THE CLOSING SESSIONS OF THE LUTHERAN SYNOD.—The Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran church finished up the work on Monday which it began here, at noon, on Wednesday of last week. It embraced the counties of Centre, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry, Snyder and Union and in all there were about sixty ministers and as many laymen in attendance.

The executive sessions of the Synod disclosed the fact that the Lutheran church is rapidly becoming strong in the United States, as the following general statistics aver:

"There are within the bounds of the General Synod 1361 churches, 337 students for the ministry, 16,717 catechumens, and 163,514 communicants; church property valued at $9,969,062; expenses in local church work, $2,711,217. 1,117 Sunday schools, with about 186,000 teachers and scholars, contributing in two years $182,758 for local expenses and $67,932 for benevolence. The total contribution by the church for benevolence for two years is $443,168, the amount contributed for all purposes is $2,727,752, the increase in membership 9,355, increase in church property $1,384,745."

In this Synod there are 46 "ministers and 47 churches, the latter with a value of $419,320. There are 8,784 communicant members, an increase in the past year of 244. The accessions last year were 696. The total amount of money collected for pastoral support and benevolence was $51,270. There are 71 Lutheran and 22 Union Sunday schools and 1,297 officers and 10,376 scholars. These schools raised $7,400 for support and benevolence."

On Sunday the visiting ministers officiated in the different churches in town as follows:

"Lutheran church—10.30 a. m., communion sermon, Dr. H. C. Holloway; 3.00 p. m., children's service, conducted by W. H. Shoch and W. F. Steck; 7.00 p. m., ordination service, C. L. McConnell.

Reformed—10.30 a. m., W. H. Shoch; 7.00 p. m., J. P. Neff, M. D. Methodist—10.30 a. m., C. B. Gruber; 7.00 p. m., S. E. Smith.

Presbyterian—10.30 J. B. Focht; 7.00 p. m., H. C. Holloway, D. D.

United Brethren—10.30, J. M. Reaick; 7.00 p. m., Charles Fickinger.

Evangelical—10.30 C. T. Aikens; 7.00 p. m., A. G. Wolf.

A. M. E.—10.30, W. J. Wagner; 7.00 p. m., J. I. Stoncypher.

Y. M. C. A.—4.00 p. m., A. H. Spangler.

Shiloh—G. W. Leisher.

Boalsburg—Prof. T. C. Houtz.

Zion—F. Aurand.

The sermons were all good ones and the various congregations favored and enjoyed the change of ministers for the day.

During the Saturday session a plan for building a house for worn out ministers was discussed and will probably materialize ere long. The delegates elected to the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg are Revs. G. W. Leisher, J. B. Focht and E. E. Hoshour; Lay, J. G. Halderman and Clement Dale, Esq. Trustees to the Orphans Home: Rev. Charles Fickinger, Messrs. John Fleisher and J. B. Hall.

A pleasant incident occurred on Sunday which will be of interest to older residents of Bellefonte, who will remember that thirty one years ago what was known as the Union Reformed and Lutheran church stood on the corner of Linn and Spring streets, at that time on the outskirts of town. It was in that building, on the first Sunday in October, that Rev. W. H. Schock, now pastor of the church at New Berlin, Union county, was ordained. Just thirty one years from that day, or last Sunday, he was telling the people all about what our town looked like in '02, but there were six people listening to him who remembered the day of which he spoke, so he had to confine himself strictly to the facts. They were: Mrs. John Wagner, of Bellefonte; Hezekiah Hoy and wife, John Wetzel and wife and Henry Fishburn; all of whom were present when Rev. Schock was ordained.

The most important matter that came before the Synod for consideration was the investigation of the charge of embezzlement preferred against Rev. W. H. Diven, the man who has been custodian of the Synod's funds for many years. For some time suspicion had directed itself to his accounts and in secret session the members investigated the case here. Rev. Diven admitted that he had made false entries in his accounts, but could not see how he was short to the amount of $9,000 which appeared to be missing. It is said that the peculations have extended over a period of ten years. The Treasurer was dismissed from the ministry and turned his little property at Newport Pa., over to make good his shortage. He is 65 years old and was apparently much broken down over his disgrace.

The closing part of the programme was the ordination sermon, an able effort, delivered by Rev. C. S. McConnell, after which J. M. Axe, of Belleville; E. J. Wolf, R. B. Wolf, Centre Hall; W. J. Dunlap, Pine Grove Mills; Samuel Ulrich, Selingsgrove; G. Frank Snyder, Port Royal, who are pursuing their last year's course of study in the Theological Seminary, at Gettysburg, were located to preach. Reverends E. E. Blint, of Littlestown; George H. Reen, Mansfield, Ohio; W. J. Wagner, Centre Hall, were then ordained and received as regular members of the Synod.

The visitors were all well pleased with their entertainment here and left with a very favorable impression of Bellefonte. Next year they will meet at Lewistown.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Bellefonte P. O. Oct. 2, 1893.

W. G. Brown, Mrs. Lana Boyle, Harvey Erery, Mary Eckert, John Grech, Harry McKinley, Charles Price, Miss Mary Pane, Salbert Ramsey, W. E. Smith & Co., John Lister.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Dr. M. L. Houser is boasting over a little Grover at his house, and says he is a twelve pounder.

Our townsman, J. B. Ard, lost his valuable cow in the early part of the week from paratubercular fever.

The venerable George Kustaborder last week spent several days visiting relations in the lower end of the county.

Wm. Lutz Esq., one of Potter township's big farmers in company with his wife, Sunday with brother-in-law J. F. Meyers.

Mr. W. H. Sausserman, one of the Mountain city's prominent ward politicians, recently paid his widowed mother a brief visit.

Miss Bertie Meek is slowly, but we trust surely recovering from pulmonary trouble, since her return from the Columbian exposition.

Mr. George Everts, of Altoona, has located at the old blacksmith stand in town, asking a share of patronage. Competition is the life of trade.

Our jolly blacksmith, S. P. Irvin, is confined to his room with a bad eye, caused by a splint of iron penetrating the sight which is feared he will never recover.

We this week note the death of two old land marks. On Friday the 29th, inst. a large concourse of neighbors had assembled at the Pine Hill cemetery to take a last look at the remains of a former friend and neighbor, Thomas Strouse, who died at the home of his son-in-law, Harry Gehret, in Bellefonte, two days before of paralysis, at the great age of 88 years and 26 days. He was of german descent, a native of Northampton county, and 60 years ago located two miles west of State College then in the wilds. Subsequently some of his neighbors followed him and located in the same section which has since been known as Northampton. Of him it is written. He was a good citizen upright in all his dealings with his fellow men, filling many offices of trust in his congregation Lutheran, and taking an active part concerning the interest of the community in which he lived and reared a large family of children who mourn his death. His wife having died some years ago. Politically he was a Jeffersonian Democrat and in three score years he was not known to miss a general election.

We attended the funeral of our old and special friend Wm. Boyd McWilliams, on Friday last week, Sept. 29th, when his remains were laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery on the old hill side at Grayville, in the family lot, by the side of his forefathers. He belonged to one of the oldest Scotch-Irish Presbyterian families in this county and first saw the light of day April 4th, 1818, at the old McWilliams homestead, near White Hall, now owned and occupied by J. G. Bailey. Here in his fathers kitchen the first Sunday school was organized, when he was a lad of six summers, and was the last survivor to pass away. In his youth he consecrated himself with the church and for 47 years has been a ruling elder, in which capacity as a counselor he was not to be excelled. February 6th, 1844, he was married to Elizabeth Sample, the result of this union was 12 children, of which number 8, with the mother, survive. One who had so many excellencies with so few defects it is said, and truly to that the home, the church and the community have lost a truly noble man. The children are Cyrus B. of Altoona; William C. of Freeport Ill.; Mrs. J. C. Goben of Tyrone; Mrs. Robert Goheen and Mrs. Wm. Gardner, of Ballyville; and James, George and Mary E., at home. Four having died young. It was always a pleasure to visit in this pleasant and happy family and witness the love that existed between parents and children. But now the head of this christian household is gone. We can but think of him as among the just made perfect, when we recall the many kindly admonitions given in his firm though modest and retiring disposition. For 50 years he lived at the same place which, by his energy and industry he made one of the best farms on Spruce Creek. The beautiful home and surroundings showed the excellent judgment displayed in the admittance of his premises. During all his active life he never had an ache nor pain, not even in his last illness did he suffer, although for months he sat in his easy chair not able to lie down, with heart trouble, from which he was several times at death's door, but was in his usual health able to walk about the house and it was at the dinner table, while giving some directions about the out door work, that the messenger came paralyzing his tongue, and left side of which he died the following day. We bear our kindest sympathies to the widow and family who we commend to remember that their loss is his eternal gain and the separation of christian kindred spirits are followed by everlasting unions. Undertaker J. B. Heberling had charge of the burial services, while his pastoral friend, Rev. Ermintrout, conducted religious services, paying a glowing tribute to the departed, deploring the loss the church sustained. Basing his remarks on the 42nd psalm "as my heart panteth after Thee, oh my God."

Tribute of Respect.

At a recent meeting of the Port Matilda Cas. No. 210, K. G. E. the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our worthy and beloved brother, Allison Clay Sprankle therefore be it.

Resolved, That in the death of the departed we mourn the loss of a devoted brother who was worthy of our highest esteem and one whose every aim was to benefit and advance the interest of our order.

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the mandates of God who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Resolved, That the Castle convey to the family of the beloved brother this sincere expression of their profound sympathy in their great bereavement which they have sustained in the loss of one so noble and true.

Resolved, That Port Matilda Castle in loving testimony of his nobility and true honesty of purpose and faithful discharge of every duty assigned to him, proclaims its sense of sorrow deploring the loss of one so genial and proficient, trusting the Great Chief above in His omniscience has bestowed upon our departed brother that honor and glory which he may see fit at the end of his knightly crusade; and be it further more.

Resolved, That Port Matilda Castle drapes its charter for thirty days.

NON-PULL-OUT

is an arbitrary word used to designate the only bow (ring) which cannot be pulled off the watch.

HERE'S THE IDEA

The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the groove, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

It positively prevents the loss of the watch by theft, and avoids injury to it from dropping.

IT CAN ONLY BE HAD with Jas. Boss, Filled or other watch cases bearing this trade mark.

All watch dealers sell them without extra cost. Ask your jeweler for pamphlet, or send to the manufacturers.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS

I HAVE BEEN TOTALLY BLIND DR. SALM CURED ME

I have been totally blind in my right eye for some years, no medicine did me any good, so I consulted Dr. Salm who visits Johnstown every 4 weeks. The Dr. made a fine and successful operation; so that I can see once more very well. Any one wishing to see the catarrh can do so by calling on me at my home in Wilmore, Pa. I was 74 years old last May. JOHNSTOWN, PA. MARY LUTINGER.

WE ENTRUSTED OUR BOY CHEERFULLY TO HIS CARE!

Our little boy has been cross-eyed for some years and was gradually getting worse. We knew of some splendid work of Dr. Salm's in Ohio, so we entrusted him to his care. The operation was done in 1 minute's time and without pain and now the eyes are straight as you can see by pictures above.

CLOSURE OF THE TEARDUCT CURED BY DR. SALM.

I have had a good deal of trouble with my eyes for the last 6 years. Tears running over my cheeks continually. Dr. Salm called it closure of the tearduct and operated on the same and now I can keep my handkerchief in my pocket instead of wiping my eyes continually. INDIANA, PA. Mrs. MARTHA CARNEY.

A VERY SORE EYE CURED BY DR. SALM AFTER OTHER DRs. HAD ADVISED REMOVAL OF SAME.

My son Clement, now 9 years old, has had very sore eyes for 4 years; so much so that the Drs. advised the removal of one of them. We couldn't decide to have the eye taken out, so we brought him to Dr. Salm and to-day there isn't the least sign of an inflammation and he can see as well as ever. Just think of it after only two months treatment and without any operation. Centre Hall, Pa. Mrs. MAGGIE LOVE, Centre Co.

CATARH AND EAR TROUBLE CURED AFTER 7 YEARS STANDING BY DR. SALM.

For 6 or 7 years I have been suffering with a bad case of catarrh; gradually became worse and worse. The last two years my ears began to trouble me a good deal and became rather hard of hearing; they ached a good deal and began to discharge a lot of very offensive matter. Now after a course of treatment I must confess that I am highly pleased; for I can hear as well as ever and have no more aches nor pains nor running of ears. Pindilton, Pa. L. A. REISF. Cambria Co.

82 YEARS OLD AND MADE TO SEE AFTER TOTAL BLINDNESS BY DR. SALM.

I have been blind in my right eye for some years with Senile Cataract. I had heard a good deal of Dr. Salm. So I went to him 3 years ago last June and he operated on me without pain and the cataract was removed with fine success and to-day I can see just as well as 4 weeks after the operation. I can safely recommend the Dr. to suffering humanity. I am now 82 years old. Roaring Village, Pa. DANIEL COOGLY, Attn: Strong Co.

WAS REDUCED TO A WRECK AFTER 10 YEARS TERRIBLE SUFFERING OF CATARRH AND CHRONIC BRONCHITIS. DR. SALM CURED ME.

For 10 years I have suffered terribly with Catarrh or Bronchitis. The disease gradually extended to every other organ in my body, I became a physical and mental wreck. Have tried our best Drs. in the county, but I grew worse and worse until as a last resort I gave my case to Dr. Salm and I am glad to say that under his treatment I began to improve from the very first month. That distressing cough and fearful pain in my chest has left me, I need not gasp for breath any more and feel as strong as ever. The most wonderful of all is that I have not taken a single cold since the first month. Galitzin, Pa. JACOB VOZEL 64 years old. Cambria Co.

SUFFERED UNTOLD AGONIES FOR 15 YEARS, TRIED 7 DIFFERENT DRs. BUT GREW WORSE UNTIL TREATED BY DR. SALM.

For the last 15 years I have been suffering very much, have been treated by 7 different Drs.; nearly all of them gave me alliment a different name and gave me medicine accordingly. The result was that I became worse and worse, until at last I went to Dr. Salm who pronounced my disease to be the Bladder Kidneys and Stomach and treated me accordingly with the most splendid result, he has done me more good in one month than all others for 15 years, and feel once more like I did 16 years ago, no feeling of tiredness and fatigue hereafter, I can do my work and enjoy what was an impossibility heretofore.
