to be one of the innumerable band that has entered the great beyond, without sin; singing with the angels, "I'm safe from sin with Jesus now", and will be forever standing in Heaven's portals stretching forth his little hands saying, as he looks upon the scenes below, "papa, mamma, come, 'Not our will but thine O God be done."

Died.

McGARREY.—Of Consumption, at 4 a. m., Monday morning, July 31, at her home near Unionville this county, Sarah McGarrey, wife of Charles McGarrey, deceased, aged 67 years.

The subject of this sketch was born in Huston township, near Julian, and was the daughter of George and Tamer Richards. She was the last but one of a family of twelve to pass to the spirit world. Being married when quite young to Charles McGarrey, but one child blessed their union, Tamer who died when 7 years old. Her husband preceded her to another world more than 18 months before the summons came for her, so she was the last to leave her beautiful little home on earth, where her nieces, nephews and many friends were for she always had a welcome wife and a smiling, kind and beloved by a wide circle of near and dear friends.

The funeral took place Wednesday. The Rev. Elliott, of the Presbyterian church of which she was a most devoted member, preached the funeral sermon. She was tenderly laid to rest beside husband and daughter in the Unionville cemetery. J. A.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

The September Art Interchange is an unusually full number, both in text and illustration, without omitting any of its five supplements, which include a delightful study of An Adirondack Glade, and a decoration in color for a Rose Jar, consisting of seaweed and fish floating in the marine depths; what more appropriate studies could be found for these summer days? Other supplements furnish new designs for embroidery and typography.

Among the most attractive articles is one with illustrations, singing the praises of Old Litchfield, with its Colonial memories, which quite surprises the busy reader.

Antooski, the Jewish sculptor, just banished from Russia on account of his race, is the subject of another paper with illustrations; while "Three Notable Paintings" treats of the difficulties of collectors who desire to import Old Masters into America, and give an illustration of a superb Van Ostade that has just been presented to the Metropolitan Museum.

A Lesson From the Fair gives the reader a new thought on the subject of American Art at Chicago. The Observer—a new department of The Interchange—has something to say in reply on the same subject, as well as gives us a surprise as to the money rewards some American artists have won in recent seasons. The working drawings of Parasitic Art and The House are not only usually full but also very interesting, showing that it is the policy and desire of The Art Interchange to give full value for the thirty five cents it costs. It will be found on sale at the new dealers, or sent on application to the publishers, 9 Dearbross Street, New York.

The Century has just come in possession of one of the most unique and important historical documents of the age. It is a record of the daily life of Napoleon Bonaparte on board the English ship which bore him into captivity at St. Helena, as contained in the hitherto unpublished journal of the admiral in charge. The reports of many conversations held by the admiral with the deposed Emperor regarding his important campaigns are given with great fullness, and there is much about the bearing and the personal habits of Bonaparte during the voyage. The Memories of Las Cases contain the story of the Emperor's deportation, as told by a Frenchman and a follower; this diary is an English gentleman's view of the same memorable journey, and of the impressions made by daily contact with the man who had had all Europe at his feet. The diary will be published in early numbers of The Century.
