

BELLEFONTE IN 1829.—Sixty-four years ago Bellefonte was not the beautiful substantial town that travelers, who are whirled into it to-day over well-operated railroads, find it. In those days if our town was an objective point, the traveler was unusually found astride a horse, wending his way tediously over poorly broken roads and constantly on the alert lest some highwayman spring from ambush and kill him. The town, when reached, was the spot at which 699 whites and 67 colored people made their homes. Even at such an early day it supported a newspaper and history tells us that the Bellefonte Patriot was a factor of no small significance in county affairs, though the year before when it supported Adams in his run against Andrew Jackson the county gave "old Hickory" a majority of 1545, which leads us to conclude that the Democrats will have to hustle this year if they want to do as good as their ancestors did then.

The town was then a busy mercantile centre. The beginnings of many of the fortunes owned by our people to-day can be seen on the pages of Bellefonte's history as early as '29. But as a manufacturing place it amounted to something also. There was the old Harris saw and grist mills, which stood on the present site of the Phoenix flouring mills, and sawed boards for nearly all the county and ground grists for a large trade. The Valentine brothers, Samuel Jacob, George and Reuben, and W. A. Thomas, had purchased the old Bellefonte Forge eight years previous, for $14,000, and were doing a flourishing business both in the forge and the rolling mill which they built in 1824. Besides these two substantial industries there were a number of less important.

As to the inhabitants of our town then, a glance over the tax duplicate for the year 1829, which has been furnished us through the courtesy of Mr. E. I. Gilliland, of Poitsdale, Pa., whose uncle was the Collector, will convince the most skeptical that Bellefonte's penchant for illustrious citizens dates almost from the founding of the town.

On the list will be found the names of such men as John Bigler, who was later elected Governor of California; John Blanchard, the illustrious father of E. M. Blanchard Esq., of this place, who represented the district in Congress; and then there is that well known name of Judge Thos. Burnside, who was at that time one of the most eminent jurists in the State. It is said of him that he paddled a boat whenever and wherever he met one, because he always vowed "that if a boy wasn't going into devilment he was coming from it" and consequently always stood in need of a "tannin." Among the "Single Free-men" we see the name of that old time axe maker, Harvey Mann, whose name figures in the beginning of the town of Axe Mann and the manufacture of the celebrated "Red Mann Axe" in this country. He had not yet married. Then Andrew Gregg, the man who afterwards represented Pennsylvania in the U. S. Senate, was a rising citizen of the town. He was Ex-Governor Curtin's grand father. We had a man then who was cut out for a Supreme Court judgeship and he got it too. Judge Charles Huston was the fellow.

On the site on which this office now stands Robert Hayes, who was then a young man, later erected a large tannery and he and Jimmy Williams, who was boss of the best establishment across where the Bush House now stands, used to "scrap" about which one had the best hides.

Among the citizens of note then who gained popularity not because of political or business success was "old Ben" Stauber, who was a hatter by trade. That poor man found life miserable in his declining years for Dr. Dobbins, then young Jimmy Dobbins, and all the rest of the bad boys in town were wont to hollow at him.

"Old Ben Stauber.
The cat tail robber."

And so as we follow the list on down we find many names the sight of which recall old told yarns of those early days in our town's history, but want of time precludes further telling of them to-day. The following is an exact copy of the tax duplicate of that year so you can read for yourself and compare the taxes of great men then with your own.

CENTRE COUNTY, SS:
THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA TO Franklin B. Smith, Collector of Bellefonte Town.

GREETING: We command you, on the receipt of this warrant, to demand and receive from every person in this your duplicate named, the sum or sums wherewith such person stands charged, and on the 1st day of June next, at Bellefonte, pay to the proper treasurer of the county aforesaid all such monies as you may have at that time received; at which time and place, a board of commissioners will attend in order to make abatement for mistakes and indigent persons; after which time, we command you to collect the remainder of the tax; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to make payment within the space of thirty days after such demand; we command you to levy the tax by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such delinquent; giving ten days notice of such sale, by written or printed advertisements; and if any goods and chattels cannot be found sufficient to satisfy the same, with costs of sale; we command you to take the body of such delinquent into custody, and convey him to the jail of the county aforesaid, there to remain until the taxes and costs be paid, or he be otherwise legally discharged by due course of law. GIVEN under our hands and seal of office, at Bellefonte, the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1829.

Pine Grove Mentions.

Rev. C. I. Aikens is this week taking the last look at the Columbian exhibition.
Mrs. Mary A. Furey is spending a week in Bellefonte with relations where she always reports having a pleasant time.
Miss Sallie Wagner, one of Rock Forge's accomplished young ladies, is greeting her legion of friends in this vicinity this week.
Miss Elsie Fortney is convalescing nicely and we trust surely from injuries received by a mis-step and falling down the cellar stairs which might have resulted more seriously.
Ferguson Potter, one of Harris township's solid men, carried ashle in our town last week apparently in the interests of the poultry business of which he is showing up some fancy breeds.

Mr. Charley Matts, of Benner Run, last week occupied the Burchfield house on Water street, and swung his mechanical shingle out at the Chas. Smith carriage shops, expecting a share of public patronage in his line of blacksmithing.
Mr. John Strouse, one of Benner township's rock-ribbed Democrats, accompanied by his excellent wife, came up last Saturday to size up Ferguson's majority which he will find all solid, after the second Tuesday of November, for the entire ticket.

In our last letter we recorded Mrs. Musser's injuries as being only a sprain, but her medical attendant, Dr. G. H. Woods, found the one bone broken above the ankle and properly adjusted the break. The unfortunate lady is patiently reclining in her easy chair.

Miss Mary Ward is visiting her brother, J. Herbert Ward, at Sunbury, where she will remain some weeks, owing to the death of his wife who will be remembered as a most pleasant and graceful lady, she visited at the home of Jas. Ward, on Main street, last summer.

Ex county-Treasurer Chas. Smith, of Bellefonte, last week floated through this end of the County in the interest of his patrons in the insurance business. Charlie has his weather eye open to the interests of his party. He says the entire Democratic ticket will be elected by large majorities.

S. P. Irvin Esq., whose injuries we mentioned in a previous letter, started for Philadelphia on the last Monday p. m. train, accompanied by his medical attendant, Dr. Houser, with a view of placing Mr. Irvin in charge of an eye specialist. For a month Mr. Irvin has suffered intense agony and it is feared the diseased organ will be lost.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS

I HAVE BEEN TOTALLY BLIND DR. SALM CURED ME
I have been totally blind in my right eye for some years, no medicine did me good, so I consulted Dr. Salm who visits Johnstown every 4 weeks. He made a fine and successful operation, so that I can see now very well. Any one wishing to see the catarrh can do so by calling on me at my home in Wilmore, Pa. I was 74 years old last May.
Johnstown, Pa. MARY LITZINGER.

W E ENTRUSTED OUR EYES CHEERFULLY TO HIS CARE.
Our little boy had been cross-eyed for some years and was gradually getting worse. We knew of some splendid work of Dr. Salm's in Ohio, so we entrusted him to his care. The operation was done in 30 minutes' time and without pain and now the eyes are straight as you can see by pictures above.

CLOSURE OF THE TEARDUCT CURED BY DR. SALM.
I have had a good deal of trouble with my eyes for the last 4 years. Tears running over my cheeks continually. Dr. Salm called it closure of the tearduct and operated on the same and now I keep my handkerchief in my pocket instead of wiping my eyes continually.
Indiana, Pa. Mrs. MARTHA CARNEY

A VERY SORE EYE CURED BY DR. SALM AFTER OTHER DRs. HAD ADVISED REMOVAL OF SAME.
My son Clement, now 9 years old, had had very sore eyes for 4 years; so much so that the Drs. advised the removal of one of them. We wouldn't decide to have the eye cut out, so we brought him to Dr. Salm and to-day there isn't the least sign of an inflammation and he can see as well as ever. It was 2 1/2 months treatment and without any operation.

CATARH AND EAR TROUBLE CURED AFTER 7 YEARS STANDING BY DR. SALM.
For 6 or 7 years I have been suffering with a bad case of catarrh; gradually becoming worse and worse. The last two years my ears began to trouble me a good deal and became rather hard of hearing; they ached a good deal and began to discharge a lot of very offensive matter. No after a course of treatment I must confess I am highly pleased; for I can hear as well as ever and have no more aches nor pains nor running of ears.

82 YEARS OLD AND MADE TO SEE AFTER TOTAL BLINDNESS BY DR. SALM.
I have been blind in my right eye for some years with Sanile Catarah and had heard a good deal of Dr. Salm. So I went to him 3 years ago last June and he operated on me with fine success and to-day I can see just as well as 4 weeks after the operation. I can safely recommend the Dr. for suffering humanity. I am now 82 years old.

WAS REDUCED TO A WRECK AFTER 10 YEARS FEARFUL RAVAGES OF CATARRH AND CHRONIC BRONCHITIS. DR. SALM CURED ME.
For 10 years I have suffered terribly with Catarrh or Bronchitis. The disease gradually extended to every other organ in my body. I became a physical and mental wreck. Have tried our best Drs. in the county, but I grew worse and worse until as a last resort I gave my case to Dr. Salm and I am glad to say that under his treatment I began to improve from the very first month. That distressing cough and fearful pain in my chest has left me. I need not gasp for breath any more and feel as strong as ever. The most wonderful of all is that I have not taken a single cold since the first month.

SUFFERED UNTOLD AGONIES FOR 15 YEARS, TRIED 7 DIFFERENT DRs. BUT GREW WORSE UNTIL TREATED BY DR. SALM.
For the last 15 years I have been suffering very much, have been treated by 7 different Drs., nearly all of them gave me salient different names and gave me medicine accordingly. The result was that I became worse and worse, until at last I went to Dr. Salm who pronounced my disease to be of the Bladder Kidneys and Stomach and treated me accordingly with the most splendid result, he has done me more good in one month than all others for 15 years, and feel once more like I did 16 years ago, no feeling of weakness and fatigue as heretofore, I can do my work and enjoy what was an impossibility heretofore.
