

Ink Slings.

We have honest money, now let us have work wherewith to earn it.

Cranks, manufacturers of firearms, undertakers. Can there be collusion?

We suppose there is a face in Congress that has not been as BLAND as of old, since the passage of the Repeal bill.

There is a glorious halo of success lingering over the closed World's Fair gates that thrills every American with honest pride.

Politics make strange bed fellows murmured SMITH as he crawled out of the dog house the morning after the grand mass meeting.

Some one has said that "it takes a crank to make the world go," to which we add without fear of contradiction, it takes a crank to make the people fly.

CLEVELAND held them to it with a firm hand and the Senate at last passed the Repeal bill. The question is now will it have the desired effect on the country?

Money that does not work makes loafers of men who would willingly work if money would do its share. Working money makes working men.

There can be no election under the laws of the United States that is not of importance to every citizen. It is your duty, therefore, to exercise your citizenship at every opportunity.

There is nothing that encourages a man so much as an occasional word of commendation. The most energetic often become disheartened when there is no one to say a good word of their effort.

We have heard of fool killers of various sorts, but the neck tie that caused a Williamsport dupe hostler to suicide, because he couldn't get it on properly, is the best one on record thus far.

There can be no excuse for Democrats to cut their tickets next Tuesday. You are called upon to support as fine a lot of candidates as ever were nominated by any party and if you do not do your duty you are not Democrats.

The Repeal bill is passed and the country is saved. So say the repealers. But still we have faith in the people and even had those Senators been given a longer opportunity to exercise their lungs the "dogs" were still a long way off.

Philadelphia is blowing because there is a young woman living in that city who has corn sprouting from her ear. That is nothing. Why right here in Bellefonte we have scores of girls with scores of corns full grown on their toes.

JAMES J. CORBETT, the champion American prize fighter, has given up all claim to his title of "gentleman Jim" by trying to stir up bar room fights in New York. It appears he is tired playing the role of a gentleman and has let the brute in him dominate.

The recent discovery that many of Uncle SAM's boats are top heavy and consequently unseaworthy is not at all surprising. Most everything the Republicans have undertaken for years has been top heavy and needs considerable ballast to get it straightened up.

Those war clouds are gathering all over continental Europe again and just at the dawn of a possible era of peace there is an appearance of awful rapine, burning and slaughter. An appearance only, mark you; for we still have hope that the clouds will turn out to be nothing but wind as they have done so many times before.

Some one has said that the muscles are the engines of the body. If this be so we find as many varieties of engines in human beings as there are known in mechanics. For instance, the muscles of Senator ALLEN's jaws would be known as a gas engine, while all the muscles of the corner loafer would properly combine to make a stationary engine.

It has taken twelve weeks to undo that Republican measure, the SHERMAN bill, which threatened to break the government's credit, but Congress will not fool so long with the tariff when it once gets to work on it. Something will be done whereby working people, will have more savings when they are turned out of work. The cost of necessities will be reduced and our people will be the better able to withstand hardships.

The Republicans are making a great cry that fear of a reduction of the tariff has caused manufactories to close, thereby throwing thousands of workmen out of work. They follow such statements up with pitiful tales as to the suffering in the humble home of the honest, though unemployed laborer. Do they tell any such stories about the owner of the manufactory? No, because he is rolling in wealth that protection has given him at the expense of his workmen.

Democratic Watchman

VOL. 38. BELLEFONTE, PA., NOV. 3, 1893. NO. 43.

The Tariff in This Campaign.

It is amusing to see the uphill work which the Republican politicians are having in trying to work the tariff into the exceedingly dull campaign that is going on in this State.

An Amusing Assumption.

The esteemed Press, of Philadelphia, has made the discovery that the repeal of the Silver purchasing clause of the SHERMAN act came within an ace of being a failure in consequence of a faint-hearted disposition of the repealers to show the white feather at the crucial period of their movement.

Unnecessary Apprehension.

It is hardly possible that the Republican alarmists who have used the "free trade" bugaboo for political effect, had any belief whatever in what they said about the intention of the Democrats in regard to the tariff.

Democrats Think About It.

From the Doylestown Democrat. Democrats, what has been done and what are you doing, to get the vote out on election? Have you made all needful arrangements, and left nothing undone that should be done, before the day of election?

Office Seeking Mania—Its Fruits.

From the Philadelphia Record. The office-seeking insanity is one that alienists in the United States should carefully study. There are many men like Prendergast in the country who, when they do not get the places in the public service they ask for or consider themselves entitled to, are ready to make themselves dangerous.

Must We Then Wear Feathers and Brown Paint.

From the Lancaster Intelligencer. A young gentleman of Williamsport, who was notably neat and correct in his dress, although occupying the somewhat unfashionable position of hostler, committed suicide on Saturday night, because his necktie would not fit.

Idle Working Men, Look Here.

From the Greensburg Argus. Idle workingmen, look here. If a reliable employer should ask you to go to work for him to-morrow, would you refuse, and remain idle, for fear wages next year might be low?

A Late Lie That Won't Stand Daylight.

It was to be expected that on the eve of the election Republican campaign lies would be started thick and fast, but no one imagined that party so hard up as to give currency to the silly reports they are now attempting to use for the benefit of their candidate HARTER.

Vote your ticket straight.

A Protection For Them.

It is a stinging commentary on the benefits protection furnishes the laborer to see the number who are out of bread as soon as the factory, mill, or mine in which they are employed stops.

Vote for GOODHART and ADAMS for Commissioners.

Mr. CONDO continues becoming popular among the people with whom he comes in contact. He has been traveling over the county carefully meeting everyone whom it has been possible for him to see.

Vote for Dr. FRANK for Coroner.

No one can say that he ever insulted the people of the county as did HARTER if he said "the intelligence of the country is in the Republican party."

Vote for ROYER and BICKLE for Auditors.

Vote for MILES for Treasurer.

Never! He Must Hang.

The murderer of Mayor Harrison knew enough to buy a revolver with which to shoot, knew enough to go to the house of his victim and use it, and knew enough to run away after his deadly work was finished.

A York County Assertion That is Ap- plicable Here.

From the York Gazette. Democrats will be utterly blind to their own interests who will vote to keep a single man on the Democratic ticket out of the office for which he is named.

Spawls from the Keystone.

- The Kidd Theatrical Company disbanded at Shamokin.
-Elijah Dechert was fatally injured by a train at Lebanon.
-The fight in Pottsville on the city charter question is red hot.
-Mt. Carmel and Shamokin, ten miles apart will be joined by trolley.
-By a premature blast in a Pittston colliery James Patten was torn to pieces.
-The railroaders' Grievance Committee was in session Monday at Bethlehem.
-Slate in paying quantity has been discovered at Millersburg by David H. Steover.
-The corner-stone of the Salem Evangelical church at Audenried was laid Sunday.
-Shuylkill region miners will this month receive wages 3 per cent. above the $2.50 basis.
-A thousand Hallowe'en masqueraders turned out in parade at Chester Tuesday night.
-At Schuylkill Haven, Brakeman J. D'Binckley was crushed to death by a pusher engine.
-Governor Pattison has appointed Albert C. Harrick Alderman of the Ninth ward at Williamsport.
-Benjamin Thompson, of Altoona, is in jail, charged with criminal assault upon his 9-year-old daughter.
-A charter was granted to the Taylor-McCoy Coal and Coke Company, of Gallitzin, capital $50,000.
-Irwin Riegel, who is wanted at Easton to answer charges of fraud and forgery, is now in jail there.
-The death warrant was read to Angelo Zappe, at Pittsburg, who will be hanged December 14.
-A stranger who slept in John Hartman's barn, near Fleetwood, was found dead Saturday morning.
-While in a bar room at Red Lion, York county, John Weaver, of New York State, dropped dead.
-It is feared that John Prowell, of New Cumberland, who disappeared five days ago, was murdered.
-Lehigh Valley Brakeman Patrick O'Malley was squeezed to death between the car couplings at Pittston.
-Dr. J. H. Jenkins, of Oneida, was struck by a Delaware and Susquehanna express and dangerously hurt.
-A vicious horse knocked down Harry Frey, of Lancaster, and trampled upon him, inflicting critical injuries.
-Twenty-eight residents of Reading have sued the city because their cellars were flooded through defective sewers.
-The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company contemplates important changes that will benefit the Easton car shops.
-The three unknown victims of the Pennsylvania Railroad wreck at Harrisburg were buried there in the potter's field.
-Having disappeared eight years ago, Christopher Hershney's estate at Lititz was disposed of and now Hershney has turned up.
-John Fritz, for 33 years superintendent and recently made consulting engineer of the Bethlehem Iron Company, has resigned.
-The Supreme Court, sitting at Pittsburg, decided that Linn, of Clarion county, was not a common nuisance simply because he used oaths.
-George B. White, a prominent tanner of Bedford, is to be taken to Boston to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.
-James Toolan, of Brooklynn street, Carbon dale, on Saturday began an action in trespass against the Carbon dale Traction company for $10,000.
-President Cleveland has pardoned F. Hull, of Lancaster, serving a five years' sentence for aiding in looting the Lincoln National Bank of $40,000.
-The wife of A. J. Dress, imprisoned at Reading, has mortgaged her property to a citizen of that place in order to get him to go her husband's bail.
-Having left behind him in Easton debts amounting to $10,000, Irvin Flegle fled to Watertown, Pa., whither an officer has gone to capture him.
-Miss Louisa Brosius and Arthur McCurdy, of Sunbury, were quietly married at Elmira Wednesday. The event was a surprise to their friends.
-Prisoners James Styler and Charles Bowers were caught by Underkeeper Lerch Monday in the act of digging their way out of the Harrisburg jail.
-Dr. I. N. Kerlin, the superintendent of the Pennsylvania Training School for feeble minded children at Elwyn, near Media, is in a precarious state of health.
-Goshenhoppen refused to dismiss the St. Stephen's Reformed church, of Pottstown, to the Philadelphia Classis, and to take it a German Reformed church.
-In a head-end collision of freight trains on the New York and Lake Erie Railroad, near Honesdale, Fireman Peter Haddock, of Port Jervis, N. Y., was killed.
-Rev. Dr. William C. Shaefler, pastor of the Huntingdon Reformed church, has received a call from Catawba college in North Carolina to fill the chair of theology.
-Mrs. Katharine Manony, living along the Sugar run road, was gored Saturday by a runaway steer, and it is feared that her injuries are so bad that she will die.
-Congressman Brosius, of Lancaster, is one of the few Representatives in this State who selects his cadet to West Point Military Academy by competitive examination.
-The Scranton and Pittston Traction Company, recently incorporated, has executed a mortgage with the Union Trust Company of Philadelphia as trustees, for $225,000.
-Seventy-year-old George Van Cam p, survivor of the Delaware Canal Company, jumped into the canal at Lambertville Monday and rescued little Robert Phillips from drowning.
-The five extra policemen, whom Mayor Hinkson, of Chester, appointed above the fixed number of 17, have won their suit for the five weeks' salary, but Controller Hawthorne will appeal.
-Lewis Slocum, a prominent citizen of Woodcock township, near Meadville, dropped dead from heart disease Monday. He was a brother of Charles R. Slocum, prothonotary of Crawford county.
-Four hundred secret society members attended the funeral of John C. Gilliland, at South Chester, Monday who died of blood-poisoning because he would not have his crushed feet amputated.
-Mayor Shanaman, of Reading, has issued a proclamation for the ringing of all the bells and blowing of all the whistles, on Friday, to greet the home-journeying Liberty Bell, and an escort of citizens and police will meet it.